

CITY JOB HUNTERS NARROWING DOWN

Contesting Applicants Have Only One Week More to Sit on Anxious Bench.

CHANCES ARE DISCUSSED

Commissioners in Various Departments Will Make Recommendations, Which, It Is Believed,
Council Will Follow.

This week will see a culmination, in all probability, of the job-hunting rush at the City Hall. It is expected that the question of appointments will be settled in most every case before the new officials take office a week from tomorrow.

The assignment of the Commissioners to their respective departments, as announced Friday night by Mayor-elect Baker, has narrowed the question of appointments down to a few applicants. The question of removals and new appointments in subordinate positions in the various departments will assume definite form this week also.

Commissioners Will Co-operate.

All of the Commissioners have expressed a desire to co-operate with Mayor-elect Baker in the matter of appointments, and Mr. Baker has indicated that the recommendation of the Commissioners in charge of each department, where an appointment is to be made by the Council as a whole, should have considerable weight.

A. L. Barbur will have charge of the Public Works Department, and therefore his recommendation as to the position of city engineer undoubtedly will carry much weight. He refused to say yesterday who he favors for the position. Philip H. Dater, the present city engineer, and O. Laugaard are the principal aspirants. Mayor-elect Baker favors Mr. Dater for the position, believing that he is a diligent, competent engineer with a clean record.

Mann Will Select Health Officer.

The appointment of a health officer will be up to Commissioner-elect Mann.
It is thought there is a chance of Dr.
M. B. Marcellus being retained. He is now in service with the Third Oregon Regiment. The race for the position during Dr. Marcellus' absence is between Dr. George Parrish and Dr. John Abele. Both have strong recommendations from the medical fraternity of Portland.

For City Auditor a decision seems to be up to Commissioner-elect Bligelow. It is said Mayor-elect Baker and Mr. Mann stand for G. H. Funk, while Commissioners-elect Barbur and Kellaher are for James Gill, Deputy City Auditor.
Mr. Bligelow, therefore, stands in position of shifting the job either to Gill or Funk. He has refused to intimate what he will do.

Chief of Police Up to Baker.

Appointment of a Chief of Police will be up to Mr. Baker, inasmuch as he is head of the police bureau. The outcome of this appointment is still purely a matter of conjecture, with Chief Clark and N. F. Johnson, director of the Public Employment Bureau, as the leading aspirants. There are innumerable applicants for the place.

The race for Municipal Judge is between Judge Stevenson and George Kossman, with the lines not drawn sufficiently close to tell which is the more likely.

At a meeting of the new Council tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock it is probable the subject of appointments will be discussed, and possibly some definite decisions will be reached.

HOME SOUGHT FOR BOY

Mother Appeals to Juvenile Court Officer for Assistance.

There's a bright-faced little chap of 11 years who wants a real home and the kindly care of a father and mother.
He wants a chance to go to school, to play with other boys; just an equal chance with other youngsters is all he asks.

This young boy and his mother yesterday appealed to Chief Officer Spencer of the Juvenile Court in an effort to see if an adopted home could not be found for the boy. He has known but little of a mother's care since he was 2 years old. His father deserted the mother and child when he was a few months old.

Any family who might want to adopt this lad can obtain all information by applying to Mr. Spencer in the Juvenile Court department at the Courthouse.

SILVER CUP WON BY BOY

Fifty-Five Bushels of Corn Per Acre Raised by Lad of 15.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, June 23.—(Special).—Vernie Robertson, age 15, of the Eden, Ore., was winner at county and state fairs with White Dent corn. He raised 55 bushels per acre on three acres, and won the silver cup at the St. Paul (Minn.) Corn Fair last fall. He cultivated his own ground and took care of the entire crop by himself. He fattened seven hogs and sold 15 bushels of his corn at $3 a bushel.
Vernie kept a labor record of all his work, receipts and expenses.

LAWYER'S FEE GIVEN CAUSE

Attorney Jubilant When He Wins
"Flivver" Case in Court.

Morris Goldstein, a Portland attorney, felt so jubilant yesterday when he won a case for a client in the District Court that he made an immediate offer to give all court costs and his attorney fees to the Red Cross. A Red Cross worker was found and Goldstein paid over the $25 which he had earned as a result of winning the case.
The case involved a "flivver," which Goldstein's client won in the litigation.

CHURCH FOLK GIVE PARTY

Warren and Vesper Classes at First Presbyterian Entertain.

The Warren Bible class and Vesper class gave an informal party in the parlors of the First Presbyterian Church Tuesday night in honor of the membership contest in both classes.
Through the efficient work of officers and members, 191 new members were brought into the Warren Bible class for young women since October, and 151 members were added to the Vesper class composed of young men and women.

The membership contest was managed by Miss Gertrude Blinn and Miss Florence Woods in the Warren Bible class, while Miss Amy Klum carried off the honors in the Vesper class. The parlors were decorated with field flowers in baskets suspended from the wall brackets, while choice roses in vases were placed on stands in front of a draped flag and class pennant as a picturesque background. An excellent programme was presented in the early part of the evening, consisting of several numbers from the Vesper Orchestra of ten instruments, led by Miss Gertrude Hoerber with Carl Sutton at the piano.

Songs were rendered by Mrs. Marguerite Moore-Bourne and Miss Mildred Stephenson, both responding to en-cores, and a third response was given to an enthusiastic demand by the appreciative audience, in a duet in which the voices blended in a most pleasing manner. Readings were given by Miss Ruth McMaster and Miss Olga Halling-by, both presenting Southern scenes which were heartily enjoyed. Dr. John H. Boyd gave a brief address and showed plainly his deep interest in the seven hundred young people that compose the membership of these two classes. Miss Gertrude Hoerber closed the programme with a violin solo and a contralto solo, playing her own violin obligato, which was a fitting close.
Miss Bertha Knickerbocker was presented with a reward for bringing in the largest number of new members.

The officers of the two classes served refreshments and entertained socially till a late hour. The following are the officers of the two classes: Mrs. Angela L. Warren, teacher of the two classes; Miss Elizabeth Carothers, assistant teacher; Miss Perle Meservey, secretary and manager of the two classes; Miss Gertrude Blinn, Miss Florence Woods, Mrs. Daisy Smith, Miss Olga Hallingby, Miss Harriet Billings, Miss Iva Henderson, Miss Jessie Bechtel, Miss Marguerite Colpitts, Miss Matie Billings, Miss Amy Klum and Hopkin Jenkins.

MILITARY COOKS NEEDED

First Regiment Has Places for Few Good Men to Go to France.

Competent cooks, between the ages of 18 and 40 years, are needed at once for the Forest Regiment, for active service in France.
Word was received from Washington yesterday by George H. Cecil, District Forester for Oregon, that difficulty is being experienced in obtaining cooks.
Cooks are a very necessary adjunct to any army outfit, and particularly for a regiment of foresters.

Cooks able to pass the physical examination should apply Monday at 411 Beck building. Listing for this regiment in this region may terminate on that date.

Men desiring to fill other places in the regiment are requested also to get in their applications at once.

PENDLETON TO CELEBRATE

Elaborate Preparations Are Being Made for Fourth of July.

PENDLETON, Or., June 23.—(Special).— Observance of Fourth of July in Umatilla County will be elaborate. Fifteen hundred dollars has been appropriated by merchants and the city for preliminary expenses and preparations are being made for exceeding last year's celebration.

Features will be a patriotic pageant, of which the Spanish War veterans will have charge, horse racing, ball games, dancing, freak contests, including, if the supply of money is sufficient, a racing race, winner to take all. Purses in the races will total $300.
Three bands will be engaged and open-air concerts will be given afternoon and evening. Of course there will be fireworks.

POSTAL MEN AT ALBANY

THREE CONVENTIONS IN SAME CITY
SATURDAY, JUNE 30.

Postoffice Clerks, City Letter and Rural Letter Carriers Hold Annual Meetings at Same Time.

ALBANY, Or., June 23.—(Special).— Annual conventions of postoffice clerks, city letter carriers and rural letter carriers all meet here Saturday, June 30. Each organization will transact annual routine business, elect officers and choose delegates to represent Oregon at the National conventions of the respective organizations.

The conventions will be separate, but all three will meet at a banquet Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church as guests of the employees of the Albany postoffice. Frank S. Myers, postmaster of Portland, and Rev. James Elvin, of Salem, will be the principal speakers. Governor Withycombe has been invited.

C. W. Jochnik, of Oregon City, is president of the postoffice clerks. The other officers are: P. T. Harris, vice-president; E. H. Butler, secretary-treasurer; E. R. Lemison, of The Dalles, sergeant-at-arms; S. V. Dodge, Jr., of Newberg, organizer, and W. H. Worell, of Albany, member of the executive board.

John L. Etchison, of Oregon City, is president of the City Letter Carriers' Association, and Fred P. Holm, of Portland, secretary.

Officers of the Rural Letter Carriers' Association are: J. A. Peak, of Monro, president; Willis R. Willis, of Yamhill, secretary, and W. H. Boyd, of Beaverton; W. H. Brashear, of Salem, and E.
B. Cornett, of Albany, members of the executive committee.

SHERIDAN LIBRARY IS GROWING.

SHERIDAN, Or., June 23.—(Special).— From a set of 35 volumes to 512 volumes to date is the record of the growth of the Sheridan public library in two years, according to a report to the Civic Club by the library board.

The library was started two years ago as an adjunct organization of the Women's Improvement Club. In the two years the library has been self-supporting.

ARCANUM TAKES SOLDIERS

Military Service Is No Longer Proscribed Occupation.

Frank Wilnot, who represented the Grand Council of Oregon, Royal Arcanum, at the session of the Supreme Council in Boston, has returned to the city. He reports that the laws of the society were amended to waive the military as a proscribed occupation for present members, and fully protect all members who engage in actual warfare. He further stated that as this was the first session of the Supreme Council following the rate readjustment, a thorough investigation was made as to the result of the change, and the acturaries reported the society as over 100 per cent solvent.

Mr. Wilnot will attend the meeting of the Grand Council at 109 Thirteenth street, tomorrow evening, June 25, where he will give a full account of the proceedings of the convention, as well as of the litigation from which the Arcanum recently emerged victoriously.

ALBANY WOMEN GO TO CONVENTION.

The Young Women's Christian Association of Albany College will be represented by three delegates at the Northwest conference of the association at Seabeck, Wash., beginning today and continuing until July 3. The local representatives are Misses Helen Lutz, Eloise Leighton and Nelson McDonald.
