At an informal afternoon Friday Miss Grace Helen Jarvis announced her engagement to Clarence William Smith, of this city.

The couple are very well known and the wedding will be an event of the early fall.

Miss Jarvis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Jarvie. She is a gifted pianist and is popular socially. Mr. Smith is bridge superintendent for the Southern Pacific. The marriage will be an event of the fall.

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. See, who are guest from Eastern Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Runyon entertained with an informal evening of cards Saturday. Auction bridge was the game for the evening and card honors fell to Mrs. W. F. Fiebig, Mrs. S. P. Waring and Mrs. B. B. Rayner. R. B. Runyon, P. P. Waring and Dr. William A. Shea, Mr. and Mrs. Runyon and their guests left Tuesday for a motor trip to Tillamook and beaches. They returned by way of Seaside and Gearhart the latter part of the week.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Martin Joyce (Ruth Kiernan) are being congratulated on the arrival of a baby daughter, born last Wednesday.

Hunt Club members are making the most of their added facilities this summer, very likely on account of the excellent accommodations afforded riders and horses along some of the shady and half-mile track at Garden Home. There the clubhouse manager is prepared to cater to the most critical and the mostidious stable makes it possible for those so desiring to ride from there rather than from town and thus enjoy rides along some of the shady tracks in the picturesque country surrounding.

The additional activity this season is noticed not only during the week but especially Sundays, when the grounds present a lively appearance.

The club has been invited to participate in the horse show to be held at the Vancouver (B. C.) exhibition about the middle of August, and it is expected that the club will be very successful regarding this will soon be satisfactorily completed.

Every day during the past two weeks has seen some of the members and their friends stopping at the club for a cup of tea or light refreshments.

Thursday Miss Edith Moore and Miss B. Florence Leach had luncheon and in the evening some of the members of the Thursday night class, after their usual ride, had supper. The guests of E. K. Oppenheimer, those in the party were Mrs. M. F. A. Martin, Miss Isabella Macleay, L. D. Winters and J. V. Murphy.

Friday Mrs. P. E. Froelich was a luncheon hostess for four and on Saturday Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur entertained seven of the campfire girls at luncheon.

Sunday Miss Edith Wallin and Miss Mabel Weed drove out for dinner and on Monday, after a strenuous game of golf, Miss Weed had as her guests at luncheon Mrs. Garrison and her niece, Miss Phoebe Garrison, from Oakland, Cal.

W. M. Ryan and party of three stopped for luncheon on Wednesday and in the evening Mr. and Mrs. James A. Baskett were hosts for four at dinner. The same evening the members of the Bit and Spur Club entertained with a supper party after their weekly ride.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Kerron were hosts at a supper-dance. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas West, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Thatcher and George Warrens.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Cooke had Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hemmingshouse and Mr. and Mrs. George A. Boardman from Los Angeles as their guests at dinner on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Albert Keating entertained early in the week with a picnic supper on the Clackamas. Miss Annie Muller, of Richmond, Va., was honor guest. Miss Muller was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carrick Burke. A number of charming festivities were given in honor.

Mrs. Charles E. Curry was hostess at her home on Prospect drive. In addition to Miss Muller and Mrs. Burke, there were present Dr. Aurelia Reinhardt, Mrs. Harold M. Sawyer, Miss Ecob, Mrs. Donald Spencer, Mrs. John Albert Keating, Miss O'Reilly and Miss Noble.

The garden and home of Mrs. A. King Wilson, of Medford, will be the scene on Tuesday of the annual picnic and outing of the Aid Society of the First Methodist Church. Members will go out on the Oswego car at 12:45 o'clock and the husbands and fathers will join them on the 5:35 train. There will be a jolly picnic supper for all.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvah W. Dickinson and their small son, Marshall Bingham.

MOVIE ACTRESSES AND THEIR HAIR

Did it ever occur to you that every movie actress you have seen has lovely hair, while the most popular count in their curls as the chief beauty? In fact, many are leading ladies just because of their attractive looks. Inquiry among them discloses the fact that they bring out all the natural beauty of their hair by careful shampooing, not with any soap or make-shift, but with a simple mixture by putting a teaspoonful of castor oil (which they get from the druggist) in a cup of hot water and applying this instead of soap. This full cup of shampoo liquid is poured so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just to the top of the head. After its use, the hair dries rapidly with uniform color. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. The hair is so fluffy that it looks much heavier than it is, while its lustre and softness is delightful.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Turner, of Oakland, Cal., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph K. Lee. Mr. Turner is former Commissioner and City Engineer of Oakland, and his wife is prominent in society and in the collegiate alumnae. She also is active in the committee of the Council of Defense. On Thursday Mrs. Lillie Davey Thomas entertained at a dinner for the Turner and on Friday by arrangement of Mrs. W. T. Belcher and Mrs. Robert French, the Association of Collegiate Alumnae entertained at the University Club for Mrs. Turner, and she gave an address on educational legislation. Friday morning a picnic at Multnomah Falls as part of the motor trip out the Columbia River Highway was the feature enjoyed by the visitors. Mrs. Turner is a delightful and interesting woman and charming of manner.

It was a happy gathering of relatives that assembled last Saturday to celebrate the 73d birthday of Charles A. Malarkey. There were four grandsons, however, who could not be present, as they have enlisted in the Army. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hamlin (Greene Malarkey) and their two charming daughters, the Misses Ruth and Phyllis Hamlin, motored from Seattle for the event. After a delightful trip out the Columbia River Highway there was a dinner dance at Chanticleer Inn. The table decorations included lovely sweet peas and gay American flags. Among those present were Dan J. Malarkey, Mrs. Vernon Cartwright (Margaret Malarkey), Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Malarkey, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hamlin, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Malarkey, Miss Ruth Hamlin, Miss Phyllis Hamlin, Mrs. S. J. Carney, Miss Helen Carney and Richard W. Carney.

A recent offer of the Catholic Sisters of Oregon to devote their spare time to knitting and sewing for the American soldiers and sailors provided the proper financial assistance be procured for purchasing the necessary yarn and materials, has been the inspiration for an organization just formed, the plans of which were completed on Monday past. The membership includes many of the prominent Catholic women of the state.

The funds will be raised entirely by volunteer subscriptions, the money received to be spent only for purchases of yarn, needles and materials and for forwarding same to the sisters throughout the state.

As there are almost 500 nuns in Oregon who will engage in this work, it is apparent that this effort will assist greatly in supplying the needs of the men at the front.

Anyone wishing to subscribe may do so by sending their remittance to the treasurer, Mrs. W. E. Conan, 374 Seaview street. The other officers are: Mrs. W. B. Channing, chairman; Mrs. Felix Sherwood, secretary; Mrs. John E. Conner, purchasing committee. On the membership committee are Miss Margaret Burke, Miss Inez Barrett, Mrs. C. E. Chenery.

Bishop Sumner was host for a party motoring out the Highway Saturday of last week and for tea at Forest Hall. The following enjoyed the trip and tea: Bishop Sumner, Mrs. Charles Sumner, Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, Miss Laura Brayton, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Johnson, Miss Florence Richardson, Miss Harriet Richardson and Master Robert W. Johnson.

At a pretty church ceremony at Centenary on Friday of last week, Miss Lydia Williams Dammeler became the bride of Rolf Charles Niete. Rev. T. W. Lane officiated. The church was a bower of beauty with its decoration of lilies and greenery. The bride was lovely in a robe of ivory satin embroidered in silver and trimmed with handsome lace. A filmy veil was held in place with a band of pearls and tulle. The bouquet was a shower of orchids and lilies-of-the-valley. The matron of honor, Mrs. Arthur B. McMahon, sister of the bride, wore a Georgette crepe exquisitely embroidered. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The flower girl was Maxine La Baron Ray, who wore a dainty frock of white and carried a basket of blossoms.

William S. Paul attended the bridegroom. The wedding march was played by George D. Hish and Mrs. Harriet Tryon sang "At Dawning."

After the church ceremony there was a large reception at the home of the bride. A wedding supper was served later to the bridal party and relatives. Assisting in the dining-room were: Mrs. Ralph Heddler, Mrs. William H. Beach, Miss Lillian Bauer and Miss Anna Strum. Miss Clara Thomas caught the bride's bouquet. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Niete will be at home at the Oregon Yacht Club.

A pretty wedding of the week was that of Miss Anna M. Frost, of 329 East Broadway, to Leonard R. Barnes, of Boyne City, Mich.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Frost, Thursday night at 8:30. Rev. S. E. DuBois, of the Second United Presbyterian Church, officiated, using the double ring service. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The sisters of the bride, Mrs. W. W. Dugan, Jr., as matron of honor, in her wedding gown of ivory satin and Miss Mildred Frost, as bridesmaid, in yellow Georgette crepe, were both very attractive. The bridegroom was attended by W. W. Dugan, Jr., as best man, and Carl Frost, brother of the bride.

Before the ceremony Miss Alice Renstrom sang, "Not Less Than This," accompanied by Mrs. Helen Ederman, who also played the wedding march. Little Ruth Benson was ringbearer. The bride was charming in a gown of white crepe de chine with pearl trimmings, and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas.

A large reception followed the ceremony and during the evening several violin selections were rendered by Miss Lela Ruby and vocal solos by Mrs. (Continued on Page 4)

Style and Redfern Corsets Are Synonymous

A woman is only as stylish as her corset. Redfern models are in the minutest detail—designing fabrics, daintiness of trimmings—the essence of style.

The French woman, as a rule, is not beautiful, but she has chic. She has made her charm famous because of her style, and, above all, she has pride in her figure—her corset is her prime asset.

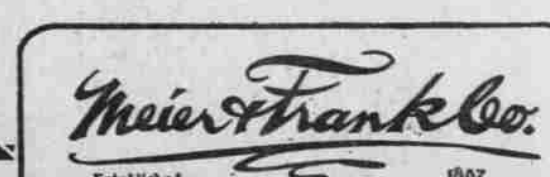

A Redfern will mould your figure into lines of grace and beauty that the French woman may well envy, for the American woman has the most beautiful figure in the world if she will only care for it.

A Redfern is delightfully pliant, so light and so beautiful that it gives one the pleasurable sensation of being daintily and exquisitely clad.

Every Pair Expertly Fitted

The service that our corsetieres aim to give in the selection and fitting of your corset is a pleasant occupation. They are skilled in this art. It is from their understanding of the line that they can select instantly for you the Redfern model that will give you the figure silhouette you desire for the season's model. Redfern corsets priced $3.50 up.
