

SOCIETY

MEMBERS OF FIRST AID
CLASS OF AMERICAN RED CROSS TO ASSIST AT PATRIOTIC TEA NEXT THURSDAY

Miss Evelyn Magruder
BUSHNELL-APR 29

of Mrs. Waller, at the home of Mrs. O. P. M. Jamison, 532 Main street, Wild Flowers, Spring branches daisies and daffodils were used and other features suggestive of April.

The hostesses were Mrs. H. P. Gates, Mrs. W. G. Stiles, Mrs. W. H. Hurlbutt, Mrs. W. B. Hinson and Mrs. Jamison. Other guests were Dr. Gertrude Lord Gates, Mrs. A. M. Petty, Mrs. Homer B. Jamison and Mrs. H. M. Clinton. Auto trips, rides on the highway, etc., have been planned for the Waller family when the weather will permit such recreation.

Phi Alpha Kappa members enjoyed a line party at the Orpheum Theater early in the week and preceded the affair by luncheon at the Hazelwood. The party was made up of the following: Eve Roscovitch, Lucille Brown, Pauline Heinze, Edythe Peel, Madeline Brown, Lina Brown, Edna Flood, Virginia Brown, Helen Jennings, Fay Beavon, Elsie Shirley, Fida, Fubels, Hazel Werden, Louise Watson, Helene Dorris, Helen Peel and Eunice Kelsey.

Portland Lodge, No. 416, Independent Order B'nai B'rith, will celebrate its 26th anniversary on Thursday evening, May 15, with a bazaar and dance at the B'nai B'rith building on Thirteenth and Mill streets. The entire proceeds of the affair are to go towards a fund to care for the dependents of soldiers and sailors who are giving their services to their country.

Among the prominent women who are helping to make the affair a success are the following: Mrs. Julius Louissou, chairman; Mrs. Lawrence Feldenheimer, assisted by Mrs. Marie Louise Feldenheimer, Miss Dorothy Lowenson, Miss Amy Rothchild and Miss Miriam Jacoby; Mrs. Albert M. Schweitzer, assisted by Mrs. Aaron Frank, Mrs. William H. Ehrman, Mrs. Francis Jacobs and Mrs. Edna Hirsch; Mrs. Roscoe E. Nelson, assisted by Mrs. Harry Lang, Mrs. Sidney Elser, Miss Freida Baruch and Miss Carolyn Simon; Mrs. Edward Kramer, assisted by Mrs. F. Schelmer, Miss Jane Sellar, Miss Elouise Lowenson and Miss Helen Bloch; Mrs. Harry Meyer, assisted by Miss Delphine Rosenfeld, Miss Irma Hart, Miss Dorothy Goldsmith, Miss Minette Schube and Miss Elsie Feldman; Mrs. I. L. White, assisted by Mrs. Louis Lang, Mrs. L. N. Lipman, Mrs. Roy Marx and Mrs. Felix Freidlander; Mrs. George N. Back, assisted by Mrs. Henry W. Metzger, Mrs. Julius L. Meier, Miss Mai J. Hirsch and Miss Marian Citron.

The following organizations will also take part: Council of Jewish Women, headed by Mrs. Ben Seiling, assisted by Mrs. Ben Neudor, Mrs. S. J. Freedman; Jacob Bloch Auxiliary, headed by Mrs. J. Sherman and assisted by the Misses Florence Bloch, Adrienne Shemansky and Alma Shemansky; Oregon Auxiliary, headed by Mrs. J. Savan and assisted by the Misses Belle Simon, Jeanette Scholzer, Elena Neudor and Cecil Rubenstein; and Theodor Herzl Lodge.

Music will be furnished by the Parker Jazz Band Orchestra. The committee of Portland lodge having the affair in charge are: Dr. M. M. Bettman, chairman; Charles F. Berg, Dr. Jonah B. Wise, Milton Freidenrich, Herman Politz, George J. Mannheim, Lee Hartstein, Jesse J. Rich and Edward B. Kramer, president.

One of the pleasant dancing parties of the week was that at the Irvington Club at which Mrs. C. C. Coit was the club hostess of the evening, assisted by other matron members of the organization.

Clan Macleay, Order of Scottish Clans, and Ladies' Auxiliary gave a very successful "gathering of the clans" dance

ing now than at any time in its history. More than 100 new members have been added since the beginning of the year.

Yesterday was a busy day at the clubhouse, as the juniors had their paper chase, and of course had it as their goal, and also that same afternoon the men had an open paper chase, followed by a stag dinner.

Saturday, May 5, is the last scheduled paper chase of the season, and as the score for the Multnomah Hotel trophy is so close, there will be a large number of spectators. That same evening a jitney dance at the club is planned.

The plans for the big event of the year, the Spring meet, are getting well under way, and with all the conditions so auspicious this meet promises to be the most successful ever held.

Mrs. Clarence Cole, of Seattle and Everett, and Miss Hazel Watts, of Scappoose, are in the city to assist Miss Frances Sheehy in her recital tomorrow evening at Ellers Hall. Mrs. Cole is the guest of Miss Sheehy, and is a charming woman with many friends in Washington, Oregon and California. As Miss Nellie Sloss, Mrs. Cole attended St. Helen's Hall and has been entertained in Portland as the guest of Mrs. Joseph Clark. Mrs. Cole's husband attended Bishop Scott Academy, and is known to many Portlanders as the famous quarterback of the Seattle Athletic Club.

Miss Watts is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Terry, in Irvington, and is a Wesley graduate of last year. Miss Watts will leave for the East the first week in May to become the bride of Vincent Cook, of Massachusetts.

At Kader Temple will be hosts for a dance and card party Wednesday night in the ballroom and tea gardens of Multnomah Hotel. L. G. Carpenter is chairman of the committee, and the affair promises to be interesting.

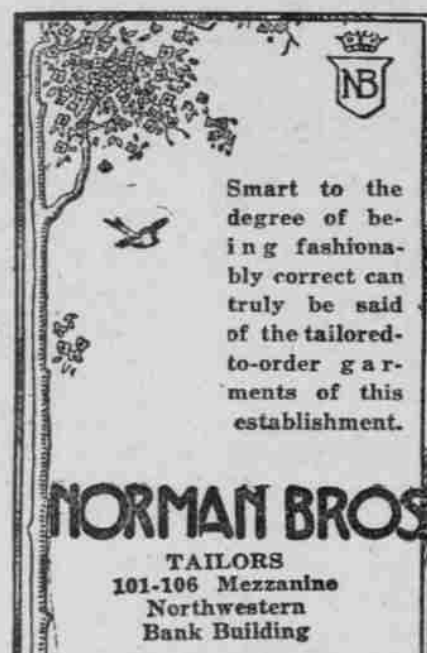

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Miss Katherine Bowiby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Bowiby, and Mr. Frank Hain Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lincoln Johnston, were married at the home of the bride's parents, at 1167 Hawthorne avenue, the ceremony, which was witnessed by relatives and intimate friends, being performed by Dr. Luther R. Dyott. Before the bridal party appeared Miss Ruth John sang "Because God Gives Me You," accompanied by Mrs. Samuel H. Pierce, who also played the wedding march. The bride was attended only by little Sarah Jane Henderson, a niece of the bridegroom, as flower girl.

The bride's wedding gown was of white Georgette crepe, embellished with tridescant beads. It was made short and full. She carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley. The nuptial knot was tied under a canopy of cherry blossoms and snapdragons, the room being decorated also with baskets of sweet peas, palms and potted hydrangeas. The ceilings were hidden with festoons of asparagus plumosa ferns, the color scheme being pink.

An informal reception followed the ceremony, to which about 100 guests were bidden. Mrs. Ione Townsend Welles, Miss Norma Sparks and Miss Ruth Johns sang. In the dining-room the color effect was yellow. Here Mrs. Milton B. Henderson, Mrs. Lawrence H. Bowiby, Mrs. Leland Townsend, Mrs. Rupert Snook served ices and poured. Assisting them about the room were Miss Ann Young, Miss Lucille Dunder and Mrs. Elmon Geneste (Irene Hunt). After a honeymoon at the beaches, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston will reside at the Imperial Arms Apartments.

The Apex Electric Washer
saves you
Money—Time
Worry—Labor
Health and Strength
2c worth of electricity is ample.
Pay with your laundry bills. Demonstration without obligation.
Eliminate Blue Monday—call now.
J. C. English Company
E. 1245.

Smart to the degree of being fashionably correct can truly be said of the tailored-to-order garments of this establishment.

NORMAN BROS
TAILORS
101-105 Mezzanine
Northwestern
Bank Building

ing now than at any time in its history. More than 100 new members have been added since the beginning of the year.

Yesterday was a busy day at the clubhouse, as the juniors had their paper chase, and of course had it as their goal, and also that same afternoon the men had an open paper chase, followed by a stag dinner.

Saturday, May 5, is the last scheduled paper chase of the season, and as the score for the Multnomah Hotel trophy is so close, there will be a large number of spectators. That same evening a jitney dance at the club is planned.

The plans for the big event of the year, the Spring meet, are getting well under way, and with all the conditions so auspicious this meet promises to be the most successful ever held.

Mrs. Clarence Cole, of Seattle and Everett, and Miss Hazel Watts, of Scappoose, are in the city to assist Miss Frances Sheehy in her recital tomorrow evening at Ellers Hall. Mrs. Cole is the guest of Miss Sheehy, and is a charming woman with many friends in Washington, Oregon and California. As Miss Nellie Sloss, Mrs. Cole attended St. Helen's Hall and has been entertained in Portland as the guest of Mrs. Joseph Clark. Mrs. Cole's husband attended Bishop Scott Academy, and is known to many Portlanders as the famous quarterback of the Seattle Athletic Club.

Miss Watts is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Terry, in Irvington, and is a Wesley graduate of last year. Miss Watts will leave for the East the first week in May to become the bride of Vincent Cook, of Massachusetts.

At Kader Temple will be hosts for a dance and card party Wednesday night in the ballroom and tea gardens of Multnomah Hotel. L. G. Carpenter is chairman of the committee, and the affair promises to be interesting.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Miss Katherine Bowiby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Bowiby, and Mr. Frank Hain Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lincoln Johnston, were married at the home of the bride's parents, at 1167 Hawthorne avenue, the ceremony, which was witnessed by relatives and intimate friends, being performed by Dr. Luther R. Dyott. Before the bridal party appeared Miss Ruth John sang "Because God Gives Me You," accompanied by Mrs. Samuel H. Pierce, who also played the wedding march. The bride was attended only by little Sarah Jane Henderson, a niece of the bridegroom, as flower girl.

The bride's wedding gown was of white Georgette crepe, embellished with tridescant beads. It was made short and full. She carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley. The nuptial knot was tied under a canopy of cherry blossoms and snapdragons, the room being decorated also with baskets of sweet peas, palms and potted hydrangeas. The ceilings were hidden with festoons of asparagus plumosa ferns, the color scheme being pink.

An informal reception followed the ceremony, to which about 100 guests were bidden. Mrs. Ione Townsend Welles, Miss Norma Sparks and Miss Ruth Johns sang. In the dining-room the color effect was yellow. Here Mrs. Milton B. Henderson, Mrs. Lawrence H. Bowiby, Mrs. Leland Townsend, Mrs. Rupert Snook served ices and poured. Assisting them about the room were Miss Ann Young, Miss Lucille Dunder and Mrs. Elmon Geneste (Irene Hunt). After a honeymoon at the beaches, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston will reside at the Imperial Arms Apartments.

ing now than at any time in its history. More than 100 new members have been added since the beginning of the year.

Yesterday was a busy day at the clubhouse, as the juniors had their paper chase, and of course had it as their goal, and also that same afternoon the men had an open paper chase, followed by a stag dinner.

Saturday, May 5, is the last scheduled paper chase of the season, and as the score for the Multnomah Hotel trophy is so close, there will be a large number of spectators. That same evening a jitney dance at the club is planned.

The plans for the big event of the year, the Spring meet, are getting well under way, and with all the conditions so auspicious this meet promises to be the most successful ever held.

Mrs. Clarence Cole, of Seattle and Everett, and Miss Hazel Watts, of Scappoose, are in the city to assist Miss Frances Sheehy in her recital tomorrow evening at Ellers Hall. Mrs. Cole is the guest of Miss Sheehy, and is a charming woman with many friends in Washington, Oregon and California. As Miss Nellie Sloss, Mrs. Cole attended St. Helen's Hall and has been entertained in Portland as the guest of Mrs. Joseph Clark. Mrs. Cole's husband attended Bishop Scott Academy, and is known to many Portlanders as the famous quarterback of the Seattle Athletic Club.

Miss Watts is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Terry, in Irvington, and is a Wesley graduate of last year. Miss Watts will leave for the East the first week in May to become the bride of Vincent Cook, of Massachusetts.

At Kader Temple will be hosts for a dance and card party Wednesday night in the ballroom and tea gardens of Multnomah Hotel. L. G. Carpenter is chairman of the committee, and the affair promises to be interesting.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Miss Katherine Bowiby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Bowiby, and Mr. Frank Hain Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lincoln Johnston, were married at the home of the bride's parents, at 1167 Hawthorne avenue, the ceremony, which was witnessed by relatives and intimate friends, being performed by Dr. Luther R. Dyott. Before the bridal party appeared Miss Ruth John sang "Because God Gives Me You," accompanied by Mrs. Samuel H. Pierce, who also played the wedding march. The bride was attended only by little Sarah Jane Henderson, a niece of the bridegroom, as flower girl.

The bride's wedding gown was of white Georgette crepe, embellished with tridescant beads. It was made short and full. She carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley. The nuptial knot was tied under a canopy of cherry blossoms and snapdragons, the room being decorated also with baskets of sweet peas, palms and potted hydrangeas. The ceilings were hidden with festoons of asparagus plumosa ferns, the color scheme being pink.

An informal reception followed the ceremony, to which about 100 guests were bidden. Mrs. Ione Townsend Welles, Miss Norma Sparks and Miss Ruth Johns sang. In the dining-room the color effect was yellow. Here Mrs. Milton B. Henderson, Mrs. Lawrence H. Bowiby, Mrs. Leland Townsend, Mrs. Rupert Snook served ices and poured. Assisting them about the room were Miss Ann Young, Miss Lucille Dunder and Mrs. Elmon Geneste (Irene Hunt). After a honeymoon at the beaches, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston will reside at the Imperial Arms Apartments.

ing now than at any time in its history. More than 100 new members have been added since the beginning of the year.

Yesterday was a busy day at the clubhouse, as the juniors had their paper chase, and of course had it as their goal, and also that same afternoon the men had an open paper chase, followed by a stag dinner.

Saturday, May 5, is the last scheduled paper chase of the season, and as the score for the Multnomah Hotel trophy is so close, there will be a large number of spectators. That same evening a jitney dance at the club is planned.

The plans for the big event of the year, the Spring meet, are getting well under way, and with all the conditions so auspicious this meet promises to be the most successful ever held.

Mrs. Clarence Cole, of Seattle and Everett, and Miss Hazel Watts, of Scappoose, are in the city to assist Miss Frances Sheehy in her recital tomorrow evening at Ellers Hall. Mrs. Cole is the guest of Miss Sheehy, and is a charming woman with many friends in Washington, Oregon and California. As Miss Nellie Sloss, Mrs. Cole attended St. Helen's Hall and has been entertained in Portland as the guest of Mrs. Joseph Clark. Mrs. Cole's husband attended Bishop Scott Academy, and is known to many Portlanders as the famous quarterback of the Seattle Athletic Club.

Miss Watts is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Terry, in Irvington, and is a Wesley graduate of last year. Miss Watts will leave for the East the first week in May to become the bride of Vincent Cook, of Massachusetts.

At Kader Temple will be hosts for a dance and card party Wednesday night in the ballroom and tea gardens of Multnomah Hotel. L. G. Carpenter is chairman of the committee, and the affair promises to be interesting.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Miss Katherine Bowiby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Bowiby, and Mr. Frank Hain Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lincoln Johnston, were married at the home of the bride's parents, at 1167 Hawthorne avenue, the ceremony, which was witnessed by relatives and intimate friends, being performed by Dr. Luther R. Dyott. Before the bridal party appeared Miss Ruth John sang "Because God Gives Me You," accompanied by Mrs. Samuel H. Pierce, who also played the wedding march. The bride was attended only by little Sarah Jane Henderson, a niece of the bridegroom, as flower girl.

The bride's wedding gown was of white Georgette crepe, embellished with tridescant beads. It was made short and full. She carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley. The nuptial knot was tied under a canopy of cherry blossoms and snapdragons, the room being decorated also with baskets of sweet peas, palms and potted hydrangeas. The ceilings were hidden with festoons of asparagus plumosa ferns, the color scheme being pink.

An informal reception followed the ceremony, to which about 100 guests were bidden. Mrs. Ione Townsend Welles, Miss Norma Sparks and Miss Ruth Johns sang. In the dining-room the color effect was yellow. Here Mrs. Milton B. Henderson, Mrs. Lawrence H. Bowiby, Mrs. Leland Townsend, Mrs. Rupert Snook served ices and poured. Assisting them about the room were Miss Ann Young, Miss Lucille Dunder and Mrs. Elmon Geneste (Irene Hunt). After a honeymoon at the beaches, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston will reside at the Imperial Arms Apartments.

ing now than at any time in its history. More than 100 new members have been added since the beginning of the year.

Yesterday was a busy day at the clubhouse, as the juniors had their paper chase, and of course had it as their goal, and also that same afternoon the men had an open paper chase, followed by a stag dinner.

Saturday, May 5, is the last scheduled paper chase of the season, and as the score for the Multnomah Hotel trophy is so close, there will be a large number of spectators. That same evening a jitney dance at the club is planned.

The plans for the big event of the year, the Spring meet, are getting well under way, and with all the conditions so auspicious this meet promises to be the most successful ever held.

Mrs. Clarence Cole, of Seattle and Everett, and Miss Hazel Watts, of Scappoose, are in the city to assist Miss Frances Sheehy in her recital tomorrow evening at Ellers Hall. Mrs. Cole is the guest of Miss Sheehy, and is a charming woman with many friends in Washington, Oregon and California. As Miss Nellie Sloss, Mrs. Cole attended St. Helen's Hall and has been entertained in Portland as the guest of Mrs. Joseph Clark. Mrs. Cole's husband attended Bishop Scott Academy, and is known to many Portlanders as the famous quarterback of the Seattle Athletic Club.

Miss Watts is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Terry, in Irvington, and is a Wesley graduate of last year. Miss Watts will leave for the East the first week in May to become the bride of Vincent Cook, of Massachusetts.

At Kader Temple will be hosts for a dance and card party Wednesday night in the ballroom and tea gardens of Multnomah Hotel. L. G. Carpenter is chairman of the committee, and the affair promises to be interesting.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Miss Katherine Bowiby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Bowiby, and Mr. Frank Hain Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lincoln Johnston, were married at the home of the bride's parents, at 1167 Hawthorne avenue, the ceremony, which was witnessed by relatives and intimate friends, being performed by Dr. Luther R. Dyott. Before the bridal party appeared Miss Ruth John sang "Because God Gives Me You," accompanied by Mrs. Samuel H. Pierce, who also played the wedding march. The bride was attended only by little Sarah Jane Henderson, a niece of the bridegroom, as flower girl.

The bride's wedding gown was of white Georgette crepe, embellished with tridescant beads. It was made short and full. She carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley. The nuptial knot was tied under a canopy of cherry blossoms and snapdragons, the room being decorated also with baskets of sweet peas, palms and potted hydrangeas. The ceilings were hidden with festoons of asparagus plumosa ferns, the color scheme being pink.

An informal reception followed the ceremony, to which about 100 guests were bidden. Mrs. Ione Townsend Welles, Miss Norma Sparks and Miss Ruth Johns sang. In the dining-room the color effect was yellow. Here Mrs. Milton B. Henderson, Mrs. Lawrence H. Bowiby, Mrs. Leland Townsend, Mrs. Rupert Snook served ices and poured. Assisting them about the room were Miss Ann Young, Miss Lucille Dunder and Mrs. Elmon Geneste (Irene Hunt). After a honeymoon at the beaches, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston will reside at the Imperial Arms Apartments.

ing now than at any time in its history. More than 100 new members have been added since the beginning of the year.

Yesterday was a busy day at the clubhouse, as the juniors had their paper chase, and of course had it as their goal, and also that same afternoon the men had an open paper chase, followed by a stag dinner.

Saturday, May 5, is the last scheduled paper chase of the season, and as the score for the Multnomah Hotel trophy is so close, there will be a large number of spectators. That same evening a jitney dance at the club is planned.

The plans for the big event of the year, the Spring meet, are getting well under way, and with all the conditions so auspicious this meet promises to be the most successful ever held.

Mrs. Clarence Cole, of Seattle and Everett, and Miss Hazel Watts, of Scappoose, are in the city to assist Miss Frances Sheehy in her recital tomorrow evening at Ellers Hall. Mrs. Cole is the guest of Miss Sheehy, and is a charming woman with many friends in Washington, Oregon and California. As Miss Nellie Sloss, Mrs. Cole attended St. Helen's Hall and has been entertained in Portland as the guest of Mrs. Joseph Clark. Mrs. Cole's husband attended Bishop Scott Academy, and is known to many Portlanders as the famous quarterback of the Seattle Athletic Club.

Miss Watts is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Terry, in Irvington, and is a Wesley graduate of last year. Miss Watts will leave for the East the first week in May to become the bride of Vincent Cook, of Massachusetts.

At Kader Temple will be hosts for a dance and card party Wednesday night in the ballroom and tea gardens of Multnomah Hotel. L. G. Carpenter is chairman of the committee, and the affair promises to be interesting.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Miss Katherine Bowiby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Bowiby, and Mr. Frank Hain Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lincoln Johnston, were married at the home of the bride's parents, at 1167 Hawthorne avenue, the ceremony, which was witnessed by relatives and intimate friends, being performed by Dr. Luther R. Dyott. Before the bridal party appeared Miss Ruth John sang "Because God Gives Me You," accompanied by Mrs. Samuel H. Pierce, who also played the wedding march. The bride was attended only by little Sarah Jane Henderson, a niece of the bridegroom, as flower girl.

The bride's wedding gown was of white Georgette crepe, embellished with tridescant beads. It was made short and full. She carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley. The nuptial knot was tied under a canopy of cherry blossoms and snapdragons, the room being decorated also with baskets of sweet peas, palms and potted hydrangeas. The ceilings were hidden with festoons of asparagus plumosa ferns, the color scheme being pink.

An informal reception followed the ceremony, to which about 100 guests were bidden. Mrs. Ione Townsend Welles, Miss Norma Sparks and Miss Ruth Johns sang. In the dining-room the color effect was yellow. Here Mrs. Milton B. Henderson, Mrs. Lawrence H. Bowiby, Mrs. Leland Townsend, Mrs. Rupert Snook served ices and poured. Assisting them about the room were Miss Ann Young, Miss Lucille Dunder and Mrs. Elmon Geneste (Irene Hunt). After a honeymoon at the beaches, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston will reside at the Imperial Arms Apartments.

ing now than at any time in its history. More than 100 new members have been added since the beginning of the year.

Yesterday was a busy day at the clubhouse, as the juniors had their paper chase, and of course had it as their goal, and also that same afternoon the men had an open paper chase, followed by a stag dinner.

Saturday, May 5, is the last scheduled paper chase of the season, and as the score for the Multnomah Hotel trophy is so close, there will be a large number of spectators. That same evening a jitney dance at the club is planned.

The plans for the big event of the year, the Spring meet, are getting well under way, and with all the conditions so auspicious this meet promises to be the most successful ever held.

Mrs. Clarence Cole, of Seattle and Everett, and Miss Hazel Watts, of Scappoose, are in the city to assist Miss Frances Sheehy in her recital tomorrow evening at Ellers Hall. Mrs. Cole is the guest of Miss Sheehy, and is a charming woman with many friends in Washington, Oregon and California. As Miss Nellie Sloss, Mrs. Cole attended St. Helen's Hall and has been entertained in Portland as the guest of Mrs. Joseph Clark. Mrs. Cole's husband attended Bishop Scott Academy, and is known to many Portlanders as the famous quarterback of the Seattle Athletic Club.

Miss Watts is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Terry, in Irvington, and is a Wesley graduate of last year. Miss Watts will leave for the East the first week in May to become the bride of Vincent Cook, of Massachusetts.

At Kader Temple will be hosts for a dance and card party Wednesday night in the ballroom and tea gardens of Multnomah Hotel. L. G. Carpenter is chairman of the committee, and the affair promises to be interesting.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Miss Katherine Bowiby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Bowiby, and Mr. Frank Hain Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lincoln Johnston, were married at the home of the bride's parents, at 1167 Hawthorne avenue, the ceremony, which was witnessed by relatives and intimate friends, being performed by Dr. Luther R. Dyott. Before the bridal party appeared Miss Ruth John sang "Because God Gives Me You," accompanied by Mrs. Samuel H. Pierce, who also played the wedding march. The bride was attended only by little Sarah Jane Henderson, a niece of the bridegroom, as flower girl.

The bride's wedding gown was of white Georgette crepe, embellished with tridescant beads. It was made short and full. She carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley. The nuptial knot was tied under a canopy of cherry blossoms and snapdragons, the room being decorated also with baskets of sweet peas, palms and potted hydrangeas. The ceilings were hidden with festoons of asparagus plumosa ferns, the color scheme being pink.

An informal reception followed the ceremony, to which about 100 guests were bidden. Mrs. Ione Townsend Welles, Miss Norma Sparks and Miss Ruth Johns sang. In the dining-room the color effect was yellow. Here Mrs. Milton B. Henderson, Mrs. Lawrence H. Bowiby, Mrs. Leland Townsend, Mrs. Rupert Snook served ices and poured. Assisting them about the room were Miss Ann Young, Miss Lucille Dunder and Mrs. Elmon Geneste (Irene Hunt). After a honeymoon at the beaches, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston will reside at the Imperial Arms Apartments.

ing now than at any time in its history. More than 100 new members have been added since the beginning of the year.

Yesterday was a busy day at the clubhouse, as the juniors had their paper chase, and of course had it as their goal, and also that same afternoon the men had an open paper chase, followed by a stag dinner.

Saturday, May 5, is the last scheduled paper chase of the season, and as the score for the Multnomah Hotel trophy is so close, there will be a large number of spectators. That same evening a jitney dance at the club is planned.

The plans for the big event of the year, the Spring meet, are getting well under way, and with all the conditions so auspicious this meet promises to be the most successful ever held.

Mrs. Clarence Cole, of Seattle and Everett, and Miss Hazel Watts, of Scappoose, are in the city to assist Miss Frances Sheehy in her recital tomorrow evening at Ellers Hall. Mrs. Cole is the guest of Miss Sheehy, and is a charming woman with many friends in Washington, Oregon and California. As Miss Nellie Sloss, Mrs. Cole attended St. Helen's Hall and has been entertained in Portland as the guest of Mrs. Joseph Clark. Mrs. Cole's husband attended Bishop Scott Academy, and is known to many Portlanders as the famous quarterback of the Seattle Athletic Club.

Miss Watts is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Terry, in Irvington, and is a Wesley graduate of last year. Miss Watts will leave for the East the first week in May to become the bride of Vincent Cook, of Massachusetts.

At Kader Temple will be hosts for a dance and card party Wednesday night in the ballroom and tea gardens of Multnomah Hotel. L. G. Carpenter is chairman of the committee, and the affair promises to be interesting.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Miss Katherine Bowiby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Bowiby, and Mr. Frank Hain Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lincoln Johnston, were married at the home of the bride's parents, at 1167 Hawthorne avenue, the ceremony, which was witnessed by relatives and intimate friends, being performed by Dr. Luther R. Dyott. Before the bridal party appeared Miss Ruth John sang "Because God Gives Me You," accompanied by Mrs. Samuel H. Pierce, who also played the wedding march. The bride was attended only by little Sarah Jane Henderson, a niece of the bridegroom, as flower girl.

The bride's wedding gown was of white Georgette crepe, embellished with tridescant beads. It was made short and full. She carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley. The nuptial knot was tied under a canopy of cherry blossoms and snapdragons, the room being decorated also with baskets of sweet peas, palms and potted hydrangeas. The ceilings were hidden with festoons of asparagus plumosa ferns, the color scheme being pink.

An informal reception followed the ceremony, to which about 100 guests were bidden. Mrs. Ione Townsend Welles, Miss Norma Sparks and Miss Ruth Johns sang. In the dining-room the color effect was yellow. Here Mrs. Milton B. Henderson, Mrs. Lawrence H. Bowiby, Mrs. Leland Townsend, Mrs. Rupert Snook served ices and poured. Assisting them about the room were Miss Ann Young, Miss Lucille Dunder and Mrs. Elmon Geneste (Irene Hunt). After a honeymoon at the beaches, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston will reside at the Imperial Arms Apartments.

ing now than at any time in its history. More than 100 new members have been added since the beginning of the year.

Yesterday was a busy day at the clubhouse, as the juniors had their paper chase, and of course had it as their goal, and also that same afternoon the men had an open paper chase, followed by a stag dinner.

Saturday, May 5, is the last scheduled paper chase of the season, and as the score for the Multnomah Hotel trophy is so close, there will be a large number of spectators. That same evening a jitney dance at the club is planned.

The plans for the big event of the year, the Spring meet, are getting well under way, and with all the conditions so auspicious this meet promises to be the most successful ever held.

Mrs. Clarence Cole, of Seattle and Everett, and Miss Hazel Watts, of Scappoose, are in the city to assist Miss Frances Sheehy in her recital tomorrow evening at Ellers Hall. Mrs. Cole is the guest of Miss Sheehy, and is a charming woman with many friends in Washington, Oregon and California. As Miss Nellie Sloss, Mrs. Cole attended St. Helen's Hall and has been entertained in Portland as the guest of Mrs. Joseph Clark. Mrs. Cole's husband attended Bishop Scott Academy, and is known to many Portlanders as the famous quarterback of the Seattle Athletic Club.

Miss Watts is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Terry, in Irvington, and is a Wesley graduate of last year. Miss Watts will leave for the East the first week in May to become the bride of Vincent Cook, of Massachusetts.

At Kader Temple will be hosts for a dance and card party Wednesday night in the ballroom and tea gardens of Multnomah Hotel. L. G. Carpenter is chairman of the committee, and the affair promises to be interesting.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Miss Katherine Bowiby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Bowiby, and Mr. Frank Hain Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lincoln Johnston, were married at the home of the bride's parents, at 1167 Hawthorne avenue, the ceremony, which was witnessed by relatives and intimate friends, being performed by Dr. Luther R. Dyott. Before the bridal party appeared Miss Ruth John sang "Because God Gives Me You," accompanied by Mrs. Samuel H. Pierce, who also played the wedding march. The bride was attended only by little Sarah Jane Henderson, a niece of the bridegroom, as flower girl.

The bride's wedding gown was of white Georgette crepe, embellished with tridescant beads. It was made short and full. She carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley. The nuptial knot was tied under a canopy of cherry blossoms and snapdragons, the room being decorated also with baskets of sweet peas, palms and potted hydrangeas. The ceilings were hidden with festoons of asparagus plumosa ferns, the color scheme being pink.

An informal reception followed the ceremony, to which about 100 guests were bidden. Mrs. Ione Townsend Welles, Miss Norma Sparks and Miss Ruth Johns sang. In the dining-room the color effect was yellow. Here Mrs. Milton B. Henderson, Mrs. Lawrence H. Bowiby, Mrs. Leland Townsend, Mrs. Rupert Snook served ices and poured. Assisting them about the room were Miss Ann Young, Miss Lucille Dunder and Mrs. Elmon Geneste (Irene Hunt). After a honeymoon at the beaches, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston will reside at the Imperial Arms Apartments.

ing now than at any time in its history. More than 100 new members have been added since the beginning of the year.

Yesterday was a busy day at the clubhouse, as the juniors had their paper chase, and of course had it as their goal, and also that same afternoon the men had an open paper chase, followed by a stag dinner.

Saturday, May 5, is the last scheduled paper chase of the season, and as the score for the Multnomah Hotel trophy is so close, there will be a large number of spectators. That same evening a jitney dance at the club is planned.

The plans for the big event of the year, the Spring meet, are getting well under way, and with all the conditions so auspicious this meet promises to