John H. Blackburn at her residence at Silverwood for several weeks. Mrs. Blackburn is the wife of Captain Blackburn, U. S. N., and will remain with Mrs. Brum during the remainder of her stay in Portland.

Mrs. and Mrs. I. N. Fleischner and daughter, Miss Elise Fleischner, will leave Tuesday to pass the summer months at their attractive cottage in Seaside.

Mrs. and Mrs. Edward Ehrman left yesterday for a brief visit in San Francisco.

Mrs. Charles Francis Adams and children will leave Tuesday for their cottage at Gearhart, where they plan to pass the summer.

Preceding Mrs. Henry Metzger's concert at the Multnomah Hotel last night, Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Allen Lewis were hosts for a charming dinner.

Round robin parties will not abate until the circle has been made many times. These parties are for the benefit of the furnishing fund of the Portland Woman's Union building, and it has grown enormously. All hostesses are requested to report to Mrs. Alice Benson, Beach, 1015 Quimby street, either before or immediately after their parties.

Round robin hostesses for last week include: Mrs. D. T. Carwell, Mrs. C. H. Richten, Mrs. Carwell's home; Mrs. P. J. Mann, Mrs. F. C. Barnes, Mrs. William Bradford, Mrs. J. H. Friesman, Mrs. U. G. Smith, Mrs. George Hardy, Mrs. F. E. Taylor, Mrs. H. C. Cliff, Mrs. Lewis Von Klein, Mrs. Bruce Rowan, Mrs. Frank Taylor, Mrs. Chester Hopkins, Mrs. William Calk, Mrs. Vera Puffer, Mrs. J. C. Hare, Mrs. Charles Prazier, Mrs. D. M. Roberg, Mrs. O. A. Matten, Mrs. Richard Martin, Mrs. A. H. Macdonald, Mrs. H. J. Houghton, Mrs. N. E. Pearson, Mrs. J. E. Werle, Mrs. J. A. Clark, Mrs. J. J. Keadler, Mrs. E. J. Haines, Mrs. W. H. Grenfell.

Mrs. Donald Spencer entertained with a large tea June 2.

Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett will be hostess Monday.

Future hostesses are: Mrs. Fred Leadbetter, Mrs. T. B. Wilcox, Mrs. Arnold Rothwell, Mrs. Guy Talbot, Mrs. J. C. Monteth, next Monday; Mrs. J. K. Gamble, Miss Ruth Teal, Miss Rhoda Romet, Miss Patsy Stewart, Miss Elizabeth Jones, Miss Katherine Russell, Miss Jean Morrison, Miss Evelyn Carey, Miss Mary Robertson, Mrs. Maurice Crumacker, Mrs. A. K. Eshorn, Mrs. Kurt Koehler, Mrs. Frank Burke, Mrs. Everett Ames, Mrs. J. D. Farrell, Mrs. W. O. Van Schuyver, Mrs.

Watson, Mrs. E. H. Carlton, Friday, luncheon for 20, followed by bridge and guests in 10 lots: Mrs. E. A. Rosenkrantz, Mrs. O. S. Russell, Mrs. E. C. Johnson, Mrs. Curtis Holcomb, Mrs. M. C. Griswold, Mrs. C. J. B. Malarkey, Mrs. W. F. Muffey, Mrs. O. G. Hugheson, Mrs. G. W. Nothnagle, Miss Anna Pinoy, Mrs. F. O. Pennington, Mrs. H. W. Strong, Mrs. H. J. Wilkins, Mrs. T. D. Walker, Mrs. W. E. Melbhenny, Mrs. Everett Johnson, Mrs. Floyd J. Campbell, Miss Sadie Stephenson, Mrs. F. J. Fleming, Mrs. J. W. Beveridge.

The benefit tea given by Mrs. A. N. Smith for the machine gun company Saturday afternoon at 271 North Twenty-fifth street was a delightful function and aroused much pleasant comment for the artistic effect of the decorations, the wealth of greenery and white Spring blossoms against a brilliant background of many huge American flags. Red, white and blue blossoms predominated in the dining-room.

Mrs. J. L. May, whose husband is Colonel of the Third Oregon, assisted Mrs. Smith in receiving the hundred or more guests that thronged the rooms. The attractive tea table was presided over by Mrs. F. F. Heitkem-per and Mrs. Robert Wilson, several young girls assisting in serving. Assisting in the drawing-room were Mrs. M. C. Griswold, Mrs. W. L. McElhenny, Mrs. Thomas Roberts, Mrs. C. J. Cook, Mrs. W. F. Greer and Mrs. E. J. Ivers.

Mrs. E. Frankie Walker delighted the guests with two groups of her own compositions, the first group comprising "Nocturne No. 1" and "Neapolitan Song"; the second group, "Children of the Meadows," "Doubt" and "Moonbeams." These exquisite children's songs, given with rare interpretative insight and sympathy, touched her listeners profoundly.

Mrs. McIntosh Bassett also sang a soprano solo, Harold Young, the tenor, contributed a song and a clarinet solo, while Mrs. Bennett, contralto, gave "Soul of Mine" and "Indian Love Song."

The lawn fete to be given Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Walter Burrell, 828 Hawthorne avenue, will be one of the most extensive and novel of those planned for the benefit of the Red Cross. It will partake of the nature of an outdoor bazaar, with booths and tables about the lawn and under the trees, while the use of Japanese umbrellas and lanterns will give to the appearance of a veritable fairyland.

This will be the last of the entertainments until after the close of the Red Cross drive, June 25.

Those assisting Mrs. Burrell at the tea table will be: Mrs. John Edwards, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. W. B. Ayer and Mrs. George Good.

The flower booth will be in charge of Mrs. Clarence Jacobson, Mrs. George Marshall, Mrs. James Dougherty and Mrs. Gay Lombard.

A book table will be in charge of Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, Mrs. William Brewster and Miss Carrie Flandre. Where books for the summer vacation may be obtained.

A cake table in charge of Mrs. Ralph Matson, Mrs. Morris Whitehouse, Mrs. Ray Matson, Mrs. Clyde Reade and Mrs. Carl L. Wernicke will also be a feature.

A barter table, where wonderful bargains of many kinds may be obtained, will be in charge of Mrs. Wheelwright and Mrs. W. O. Van Schuyver. This booth will contain many valuable articles which have been donated by friends.

A table of useful "household articles" will be in charge of Mrs. Charles Whitney and Mrs. Chester Murphy.

A bag table with bags for every conceivable use will be in charge of Mrs. Frederick Green and Mrs. Daniel Shindler.

The candy table will be presided over by Mrs. Elizabeth Jones and Miss Jean Morrison, while Miss Helen Ladd will assist with added attractions.

Ice cream sodas will be sold by Miss Clementine Lambert and Miss Helen Wood. Later in the afternoon a programme, including a cycle of garden songs, will be rendered under the direction of Mrs. Thomas Carrick Burke, and the pupils of Miss Jean Wold will give an exhibition of barefoot dancing.

The programme, "Hawthorne and Lavender," a song cycle for women's voices, will be the feature of the fete and will be presented by the members of the MacDowell Club. The numbers include:

"The Wind on the World," "The April Sky Sings Low," "In the Red Wood Dawn," "Deep in My Gathering Garden," "All in a Garden Green," "After the Grim Daylight," "This is the Moon of Rome," "The Time of Silence," "The Downs," "The World of Gladness."

PERSONAL APPEARANCE COUNTS THESE DAYS

Young Women in Business Should Establish and Use Their Credit.

"That young woman who applied for a position in my office the other day might have been capable enough, but she wasn't careful enough about her appearance," said the manager of a big corporation, in speaking of the matter of personal appearance in business these days.

"You see," he continued, "we want competent people, but we must insist that they keep up their personal appearance, because in any business the character of the institution is reflected in what the public sees of its representatives."

Had this business man continued further, he would easily have pointed out the way for any of his employees to always be well dressed by simply suggesting CHERRY'S Credit Clothing Company, where any man or woman can always buy good clothes by the simple method of using his or her credit.

CHERRY'S handles a very fine line of men's and women's wearing apparel at moderate prices, with the always convenient advantage of liberal credit. Just a small amount each week will keep you always well dressed.

Now, of course, this wonderful credit plan could never be maintained were it not for the fact that CHERRY'S in Portland is operated under the same management as CHERRY'S in San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento, Tacoma and Los Angeles.

A. E. Rockey were hosts, was one of the most interesting and successful financially and socially of the numerous parties given for this splendid organization. The MacDowell Club was sponsor for an artistic production of dances, interpreting "A Day in the Garden," in which Miss Jean Wold's pupils, numbering about 30, participated. They were assisted by Mildred Keats, who is known for her graceful and clever dancing. The terraces under Rockholm's big cedar trees were thronged with a smartly and Summer-garbed assemblage of men and women who showed their appreciation in an enthusiastic manner. This affair netted $500, which is the same amount that Mrs. David Taylor Honeymann's elaborate and charming Red Cross party netted last week. An orchestra of several pieces under

American Lady Corsets

For Full Formed Figures

THE plump, well-rounded figure has a charm that deserves all the protection a perfect corset can give. American Lady Corsets give you that protection which insures a youthful figure.

You'll say the American Lady Corsets are the most remarkable corsets ever made for full figures.

No cumbersome straps and buckles, no excessive weight to make you feel as though you were in a harness—scientific designing, expert cutting and making take their place in American Lady Corsets.

The right corset keeps you from looking stout. It insures graceful, fashionable lines with all the charm that a well-rounded figure should have. The right corset insures graceful poise, an erect carriage. If it's an American Lady Corset it does more—it guarantees comfort and long-time service.
