MONTANA MATRON AND DAUGHTER WHO ARE VISITING IN PORTLAND.

Mrs. John P. Meldrum and daughter Eugenia May

Mrs. Meldrum and her daughter are stopping in Portland, en route to join Mr. Meldrum in Butte.

Dillehunt, Prescott Cookingham, Alan Green, Henry Mears and Charles S. Holbrook Tuesday evening. He has been named in honor of his paternal grandfather, Lewis Linn McArthur, the late Judge McArthur, of this city.

Efforts of the members of the Junior League were amply rewarded Thursday night when the Helbig Theater recorded a capacity house to hear the celebrated Captain Beth, Ian Hay, as he is known in the literary world. Captain Beth is touring the United States in the interests of the Red Cross work, and his talk, "The Human Side of French Warfare" was most interesting. The proceeds derived from the lecture have been turned over to the American Red Cross fund.

Among the hosts of the evening, principally the box holders, many of whom supplemented their entertainment with dinner and supper parties, were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott R. Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Davis, Jr., Mrs. Sigmund Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Julius L. Meier, Miss Isabella Gaud, Dan Smythe, Mrs. Isam White, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Inman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Burke, Miss Felling turned her box over to friends, as she was absent from the city. Among those entertaining with line parties were: Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Colt, Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Dickey, Hugh Hume and Mrs. Burke Channing, Mrs. W. E. Ayer, Mrs. Chester G. Murphy, Mrs. Clarence Jacobson and Mrs. Otis B. Wight.

Mrs. Wells Gilbert's reception Thursday for the benefit of the war relief fund was a charming and successful affair. The Helbig Theater, "Greenway," is one of the handsomest at Rivera and is ideally situated amid clumps of shrubbery and lovely gardens. The drawing, reception and dining-rooms were converted into a bower of beauty with a riotous array of blooms. More than 100 women journeyed out to the lovely suburb and contributed their mite to the deserving fund. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Henry C. Cabell, Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. Harry Nunn, Mrs. William I. Brewster, Mrs. Frank Hart, Mrs. Victor Johnson, Mrs. J. K. Gamble, Mrs. Otis B. Wight, Miss Alice Strong, all of whom presided at the tea and coffee urns and served punch and ices. They were assisted by Misses Sally Hart, Meta Rupp, Claire Wilcox, Jean Mackenzie, Ruth Teal and Helen Ladd.

Mrs. Hugh C. Gearin and Mrs. Walter Gearin entertained with a dinner and dance at Forest Hall Tuesday night in celebration of the birthdays of their husbands.

Mrs. George Kirkham Smith entertained with a small luncheon honoring Mrs. Joseph M. Bradley, who left yesterday with her children to pass the summer in the East. Mrs. Bradley was entertained with a number of delightful affairs before leaving, among them a tea for which Mrs. Frederick L. Warren was hostess Wednesday. Mrs. Smith's guests were Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Thomas Robertson, Mrs. D. W. L. MacGregor, Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. Victor Johnson, Mrs. John G. Edwards and Mrs. John Latta.

Dr. K. A. J. Mackenzie and daughter, Miss Jean Mackenzie, left yesterday for New York for an extended visit in the East. In the same train Mrs. Bradley and her children started on their Eastern trip, and the previous day Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kerr and Mr. and Mrs. D. W. L. MacGregor left for an indefinite visit in the East.

Miss Zola Parker will become the bride of Jack White tomorrow at 5 o'clock at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Arthur Honeyman. The ceremony will be a simple one, and the only guests asked for the function in addition to the families are a few close friends of the bride-elect and her fiancé.

Miss Parker is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker, prominent residents of this city, and she is very popular in society. She is a vivacious and charming girl, and the fact that her wedding will remove her from Portland is the source of regret to her friends. Mr. White will take his bride to Lakeview, Or., their future home. He is a son of Judge and Mrs. Samuel White and also popular socially.

News has been received from Philadelphia of the engagement of Frank Clark, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Clark, of Philadelphia, and Miss Katherine Conger, daughter of Rev. Arthur Conger. The wedding will be an event of June in Princeton, N. J. Mr. Clark is a Harvard man and a brother of Edward Clark, Jr., to whom Miss Hazel Dolph, of this city, was married at a wedding that was such a brilliant affair last Fall. The bride-elect is a great-granddaughter of Commodore Stockton and a charming and popular girl. Mr. Clark has frequently visited here, and is well known among the younger set and in business circles.

Preceding the lecture by Admiral Robert E. Peary at the University Club on Wednesday, Mrs. Cyrus A. Dolph entertained with a small dinner, her guests including Colonel and Mrs. John Parke and Mr. and Mrs. William Vanderbilt Dolph.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Edwards were dinner hosts Monday night preceding the screening of the American Ambulance Field Service Corps pictures and explanatory talk by Lieutenant Roeder at the First Presbyterian Church house. Their guests included Mrs. Cyrus A. Dolph, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Adams and Hugh Hume.

Such a variety of wonderful diversions are found at the big bazaar, tea and dance for the benefit of the Red Cross at the David T. Honeyman residence on Friday rarely falls to the lot of Portland men and women. Not only did the large attendance of men and women justify their presence by having a perfectly good time, but they also contributed very greatly to one of the finest and biggest philanthropies of the universe, the American Red Cross.

Everyone assisting the hostess, as well as the latter, was attired in Red Cross garb, white frocks and red crosses on the sleeves and caps. The booths where candy and flowers were sold also were decked to feature the Red Cross idea, and the Jitney dance, in charge of Kurt Koehler and Irving Webster, was very gay and delightful.

A number of handcraft articles were raffled for the fund, and the matrons and maids assisting worked earnestly and sincerely for the fund. Refreshments were served for the small admission fee charged, the dining-room being presided over by Mrs. Allen Lewis, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox and Mrs. J. D. Farrell.

The Jazz band, now well known in Portland society, contributed to the program, and made it difficult for those attending not to indulge in the dances. Fortunes were told by Mrs. Henry C. Jewett, patriotic buttons were made and sold by Mrs. W. Gracie and subscriptions for membership in the Red Cross Society were taken by Antoinette G. Labbe and Mrs. Josephine Andrews.

Assisting were: Candy booth, Mrs. Kirkham Smith, Mrs. Hawley Hoffman and Mrs. Richard Wiley; flower booth, Mrs. Frederick L. Warren, Mrs. C. E. S. Wood and Mrs. John G. Edwards.

In the sales and tea were the Misses Rhoda Rumelin, Helen Ladd, Catherine Russell, Elizabeth Jones, Ruth Teal, Meta Rupp and Claire Wilcox.

on June 1, and the Major also is in receipt of orders to take command of a battalion of engineers in France in September.

Mrs. Frank M. Warren, Jr., is convalescing rapidly from an operation at the Portland Surgical Hospital, which the patient underwent Sunday.

Mrs. Edward H. Brooke and daughter, Miss Genevieve Brooke, left early in the week, accompanied by the former's sister, Mrs. Cicero Hunt Lewis, for California, and they plan to spend several weeks in the southern part of the state.

Miss Virginia McDonough, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barnes in Prineville for several weeks, is expected to arrive in town Monday.

Mrs. Henry W. Metzger generously has consented to give a concert for the benefit of the Red Cross, and the affair will be given on June 9 at the Multnomah Hotel.

Now comes another form of philanthropy—a charity ball, the Royal Rosarians to be hosts, and the families of enlisted American men to be the beneficiaries. The Rosarians each year give an annual ball, last year the affair being one of the notable functions of the American Lady Corsets

Protect and Preserve Your Good Figure

You owe it to yourself to protect and preserve the natural charm and grace of your good figure.

You know women who, at forty, are as stylish in figure, as graceful and erect as they were at twenty. If you ask them how they have kept their figures so youthful looking, they'll answer: "By always wearing the right corset."

That is it—wearing the right corset, the corset made for you, for your exact type of figure. Insist on having a corset that is designed for your exact type of figure.

There are many good corsets, good in material, in workmanship and outward appearance, but you can never be so sure of getting just the right model for your figure as you are if you ask for
