

Summer's Favorite--Silk Suits and Coats

SILK is ideal for Summer wear in Portland. Almost every day there's some occasion when a silk suit or coat answers your clothes question. During Rose Festival gaieties, at the beach—for town or out of town—silk is fashionable—and practical.

Captivating Silk Suits

Taffetas, made lovelier than before—and the new Khaki-Kools, in those striking colors, so typical of Summer. Three of many fetching models shown Monday—

At $22.50—Black taffeta, touched with old rose at collar, cuffs and belt; splendid quality of silk.

At $29.50—Navy taffeta, the back formed of two wide pleats in novel effect; large picturesque collar and pouch pockets.

At $37.50—Genuine Khaki-Kool, with blue coat and bisque-color skirt, set off by colored spots.

And Stunning Silk Coats—

—Black and blue taffetas, as in seasons past, will be widely worn. Set off by touches of color and Paisley effects at the collar. Clever belted-backs in numerous variations.

—As low as $14.75, we show Silk Coats in taffetas and stunning striped blazer colors. Others $19.50, $21.50, $26.50, $29.50. Silk Jerseys and Khaki-Kool Coats, $32.50, $35, $37.50.

Mrs. E. R. Mossman, of La Grande, a charming visitor who is being entertained here.

Rupp family will occupy apartments at Alexandra Court during their residence here.

Miss Catherine Russell, who has been attending the University of California this winter, will arrive in Portland this week to attend the wedding, and she will visit Miss Elizabeth Jones. Miss Russell is very popular and will share in many of the social gaieties of the late season.

A number of supper parties following the vaudeville benefit of the National Girls' Honor Guard were given in the Arcadian Gardens of Multnomah Hotel. Among them were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Van Schuyver and Jordan Zan. Another table was given by Mrs. James Laidlaw, her daughter, Miss Katharine Laidlaw, who was one of the feature numbers on the programme at the vaudeville, and Miss Susan Cheney.

Mrs. Hazel B. Litt, Miss Katharine Hart, Jervis Stephenson and Charles S. Holbrook made up a party. Mrs. Ruth Teal and Rhoda Rumelin, James Brady and Prescott Cookingham were members of a box party and also one of the supper parties. Another party, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Vaachon, included Misses Shirley Eastham, Gretchen Torrey, King Tyler and Edward Eastham.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston P. Porter also entertained with a box party and later with a supper at the Multnomah. Misses Harriet Cumming, Virginia Menefee, Albert Wakeman and Ernest Swigert also made up a party at the supper dance.

One of the most interesting events of the week was the tea given by Mrs. Wheelwright on Wednesday. Complimentary to Miss Esther Anderson, a member of the International department of the Y. W. C. A., Mrs. Wheelwright's guests included the board of the Portland branch of the Y. W. C. A., as well as the committees and secretaries.

The Wheelwright residence was charmingly decked with garden flowers and the daintily appointed tea table was presided over by Mrs. Charles Scadding and Mrs. Jessie Honeyman. Mrs. Wheelwright is one of the board members of the association and one of the most devoted workers.

Miss Sally Lewis is expected to return this week to her home in this city, and will be welcomed by a host of friends. Miss Lewis has been wintering in the East, and will pass the summer months in her attractive home in this city.

E. C. Shevlin entertained with a merry party of ten at the Honor Guard vaudeville benefit Thursday night, later entertaining his guests with supper at the supper-dance at Multnomah Hotel. This party was started with a charming dinner at the Shevlin residence.

Dr. and Mrs. Newman Smyth and daughter, Miss Smyth, arrived yesterday to be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Winslow B. Ayer. Dr. Smyth and family are prominent residents of New Haven, Conn., and are relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Ayer.

Miss Gena Peters of Seattle, is visiting in Portland as the house guest of Miss Claire Wilcox, who entertained with a dinner-dance at the Waverly Country Club last night complimentary to the visitor.

Miss Sally Hart entertained delightfully with an informal bridge and tea Thursday afternoon at her attractive home in Rivera honoring Miss Helen Ladd. Two tables were arranged in the prettily decked drawing-room for cards and at tea time a few additional guests called. The house was decked with clusters of pink and white fruit blossoms and the guests included the younger members of society.

An Orpheum party, followed by supper and dancing, were the diversions of mid-week, when Miss Elizabeth Jones entertained 16 of her friends, set with a line party, the latter part of the evening being passed at her home. The affair was planned as a compliment to Miss Helen Ladd and her fiancé, Alan Green.

The same evening, Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Sawyer entertained with a charming dinner in honor of their sister, Miss Katherine Ecob, of New York. Twenty-five members of society made merry during the evening, the drawing-room being a bower of fragrant garden flowers in a riot of artistic coloring. A similar floral arrangement was used in the dining-room, where a buffet supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Luke (Nieta Tobey) returned last week from their wedding trip, and are at home in their new residence in Mississippi avenue. Mr. Luke expects to be called to Army service soon, and has abandoned the motor trip planned for July into Yellowstone National Park.

gaged couples. The guests, who numbered 22, included the bridal parties for both brides-elect, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Mears.

The return of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Edwards from an extended visit of several months in the East, principally in New York, is the source of much pleasure to their numerous friends in this city. They returned Monday to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Fleischner and the latter's sister, Mrs. Harriet Meyer, of San Francisco, are passing a few days at Seaside, in the Fleischner cottage. Mrs. Meyer, who is a charming and popular matron, arrived on the steamer at Flavel Wednesday and plans to pass the Summer months in Portland. She has a host of friends in this city who will entertain extensively for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jacobson returned last week from an extended trip in the East and soon will occupy their handsome residence on the Columbia Highway.

Mrs. W. B. Ayer will entertain Thursday with an informal tea, honoring her sister-in-law, Mrs. Newman Smyth, and daughter, who are visiting in the city for a few weeks.

Mrs. L. O. Ralston and Miss Hazel Ralston, the engagement of the latter recently being announced to Ensign Arthur D. Struble, of the U. S. S. Glacier, left Friday night to join Mr. Struble, who is in San Francisco for a fortnight's furlough.

Although there are no definite plans made for the wedding as yet, it is possible it will take place within the next fortnight.

The Portland Hunt Club is the mecca for much social entertainment these early Spring days, the sunshine and balmy weather making it possible for the equestrian to enjoy a ride around the picturesque sections of the city.

The riders invariably stop at the pretty clubhouse for refreshment or arrange parties to ride out for breakfast, luncheon or tea.

Sunday H. M. Papst entertained Colonel Wallace at breakfast and they were followed by Benjamin Neustadt.

SCAPPOOSE GIRL GOES EAST TO BECOME BRIDE OF PASTOR.

Miss Hazel Watts.

Miss Hazel Watts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Watts, of Scappoose, Or., left Wednesday for New Haven, Conn., where she will become the bride of Rev. Vernon W. Cooke, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Williamstown, Conn. Miss Watts' engagement was announced at Wellesley two years ago.

She is a graduate of Portland Academy, class of 1912, and of Wellesley College, finishing in 1916. She is an accomplished musician, having attained much prominence while at Wellesley as a composer, song leader and pipe organist.

Rev. Mr. Cooke is also a graduate of Portland Academy in the class of 1907; Whitman College, 1911, and Yale school of religion, 1914.

ter and party for luncheon. Miss Edna Wallin entertained with tea in the afternoon.

Tuesday Mrs. Morris H. Whitehouse entertained with a bridge-luncheon. Her guests were Mrs. George Marshall, Mrs. C. H. Davis, Jr., Mrs. Clarence Jacobson, Mrs. Chester Murphy, Mrs. Ralph C. Matson, Mrs. Gay Lombard, Mrs. A. A. Dougherty.

Wednesday Mrs. W. L. Wood had a party of six for tea. Miss Flanders, Mrs. S. S. Montague, Mrs. James Nicol and Miss M. L. Flanders also enjoyed tea after a pleasant ride around Garden Home.

Mrs. John S. Napier entertained yesterday with a delightful informal bridge tea honoring Miss Genevieve Brooke, one of the most popular belles in Portland, who recently returned to pass the Summer here with her mother, Mrs. Edward Heath Brooke.

Only members of the younger set were bidden to the affair, which was charming in every detail.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Scott (Nancy Zan) have returned from their wedding trip and are staying at the Mallory Hotel.

Honoring Miss Marie Deary, Mrs. John D. Twoby entertained with a charming luncheon on Thursday. Covers were placed for ten, the table being decked prettily with an artistic arrangement of garden flowers. Miss Deary will become the bride of Robert Twoby some time this Summer.

For the benefit of the furnishing fund of the new building of the Portland Woman's Union, a number of prominent women who are connected with the board of directors of the organization have planned a "round Robin of bridge parties," the first being given Thursday by Mrs. C. E. Rumelin. Twenty women were her guests, and each of the women present will give a similar affair, the guests to number a dozen. Each dozen women at the parties will choose a day for a bridge and ask 12 friends. They in turn will give a party for eight and they will each entertain four women, so that the hostesses for the series will total in hundreds.

At Mrs. Rumelin's party, the tea table was presided over by Mrs. R. W. Wilson and Mrs. C. W. Sherman. Those who were entertained by Mrs. Rumelin and who also will be hostesses for parties were: Mrs. T. M. Foster, Mrs. R. W. Wilson, Mrs. Jeanette Meier, Mrs. J. B. Smith, Mrs. Willis Dunaway, Mrs. J. B. Somstock, Mrs. Maurice Goodman, Mrs. C. W. Hodson, Mrs. C. W. Sherman, Mrs. F. J. Cobb, Mrs. George Kirkham Smith, Mrs. C. Burckard, Mrs. A. C. Holmes, Mrs. T. T. Davis, Mrs. A. O. Elrod, Mrs. John Shull, Mrs. A. L. McCully, Mrs. Gustave Bruere and Mrs. A. B. Beach. Mrs. Beach is chairman of the series of parties, which are sure to prove most interesting as well as beneficial to the Union. The women expect to have the parties finished this month.

Dr. Otto Freer and sister, Miss Freer, the former being an eminent specialist of Chicago, who has been lecturing before Portland specialists, will pass the week-end at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Dieck at Hood River. Dr. George Ainslie will accompany them. Dr. and Miss Freer will leave early in the week for their home in the East.

The MacDowell Musical Club will give its next programme Tuesday in the ballroom of Multnomah Hotel at 3 o'clock.

If the opening proper of the new Portland Hunt Club may be taken as a forerunner of the success of the club, the members will be obliged to enlarge the charming little abode before long. The dinner and dinner dance which was sponsored by James A. Beckett and Frederick A. Martin Saturday night was a huge success, dinner being served to 85 and more than 100 attending the dance. Excellent music had been provided by the committee and the pretty dining and living rooms, combined with a bower of cherry and wild currant blossoms, with garden blossoms adorning the many tables. erous merry parties were made up by prominent members, some in riding togs, some in street attire and still others in dinner garb. The dance continued until after midnight and the committee, Messrs. Beckett and Martin, received considerable commendation for their excellent work and the pleasure given the many guests and members. Among the larger parties were those given by Mr. and Mrs. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Beckett and Mr. and Mrs. Matt McDougall. Eric V. Hauser, who gave the trophy for which the chase was run Saturday, attended the dinner and dance. As there was a tie among the winners, the chase undoubtedly will have to be run again.

Mrs. E. P. Mossman, of La Grande, who has been visiting in this city with her sister, Mrs. J. J. Ross, and Mr. I. Vanduy, has been extensively entertained. The latter gave a large tea in her honor and her sister, Mrs. Ross, entertained frequently with tea, luncheons and motor trips on the Highway. Many other prominent matrons showered her with social attentions during her visit here. Mrs. Mossman formerly made her home in this city and has a host of friends, who are eager to renew her acquaintance.

Another Red Cross benefit is on the tapis, this time a card party of 20 tables, all of which, by the way, have been reserved by prominent women and their friends, for Wednesday afternoon at Alexandra Court. This is only the beginning of a series of Red Cross benefits that will be given during the Summer months by Portland women for their chapter of the splendid and noble organization. The hostesses for the party Wednesday will be Mrs. W. W. Cotton, Mrs. Charles T. Whitney and Mrs. Harry Heminghouse.

Society is welcoming the return for the Summer of Mrs. Thomas Martin Fitzpatrick and her infant son, who now make their home in Boston. Mrs. Fitzpatrick was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. James A. Barron, her brother, Robert Barron, and her cousin, Miss Anna Munly, all of whom have been visiting in Boston for the Winter.

Interest centers in the annual meeting and tea of the Woman's Exchange in Fifth street. Tea will be served at 4 o'clock, following the meeting, which is scheduled for 3 o'clock. At this hour a resume of the year's work will be given, and reports of the chairmen

Hair Roots Come Out Before Your Very Eyes

The new way to remove superfluous hair, roots and all—the phaeolacine way—is rapidly superseding the old-fashioned electrolytic methods, as well as electricity, razor and tweezers. And no wonder! Here is a product so harmless a child could safely use it—no irritating and odorless it is altogether pleasant to use—and the process is so quick acting that it actually removes the hairs entire, including the roots, in just a few seconds! You will surely have the surprise of your life if you will obtain a stick of phaeolacine from your druggist and follow the simple instructions which accompany it. If you are not delighted with the result you can have your money back without question.—Adv.
