PAGE OF NEWS OF INTEREST TO HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Military Activity Now Competes With Dramatics and Research Pursuits in Hours Away From Classes.

Lincoln Girls in Cadet Corps Drill Regularly.

June Seniors to Give Class Play Friday Afternoon and Night—Col-lection of Cardinals Being Made. County Fair on Calendar for May.

BY MARGARET DUNIWAY.

ORE than 200 girls of the Lincoln M High School, not to be outdone by the boys, have organized a cadet corps. The first meeting of thte corps was beld Monday morning in the auditorium. George L. Koehn, of the faculty, eaptain of the boys' cadet corps, and now captain of the girls, spoke. The girls will drill every Tuesday and Thursday morning from 8 to 9 o'clock

In the streets around the school.

The first drill was conducted Tuesday afternoon. Other special drills to prepare for marching in the parade Thursday afternoon were held Wednesday.

All offices will be competitive.

All offices will be competitive.

Figure 1. The third termers won second place, with an average of $4.1 pounds; the seniors, third, $2.5 pounds; the first termers, fourth, $2.7 pounds; the second and fourth termers, fifth place, $3.6 pounds. The total of $2.7 pounds; the second and fourth termers, fifth place, $3.6 pounds.

All offices will be competitive.

All offices will be competitive.

The June '17 class will present its class play, "Our American Cousin," in the school auditorium Friday afternoon and evening of this week. Tickets are now being sold by the students. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged for the afternoon performance. Reserved sents for the evening performance can be obtained for 35 cents.

Henry C. C. Stevens, who left school recently to enlist in the Const Artillery, has rejurned and will take the part of as returned and will take the part of Asa Trenchard, as previously arranged The plot of "Our American Cousin" s as follows: Sir Edward Trenchard beth Kessi; Mary, Katharine Kerr; Au-gusta, Marian Spoerl; Georgina, Margaret Kubil; Sharpe, Ivy Glickman; Skillet, Mildred Nicol. Miss Marguerite Burnett, the librarian, is making an effort to obtain a for the winners. complete file of copies of the Cardinal. So far she has obtained all for the following years: 1907-8, 1911-12, 1912-13, 1913-14, 1914-15, 1915-16, Miss Leona L. Harrabee, of the faculty, has kindly given several numbers for the year 1857. The following numbers are still lacking from the list: 1857, September, October, November, December; 1898, January, February, May, June, September, October, November, December; 1898, January, February, March, April, May, June, September, October, November, December; 1900, January, March, April, May, June, September; 1901. February, March, April, September; 1901. February, March, April, September; 1903. February, March, April, May, June, September; 1903.

The third term sewing classes are, ferson will entertain the Trickler, as a review of their term's work, making silt and patch pockets and button-holes.

The third term sewing classes are, ferson will entertain the Trickler, as a review of their term's work, making silt and patch pockets and button-holes.

The third term sewing classes are, ferson will entertain the Trickler, as a review of their term's work, making silt and patch pockets and button-holes.

The third term sewing classes are, ferson will entertain the Trickler, as a review of their term's work, making silt and patch pockets and button-holes.

coln having those numbers will give been included in the honor roll of the first term students published last week: Sophle Hochield, Robert Shepherd, Golda Baker, Dorothy Swann, Margarat Agosti and Harold Karo.

The June '17 class will hold a county fair in the school gymnasium Friday night, May 11. An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged. Admission will also be charged to the various features. A part of the gymnastum will be re gramme will be staged. Many clever patriot and amusing "stunts" have been pre-gins, J. Kenney, Will Kessi and Ralph Strong; advertising, Margaret Duniway, Lamar, Hattle Peatt and Ray Martin. Wednesday Educational Bureau. of all the committees,

The new placards for the Teknophilae wilner in the recent waste paper cambulli be finished soon and posted in the various rooms every Wednesday, the day the club meets. The colors have been changed to blue and gold instead of lavender and gold. At the regular meeting Wednesday the raffia work to consider the later of the later o president, Evelyn Capell.

In the near future Miss Manley, the supervisor of the mentally deficient work in the city, will give a demonstration of the Binnet-Simon scale.

The life of Ruth was discussed at the meeting of the Tri-Ls Monday. The character sketch of Ruth was given by Erma Lace. Next Monday the society will receive classes. their pins.

that afternoon.

The Lincoln High School Alumni Association will hold a meeting Thursday evening in room A of the Central Library. All Lincoln graduates are invited.

Helen Morgan and Anna Taubele, of Miss Hedwig Bleeg's third-term domestic science class, gave a luncheon Wednesday for the following guests: Mrs. E. S. Morgan, Mrs. S. E. Morgan, Miss Hedwig Bleeg. Miss Winitred Kerr, Rosa Irving, Myrtle Jacobsen, Marcile Carlock, Thelma Hopkins, Lougher Taubele and Madeline Booth, The Gable,

menu was as follows: Lentil loaf with | vecmenu was as follows: Lentil loaf with tomato sauce, boiled greens, hot muffins, and apricot souffie.

The Spring issue of the Cardinal came out Friday. The cover design, that of an artist at work, was drawn by Harold Detje. All the contributions are exceptionally good.

The Tologeions and Philosxians gave a joint party in the school sympasium a joint party in the school gymnasium last evening. George L/Keehn and Miss Alta Hayward, both of the faculty, acted as chaperones.

James John High School.

BY ESTHER FITTERER. THE paper campaign was brought to An end Friday, April 13, the juniors leading with an average of 120.5 pounds per person. The third termers up the study of drama and are analyzing Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet."

The English IV classes are making a brief study of the short story as a help in producing a thriller of their

Robert E. Mallard, assisted by two is as follows: Sir Edward Trenchard and his daughter, Florence, are entertaining a number of guests in their home, Trenchard Manor, among whom are Mrs. Mountchessington and her two daughters, Georgina and Augusta, Lord Dundreary, Captain de Boots and Harry Vernon. Florence receives a letter from her brother in America telling her that her cousin, Asa Trenchard, Is coming to England to claim the estateleft him by his grandfather, Mark Trenchard. Asa then arrives and scandalizes this English family with his American talk and ways.

Coyle, Sir Edward's agent, has cut the releases off from the mortgage on Sir Edward's house, so he is unable to pay his debts. Asa and Murcott, Coyle's clerk, discover his villainy and save Sir #dward from ruin.

Mary Meredith, a poor relation, is the Mary Meredith, a poor relation, is the Columbia University Collseum several of his students, Miss Clarke and Mr. Rosen, gave an interesting programme

Mary Meredith, a poor relation, is the rightful but disputed heir to old Mark Trenchard's property. What Asa does concerning the Trenchard will and Mary's inheritance forms an important sports were not won by them their sports and the state of the sports and the state of the sports and the state of the At the track meet recently held at Mary's inheritance forms an important part of the plot.

Two other minor plots involve Georgina and Lord Dundreary and Augusta and Captain de Boots.

Following is the cast: Lord Dundreary, Carlos Laub; Asa Trenchard, Henry C. C. Stevens: Sir Edward Trenchard, John Chalmers: Captain de Trenchard, John Chalm

The following names should have A Economies Association was held a cafeteria luncheon on Tuesday. A number of students marched in the patriotic parade held Thursday after-

The following committees are in charge of the fair: Entertainment, Max Simons, Howard McGowan, Jessie Hug-Wilson.

The third-term students attended an Walter Schade and Alexander Brown; address given by Miss Ava Milam, of decorating, Marjorle Schoeneck, Helen the Oregon Agricultural College, on Lamar, Hattie Peatt and Ray Martin. Wednesday afternoon at the Parents' of invender and gold. At the regular new short afternoon courses for the meeting Wednesday the raffia work was continued under the direction of the organized under the instruction of Miss president Figure Continued under the direction of the organized under the instruction of Miss Riley and Miss Tingle. The topics will be "Food Preservation," "Stopping the Small Leaks in Housekeeping" and "Es-sentials of an Adequate Family Diet." Other short courses in cooking and serving may be organized to meet spe-rial demands. Names of preserving The Hakanakie Campfire Girls held cial demands. Names of prospective a business meeting Friday afternoon students are now being received at the office. The date will be announced later.

The second-term class was the prize-

The second-term classes held a "pie The Philolexians, Tologeions, Adelphians and Laurel Club held no regular meetings Thursday on account of the patriotic parade which took place that afternoon.

eating contest" in the girls gymnasium on Friday evening, April 13. Games and dancing formed the evening the patriotic parade which took place that afternoon. of the evening.

Several of the English classes went with Mrs. Clinton to see "A Tale of Two Cities" at the Majestic Theater on Wednesday afternoon

Lincoln was well represented in the big patriotic parade Thursday afternoon. Besides the boys' and girls' cadet corps, Lincoln students marched with the Girls' Honor Guard, the Multnomah Club section and the Boy Scouts. The faculty also marched in the parade.

Helen Morgan and Anna Taubels, of azine booth.

Wednesday afternoon.
An evening school exhibit and "open evening" were held Friday' evening. A sale of candy and magazines was held in aid of the Red Cross fund. The senior and junior classes sold ice cream. Those on the committee were William Peck, Freda Farschman, Raymond Clifford and Elma Krause. The second-term students had charge of the magazine booth.

CAST OF LINCOLN HIGH SCHOOL JUNE CLASS PLAY, "OUR AMERICAN COUSIN."

First Row, Left to Right-Mildred Nicol, Skillet; Margaret Kubli, Geoorgians; Gertrude Rosumny, Mrs. Mountchessington; Ivy Glickman, Sharpe; Elizabeth Kessi, Florence; Polly Kerr, Mary. Second Row, Left to Right-James Hamilton, Mr. Binny; Martin Sichel, John Wickens; Harry C. C. Stevens, Trenchard; Will Kassi, Captain DeBoots; Ira Berkey, Mr. Coyle; Ralph Strong, Mr. Buddleombe.

Washington French Students Organize Club.

"Fleur de Lys" Is Name Chosen. Patriotic Preparation Motif for Much Activity—Class Play Rehearsals Indicate Good Production.

Trenchard, John Chalmers; Captam de Bools, Will Kessi; Harry Vernon, Ralph Spearow, Abel Murcott, Howard McGowan; Mr. Coyle, Ira Berkey; Mr. Buddicombe, Ralph Strong; Mr. Binny, James Hamilton; John Wickens, Martin Sichel; Florence Trenchard, Elizabeth Kessi. As a result of their both for the organizations of the strong that the first strong the strong that the other than the ot more won sixth and seventh places in the half-mile run.

There was a minor paper campaign held between the boys and girls of the second term class. As a result of their loss the girls are planning a party for the boys on April 27, as was the bargain agreed upon at the beginning of the contest. There were also contests in other classes. The losing side of the junior class is now planning a pictoric to be given in the near future for the winners.

Bigiven along the line of ma feeling was manifest the march in spite of bad were dent body, presented the matter to the students. He told of the organizations that the other schools were planning to participate and asked that Washington students would turn out also. Many of the students signified their intention of marching, and Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons were spent in drilling Three squads of eight men cach had already been out for some time, and these are now competent to have squads of their own and will begin drilling them at once This is the The class play is progressive. to participate and asked that Washington students would turn out also of the city, the boys are still getting to students would turn out also of the city, the boys are still getting of Jefferson, Mr. Lester; solo, Haifred of the students greatly. Will go to entertain the intention of marching, and Tuesday and Weshington and aircady been out for some time, and these are now competent to have squads of their own and will begin for the society were learning the drill for the parade.

The Neakahni Literary Society held no meeting last week, as most of the members of the society were learning the drill for the parade.

The Seas play is progressing rapidly, and in spite of the fact that some of the sudents greatly. Young; selection by the school ordinated in the first greatly of Jefferson, Mr. Lester; solo, Haifred Young; selection by the school ordinated in the first greatly. Young; selection by the school of Jefferson, Mr. Lester; solo, Haifred Young; selection by the school ordinated in the first greatly. Young; selection by the school of Jefferson, Mr. Lester; solo, Haifred Young; selection by the school of Jefferson, Mr. Lester; solo, Haifred Young; selection by the school of Jefferson, Mr. Lester; solo, Haifred Young; selection by the school of Jefferson, Mr. Lester; solo, Haifred Young; selection by the school of Jefferson, Mr. Lester; solo, Haifred Young; selection by the school of Jefferson, Mr. Lester; solo, Haifred Young; selection by the school of Jefferson, Mr. Lester; solo, Haifred Young; selection by the school of Jefferson, Mr. Lester; solo, Haifred Young; selection by the school of Jefferson, Mr. Lester; solo, Haifred Young; selection by the school of Jefferson, Mr. Lester; solo, Haifred Young; selection by the school by Lester; solo, Haifred Young; selection by the school of Jefferson, Mr. Lester; solo, Haifred Young; selection by the school of Jefferson, Mr. Lester; solo, Haifred Young; selection by the school of Jefferson, Mr. Lester; solo, Haifred Young; selection by the school of Jefferson, Mr. Pictures have been taken of the various classes this last week for the form of organization that Colonel C. senior issue of the Tumplum.

On next Tuesday the Tri-Ls of Jef-ferson will entertain the Tri-Ls of Lin-coln and Washington with a party at

The third term domestic science girls tom, by the singing of the "Star Span-yember; 1905, May, December; 1906, May, December; 1907, January, March, October; 1907, January, 1909, January, October; 1907, January, 1909, January, October, November; 1910, September, November; 1911, April.

Miss Burnett will greatly appreciate It if any student or graduate of Lin-It if any student or graduate of Lin-It if any student or graduate of Lin-It is any student or BY VIOLA ENGELE..

A MEETING of the Portland Home Economics Association was held Tuesday afternoon in the art room, where an exhibit of photographs of Japanese life and scenery collected by Tuesday afternoon in the art room, where an exhibit of photographs of Japanese life and scenery collected by Miss Tingle was used to illustrate a lecture on Japan.

Thirty members of the Beaumont and Rose City Park associations visited the various departments of the school after a cafeteria luncheon on Tuesday.

The French students of the first and

The French students of the first and single second terms met in room 9 to organize a club on Tuesday, March 27. "Fleur de Lys" was the name chosen. The following officers were elected: Pres-ident, Mauna Loa Fallis; vice-president, Midred Herbert; secretary, Helen Whit-ing; treasurer, Agnes Black; critic, Lucia Watson; sergeant-at-arms, Donald MacPherson, and editor, Blanche Linnehan on "Essentials of Debating."

Then came a debate by the members of the seventh-term girls' debating class.
Both these numbers were well worth

The Lens came out on Friday. The issue is a good one, and the students were much pleased with it. As Mar-jory Rood, the editor, is not in school, the next issue will be in charge of Eugene Kelty, associate editor. The rain on Thursday did not prevent pose of interesting the students in the Washington from turning out the larg-patriotic parade which was held on est contingent of all the high schools.

Strings." The Girls' League held a meeting on Thursday morning, at which it was decided by the members of this organization that it would participate in the military movement, to the extent of forming a company and going in for Milwaukie High School Notes.

BY DOROTHY WISSINGER. The high school was given half holi-day Thursday that the students might attend the patriotic parade.

The English 8 class is studying the Tale of Two Cities," by Charles Dick-

The student body held a meeting on Wednesday and elected Dorothy Wissinger manager of the tennis associa-

The May '17 class was again victorious in winning the half holiday Friday or having the highest average in attendance for the month. They hold the record for this semester in winning all

Ross.

The Phrenodiken Debating Society held a meeting on Friday afternoon that was much enjoyed by all of those who attended. The programme was called a debating programme, and was interesting. The aviation corps.

Thursday's parade. He also talked on home gardening.

In the school gymnasium Friday the boys of the June class entertained the girls with a patriotic dance. The room was decorated with red, white and blue lights, flags and streamers. Unique programmes were designed by the boys, the unique programmes were designed by the boys, the farmers, and wildlemen of the country.

Milton Margulis announced Bessle Rogoway as Commerce's candidate in the scholarship contest now being conducted by the Union Meat Company, of Portland.

FICIENT THEMSELVES, WILL DRILL OTHER STUDENTS.

and Dance Success.

June Boys Entertain Girls at Novel Granasium Party — Art Class Studies Renalssance Masters. Thomas Jefferson's Memory Hon-ored.

Everybody marched, teachers and students, both boys and girls. Yells were given along the line of march, and good feeling was manifest throughout the march in spite of bad weather.

Although interscholastic athletics of the city, the boys are still getting of the city, the boys are still getting their regular exercise in the drilling the school of the city. The proceeding the school of the city of the school or their regular exercise in the drilling the school of the city. The proceeding the school of the city of the school or the importance as an example to modern civilization. The programme was are civilization. The prog Everybody marched, teachers and students, both boys and girls. Yells were given along the line of march, and good feeling was manifest throughout the march in spite of bad weather.

Tanged by members of the June class.

Mr. Jenkins also gave a most interesting biography of Jefferson and his importance as an example to modern civilization. The programme was ar-coming along satisfactorily. He expects to have a really worth while production in the end. The members of duction in the end. The members of duction in the end. The members of the cast practice each night. The fact that the Washington High School term toll and Washington with a parity at the Jefferson High School.

The Wednesday morning assembly was opened, as has now become the custom, by the singing of the "Star Span-"

The Wednesday of the "Star Span-"

The Star Span-"

The Wednesday of the "Star Span-"

The Wednesday of the "Star

in dancing.

them of all graduating necessities. This helped them greatly in making the decision in favor of a $6 dress.

A patriotic assembly was held Tuesday morning at 10:30. F. N. Haroun lead the school in singing "The Star-Spangled Banner." "The Battle Hymn Wednesday to arouse enthusiasm for Thursday's parade. He also talked on cipal Sproul read Wilson's recent adverse to the farmers, manufacturers.

Jefferson Alumni Meeting

THE Commerce Cadet Corps has vington Club Saturday, April 14, was a splendid social event. The hall was artistically draped in American flags, and with the numerous soldiers in uniform mingling throughout the hall, gave the affair the air and appearance of a real military ball. Bruce Stewart's splendid Royat Begonia Orchestra played for the dance. E. Fendall Young, president of the association, was instrumental in the success of the dance, and is a most enthusiastic worker for the Alumni.

Through the kindness of Miss Hendershot, the sewing teacher, the senior girls attended an exhibition which Lipman, Wolfe & Company arranged for them of all graduating necessities. This belong them of all graduating necessities. This belong them execution to making the decimal played for the dance of the dance, and is a most enthusiastic worker for the Alumni.

A talk on birda, by Mr. B. Bruce Horsald and Mr. Horsfall in a member of the Audubon Society and is one of the leading of Army As A M.

A talk on birda, by Mr. B. Bruce Horsald and Mr. Horsfall in a member of the Audubon Society and is one of the leading of Army As A M.

A talk on birda, by Mr. B. Bruce Horsald and Mr. Horsfall in a member of the Audubon Society and is one of the leading bird atualents of the Mark and Successful Business of the Most.

The Fir Tree," a poem by Ida Arnett, and "My Idea of a Successful Business Woman," by Vera Camplan. There were also two cartoons by Jack Solyan.

A patrictic assembly was held Tues—with the first April number of the Ledger member of the Audubon Society and is one of the leading bird atualents of the Mark and Rulk on Birda, by Mr. B. Bruce Horsald and Str. Hardson is all kins, head of the Audubon Society and is one of the Ledger member of the Audubon Society and is one of the Ledger member of the Audubon Society and is one of the Ledger fall, was enjoyed. Mr. Horsfall liustrated the Audubon Society and is one of the Ledger fall, was enjoyed. Mr. Horsfall in a the bruch of the Mark and Rulk on Birla charts and the Audubon Society and is one of the Ledge them of all graduating necessities. This helped them greatly in making the deand William Eliot each played a selection on the banjo, and Mr. Harlow played several pieces on the piano. Thirty new members were enrolled, and the remainder of the evening was spent in dealers. "Manual of Arms."

Clearly seen who are the most adept dents could drill for last Thursday plied with a six-page mimeographed copy of "The School of the Squad" and the they appointed their lieutenants.

The Science Club held its semi-

WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL DRILL SQUAD UNDER COLONEL C. E. DENTLER, WHO, WHEN PRO-

that the subscription price is $25 a and junior classes gave an informal dance in the gymnasium. Ice cream was sold to defray certain expenses.

The girls of the first and sec- invitations were extended to everyone

High School of Commerce.

BY FRANK BARTHOLOMEW.

The girls of the first and second term classes met yesterday for the purpose of launching a series of girls' athletic meets. Annette Hurwitt presided. Among the sports planned by the girls are basketball, baseball, tennis and track.

The girls who are back of the movement are Annette Hurwitt, Myrtle Goodnough, Olive Heller, Annette Schwartz, Natalie Mosorowsky, May Phelan, Irma Ridout, Frances Kane, Marie Lusich, Vera Bowe, Anna Ferguson, Julia Wilson, Ruby Bernstein, Vera Camplan, Mildred Hamel, Nina Lubeck, Buth Herns, Amy Hannan, Esther Golthring, Vera Sprague, Anna Kagel, Marathe Wolle, Frances Butzer, Elizabeth Rubenstein, Nettie Enkelis, Margaret Thomas and Emily Stone.

Ralph Morris has resigned his position as humor editor to The Ledger, on account of leaving school. It is understood that Henry Pander is to succeed him.

Lincoln High School won the Commerce last Wednesday.

At a meeting of the Modos last Wednesday the contract for the society's pins was let to Jaeger Bros, of Portland.

The following permanent committees here here here here here a new parts and the services of the purposition of the band in an extent of a graphiluse were extended to everyone who was interested. A large crowd who was present.

One of the brightest social events of the year was that given by Linn Cooper and his parents at their home in Richmond to the "Social Seven" Social Seven" Social Seven" Social Seven Social Sev

Portland.

The following permanent committees have been appointed for the remainder of the term: Membership committee, Clarence Wright, chairman, Bessie Rogoway, Marian Eastman, and programme committee, Elizabeth Puymbroeck, chairman, Blanche Duncan, Rebecca Solko, Franklin High Forms Squads for Clean-up Day.

and their wit was expressed in a few lines of poetry on the front of the programmes, which ran: For her we drink, for her we pray.

Our voices silent never;
For her we'll fight let come what may.
The Stars and Stripes forever.
On the inside the boys expressed their feeding for the girls in a few

There will never be women

Science Club of School Also Will Survey and Nap District for Fly Campaign—Glee Club Is Active. Boys Respond to Call to Arms.

There will never be women
Who can surpans
The girls of our June '17 class.

At a meeting Tuesday of the girls In the June class Marie Marshall made a motion that the precedent which was established by the members of last year's class that the girl's graduating dresses should not exceed $10 in cost be decreased to $6. The motion carried by unanimous vote.

Miss Fenerty's art classes have just taken up one of the most interesting phases of their work, the study of the lives of the early Renaissance painters.
They are laying much emphasis upon

They are laying much emphasis upon the study of the work of the great painters whose Madonnas in the Sisting chapel are famous the world over, such as Raphael's "Sistine Madonna" and Michelangelo's "Delphi Sybil."

Aday will be given over to the pro-

After the usual singing period Monday Raiph Thayer, captain of the track team, presented Mr. Jenkins the silver cup which the team won at the Columbia meet Saturday, April 14. Jefferson won the track championship this year with 37½ points, our nearest competitor being Columbia, with 29 points.

Next Thursday two of the Phi Delta will debate on the question, "Resolved, The cow is more beneficial to the universe than the horse." Henry Woernecks will uphold the affirmative, while Walter Roenicke will have the negative. On May 3 the Phi Deltas will debate the English seven class on the High School sang before the Wisconsin Species.

bate the English seven class on the road bond issue. Theodore Eliot and Fred Appelgren will oppose Henry Herzog and Allen Lester.

An assembly was held a week ago Friday for patriotic purposes. Mr. Ball Charles Prescott, Jefferson star basketball man, recently joined the Naval Marines. He was a letter man in football, hockey, basketball and track and department, to address the assembly. was the only one of his company of ten to be accepted for naval service. "Speck" Burke also passed a perfect examination. Ross Anderson, this year's manation. Ross Anderson, this year's manation and the basketball team, joined the Navy and leaves for Mare Island. The Boys' Glee Club sang several selectors was the only one of the basketball team, joined the Navy and leaves for Mare Island. Despite the loss of two of the best track men, Jefferson won the championship at the Columbia meet. It was an even race in all events, but Jefferson succeeded in capturing 27½ points.

Miss Agrees 18.

BY VALMA V. JONES.

FRIDAY. April 13, the birthday of Thomas Jefferson, was celebrated by a splendid musical programme arranged by members of the June class. Mr. Jenkins also gave a most inter son succeeded in capturing 37½ points. School.

Franklin boys have responded genterously to the call to the colors. Those in Company H are Ralph Dustan, Raymond Ellis, Archie Hoggatt and Raymond Fowell. Those in Company E are Figyd Olson, Arthur Simmons, Lilburn top is a National emblem of the eagle, with the boys' names at the bottom.

Those who have joined the Navy are Clarence Barbur Cecil Brown Kenneth

The cadet corps marched in a body at Thursday's parade under command of Mr. Mangold, of the faculty. This was scored points for Franklin were Hardel scored points for Franklin and Roswald

Duncan, George Powell and Roswald Peake. Nine points were scored. The "Philogomans" had to postpone their regular Thursday meeting on account of the patriotic parade. After one unsuccessful attempt arrangements have been made for a debate with the Goggles Debating Club. A subject of local integral have been in the consequence of the consequenc

The Science Club held Its semi-Beginning tomorrow the boys will The Alumni dance, held at the Irvington Club Saturday, April 14, was a splendid social event. The hall was artistically draped in American Ilags.

Deginning tomorrow the boys will drill regularly for the remainder of the most interesting this semester, A talk on birds, by Mr. B. Bruce Horsartistically draped in American Ilags.

of the club, who will report on all pos-sible fly-breeding places that come un-der his or her observation. A man will be drawn of the district and all the breeding places of files will be accur-ately marked on the map. This work as well as being instructive to the stu-dents will be of benefit to the Health

Benson Polytechnic-Boys.

BY RODNEY GRAFTON. THE night school gave its closing exhibit Friday evening at the Girls'

Instructor A. Rafael Vejar has posted a copy of "El Mercurio," a daily newspaper printed in Spanish, on the bulletin board. "El Mercurio" (The Mercury) is published at Santiago, Chile. It may interest the readers of the newspapers of this country to note that the subscription price is 255 and included all the senior that the subscription price is 255 and included all the senior and included

