

Society

for 5 o'clock in the morning those who had expected the big social affair sent their best wishes or their gifts as the case might be and before they realized it all Mr. and Mrs. McCarl were away on their honeymoon.

Hildreth Humason was another who chose Tuesday as the day for her surprise wedding. She was wed at 4 o'clock in the Unitarian Church. Dr. Irving Lupton, the bridegroom, is now a resident of Spokane, but he lived here for several years and has many friends here.

Society, or that part of it that is interested in college affairs, will be interested in the dinner to be given on Thursday at 6 o'clock in the University Club. The local representatives of the National Federation of College Women have arranged the affair. Mrs. Myra Kingman Miller and several celebrities will be honor guests and there will be some wit and wisdom flashed about the board in the toasts that will follow. Miss Mary Frances Isom will be toastmistress. Mrs. F. S. Myers is chairman of the committee of arrangements. Among the speakers will be Bishop Sumner and Mrs. Ella Flag Young.

Mrs. F. H. Littlefield, vice-president of the Missouri Federation of Women's Clubs, was a visitor during last week and was entertained by Mrs. G. J. Frankel.

A social event of importance of Wednesday is the marriage of Miss Marie Elizabeth Haller and Neagle Podgere Sealy, which will be solemnized at the Westminster Presbyterian Church at 8:30 o'clock. The wedding following so soon after the announcement of the engagement is a surprise to a good many of their friends. Miss Helen Haller will be her sister's maid of honor.

Mrs. Max Houser entertained last night at a dinner dance for some of the younger members of society who were her guests at the Houser country place. Miss Ruth Ghirardelli, a lovely San Franciscan, who has been Mrs. Houser's guest for a fortnight, has been popular and has made friends readily among Portland society folk.

Among the social affairs planned for this week is a luncheon to be given by the Oregon Wellesley Club to all visiting Wellesley people. This will held at 12:30 Tuesday in the garden of Mrs. Boudnot Seely, 740 Patton road, Portland Heights.

Mrs. R. S. McCarl, Frances Dewar, A Bride of Tuesday.

Miss Elizabeth Dewar, Attendant at the McCarl-Dewar Wedding.

Mrs. W. P. Sinnott and Miss Nona Lawler will entertain on Tuesday at one of the largest teas of the season. They have planned the function as a compliment to Kathleen Lawler, the soloist who arrived a few days ago from New York and who will remain in Portland for the summer. The Lawler residence, 433 East Twenty-sixth street North, will be the scene of the reception. About 300 of the friends of Miss Lawler have been invited to greet her informally. Miss Lawler has lived in New York for several years, but on the occasion of her visits here she always is showered with social honors. Her friends were delighted with her success of last evening.

Mrs. D. P. Thompson dispensed delightful hospitality on Tuesday when she entertained at her country home for the pleasure of the members of the Unitarian Women's Alliance. The alliance does a large amount of practical patriotic and philanthropic work in an unostentatious way and its membership includes many earnest and influential women.

While the girls are knitting, sewing and making Red Cross supplies they are thinking: "What variety of social diversions will there be for next season when all the boys have gone away? The dancing clubs will have to suspend meetings. Well, we can have teas and benefits and recitals and more benefits and sewing bees and hikes, and then we can go home and sew some more and write letters to the boys, and do some of the work they used to do and we shall be busy; but we shall miss them."

Portland girls are active in all the patriotic service and Portland matrons are leaders in all good works. They have made a splendid record this year and are determined to keep up the standard. The war relief committee, under the direction of Mrs. W. J. Burns, did the pioneer work in bandage making, and now scores of other groups are busy as hives of bees.

That delightful hostess and most interesting woman, Mrs. H. E. Starrett, beloved alike by young and old, rich and poor, will have an important part in the entertaining of visitors this week. Her guests will be Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, president of Mills College; Miss Ethel Moore, playground director of Oakland, Cal.; Mrs. Martha S. Gleason, founder of the Southern Industrial Education Association; Miss Cornelia Marvin, State Librarian; and Miss Fox, dean of women at the University of Oregon.

A charmingly informal tea was given by Mrs. L. F. Mosher at her residence, 314 Sherman street, on Saturday, in commemoration of her 51st wedding anniversary. The house was decorated profusely with delphiniums and roses, combined with smilax and other greenery, the many floral offerings of the guests contributing not a little to the general artistic effect. Among the floral offerings was an exquisite bouquet, the gift of Mrs. M. E. Teal, a girlhood friend of Mrs. Mosher, composed of a centerpiece of orchids surrounded by alternate rows of tiny pink rosebuds, pink sweet peas and pink carnations and done in the compact, formal style of wedding bouquets of a generation or so ago; also a beautiful cluster of bride's roses, presented by Mrs. Helen Dearborn in memory of her late husband, who, as best man at Mrs. Mosher's wedding, presented the bride with her bouquet. Mrs. Dearborn, at that time Helen Flint, of Roseburg, Oregon, served as bridesmaid. The fact that Mrs. Dearborn and Mrs. M. P. Deady, who also was a guest at Mrs. Mosher's wedding, were present upon this occasion made it one of unusual interest and served as the inspiration for many delightful reminiscences.

Among the guests were Mesdames Edward Filling, M. E. Teal, Albina Page, Harriet McArthur, M. P. Deady, Helen Dearborn and Cathlin. Mrs. Mosher was assisted by her daughter, Miss Winifred Mosher, her granddaughter, Miss Winifred Cowan, and her niece, Miss Annie Blanche Shelby. Mrs. Mosher is the daughter of the late General Joseph Lane and the widow of the late Judge L. F. Mosher.

Miss Frances Bates has returned from Wellesley, where she graduated recently. She will pass the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Bates, and in September will return to New York, where she will be a member of the editorial staff of Vogue. There are many college girls home this summer and they will share in the social gaieties of the season. The first thing prescribed for all the returning students is, as a rule, a trip to beach or country place where one may rest, but as the girls are so popular and so charming, there is something planned for them nearly every day.

The opening of the hollyhock tearoom of the Multnomah Hotel was a Red Cross benefit affair that gave opportunity for society to see the beautiful new rooms and to hold a reunion of the leaders in the recent Red Cross drive. A goodly donation was added to the fund for the worthy cause, and a delightful social function was the result. The tearoom is an ideal place for such gatherings, and a number of the social set will give some of their smartest functions there in the near future—at least so they are planning.

The tea table, one of the large round ones, was most attractive at the recent party. In the center was a large basket of flowers of many tints of lavender, pink, blue and corn color. There were delphinium, Canterbury bells, sweet William, phlox and a dozen others, all vying in loveliness. The border was wreathed in the same lovely blossoms. The decoration was done by Mrs. Fehelmer, who donated her services for the occasion, doing this as her "bit" for the Red Cross, and the hotel management gave the sandwiches, cakes and goodies, so that the proceeds might be, as per rule and regulation, entirely for the cause.

Presiding at the table were: Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mrs. W. E. Conan, Mrs. Sigmund Frank, Mrs. Helen Landolt, Mrs. Bett and Mrs. L. Allen Lewis. Assisting about the room as lovely little waitresses were several society girls, dressed as Red Cross nurses. Miss Harriet Cumming, in a smart and becoming summer frock and stunning hat, was doorkeeper and received the free-will offerings.

Mrs. Jack Neville, of San Francisco, was one of the out-of-town guests who called and expressed her admiration of the attractive girls.

An orchestra played throughout the afternoon. Several of the prominent business and professional men dropped in during the late hour and added their "bit" and shared the pleasure of the gathering.

Woman's patriotic night at the Helix Theater tomorrow night promises to be one of considerable social interest. The Oregon Equal Suffrage Alliance, co-operation of which has been arranged to bring the Sir Douglas Mawson motion pictures of the Antarctic Expedition, to Portland, will provide special programs, at which Mrs. Thomas Carrick Burke will play and Dr. Esther Pohl-Lovejoy will speak.

Mrs. Paul E. Weil (Laura Cumming) and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peral (Inez Cumming) arrived on Wednesday to pass the summer with Dr. W. A. Cumming and the Misses Shanna and Harriet Cumming.

Mrs. Harry Nicolai has returned from a delightful sojourn in San Francisco, where she visited Mr. Nicolai's sister, Mrs. Ernest Duncan.

A number of prominent matrons of the city have agreed to act as patronesses of the programme tomorrow night and there will be number of ushers from among the younger set of girls. The patronesses will be: Mrs. J. D. Farrell, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mrs. Thomas Carrick Burke, Mrs. T. L. Eliot, Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, Mrs. James B. Montgomery, Mrs. C. Lewis Mead, Mrs. Charles Curry, Mrs. Preston W. Smith, Mrs. John A. Keating, Mrs. J. Andre Foulhoux, Mrs. C. W. Fulton, Mrs. W. T. Foster, Mrs. J. B. Kerr, Mrs. C. E. Swiger, Dr. Esther Pohl-Lovejoy, Misses Mary Frances Isom and Genevieve Thompson.

The alliance has taken an interest in the Mawson pictures for the purpose of raising a patriotic relief work fund. Mrs. E. S. Myers has been in charge of the committee on which also are Mrs. H. M. Sawyer, Mrs. M. Donald Spencer, and Mrs. Thompson.

That delightful hostess and most interesting woman, Mrs. H. E. Starrett, beloved alike by young and old, rich and poor, will have an important part in the entertaining of visitors this week. Her guests will be Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, president of Mills College; Miss Ethel Moore, playground director of Oakland, Cal.; Mrs. Martha S. Gleason, founder of the Southern Industrial Education Association; Miss Cornelia Marvin, State Librarian; and Miss Fox, dean of women at the University of Oregon.

A charmingly informal tea was given by Mrs. L. F. Mosher at her residence,

We Have to Make a Record—"Beat July" Sale Brings Scores of Timely Values

We knew we would make a success out of this "Beat July" Sale. It couldn't be any other way. The manner in which we have reduced pretty suits and coats is the talk of all Portland. Hundreds of women who were here yesterday are more than enthusiastic over the many remarkable bargains. Monday will be another big day—you'll want to be here.

Look at Suit Values Like These

Pretty Suits, Values to $27.50

$13.95

Jaunty Suits, Values to $32.50

$16.95

Stunning Suits, Values to $47.50

$19.95

Dainty New Summer Dresses

Warm weather is here in earnest. Now you will want a dainty, cool summer frock. These are pretty, cool volles, in stripes and figure designs, also plain colors. The shades are the very newest—and the styles are clever. Prices range $4.95, $5.95, $6.95

Look at Coat Values Like These

Swell Coats, Selling to $23.50

$13.95

Swagger Coats, Selling to $27.50

$16.95

Handsome Coats, Selling to $38.50

$19.95

New Crepe-de-Chine Blouses

The Emporium has made a reputation on this waist. Hundreds say it is the best value in town. New styles in large collar with point over shoulders. Made of extra heavy silk, in white and flesh. Why not get acquainted with this wonderful value—

$4.45

Jaunty Fiber Silk Sweaters

You will find an extra large showing of the newest styles in swagger fiber silk sweaters here. For beach and vacation wear, nothing will give you quite so much service as a silk sweater. Styles in pinch-back and belted models.

$6.95, $7.50, $8.95

White Skirt Weather Is Finally Here

The old sun did finally come out and now is the time for all of us to get in summer clothes. We have a wonderful showing of pretty tub skirts in white pique, gabardine, duck and Indian head. Styles are sport, with pocket and extra belt. $1.35, $1.75, $2.75.

Jaunty Summer Felts

If you could see the people at the Eastern Summer resorts, you'd say "felts" are certainly being worn. We took the tip and bought the biggest assortment of felt and velour hats in Portland. All the newest shapes—large and small. Here's a few of the styles: Felt Hats, Charmeuse Felts, Satin Hats and stunning Velours. Colors to match your dress.

EMPORIUM
Z. SWETT CO.
124-128 Sixth St. Just off Washington

$2.75 to $8.50

Mrs. Sarah Evans, Mrs. John A. Keating, Mrs. C. E. Curry and Miss Anna Shannon Monroe. This committee has directed work at booths in the hotels and stores during the week.

A beautiful bride of last Tuesday was Miss Hildreth Humason, whose marriage to Dr. Irving Lupton was solemnized in the Unitarian Church, Dr. T. L. Eliot officiating. Mrs. Lupton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Humason and the granddaughter of Mrs. E. J. Jeffery. The bride is a handsome brunette. For her wedding suit she chose a smart premier model. The skirt was of white gabardine, and the jacket was a stunning model of black velvet with a white gabardine shawl collar. With this suit she wore a picture hat of black and a corsage bouquet of orchids. There were no attendants.

Mrs. Lupton graduated from Portland Academy and also studied a year in Paris. She has made an enviable name for herself as a dramatic reader and interpreter. She is a charming girl and is possessed of a personality that endears her to all who know her. Dr. Lupton is a surgeon. He is a graduate of Hill Military Academy and Oregon Medical College. He is the son of H. E. Lupton and the brother-in-law of E. R. Cardie, manager of the Spokane International Railroad.

After the wedding a dinner for the family was held at the Benson, and Dr. and Mrs. Lupton left for Spokane that night.

Mrs. W. B. Roberson had as her guest for a few days last week Mrs. Knox, of Alabama. In compliment to the visitor Mrs. John Kollock entertained on Tuesday at a luncheon at the University Club.

Miss Helen Teal, who has been living at Alexandra Court for the past six months, returned to Hood River Saturday and opened her summer cottage for the season.

On Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock at the Church of the Holy Trinity, East Third and Clackamas streets, Miss Frances Dewar became the bride of Robert Smith McCarl, Rev. Father Lawlor officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate families only.

The bride, who is an unusually attractive brunette, was charming in a taupe tulle of polka twill with a smart white tailored hat. Her corsage

(Continued on Page 4.)

ager of the Spokane International Railroad.

After the wedding a dinner for the family was held at the Benson, and Dr. and Mrs. Lupton left for Spokane that night.

Mrs. W. B. Roberson had as her guest for a few days last week Mrs. Knox, of Alabama. In compliment to the visitor Mrs. John Kollock entertained on Tuesday at a luncheon at the University Club.

Miss Helen Teal, who has been living at Alexandra Court for the past six months, returned to Hood River Saturday and opened her summer cottage for the season.

On Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock at the Church of the Holy Trinity, East Third and Clackamas streets, Miss Frances Dewar became the bride of Robert Smith McCarl, Rev. Father Lawlor officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate families only.

The bride, who is an unusually attractive brunette, was charming in a taupe tulle of polka twill with a smart white tailored hat. Her corsage

After the wedding a dinner for the family was held at the Benson, and Dr. and Mrs. Lupton left for Spokane that night.

Mrs. W. B. Roberson had as her guest for a few days last week Mrs. Knox, of Alabama. In compliment to the visitor Mrs. John Kollock entertained on Tuesday at a luncheon at the University Club.

Miss Helen Teal, who has been living at Alexandra Court for the past six months, returned to Hood River Saturday and opened her summer cottage for the season.

On Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock at the Church of the Holy Trinity, East Third and Clackamas streets, Miss Frances Dewar became the bride of Robert Smith McCarl, Rev. Father Lawlor officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate families only.

The bride, who is an unusually attractive brunette, was charming in a taupe tulle of polka twill with a smart white tailored hat. Her corsage

(Continued on Page 4.)

ager of the Spokane International Railroad.

After the wedding a dinner for the family was held at the Benson, and Dr. and Mrs. Lupton left for Spokane that night.

Mrs. W. B. Roberson had as her guest for a few days last week Mrs. Knox, of Alabama. In compliment to the visitor Mrs. John Kollock entertained on Tuesday at a luncheon at the University Club.

Miss Helen Teal, who has been living at Alexandra Court for the past six months, returned to Hood River Saturday and opened her summer cottage for the season.

On Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock at the Church of the Holy Trinity, East Third and Clackamas streets, Miss Frances Dewar became the bride of Robert Smith McCarl, Rev. Father Lawlor officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate families only.

The bride, who is an unusually attractive brunette, was charming in a taupe tulle of polka twill with a smart white tailored hat. Her corsage

(Continued on Page 4.)

ager of the Spokane International Railroad.

After the wedding a dinner for the family was held at the Benson, and Dr. and Mrs. Lupton left for Spokane that night.

Mrs. W. B. Roberson had as her guest for a few days last week Mrs. Knox, of Alabama. In compliment to the visitor Mrs. John Kollock entertained on Tuesday at a luncheon at the University Club.

Miss Helen Teal, who has been living at Alexandra Court for the past six months, returned to Hood River Saturday and opened her summer cottage for the season.

On Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock at the Church of the Holy Trinity, East Third and Clackamas streets, Miss Frances Dewar became the bride of Robert Smith McCarl, Rev. Father Lawlor officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate families only.

The bride, who is an unusually attractive brunette, was charming in a taupe tulle of polka twill with a smart white tailored hat. Her corsage

(Continued on Page 4.)

ager of the Spokane International Railroad.

After the wedding a dinner for the family was held at the Benson, and Dr. and Mrs. Lupton left for Spokane that night.

Mrs. W. B. Roberson had as her guest for a few days last week Mrs. Knox, of Alabama. In compliment to the visitor Mrs. John Kollock entertained on Tuesday at a luncheon at the University Club.

Miss Helen Teal, who has been living at Alexandra Court for the past six months, returned to Hood River Saturday and opened her summer cottage for the season.

On Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock at the Church of the Holy Trinity, East Third and Clackamas streets, Miss Frances Dewar became the bride of Robert Smith McCarl, Rev. Father Lawlor officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate families only.

The bride, who is an unusually attractive brunette, was charming in a taupe tulle of polka twill with a smart white tailored hat. Her corsage

(Continued on Page 4.)

ager of the Spokane International Railroad.

After the wedding a dinner for the family was held at the Benson, and Dr. and Mrs. Lupton left for Spokane that night.

Mrs. W. B. Roberson had as her guest for a few days last week Mrs. Knox, of Alabama. In compliment to the visitor Mrs. John Kollock entertained on Tuesday at a luncheon at the University Club.

Miss Helen Teal, who has been living at Alexandra Court for the past six months, returned to Hood River Saturday and opened her summer cottage for the season.

On Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock at the Church of the Holy Trinity, East Third and Clackamas streets, Miss Frances Dewar became the bride of Robert Smith McCarl, Rev. Father Lawlor officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate families only.

The bride, who is an unusually attractive brunette, was charming in a taupe tulle of polka twill with a smart white tailored hat. Her corsage

(Continued on Page 4.)

ager of the Spokane International Railroad.

After the wedding a dinner for the family was held at the Benson, and Dr. and Mrs. Lupton left for Spokane that night.

Mrs. W. B. Roberson had as her guest for a few days last week Mrs. Knox, of Alabama. In compliment to the visitor Mrs. John Kollock entertained on Tuesday at a luncheon at the University Club.

Miss Helen Teal, who has been living at Alexandra Court for the past six months, returned to Hood River Saturday and opened her summer cottage for the season.

On Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock at the Church of the Holy Trinity, East Third and Clackamas streets, Miss Frances Dewar became the bride of Robert Smith McCarl, Rev. Father Lawlor officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate families only.

The bride, who is an unusually attractive brunette, was charming in a taupe tulle of polka twill with a smart white tailored hat. Her corsage

(Continued on Page 4.)

ager of the Spokane International Railroad.

After the wedding a dinner for the family was held at the Benson, and Dr. and Mrs. Lupton left for Spokane that night.

Mrs. W. B. Roberson had as her guest for a few days last week Mrs. Knox, of Alabama. In compliment to the visitor Mrs. John Kollock entertained on Tuesday at a luncheon at the University Club.

Miss Helen Teal, who has been living at Alexandra Court for the past six months, returned to Hood River Saturday and opened her summer cottage for the season.

On Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock at the Church of the Holy Trinity, East Third and Clackamas streets, Miss Frances Dewar became the bride of Robert Smith McCarl, Rev. Father Lawlor officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate families only.

The bride, who is an unusually attractive brunette, was charming in a taupe tulle of polka twill with a smart white tailored hat. Her corsage

(Continued on Page 4.)

ager of the Spokane International Railroad.

After the wedding a dinner for the family was held at the Benson, and Dr. and Mrs. Lupton left for Spokane that night.

Mrs. W. B. Roberson had as her guest for a few days last week Mrs. Knox, of Alabama. In compliment to the visitor Mrs. John Kollock entertained on Tuesday at a luncheon at the University Club.

Miss Helen Teal, who has been living at Alexandra Court for the past six months, returned to Hood River Saturday and opened her summer cottage for the season.

On Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock at the Church of the Holy Trinity, East Third and Clackamas streets, Miss Frances Dewar became the bride of Robert Smith McCarl, Rev. Father Lawlor officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate families only.

The bride, who is an unusually attractive brunette, was charming in a taupe tulle of polka twill with a smart white tailored hat. Her corsage

(Continued on Page 4.)

ager of the Spokane International Railroad.

After the wedding a dinner for the family was held at the Benson, and Dr. and Mrs. Lupton left for Spokane that night.

Mrs. W. B. Roberson had as her guest for a few days last week Mrs. Knox, of Alabama. In compliment to the visitor Mrs. John Kollock entertained on Tuesday at a luncheon at the University Club.

Miss Helen Teal, who has been living at Alexandra Court for the past six months, returned to Hood River Saturday and opened her summer cottage for the season.

On Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock at the Church of the Holy Trinity, East Third and Clackamas streets, Miss Frances Dewar became the bride of Robert Smith McCarl, Rev. Father Lawlor officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate families only.

The bride, who is an unusually attractive brunette, was charming in a taupe tulle of polka twill with a smart white tailored hat. Her corsage

(Continued on Page 4.)

ager of the Spokane International Railroad.

After the wedding a dinner for the family was held at the Benson, and Dr. and Mrs. Lupton left for Spokane that night.

Mrs. W. B. Roberson had as her guest for a few days last week Mrs. Knox, of Alabama. In compliment to the visitor Mrs. John Kollock entertained on Tuesday at a luncheon at the University Club.

Miss Helen Teal, who has been living at Alexandra Court for the past six months, returned to Hood River Saturday and opened her summer cottage for the season.

On Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock at the Church of the Holy Trinity, East Third and Clackamas streets, Miss Frances Dewar became the bride of Robert Smith McCarl, Rev. Father Lawlor officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate families only.

The bride, who is an unusually attractive brunette, was charming in a taupe tulle of polka twill with a smart white tailored hat. Her corsage

(Continued on Page 4.)

ager of the Spokane International Railroad.

After the wedding a dinner for the family was held at the Benson, and Dr. and Mrs. Lupton left for Spokane that night.

Mrs. W. B. Roberson had as her guest for a few days last week Mrs. Knox, of Alabama. In compliment to the visitor Mrs. John Kollock entertained on Tuesday at a luncheon at the University Club.

Miss Helen Teal, who has been living at Alexandra Court for the past six months, returned to Hood River Saturday and opened her summer cottage for the season.

On Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock at the Church of the Holy Trinity, East Third and Clackamas streets, Miss Frances Dewar became the bride of Robert Smith McCarl, Rev. Father Lawlor officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate families only.

The bride, who is an unusually attractive brunette, was charming in a taupe tulle of polka twill with a smart white tailored hat. Her corsage

(Continued on Page 4.)

ager of the Spokane International Railroad.