

Miss Hilda Cliff, Whose Engagement Was

regreshments under the frees and on the verands.

Towing to the request of the central committee, asking that all affairs for the benefit of the Red Cross arranged after June 13 be postponed until after the big drive, which closes June 25, Mrs. C. D. Brunn has postponed her reception planned for Monday aftermon at her home in Riverwood. Mrs. Brunn acted upon the first suggestion of the committee that all affairs be postponed until after the close of the hig drive, which is scheduled for June 13, and canceled her party. When the committee at the meeting held Monday decided to permit all social functions until June 13 to be given as per schedule, it was too big a task for Mrs. Brunn to rearrange.

Ranking among the most notable

captain and Mrs. Kenneth D. Hauser Mrs. William Kler was hostess for an investigation to rearrange.

Captain and Mrs. Kenneth D. Hauser Mrs. William Kler was hostess for an investigation to rearrange.

Captain and Mrs. Kenneth D. Hauser Mrs. William Kler was hostess for an investigation to rearrange.

Captain and Mrs. Kenneth D. Hauser Mrs. William Kler was hostess for an investigation to rearrange.

Captain and Mrs. Kenneth D. Hauser Mrs. William Kler was hostess for an investigation to rearrange.

Captain and Mrs. Kenneth D. Hauser Mrs. William Kler was hostess for an investigation to rearrange.

Mrs. William Kler was hostess for an investigation to rearrange.

Mrs. William Kler was hostess for an investigation to portant tensity of the Mallory on Wednesday. A charming dinner party was presided over in the evening by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bates.

Society folk are taking a keen interest in the festivities of the Summer season.

Society folk are taking a keen interest in the festivities of the Summer season.

Society folk are taking a keen interest in the festivities of the Summer season.

Society folk are taking a keen interest in the Royal Rosarian ball to be given during the Rose Festival. The affair is scheduled for Friday night, June 15, at Cotillion Hall, and the entire proceeds will be used for the families of the entisted men. The ball is grandly evening Miss Irma Rice entertained with a bridge party honoring the house as a special compliment to the pairwise of the entire proceeds will be used for the families of the entire proceeds will be used for the families of the entire tensively entertained.

Saturday evening Miss Irma Rice entertained with a bridge party honoring from a linformal luncheon at the Mallon for the Mallon tensing the rest in the Roser season.

Miss Flo Hermann, one of the Season's most popular brides-elect, whose weeding to John R. Kenny will be an informal luncheon at the Mislon for the Mislon for the Mallon for and Mrs. Marcus Fleischner.

Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett entertained Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett entertained with an informal tea party on Monday, the affair having a double significance, that of being hostess for one of the Round Robin parties for the benefit of the Portland Woman's Union building fund, and to honor the visiting women delegates to the Red Cross War Coancil conference held in this city early in the week at the Portland Hotel. The women present represented prominent members of Spokane and other points in Washington, Idaho, Montana and Utah.

Mrs. George N. Davis left the latter part of last week for San Francisco, where she will remain until the three months' training at the officers' reserve training camp is over. Her husband, Judge Davis, is a member of the corps, and Mrs. Davis' plans are unsettled and depend on where her husband will be sent. She will be at the Cliff Hotel indefinitely, and will have as a guest Mrs. Harry Nicolai for a few weeks, the latter going down with Mrs. Davis.

Mrs. Harry L. Keats and charming

Mrs. Harry L. Keats and charming young daughter, Miss Mildred Keats will leave soon for California, where Mildred will take a brief course in Indishawn school of dancing, and later sha will go to New Lork to resume study with her old teachers, including the well-known Chalif, Russian dancer.

Messages of cheer and sympathy are the direction of Henry Bettman played for the dancers and also during the teat specialists at the Presbyterian hospital in New York. He is recovering refreshments under the trees and on the verands.

(Continued From Page 3.)

This is the request of the central and messages from old friends and messages from old friends and messages from old friends and men will participate in the grand march and add to the festivities. Guy W. Talbot is chairman of the floor committee and Dean Vincent, Prime Minister, has the assistance of several sub-committees. A gold and silver offering will be taken up during the evening and as soon as acceptances are received by the committee cards of admission will be mailed.

During the past week, both National

During the past week, both National and civic affairs have claimed every-one's attention. In the midst of Red Cross teas, election and registration, however, the glorious weather proved cross teas, election and registration, however, the glorious weather proved so irresistible that many found a little leisure for small informal affairs at the Hunt Club. The numerous roads leading to Garden Home are very picturesque and just now the surrounding country is at its lovellest.

Thursday Mrs. P. E. Froelich was a luncheon hostess for five. In the evening the members of the Thursday night riding class were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Martin at the club-house. The start was made from the Fortland Riding Academy at 7, and after a most enjoyable evening spent in dancing and playing games, a delicious supper was served. This class was organized by Mrs. Martin during the early part of the Winter and has always been very well attended. Friday afternoon Miss Irene Daly was hostess for a tea and in the evening E. K. Oppenheimer entertained a ng E. K. Oppenheimer entertained was nostess for a tea and in the evening E. K. Oppenheimer entertained a party of four.

Mrs. W. L. Wood had a luncheon on Saturday and on Monday night entertained with a dinner for four.

F. W. Leadbetter and party of four had breakfast at the club on Sunday and in the afternoon dinner was served to 23, consisting mostly of members who were assisting in getting the grounds in order, Mr. and Mrs.
J. C. Ainsworth and the Misses Flanders also stopped for tea. On Tuesday H. C. Campbell and party were guests at the club and Mrs. Burke Channing was hostess for six for luncheon. In the evening a dinner was given by Mrs. Joseph Andrews and given by Mrs. Joseph Andrews and Wednesday Mrs. W. L. Wood had luncheon party for six.

This week promises to be an exceedingly busy one for the Hunt Club members as several affairs are planned at the clubhouse and they are also arranging to take a very active part in the Rose Festival, being an escort for the Governor Royal party on Wednesday and drilling later in the afternoon on Multnomah field and on Friday entering the Floral parade.

Mrs. Clyde Hixon Reade entertained Mrs. Clyde Hixon Reade entertained about two dozen matrons at her sub-urban home at Boardman Thursday with a picnic luncheon in celebration of her birthday anniversary. She was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Walter F. White. The Reades make their home at Boardman during the Summer months and frequently entertain with picnic parties.

Mrs. Henry W. Metzger's concert last night at the Multnomah Hotel was one night at the Multnomah Hotel was one of the most delightful and artistic events of the week. The programme, an unusually charming and interesting one, was the same as that given by the charming songbird at her brilliant New York concert. Edgar E. Coursen presided at the piano. The ballroom of the Multnomah was thronged with a most appreciative assemblage of society folk and prominent musicians, all of whom were easer to hear Mrs. Metzger's first recital since her New York success.

Miss Helen Krausse and Glen Sigel were married at a charming yet simple service Satarday, June 2, in the First Presbyterian Church, Rev. John H. Boyd officiating. The couple was unattended, the bride wearing a smart tailleur and straw hat, with corsage of roses and orchids. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto E. Krausse and is a popular young woman.

Mr. and Mrs. Sigel, who are at present at the seashore, will be at home a popular young woman.

Mr. and Mrs. Sigel, who are at present at the seashore, will be at home after June 15 at the Trinity Place Apartments.

Mrs. Rose Coursen Reed will give a recital and musicale in the ballroom of Multnomah Hotel Tuesday night.

the popular brides-elect, was the guest of honor for the charming tea and linen shower given Thursday by Mrs. Erskine Wood. About two score old friends of the honoree called and the friends of the honoree called and the floral decoration of the rooms enhanced the attractive gowns of the guests. Ars. Elliott R. Corbett and Miss Hazel Weidler presided at the tea table.

Miss Mary Kern, who will become the bride of Clarence M. Eubanks tomorrow night at the home of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Loyal E. Kern, in Irvington, has been deluged with social attentions during the week just closed. Among those who entertained in her honor, some of the affairs including Mr. Eubanks, were: The luncheon presided over by Mrs. Walter Gearin on Monday; Mrs. Byron E. Miller's luncheon on Tuesday; Miss Frances Fuller's party on Thursday, and Mrs. Luis party on Thursday, and Mrs. Luis Abelli's luncheon and card party yes-terday afternoon at the Hyland ranch near Vancouver. Miss Kern is a charming girl and has a host of friends in Portland society who are deeply regretting that her wedding will take her away from Port-

Mrs. William Kier was hostess for an

FIRST SHOWING

of the new

Doro-Type

in Portland

An exquisite revision of the old daguerreotype

THE PEASLEYS

PHOTOGRAPHY AND ART 407 Morrison St.

TAILORS, 101-106 Mezzanine Floor, Northwestern Bank Bldg.

J. K. Stern LADIES TAILOR 447 Alder St.

Leon Robertson, Roy Johnson, John Kenny, Donald Rice and the hostess, Miss Rice.

On Thursday Mrs. Jesse Warren asked a few of Miss Hermann's intimate friends in for tea.

Miss Hilda Cliff was a charming hostess on Friday, when she entertained for Miss Hermann with a luncheon for 20.

Frederick Harkness honored Mrs. Frederick Harkness honored Miss Hermann with a bridge tea and miscellaneous shower on Saturday afternoon. Those bidden were Mrs. Joseph Dorney, Mrs. Paul Feeling, Mrs. Moyer Cole, Mrs. Ruth Haracy, Mrs. Edward Kropp, Mrs. Randolph Hall, from Greenwich, N. C.; Misses Hilda Cliff, Maruel Case, Irene Moshier, Edna Sattler, Mary Walsh, Flo Hermann and the hostess, Mrs. F. Harkness. Mrs.

many relatives and friends having been included in the invitational list.

Complimenting the '17 classes of St. Mary's Academy and the Columbia Duniversity, Miss Mary Alta Kelly, class president of St. Mary's graduates, gave a dancing party Thursday evening at Laurelhurst Club. The clubnouse was beautifully decorated with American Beauty roses, carnations and caps of purple say white and red and well.

The Lastender of St. Mary's graduates, gave a dancing party Thursday evening at Laurelhurst Club. The clubnouse was beautifully decorated with American Beauty roses, carnations and caps of purple say white and red and well.

The Lastender of St. Mary's graduates, gave a dancing party Thursday evening at Laurelhurst Club. The clubnouse was beautifully decorated with American Beauty roses, carnations and caps of purple say white and red and well.

The Lastender of St. Mary's graduates, gave a dancing party Thursday evening at Laurelhurst Club. The clubnouse was beautifully decorated with American Beauty roses, carnations and caps of purple say white and red and well. Mrs. Baker will be hostess for a four-table eard party and luncheon to-morrow in the tearoom of Multnomah Hotel.

Beauty roses, carnations and snowballs, and balloons and caps of purple and white and red and white, the colors of the institutions, were distributed among the guests. Those present were:

the guests. Those present were:

Misses Helen Manning, Dorothy Myers, Rose Ryan, Colette Harter, Irens Martinazzi, Esther O'Brien, Vivian Ferrera, Jessie Geev, Gertrude Van Hoomison, Bernice Alstock, Frances Taibot and Geneviève-Clancy, of St. Mart's class; Helen Mayo, Frances McGill, Carmel Sheesgreen, Bernette Sheesgreen, Dorothy Mountain, Elizabeth McLean, Marion Buckley, Frances Johnson and Theresa Cassidy; Matthew F. Murphy, Henry A. Keuhle, James Flynn, Julius W. Purcell, John Murphy, John E. Sullivan, Vincent Jacobberger, Edmund J. Sweeney, W. Allen Casey, George M. Mayo and Kenneth Brooks, of Columbia, '17; Frank Brennan, Herbert Haywood, Frank E. Cody, Herbert W. Smith, Clement Alstock, Thomas A. Duffy, Maicolm T. McLean, Fred Normandin, Frank Osgood, Frank Pick and Evans T. McLean, Chaperones were Mrs. John Manning, Mrs. F. P. Harter and Mrs. John W. Kelly.

Alameda Club is in line for a unique

ment, the beautiful and spacious lawns Nina Dressel, a great favorite in affording ample opportunity for the musical circles, sang in her usual the trim, short skirt!

A stunning new 10-in.

Grey kid Boot $12.00

-One of the smartest footpieces that was ever created for women is this graceful laced boot of gray kid! It has Louis

Beginning Tomorrow We Show New Creations to Delight You in Our

June Carnival of White

-New hats are arriving daily. Hats that are being shown tomorrow for the first time.

-White-all of them, for white is Queen of Summer Millinery now.

-White Satin Hats

-White Milan Hemps -White Panamas

-White Italian Milans

Dainty Creations of White Crepe-Flower Trimmed

NEW TRIMMINGS-White Wheat, Wings, Grasses, Fancies

New Fashions in Furs for Summer Wear

Foxes—

White Foxes-Taupe Foxes-Yukon Foxes-Pointed Foxes-Kamschatka Foxes—Poiret Foxes—Red Foxes— Black Foxes

Hudson Seal-

Capes - Stoles - Throws

Special Summer Savings Now

The Wonder Millinery

At Sixth and Alder Streets

The Ladies Relief Society has chosen Wednesday, June 20, for their tea at the Children's Home. This tea is not to be considered in any way a benefit, merely to show the Portland public, merely to show the Portland public, all of whom are cordially invited, the excellent work being done at the home, and to permit an inspection of the system and general workings of the Childran's Home. Prominent women are on the board of directors of the home and the relief society is made up of representative women of the city. Refreshments will be served.

Mrs. T. W. B. London, prominent matron of Vancouver, B. C., is spend-ing a few days at Hotel Portland and while here is being much entertained.

Levi Ankeny, of Walla Walla, ex-United States Senator, accompanied by Levi Ankeny, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Nesmith Ankeny, of Pendleton, are spending a few days at the Portland.

Alameda Club is in line for a unique entertainment on the evening of June 26, in the form of a lawn carnival for the benefit of the Red Cross. This is the first large affair after the Red Cross "drive" and promises to be one of the biggest affairs of the season.

The George S. Reid and Captain Delmar Shaver homes on Alameda crive, directly facing each other, offer a splendid setting for this sort of an entertainment, the beautiful and spacious lawns Nina Dressel, a great favorite in

$1.95, $2.25, $4.50, $5.75, $6.50

SENDING OUT THE GOODS BY SENDING THE PRICES DOWN Next week there will be placed on sale many garments in all departments—broken lines, single pieces—at such reductions as do not appear in this advertisement. Ask the salesladies to show them to you.

REDUCED PRICES ON SUITS REDUCED PRICES ON DRESSES REDUCED PRICES ON COATS REDUCED PRICES ON SKIRTS $3.95, $4.95, $5.95, $8.75, $10.75, $16.50 REDUCED PRICES ON BLOUSES heels and turned soles, too-and just high enough to meet Household Dept., Basement.

7300