

FEMALE DIVERS TO COMPETE HERE

National Women's Diving Championship Will Be Decided in Multnomah Tank.

KEEN CONTESTS ASSURED

Lewis Thomas, Club's Unbeatable Star of Two Years Ago, Will Resume Competitive Activities. Grace Berkeley Will Enter.

Everything is in readiness for the National women's diving championships of the Amateur Athletic Union of America, which will be held in the tank of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club next Saturday night.

Among the women divers who will compete in the National championships are Constance Meyer, ex-National champion; Thelma Payne, Helen Hicks, Irene Pembroke, Virginia Pembroke, Grace Berkeley, all of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club; Alleen Allen, present champion, Los Angeles Athletic Club; and Marion Coffey, of the University of Oregon.

Instructor Cody has added to the list of events a 50-yard dash for women, which will be open for all. The following women from the Winged "M" tank will participate in this: Harriet Walters, Mrs. W. G. Oberg, Mrs. Hesse, Mrs. Ed E. Shookley and Mrs. Ed Evers.

Following are the entrants to date in the Pacific Northwest championships: Harry Ed H. Leslie, Frank Lindstrom, Frank J. Hale, Myron Wilsey, Lewis B. Thomas, Ronald O'Reilly, Jeff Harbke, Al Masters, Ed Hammett, Ced Preble and Harry Humphries. The men divers in the Pacific Northwest diving championships will be composed of, in part: Happy Kuhn, Don Stryker, Ed Reeves and Ed Reed, of the Portland Amateur Swimming Association.

Miss Grayce Berkeley, one of the recently developed divers of Instructor Cody. In the coming National championships each girl makes ten different dives, and Miss Berkeley has never felt before that she was capable of so doing. However, Instructor Cody expects her to finish well up in the contest.

Saturday night will be the only National championship meet of the year to be staged by the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club. American wrestling championships were slated for the Winged "M" gymnasium, but were called off at the death of Edgar E. Frank.

Officials Are Named.

There will be eight numbers on Saturday night's programme: 1. 50-yard dash for women. 2. Men's fancy diving contest from 10-foot board. 3. 500-yard swim. 4. 50-yard dash for women. 5. Plunge for distance. 6. 200-yard swim. 7. National women's fancy diving championships, 10-foot board. 8. 400-yard dash.

Officials for the meet were named yesterday. Harry Ed H. Leslie, Harry Fischer and R. L. Wing will be the judges. George L. Parker, A. B. McAlpin and G. Seaton Taylor will act as timers. William H. Allen, George Anderson has been selected as clerk of course, Art Allen is the referee, while Instructor Cody will be the starter.

The judges have been practicing while different events have been going on in the tank so that they would know how to score at the time of the big meet. They stand at different points and then compare notes.

Lewis Thomas Coming Back.

The women's National diving contests will be exciting enough in themselves for a whole evening's entertainment, with interest keenest in the hard contest set to ensue between Miss Alleen Allen, of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, present title holder, and Constance Meyer, of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club.

If by nothing else, the swimming events will be made notable by the return of Lewis Thomas, the Winged "M" unbeatable swimmer of a few seasons ago. Thomas hasn't done much swimming in the past year or so, but he has kept in good condition and may surprise even his admirers by grabbing some of the races in record time.

AUTOMOBILE RACES ARE ADDED

La Grande Picks July 21-22 for Annual Motorcycle Event.

LA GRANDE, Or., May 12.—(Special.)—Automobiles to have their inning this year in connection with the La Grande motorcycle races, which for the past two years have been looked upon as the premier race and track contests for motorcycles of the Northwest.

The purse of $1000 which has been raised to $1500, and automobiles are to be entered in the races. In the past it has been a motorcycle show only. Chase Bohannan, Roy B. Currey and Roscoe Neal, race managers, are already grooming various committees to bring about widespread interest in the races, tentatively set down for July 21-22.

WOMAN LANDS BIG SALMON

Miss Bernice Buckles Catches Fish Weighing 31 1-2 Pounds.

OREGON CITY, Or., May 12.—(Special.)—Miss Bernice Buckles, who a few days ago caught one of the largest salmon of the season, weighing 31 1/2 pounds, has caught two more big salmon almost in the same locality, this being under the suspension bridge. This is Miss Buckles' second year's experience at angling.

Last year she caught two Chinook salmon, one of which tipped the scales at 28 pounds and the other 16 pounds. Miss Buckles is one of the most enthusiastic young nymphs of this city. She is a well-known young musical instructor.

DRY GOODS TEAM IS WINNER

Winged "M" Tossers Outplayed by Fleischer-Mayer Team.

Fleischer, Mayer & Co.'s baseball nine walloped the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club team yesterday afternoon on Multnomah Field, 10 to 6. The dry goods concern made 13 hits and five errors, against 10 base knocks and four boots for the Winged "M" warriors. It was a slow, loosely played contest.

Cackley and Morris Rogeway were in the points for the winners, while Holcomb and Dr. Besson pitched and Stanley Horlek caught for the losers.

HERE IS ONE OF THE FAIR ONES WHO WILL BE SEEN IN ACTION AT THE NATIONAL WOMEN'S DIVING CHAMPIONSHIPS HERE NEXT SATURDAY.

Miss Grayce Berkeley, One of the Winged "M" Representatives to Compete in the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club Tank Next Saturday Night in the National Amateur Athletic Union Women's Diving Championships.

GIBBONS BOYS LEAVE

St. Paul Champions Will Try Their Luck for Trout.

EUGENE TO SEE BOXERS

Weldon Wing, Albina Gamester, Regarded by Mike Gibbons as Most Promising Youngster—Bronson Goes to Winnipeg.

BY HARRY GRAYSON.

Mike and Tommy Gibbons, the two world's champions who have been in Portland for the past week, will leave today for Eugene, where they will stage an exhibition before the Parkside Club Tuesday night. In the interim the St. Paul boys will enjoy a fishing trip on the McKenzie River as the guests of Bill Hayward, the trainer at the University of Oregon.

Weldon Wing, the little Albina gamester, came in for some praise at the hands of Mike Gibbons yesterday. Wing served as one of Mike's sparring partners and the phantom thinks Wing is one of the most promising youngsters he has ever seen considering his limited experience. Mike has no hesitancy in predicting that if Wing is taken along slowly he will develop into a high-class boxer.

What impressed Gibbons was Wing's wonderful willingness and his great natural speed. Coming from the world's champion, who is the closest student of boxing in the world, this is quite a boost for the Portland youth.

"Muff" Bronson left yesterday for Winnipeg where he will hibernate and visit relatives for a few weeks.

Joe Flanigan has completed arrangements with Delph Thomas, of the Parkside Club, San Francisco, for an inter-city smoker to be staged at the Seal Rocks city May 18. Al Sommers, Billy Mascott, Wing and Jack Allen will represent Portland.

Billy Mascott is taking excellent care of himself. Joe Flanigan, who is going to take him to San Francisco, is enthusiastic over the South Portland Frenchman. He is predicting that Billy Mascott will raise havoc among the bantams.

Billy foolishly has been trying to give away too much weight in most of his bouts but from now on, according to Flanigan who claims Mascott can make 115 pounds easily, he will battle boys of his own huff. There are few, if any, bantams, who have much on the local boy. Mascott has promised to turn over a new leaf, take care of himself, and when he gets going, watch his smoke.

Mike and Tommy Gibbons, Walter Miller, Joe Flanigan and a couple of others were in a downtown restaurant last night for supper. A friend of Flanigan's came up to the table and whispered in his ear that Mike Gibbons was certainly a husky individual. He was under the impression that Miller was the St. Paul phantom.

Joe introduced Miller to his friend and they were in a downtown restaurant immediately got wise and all commenced to address the wrestling king as Mike.

Miller went through with it beautifully and put a still better one across by commencing to eat with his knife. As Flanigan's friend departed he

DARCY IS LOWBROW, SAY GIBBONS BOYS

Bullheaded Australian Boxer Made Miserable Mistake, Declare Visitors Here.

NAME OF HOME IS LOST

Harsh and Ugly Adjective Applied to Scrapper Who Fled to Get Away From Army Service and Enlisted in U. S.

The loud expressions of satisfaction with which the public in Sydney received the news that the Governor of New York had refused to allow the Australian boxer, Darcy, to enter the ring there, afforded some line on the popular estimation of Darcy. It will be remembered that when conscription seemed likely this young man, within a few days of his 21st birthday, suddenly disappeared.

While his best friends were still defending him from the charge that he was a "mongrel" and had run away, he was reported in America, and it afterward transpired that he had slipped away from Newcastle on a train.

Harsh and ugly names have been applied to Darcy. He is a young and healthy man, he had no responsibilities; he is known to be comparatively wealthy, and could have left his mother and young brothers well provided for, yet he sneaked away and left other men to do his fighting.

Harsh and ugly names have been applied to Darcy. He is a young and healthy man, he had no responsibilities; he is known to be comparatively wealthy, and could have left his mother and young brothers well provided for, yet he sneaked away and left other men to do his fighting.

Contrary to general reports, Manager Eddie Kane, of the Gibbons boys, and both Mike and Tommy Gibbons declare that Darcy is not an intelligent youth. He is a clear living and likeable, but not intelligent, they assert. They say that Darcy would not have been in khaki if left alone.

It was said that Darcy had simply been in the hands of a gang of fight promoters, who found him much too profitable to allow him to waste his time on anything so foolish as war. Eddie Kane said that this is not true.

"When a couple of New York sportsmen wrote and asked him to fight Mike, we talked to Tim O'Sullivan first. He said he would have to see Darcy. He was told to go to the office as usual. Eddie Kane said that this is not true.

"Darcy is a bull-headed Australian. They say there was a plot to smuggle Darcy to America, and the plot was a notorious 'sports' in Sydney were parties to it. Well, if there was a plot you can bet your bottom dollar that Darcy was the principal plotter himself."

It seems a pity that this fine type of fighter, who has not attained the wisdom of years, should have attached to him a name that will never leave him. But, if the words of the party from St. Paul can be taken as true, there was a Washington street, which really misled him and which is now escaping calumny.

It might be well to add that Mike and Tommy Gibbons, who are world champions, have a Nation-wide reputation of being on the square and what they say bears a lot of weight.

"Muff" Bronson left Friday morning to spend three months with his folks in Winnipeg. Bronson will rest up during this period.

John Olin says he would like to wrestle Ed (Strangle)-Lewis again. He can go ahead if he wants to, but there is no wild insistent cry from the fans for another bout like the last one. Most of those who paid to see it have homes where they can sleep.

The lightweight championship is not changing hands in the East, but a lot of money is changing hands.

Big Frank Kendall, the Portland heavyweight, must have the brown derby handed to him for being a stickler. After being home for a few weeks upon his return from New York, Frank boxed Lowe Simons and was beaten. He was not warmed up to by the fans, but kept going on and today there is hardly a boxer in Portland who has more friends.

Checkers.

E. H. BRYANT, Editor. Headquarters Portland Chess and Checker Club, 101 Washington building, fourth floor. Communications and contributions solicited. Send to 145 East Thirty-fifth street, Portland, Ore., P. O. 457.

(The Oregonian, May 13, 1917.)

BLACK MEN, 6, 7, 10, 13; KING, 15.

HONOR AGGIE FOOTBALL STAR

All-Pacific Coast Fullback Elected President of Orange "O" Club.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, May 12.—(Special.)—Meier I. (Darkhorse) Newman, captain of the 1917 Oregon Aggie football team and last year named All-Pacific Coast fullback, has been elected president of the Orange "O" club here.

Butts Reardon, all-around athlete, was elected vice-president; Metzler, secretary, and Howard (Hod) Ray, treasurer. Ray recently was re-elected captain of the basketball team, an honor that but only two other athletes have ever received.

Work on Bend Gym to Start.

BEND, Or., May 12.—(Special.)—A contract for 300,000 brick for the new gymnasium of the Bend Amateur Athletic Club has been let to the Bend Brick & Lumber Company, stipulating the commencement of delivery in 30 days and the completion of the contract in 60 days. Masons will begin work as soon as the first load of brick arrives on the site. The contract for the lumber will be let Monday.

Rupert Arranges Game.

Manager Clyde J. Rupert, of the Baby Beavers, who have withdrawn from the Inter-City League, announced last night that his crew would play The Dalles, Or., team next Sunday. The team will remain idle today. Rupert says that it was not over the schedule that he withdrew from the Inter-City League. "Red" declares that he is tired of "running" the organization.

Read The Oregonian classified ads.

UTAH BOY MAKING RECORD-BREAKING JUMP.

Chris Larson, of Brigham Young University, Logan, Utah, made his record-breaking high jump at the annual Pennsylvania relay carnival, Franklin Field, Philadelphia. He jumped 6 feet 5 1/2 inches, three-eighths of an inch better than Alma Richards, the Olympic champion, was able to do.

NAME OF HOME IS LOST

Harsh and Ugly Adjective Applied to Scrapper Who Fled to Get Away From Army Service and Enlisted in U. S.

The loud expressions of satisfaction with which the public in Sydney received the news that the Governor of New York had refused to allow the Australian boxer, Darcy, to enter the ring there, afforded some line on the popular estimation of Darcy. It will be remembered that when conscription seemed likely this young man, within a few days of his 21st birthday, suddenly disappeared.

While his best friends were still defending him from the charge that he was a "mongrel" and had run away, he was reported in America, and it afterward transpired that he had slipped away from Newcastle on a train.

Harsh and ugly names have been applied to Darcy. He is a young and healthy man, he had no responsibilities; he is known to be comparatively wealthy, and could have left his mother and young brothers well provided for, yet he sneaked away and left other men to do his fighting.

Contrary to general reports, Manager Eddie Kane, of the Gibbons boys, and both Mike and Tommy Gibbons declare that Darcy is not an intelligent youth. He is a clear living and likeable, but not intelligent, they assert. They say that Darcy would not have been in khaki if left alone.

It was said that Darcy had simply been in the hands of a gang of fight promoters, who found him much too profitable to allow him to waste his time on anything so foolish as war. Eddie Kane said that this is not true.

"When a couple of New York sportsmen wrote and asked him to fight Mike, we talked to Tim O'Sullivan first. He said he would have to see Darcy. He was told to go to the office as usual. Eddie Kane said that this is not true.

"Darcy is a bull-headed Australian. They say there was a plot to smuggle Darcy to America, and the plot was a notorious 'sports' in Sydney were parties to it. Well, if there was a plot you can bet your bottom dollar that Darcy was the principal plotter himself."

It seems a pity that this fine type of fighter, who has not attained the wisdom of years, should have attached to him a name that will never leave him. But, if the words of the party from St. Paul can be taken as true, there was a Washington street, which really misled him and which is now escaping calumny.

It might be well to add that Mike and Tommy Gibbons, who are world champions, have a Nation-wide reputation of being on the square and what they say bears a lot of weight.

"Muff" Bronson left Friday morning to spend three months with his folks in Winnipeg. Bronson will rest up during this period.

John Olin says he would like to wrestle Ed (Strangle)-Lewis again. He can go ahead if he wants to, but there is no wild insistent cry from the fans for another bout like the last one. Most of those who paid to see it have homes where they can sleep.

The lightweight championship is not changing hands in the East, but a lot of money is changing hands.

Big Frank Kendall, the Portland heavyweight, must have the brown derby handed to him for being a stickler. After being home for a few weeks upon his return from New York, Frank boxed Lowe Simons and was beaten. He was not warmed up to by the fans, but kept going on and today there is hardly a boxer in Portland who has more friends.

Checkers.

E. H. BRYANT, Editor. Headquarters Portland Chess and Checker Club, 101 Washington building, fourth floor. Communications and contributions solicited. Send to 145 East Thirty-fifth street, Portland, Ore., P. O. 457.

(The Oregonian, May 13, 1917.)

BLACK MEN, 6, 7, 10, 13; KING, 15.

HONOR AGGIE FOOTBALL STAR

All-Pacific Coast Fullback Elected President of Orange "O" Club.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, May 12.—(Special.)—Meier I. (Darkhorse) Newman, captain of the 1917 Oregon Aggie football team and last year named All-Pacific Coast fullback, has been elected president of the Orange "O" club here.

Butts Reardon, all-around athlete, was elected vice-president; Metzler, secretary, and Howard (Hod) Ray, treasurer. Ray recently was re-elected captain of the basketball team, an honor that but only two other athletes have ever received.

Work on Bend Gym to Start.

BEND, Or., May 12.—(Special.)—A contract for 300,000 brick for the new gymnasium of the Bend Amateur Athletic Club has been let to the Bend Brick & Lumber Company, stipulating the commencement of delivery in 30 days and the completion of the contract in 60 days. Masons will begin work as soon as the first load of brick arrives on the site. The contract for the lumber will be let Monday.

Rupert Arranges Game.

Manager Clyde J. Rupert, of the Baby Beavers, who have withdrawn from the Inter-City League, announced last night that his crew would play The Dalles, Or., team next Sunday. The team will remain idle today. Rupert says that it was not over the schedule that he withdrew from the Inter-City League. "Red" declares that he is tired of "running" the organization.

Read The Oregonian classified ads.

UTAH BOY MAKING RECORD-BREAKING JUMP.

Chris Larson, of Brigham Young University, Logan, Utah, made his record-breaking high jump at the annual Pennsylvania relay carnival, Franklin Field, Philadelphia. He jumped 6 feet 5 1/2 inches, three-eighths of an inch better than Alma Richards, the Olympic champion, was able to do.

NAME OF HOME IS LOST

Harsh and Ugly Adjective Applied to Scrapper Who Fled to Get Away From Army Service and Enlisted in U. S.

The loud expressions of satisfaction with which the public in Sydney received the news that the Governor of New York had refused to allow the Australian boxer, Darcy, to enter the ring there, afforded some line on the popular estimation of Darcy. It will be remembered that when conscription seemed likely this young man, within a few days of his 21st birthday, suddenly disappeared.

While his best friends were still defending him from the charge that he was a "mongrel" and had run away, he was reported in America, and it afterward transpired that he had slipped away from Newcastle on a train.

Harsh and ugly names have been applied to Darcy. He is a young and healthy man, he had no responsibilities; he is known to be comparatively wealthy, and could have left his mother and young brothers well provided for, yet he sneaked away and left other men to do his fighting.

Contrary to general reports, Manager Eddie Kane, of the Gibbons boys, and both Mike and Tommy Gibbons declare that Darcy is not an intelligent youth. He is a clear living and likeable, but not intelligent, they assert. They say that Darcy would not have been in khaki if left alone.

It was said that Darcy had simply been in the hands of a gang of fight promoters, who found him much too profitable to allow him to waste his time on anything so foolish as war. Eddie Kane said that this is not true.

"When a couple of New York sportsmen wrote and asked him to fight Mike, we talked to Tim O'Sullivan first. He said he would have to see Darcy. He was told to go to the office as usual. Eddie Kane said that this is not true.

"Darcy is a bull-headed Australian. They say there was a plot to smuggle Darcy to America, and the plot was a notorious 'sports' in Sydney were parties to it. Well, if there was a plot you can bet your bottom dollar that Darcy was the principal plotter himself."

It seems a pity that this fine type of fighter, who has not attained the wisdom of years, should have attached to him a name that will never leave him. But, if the words of the party from St. Paul can be taken as true, there was a Washington street, which really misled him and which is now escaping calumny.

It might be well to add that Mike and Tommy Gibbons, who are world champions, have a Nation-wide reputation of being on the square and what they say bears a lot of weight.

"Muff" Bronson left Friday morning to spend three months with his folks in Winnipeg. Bronson will rest up during this period.

John Olin says he would like to wrestle Ed (Strangle)-Lewis again. He can go ahead if he wants to, but there is no wild insistent cry from the fans for another bout like the last one. Most of those who paid to see it have homes where they can sleep.

The lightweight championship is not changing hands in the East, but a lot of money is changing hands.

Big Frank Kendall, the Portland heavyweight, must have the brown derby handed to him for being a stickler. After being home for a few weeks upon his return from New York, Frank boxed Lowe Simons and was beaten. He was not warmed up to by the fans, but kept going on and today there is hardly a boxer in Portland who has more friends.

Checkers.

E. H. BRYANT, Editor. Headquarters Portland Chess and Checker Club, 101 Washington building, fourth floor. Communications and contributions solicited. Send to 145 East Thirty-fifth street, Portland, Ore., P. O. 457.

(The Oregonian, May 13, 1917.)

BLACK MEN, 6, 7, 10, 13; KING, 15.

HONOR AGGIE FOOTBALL STAR

All-Pacific Coast Fullback Elected President of Orange "O" Club.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, May 12.—(Special.)—Meier I. (Darkhorse) Newman, captain of the 1917 Oregon Aggie football team and last year named All-Pacific Coast fullback, has been elected president of the Orange "O" club here.

Butts Reardon, all-around athlete, was elected vice-president; Metzler, secretary, and Howard (Hod) Ray, treasurer. Ray recently was re-elected captain of the basketball team, an honor that but only two other athletes have ever received.

Work on Bend Gym to Start.

BEND, Or., May 12.—(Special.)—A contract for 300,000 brick for the new gymnasium of the Bend Amateur Athletic Club has been let to the Bend Brick & Lumber Company, stipulating the commencement of delivery in 30 days and the completion of the contract in 60 days. Masons will begin work as soon as the first load of brick arrives on the site. The contract for the lumber will be let Monday.

Rupert Arranges Game.

Manager Clyde J. Rupert, of the Baby Beavers, who have withdrawn from the Inter-City League, announced last night that his crew would play The Dalles, Or., team next Sunday. The team will remain idle today. Rupert says that it was not over the schedule that he withdrew from the Inter-City League. "Red" declares that he is tired of "running" the organization.

Read The Oregonian classified ads.

TRAP SPORT GROWS

Three Leagues in Northwest Now Are Active.

NEWSPAPERS PROMOTE 2

Inland Empire League Managed by Spokesman-Review and Columbia-Willamette Is Handled by The Oregonian.

BY PETER F. CARNEY.

PHILADELPHIA, May 12.—(Special.)—The trapshooting league idea is growing like wildfire, especially in the Northwest, where three leagues, each one having 12 clubs, have been formed within the past few weeks. These leagues are known as the Inland Empire, the Columbia-Willamette and the Northwest Trapshooters' League.

The novel thing about two of the leagues is that the promotion was done by newspapers—not the clubs—and the movement is being fostered by them. The Spokesman-Review, of Spokane, Wash., is conducting the Inland Empire League and the Portland Oregonian is managing the Columbia-Willamette League. Both have 12 cities represented in Washington and Oregon, and are conducted along the same lines.

The entrance of the newspapers into trapshooting promotion is a good thing for the sport, and the publicity that the newspapers have given to baseball has made that sport what it is today. The same co-operation with trapshooting will make that sport just as popular. It is growing faster than any other sport in America, and has more followers today than any other, and it will continue to grow with the aid of the press and public, and always remain the fairest of American sports.

The trapshooting organization of the Central and Middle West got on the job early. The Wisconsin state tournament will be held until late in July, yet the Wisconsin association already has posted the country with attractive cards announcing the shoot. These cards have been sent to every gun club in the country. The programme is novel, several thousand dollars in cash and trophies being offered. The Minnesota state tournament takes place at the same time as the Wisconsin meet, and the up-and-coming method caused the Minnesota association to get a move on and plan months ahead. Both associations expect more than 200 entries. Illinois, Iowa, Kansas and Missouri expect to do as well. It looks like a big year in the Middle West.

Jack Graham and W. S. Stannard, professional trapshooters for some time, are again back with the amateurs. They were sterling amateurs before joining the ranks of the professionals.

rick at home with Pinell when the Beavers depart tonight for San Francisco and (like Harrington with him for another chance. It is possible the Denver club has extended the try-out time on its twirler.

Junior Artisans to Play. Two games will start off the Junior Artisan Baseball League at East Twelfth and East Davis streets today.

The season was supposed to have opened last Sunday, but rain interfered. O. E. vs. Webfoot Club will play Arleta and at 3:30 Montavilla will battle the Fram nine. The winning team of this circuit captures a cup donated by the Meier & Frank Company.

Chat Neff Bests Louis Rees.

Little Chat Neff, of Seattle, didn't have much trouble putting Louis Rees out of the running at Doyle's fight emporium, Los Angeles, the other night. Neff took three out of the four rounds and had Rees wondering what was going to happen next most of the time. Neff has made a big hit in the Cafeteria City.

Lodge Teams Mix Today.

Portland's Moose team will play the Knights and Ladies of Security nine in one of the Fraternal Baseball League's games today. The other two games are St. Johns Moose vs. Macabees and the team of this circuit captures a cup donated by the Meier & Frank Company.

San Jose Shoot Is Arranged

Trophies and $1210 Cash Hung Up for Pacific Coast Handicap. At the Pacific Coast handicap at San Jose, Cal., May 27, 28, 29 and 30, $1210 in cash and trophies will be shot for. The Squier money-back system will govern the division of moneys in the regular programme events.

The programme calls for 540 single targets and 10 double targets, included in which are 200 distance handicap targets. There will be added money in each event. Four hundred dollars will be added to the Squier money-back system, $100 added to the preliminary handicap and $200 added to the Pacific Coast handicap. Three trophies are offered for the high guns in the Pacific Coast handicap, and a trophy to the high score on each yard mark.

The Game Season Is Open

Hundreds of featherless birds are being shot. Oil up your gun. Hop on the car and hie yourself out to the nearest gun club. Clay pigeons are plentiful. They're flying fast. Match your eye and aim against these speedy targets that slip out of gunshot in less than three seconds. You'll get your share of excitement, fun and valuable experience.

Write now for our Sport Alluring Booklet and the names of your nearest gun clubs.

DU PONT

WILMINGTON - DELAWARE

