SPEEDERS ADMIT GUILT

UNANIMITY OF PLEA MOVES COURT TO LENIENCY.

Fourteen Violators of Traffic Ordinances Gathered in Through Efforts of Patrolman Ervin.

When Carl King, officer for the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, started across the Burnside bridge Thursday night and nearly ran over Motorcycle Patrolman Frank Ervin the autoist was immediately placed under arrest on a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated. Municipal Judge Stevenson yesterday levied a fine of $25 against King and gave him a 30-day suspended sentence.

"He could hardly keep on the bridge," declared Patrolman Ervin in relating King's condition.

Thirteen other traffic violators, all victims of the efforts of Patrol-

WILMA WILL BE TRIED

BEAU BRUMMEL FORGER BROUGHT BACK FROM CHEHALIS.

Sale of Fake Coupons Alleged and Prosperous Business in Various Towns is Reported.

Edwin Herbert Wilma, Beau Brummel salesman and the possessor of five aliases, will be tried on a charge of forgery in Municipal Court Tuesday.

Wilma, who was arrested in Chehalis, Wash., on instructions from the Portland authorities, is said to have been selling fake coupons which he declared to be good for an order on a Portland studio. He is believed to have taken in $100 or more in Portland and vicinity by means of this scheme. Other towns also are said to have suffered from his operations.

City Detectives Swensen and Pat Moloney had been shadowing Wilma since

ALLEGED BURGLAR HELD

Charles Williams, With Associate, to Answer to Grand Jury.

Charles Williams, who is charged with having been implicated in the burglary of the Howard Hardware Company's store in Montavilla, was held to answer to the grand jury, yesterday by Municipal Judge Stevenson.

Williams is said to have been associated with Fred Ramelew, who is now being investigated by the grand jury. The two men are charged with having taken goods from the store to the value of about $100. They were arrested by City Detectives Swensen and Pat Moloney.

ROW OVER COW IS AIRED

J. F. Hawkes Is Held to Grand Jury on Larceny Charge.

J. F. Hawkes, charged with the larceny of a cow belonging to Mrs. Minnie Young, Union avenue and Hawthorne avenue, was held to answer to the grand jury yesterday by Municipal Judge Stevenson.

The argument over the possession of the cow is said to have dated back to a time when Hawkes loaned Mrs. Young $135, receiving a mortgage on several cows and a horse. Since that time
