Eggs were quoted up to 32 cents case count yesterday, and buying for storage was done at this figure. The market is strong and tending higher. There is much speculation as to what level the storage market will reach this Spring, and in some quarters it is believed 35 cents will be the maximum quotation. At the present time, operators are putting away eggs at a cost 60 per cent greater than a year ago. They will have to come out of storage at the same rate of advance to be profitable, and that will mean extremely high prices hox; dates, fard.

Wheat, flour and mill feed of all descriptions went soaring yesterday. At the Merchant's Exchange, where the session was the most exciting for several weeks, wheat bids were raised 7 to 11 cents over those of Friday. The feature of the session was the cale of 30,000 bushels of May bluestem at $2.08, an advance of 11 cents over the best bid of the preceding day.

The demand from California came through strong and this was largely responsible for the bulge in wheat. The East-ern inquiry was also good and there was buying by millers at all points. Copper Market Quiet.

NEW YORK, April 14.—The copper market has continued very quiet during the past week, with the tone unsettled or easier as a result of offerings from some of the smaller dealers at concessions. The spot position was practically near nominal today in the absence of offerings, while quotations for small lots of electrolytic ranged from about 32c to 33c for spot and second quarter, 29c to 31 for the third quarter, 28c to 29c for the fourth quarter. Some of the larger dealers are still said to be asking 30c to 32c for third and fourth quarter copper, but they are reported to be practically out of the market for the time being.

Iron was strong today, with prices unchanged.
