

SALEM RED CROSS EXPANDS ACTIVITY

Membership Campaign Covers Marion and Polk Counties, Seeking 5000.

HOSPITAL SUPPLIES MADE

Headquarters in Federal Building Busy Place—Complete Records Are Kept of Members and of Material Gathered.

SALEM, Or., June 9.—(Special).—With a membership of nearly 3500 in Marion and Polk counties and with a continued steady growth which is certain to lead to the 5000 sought for those two counties, Willamette Chapter of the American Red Cross, with headquarters in Salem, is making an enviable record for itself in developing its branch of patriotic service.

Organized but a comparatively few weeks, its accomplishments, which are a little short of wonderful, have been due to the untiring and almost day and night efforts of the volunteer workers of the two counties who have thrown themselves into the labor with their hearts and souls.

Excellent quarters provided. Excellently equipped rooms in the upper story of the Salem Federal building have been turned over for the use of the Red Cross workers and here each week gather scores of leading women of the city, women of all trades and crafts and women with an earnest desire to assist, who are learning and helping.

Executive headquarters in Salem is a busy place and here information is given, all correspondence handled, files kept and a card index system of members and auxiliaries as well as all materials given out or returned is kept up to date. Applicants for all lines of class work, first aid, elementary hygiene, home care of the sick, and similar work are given their headquarters. A regular commercial system is successfully managed in handling the business affairs of the chapter and are reported to be in thriving condition.

Officers and directors of the chapter are as follows: Chairman, George P. Rodgers; first vice-chairman, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith; second vice-chairman, Henry W. Meyers; secretary, Anna Berg; treasurer, David W. Eyrer. Committee chairman, Mrs. E. E. Fisher; military relief committee, Charles E. Murphy; civilian relief committee, S. M. Endicott; membership committee, Mrs. E. E. Fisher; financial committee, Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris; finance committee, Dan Fry; publicity committee, Frank Lovell.

Many on Board of Directors. Directors of Willamette Chapter are: Mrs. Chauncey Bishop, Mrs. R. S. Wallace, Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, Clifford Brown, Rev. G. P. Holt, Justice George Burnett, Dr. E. E. Fisher, Dr. W. E. Morse, Dr. E. E. Fisher, Dr. H. C. Epley, E. S. Tillingshast, Dr. Charles Crapp, of Independence; Dr. H. O. Hickman, of Gervais; Charles McHenry, of Astoria; Dr. W. R. Wright, Dr. M. E. Pomeroy, J. C. Perry, Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Joseph Albert, R. J. Hendricks, Miss Cornelia Marvin, Dr. A. B. Stiles, Dr. H. C. Epley, W. Keene, of Silverton; Miss Nell Sykes, Miss L. McNary, Rev. Robert S. Gill, Mrs. George Aiken, Dr. C. E. Epley, of Chemawa; H. Weddler, Dr. Victor Rocho, of Woodburn; A. Hucklestein, Sr., Mrs. Oscar Hayter, of Dallas; Dr. H. A. Beauchamp, of Haystack; J. J. Craig, of Jefferson; Rev. J. M. Dominic, of Mount Angel; Mrs. J. W. Sandler, of Aurora.

The membership committee of Willamette Chapter, American Red Cross, consists of Mrs. E. E. Fisher, chairman; Mrs. P. A. Elliott, Mrs. B. O. Shuckling, Mrs. Richard Cartwright, Mrs. August Hucklestein, Jr., William McGilchrist, Dr. H. C. Epley, Dr. R. N. Avison, August Hucklestein, Sr. This committee, working with the members of the executive board and assisted by many of the patriotic citizens of Salem, has as its specific work the creating of interest in Red Cross work, planning and aiding in membership campaigns and the organization of auxiliaries or branches within the jurisdiction of the Willamette Chapter—Marion and Polk counties.

This work has been carried on in the following manner: First, some person or persons in the community are interested in Red Cross work and in the forming of an auxiliary in their particular town or neighborhood. A meeting is arranged and everyone is urged to attend to learn what "Red Cross work" means. When a satisfactory date has been agreed upon they communicate with the chairman, Mrs. Fisher, or with headquarters and the programme is arranged. This programme usually consists of music and short talks by members interested in the various phases of the work, as the finance, showing the disposition of funds; the relief work (both military and civil); the class work; the making of dressings and hospital supplies; the need of new members and the advantages derived from forming new auxiliaries.

Usually as many members as possible are secured at these meetings. The auxiliary blanks are filled in, temporary officers elected, questions answered and instructions given as to how to proceed with the work.

Whole City is Canvassed. The chairman of the membership committee met with the executive board at one of the early meetings and plans were made for a city campaign in Salem. This campaign was held later and during a three days' house-to-house canvass, every man, woman and child in Salem was given a personal invitation to join the Red Cross. With the help of nearly 100 loyal men and women of Salem, who helped in the canvass, the desired membership of 1500 for Salem was far exceeded. The committee has a slogan of "5000 members for Willamette Chapter" and present indications are that we will far exceed that number, for every town, school district and community seems eager for a chance to help prove that America was born to serve mankind, and everyone is falling into line to help push along the Red Cross work. There are at present organized 60 auxiliaries and they have 2174 members.

Physicians Conduct Classes. The educational committee is composed of Mrs. L. T. Harris, chairman; Miss Lillian McNary, Miss Cornelia Marvin, Miss Charlotte Holmstrom, Miss Catherine Carlson and Miss Marjorie Marvin.

Fourteen physicians in Salem are authorized to give lectures and lessons in first aid and other subjects and give instructions gratis. There are also physicians authorized to do this work in Astoria, Dallas, Gervais, Hubbard, Independence, Silverton, Stayton and other places.

the sick and expects to have another and larger one June 15.

At supply headquarters on the second floor of the postoffice building, materials are issued to all auxiliaries of Willamette Chapter for the making of hospital garments, the knitting being a separate department in Meyers' store. Five classes a week are now working on surgical dressings at supply headquarters with 20 in each class. The surgical dressings are made only at supply headquarters by uniformed Red Cross nurses, who are graduates of the University of California. The work is under the direction of Mrs. Harry E. Clay whose work has been approved by Margaret E. Scott. She is aided by Mrs. Agnes Shuckling and Mrs. H. W. Meyers who are approved assistants. The knitting is under the direction of Mrs. Russell Catlin.

Headquarters Records Complete. At executive headquarters information is given, all correspondence handled, files kept of all letters, bills, auxiliary records, etc. A card index system lists auxiliaries, members and all materials given out or returned. Requisitions are issued for all purchases, and all bills paid by check after approval of executive board. Applicants for all lines of class work, first aid, elementary hygiene, home care of the sick, diabetics, etc., register at headquarters.

In fact, a regular commercial system is followed in managing business affairs of this chapter, and nothing done unless fully authorized by Washington or acting under instructions from general headquarters. The report of Treasurer D. W. Eyrer, of the chapter, is as follows:

Receipts: Membership to date $3264.00 1917 Campaign buttons $1.50 Subscription to Red Cross Magazine 18.00 Donations received 505.80 Total receipts $3889.30

Willamette Chapter has, according to membership fees turned in to the treasurer, a total membership of 3264. Fifty cents for each member, or $1632, is to be returned to the National Headquarters at Washington, D. C. This leaves a balance of $1008.60 for the use of Willamette Chapter.

The following is a list of completed supplies now on hand and ready for shipment: Two dozen two-inch gauze bandages, four dozen three-inch gauze bandages, two dozen four-inch gauze bandages, four and one-half dozen three-yard gauze rolls, four and one-half dozen one-yard gauze rolls, 44 dozen four-inch gauze wipers or sponges, 34 dozen two-inch gauze wipers, 21 dozen one-inch gauze wipers, 21 dozen one-half-inch gauze wipers, 21 dozen one-quarter-inch gauze wipers, 34 dozen six-inch gauze wipers, 12 dozen pillowcases, three dozen hospital bed sheets, 18 pairs of hospital bed socks, four dozen hot water or ice bag covers, six dozen doctors' and nurses' operating gowns, two dozen operating caps, three and one-half dozen operating helmets, 20 pair operating leggings for patients, 10 dozen three-inch muslin bandages, 10 dozen one-inch muslin bandages, 10 dozen three-inch flannel bandages, four dozen four-inch flannel bandages, four dozen one-half dozen bandages, four tailed, six dozen bandages, 10 dozen triangular bandages or slings, four dozen abdominal binders, 10 dozen face towels.

Son of German Parents Buys Liberty Bond.

Patriotic Six-Year-Old Laid Wine-trout of Grants Pass, Pops to Shame Most of His Elders in Displaying His German-American Spirit.

GRANTS PASS, Or., June 9.—(Special).—Grants Pass has a 6-year-old boy who has put to shame most of his elders in displaying his patriotism. Lee Winetrot, son of C. A. Winetrot, heard his parents speaking of liberty bonds a few evenings ago. He listened, but said nothing. Two days afterward he asked his father if "liberty bonds" were to help the United States win the war. "Receiving an affirmative answer, he mused a while and then said: 'Well, I guess I'll have to help end that war. Where do they sell those things?'" He was told that Sam Baker, cashier of the Josephine County Bank, could tell him about it. Nothing more was said, but the next day the 6-year-old boy marched into the bank with his pockets bulging with pennies and nickels that were his savings of several years and introduced himself to Cashier Baker with, "I want some liberty bonds." "How many?" asked Baker. For reply the boy began emptying his pockets by the handfuls. He had $50, mostly in pennies and nickels. And he got a receipt for one of Uncle Sam's gilt-edge bonds.

Rockaway Branch Organized.

ROCKAWAY, Or., June 9.—(Special).—A Rockaway branch of the Portland chapter of the American Red Cross Society was formed here last evening with 17 annual and two subscribing members. Chairman, K. L. Boling; two vice-chairmen, Mrs. A. M. Holdrick and Mrs. J. J. Krebs; secretary, Mrs. Mary Jones; treasurer, Mrs. Clara F. Russell.

STUDY PLANS MADE

University Instructor to Engage in Research.

WOMEN TO TEACH SCIENCE

Noted National Educators Will Lecture at Summer Sessions of Oregon University at Eugene and Portland.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, June 7.—Research work will occupy the time of science professors at the University of Oregon this summer. Some are already out in the field, busied along their particular lines. Dr. John F. Boyard, head of the department of zoology, will go next week to Friday Harbor, Wash., where he will work at the Marine Biological Station. Dr. C. H. Edmondson, assistant professor of zoology, is on the Oregon coast making a general survey of the shellfish of the Northwest coast as a possible source of food supply.

Dr. Earl L. Packard, of the department of geology, is working along the Oregon coast on a geological problem. He will meet and co-operate with Dr. Edmondson. Later he will join Dr. Warren D. Smith, head of the department of geology, on a field trip in the rich geological region of the John Day Valley, in Southeastern Oregon.

Professors Do Research Work. Alfred C. Shelton, student assistant in zoology in the university, is already in Death Valley, Cal., with a California party, seeking flora and fauna.

Dr. W. P. Boynton and Dr. A. E. Caswell, of the department of physics, will devote a share of their summer school time to research interest. Meanwhile, Professor O. P. Stafford, head of the university department of chemistry, is busy working out a chemical problem from which practical results in conservation of resources are considered likely.

Geology and zoology courses in the University of Oregon Summer School this year will be given by women, both of whom have a reputation in their line of work. The zoology will be handled by Miss Edna Wilson Bailey, Ph. D., of the University of California, and the

COOS MILLMEN IN UNION

Charter is Received and Membership Already Has Reached 321.

MARSHFIELD, Or., June 9.—(Special).—The Coos Bay Millmen and Timber Workers' Union received its charter and now is a member of the American Federation of Labor. The union was formed at the recent strike at the C. A. Smith mills.

The membership of the union is 321 and to date includes only men from the Coos Bay mills. Other members from the North Bend mills will be admitted to the organization soon and "Well, I guess I'll have to help end that war." Robert Stevenson is president of the union.

COOS OUT FOR RED CROSS

Total of $18,000 Is Expected to Be Raised in Two Counties.

MARSHFIELD, Or., June 9.—(Special).—Leaders of the Red Cross campaign for Coos and Curry counties, in which $18,000 is to be obtained to meet the National requirement, have planned the work to end on the 28th of this month and two weeks will be spent in perfecting the organization. On June 25 the big drive will commence and last for four days. Coos County's apportionment is as follows and includes the country districts surrounding the cities named: Marshfield, $6000; North Bend, $3000; Bandon, $3000; Coquille, $2500; Myrtle Point, $2000; Powers, $1500; George E. Dix, chairman of the local Red Cross zoology by Miss Laura Hatch, Ph. D., of Smith College.

Miss Bailey, who is a product of the University of California, now has charge of the training there of teachers of biology for the high schools of the state. For the first three weeks of the term she will give courses in the teaching of zoology in high schools and in vertebrate zoology. For the last three weeks of the term Professor A. E. Sweeter, head of the department of botany, will occupy the same class hours with work in botany and natural history. Professor Sweeter will devote the first three weeks of the Summer term to giving botany and natural history work at the Portland center.

First Aid Classes Planned. Classes in first aid and bandaging similar to the regular Red Cross course will be given by Miss Lulu Gell, registered Red Cross nurse, who is a graduate of the New York Presbyterian Hospital and the Sloane Maternity Hospital. With special reference to the needs of high school teachers, Miss Gell will also give a practical course in dietetics and home nursing in a room fitted up with hospital equipment.

Daily assemblies in Villard Hall will be addressed by members of the Summer faculty, including such noted lecturers as Dr. G. Stanley Hall, president of Clark University; Dr. Henry Church King, president of Oberlin College; Dr. J. Dunlap Smith, professor of English at Princeton, and Dr. John Timothy Stone, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian Church of Chicago.

A wide range of Summer courses will be given, and inquiries coming in from various parts of the state indicate a growing interest in the work of the session, which will open June 18 and continue to August 3. The week of July 7-14 will be vacation time, but a special opportunity both at the Portland center to attend the National Education Association at Portland.

The Portland courses, for which a heavy registration is indicated, will be given in the Central Library Building, extending students may register at room 451, Courthouse Building, Portland.

Ashland to Stage Baby Show. ASHLAND, Or., June 9.—(Special).—Two features of exceptional interest to the women visitors to the Ashland Hygiene Show on July 3, 4 and 5 have been arranged by the Sunshine Society and Parent-Teacher Associations of the city. chapter; L. J. Simpson, special appointee of President Wilson; Charles Hall, of the Bank of Southwestern Oregon, and their aides will carry on the campaign.

Marshfield to Hold Election. MARSHFIELD, Or., June 9.—(Special).—The City Council is considering a new law covering municipal elections and the terms of Mayor Coppel, Councilman Harry J. Kimball and Recorder John Butler, which were to have expired in December, but which have been extended another year. The city will hold a special election to pass charter amendments to conform with the new order of tenure of office.

Dallas Women Buy Liberty Bond. DALLAS, Or., June 9.—(Special).—The Woman's Club, of this city, voted to buy a liberty bond at their last meeting. It was also decided to take an active part in the Red Cross work, and committees were appointed to aid the different departments.

MOUNTAIN VIEW AT WORK

Red Cross Branch Is Organized to Help in National Crisis.

RIDGEFIELD, Wash., June 9.—(Special).—An organization of a branch of the National Red Cross Society was completed recently at Mountain View, a large community near La Center, seven miles northeast of this place. Rev. F. M. Dakin gave a talk on Red Cross work. Much enthusiasm was shown by the members of the Mountain View community for Red Cross work and many are eager to serve.

The new association is known as Mountain View auxiliary, and is a branch of the Vancouver organization. The names were filed with Rev. Mr. Dakin, who will forward the list to the Vancouver chapter.

The auxiliary was organized with 23 members, and following are those who signed their intention of joining the Mountain View Auxiliary: Mrs. H. J. Keith, Mrs. S. Zelder, Mrs. D. G. Satre, Miss Myrtle Satre, Mrs. Sarah E. Bradley, Miss Chrystal Sutton, Miss Ruby South, Mrs. A. C. Reid, Mrs. Frances Clark, Mrs. J. McClellan, Miss Helen E.
