

Society

Mrs. F. H. Johnston
(Katherine Bowley)
Member of Committee
Portland Co. of Oregon Engineers to Assist at Dance
at Multnomah Hotel,
Monday, August 13

Mrs. Joseph
Freeman McNary
(Evelyn Ewart)
Feted at Many Festivities

Miss Ruth S. Miller, of Long Beach, Cal., who was entertained at several functions here.

(Continued From Page 3)

W. B. Hamilton and Mrs. Harry Randall.

The rooms were simply but artistically decorated with gaily, sweet and palms.

Those assisting in receiving and serving were: The Misses Mary Watson, Lillian O'Keefe, Alice Amesbury, Edith Magurn, Laura Larson, Margaret Kreiger, Florence Watson, Laura Simpson, Mrs. Ina Hammond, Mrs. Blodwen Jones and Mrs. Anna Donk.

The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Lillian O'Keefe.

After a brief honeymoon at Clatsop Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes will depart for their future home in Boyne City, Mich., where Mr. Barnes holds an important position with the First National Bank.

Mrs. Barnes is a popular and talented musician and has a wide circle of friends by whom she will be greatly missed and who showed their esteem for her by the pre-nuptial affairs given in her honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Rasmussen are being congratulated on the arrival of a son, born July 16.

In compliment to Charles Shepherd, of Boston, and his bride who was Marjory Derr, Mrs. Ora C. Baker entertained recently with a musical and supper. Mr. Shepherd is a musician of prominence. One of the many celebrities visiting here this summer.

Mrs. Edward Pettie gave a week-end party at her home in Gresham July 7, in honor of her sister, Miss Jean Volverson, whose marriage to John Edward Pettie took place last week. The guests were: The Misses Helen and Ruth Pettie, Nusia Niemiec, Ada McCown, Lois Humphrey, Veda and Evelyn Fattland, Elsie Calkins, Erma Long, Edna Acheson, Alice Lake, Vivienne Lony and Jean Volverson.

Miss Helen Fromme, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Fromme, has set the date of her wedding to John A. Schoder for August 2 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Miss Fromme has a beautiful soprano voice and is well known in musical circles. Since an-after which the ceremony was performed by J. R. Greenfield, Mrs. Cornelius assisting. The bride was beautifully attired in a gray voile dress, with Georgette crepe and silver trimmings, and carried bride's roses.

Dr. Stryker and Mrs. C. Cornelius each gave a short address to the bride and bridegroom. Congratulations followed, after which the bride was abducted by her sons and five Reynolds.

In the meantime dancing had begun, the musicians playing in the street. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Simmonsen rendered excellent music on the front porch was presided over by the hosts.

Refreshments were served with the bride's cake, which was an elaborate affair, containing two 25-cent pieces, of which Miss M. Cooley received one and Mrs. Jeff Crandall the other.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Greenfield, Carlton Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Crandall, Vera Crandall, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Simmonsen, Mrs. C. Cornelius, Mr. and Mrs. A. Fuguey and Waldo Fuguey, Mrs. Anna Pearson, Alice, Linda, Ellen, Arthur and Ingeborg Pearson, Mrs. H. E. Jolly and Inez, Margaret and Roland Jolly, A. Zuercher, Harry Ray and Lucy Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Long, Mrs. M. Conley, Catherine Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bubb, C. R. Wilmoth, Miss Tauts, F. McHugh, A. T. Dime, B. O. Oltz, Emma Porter, May Brown, Mrs. M. McClure, O. O. Smith, C. Hall, K. H. Besteland, Mrs. N. W. Johnson, Alvina Fuller, Grace and Mildred Duffy, A. Ingram, Margaret Bay, Dr. S. W. Stryker, Mrs. A. P. Becker, Mary Kilkelly, Nora Johnston, Charlotte Hogland, Ella Mortenson, Rose Ann, Anna, Margaret Bay, L. B. Bowling, Mrs. Howland, Mrs. W. L. Cunningham, Mrs. E. S. Bowman, Lena Keaton, Lauretta, Margaret Bay, Mrs. A. J. Baby Waack and Miss C. Nelson and Geraldine Spencer.

One of the delightful affairs of the week was a luncheon given by Mrs. Anna Clodius in honor of Mrs. W. R. Benfer, of Forest Grove. Covers were laid for 12. Those present were: Mrs. W. C. Benfer, Mrs. Thaxter Reed, Mrs. Susie Lemson, Mrs. Julia Vosper, Mrs. Carrie Brownell, Mrs. Martha Howell, Mrs. Sadie Swan, Mrs. Lena Moore, Mrs. Grace Mathews, Mrs. E. Heilshausen, Mrs. Helen Otto and Mrs. Anna Clodius. "Five hundred" was the diversion of the afternoon. The honor guest was presented with flowers and a book.

An enjoyable luncheon of the week was that at which Mrs. Emma Hemig entertained on the roofgarden of the Villa St. Clara in compliment to the members of Lincoln-Varsity Corps, No. 19. Mrs. Loretta Hitchcock gave the address of welcome. The hostess was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Helen La Mar, Mrs. Adeline Hart, Mrs. Elizabeth Eivers and Mrs. Lillian Johnston. The tables were attractively decorated with roses and sweet peas.

The Pacific Lifting Company employees and their friends enjoyed a basket lunch picnic given at the Oaks Park Thursday evening.

The married men of the store at 4:30 P. M. to allow the employees an early start for the evening.

Swimming was enjoyed by many until 7 P. M., when all partook of a bounteous dinner. After dinner, dancing was enjoyed until 11 P. M., when all returned to the Oaks Park.

The employees and their friends attending the picnic were:

Ralph C. Zimmerman, Lee Waldron, Jacob Schiff, Frank Erive, Miss L. Herzog, Edward E. Cohn, Miss Greta Churchill, Mrs. I. Wilson, Mrs. G. Reibling, Miss J. Zachary, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Gonzalez, Mr. and Mrs. W. Warner, Mrs. S. McCheane, O. H. Hazel, Miss J. Clark and Mrs. Clark.

Patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. J. Shemanski.

The residents of the Patton Home enjoyed a delightful programme given on Monday night by a party of entertainers who held the home visit.

Mrs. Ella Hoberg Tripp, with her well trained chorus of 30 voices, assisted by Ernest Penrose Town, Gilbert H. Charters and Mrs. C. M. Kiggins, reader, gave an enjoyable recital. The opening number was a trio by Jessie Mautsch, Gladys Noe and Belle Beaumont, whose voices blended harmoniously. They sang "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes." Edna Lucille Stephens sweetly sang a contralto solo, "Cradle Song." Both the baritone solo by Ernest Penrose Town and the tenor solo by Gilbert H. Charters were very much liked, and especially their respective patriotic encores, "My Own United States" and "Keep the Home Fires Burning." Mrs. C. M. Kiggins, in her inimitable portrayal of the readings of darky lore of Southern life, delighted all.

The last number was the cantata, "The Garden of Flowers," from "Mignon" chorus.

Fifteen members of the Union League met for luncheon Friday at noon in the blue room of Hotel Portland.

The Woman's Benefit Association of the Macabees, Portland Review No. 7, held its annual picnic at Peninsula Park Wednesday, and entertained the members of the Vancouver lodge. A dainty lunch with ice cream was served, and everyone had a most enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Phelps celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on Tuesday, with a reunion of friends and those who had attended the ceremony 25 years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Phelps were married in The Dalles. They have lived in Portland for about 15 years. Mr. Phelps is an engineer for the O. W. R. & N. silver service was presented to the couple. The affair was given as a surprise and was greatly enjoyed. A supper was served and music and cards enjoyed. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Starke, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Searle, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bentley, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Wochos, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Saville, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Stephen, Mr. and Mrs. S. Raxworthy, Mrs. Eva S. Hunter, Mrs. F. M. Allen, Mrs. J. M. Smith, Mrs. J. S. Kingsley, Miss Martha Allen, Miss Marie Savie, Miss M. D. Kingsley, F. V. Savie and H. A. Freed.

The O. W. R. & N. Employee's Club, celebrating its twenty-fifth anniversary, a dancing party was held at Laurelhurst Club on Thursday evening. About 200 employees and their friends were present and spent an enjoyable evening. The clubhouse was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Miss Nina Picken played piano solos.

The committee in charge of the affair was headed by Sol Richanbach as general chairman. The programme committee was composed of W. R. Nicholson, chairman; M. M. Picken, Genevieve Blackmore, Irene Harmon, Ira Voss, Mrs. Kinard, William McGinn and Frank Hollister.

The floor committee was composed of A. Vanstrom, chairman; Nina Young, Edna Hopp, Ethel Hart, Mrs. R. L. Ladd, Tom B. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. George Koch, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Miller, George W. Streicher, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Holland, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Gentry and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. Blaisdell, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Farquhar, Jerome Blaisdell, Mr. and Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. L. M. and Mrs. Quince Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Blaisdell, E. J. Doolin, Mr. and Mrs. S. Trew, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Abel, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Catching, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Labow, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. M. Dadda, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. O'Connell, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Staver, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Crabb, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Pease, Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Jessop, Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. H. McKen, Colonel and Mrs. C. E. Dentler and family, Ed Wood, R. V. Martin.

Invitations were issued to the following as guests of honor: Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. C. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. Ladd, Tom B. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. George Koch, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Miller, George W. Streicher, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Holland, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Gentry and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. Blaisdell, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Farquhar, Jerome Blaisdell, Mr. and Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. L. M. and Mrs. Quince Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Blaisdell, E. J. Doolin, Mr. and Mrs. S. Trew, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Abel, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Catching, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Labow, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. M. Dadda, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. O'Connell, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Staver, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Crabb, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Pease, Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Jessop, Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. H. McKen, Colonel and Mrs. C. E. Dentler and family, Ed Wood, R. V. Martin.

The Minnesota Gophers went to the Oaks last Tuesday night and played a basket lunch prepared and served by the women. These annual gatherings are similar to the meeting of the pioneers at the Fair at Salem.

The old friends gather around and are rehearsed about the early days in the Gopher state; the younger folks make merry and a very enjoyable time is had by every one.

The committee in charge, Mrs. Henry Hall, President of the Gopher Club, Mr. and Mrs. Stanchfield, thank Mr. Cordray for his assistance. The Minnesotans are planning a lawn social in the near future.

A party of young people motored out to the Oaks last Tuesday night and played a basket lunch prepared and served by the women. These annual gatherings are similar to the meeting of the pioneers at the Fair at Salem.

The old friends gather around and are rehearsed about the early days in the Gopher state; the younger folks make merry and a very enjoyable time is had by every one.

The committee in charge, Mrs. Henry Hall, President of the Gopher Club, Mr. and Mrs. Stanchfield, thank Mr. Cordray for his assistance. The Minnesotans are planning a lawn social in the near future.

A party of young people motored out to the Oaks last Tuesday night and played a basket lunch prepared and served by the women. These annual gatherings are similar to the meeting of the pioneers at the Fair at Salem.

The old friends gather around and are rehearsed about the early days in the Gopher state; the younger folks make merry and a very enjoyable time is had by every one.

The committee in charge, Mrs. Henry Hall, President of the Gopher Club, Mr. and Mrs. Stanchfield, thank Mr. Cordray for his assistance. The Minnesotans are planning a lawn social in the near future.

A party of young people motored out to the Oaks last Tuesday night and played a basket lunch prepared and served by the women. These annual gatherings are similar to the meeting of the pioneers at the Fair at Salem.

The old friends gather around and are rehearsed about the early days in the Gopher state; the younger folks make merry and a very enjoyable time is had by every one.

The committee in charge, Mrs. Henry Hall, President of the Gopher Club, Mr. and Mrs. Stanchfield, thank Mr. Cordray for his assistance. The Minnesotans are planning a lawn social in the near future.

A party of young people motored out to the Oaks last Tuesday night and played a basket lunch prepared and served by the women. These annual gatherings are similar to the meeting of the pioneers at the Fair at Salem.

The old friends gather around and are rehearsed about the early days in the Gopher state; the younger folks make merry and a very enjoyable time is had by every one.

The committee in charge, Mrs. Henry Hall, President of the Gopher Club, Mr. and Mrs. Stanchfield, thank Mr. Cordray for his assistance. The Minnesotans are planning a lawn social in the near future.

A party of young people motored out to the Oaks last Tuesday night and played a basket lunch prepared and served by the women. These annual gatherings are similar to the meeting of the pioneers at the Fair at Salem.

The old friends gather around and are rehearsed about the early days in the Gopher state; the younger folks make merry and a very enjoyable time is had by every one.

The committee in charge, Mrs. Henry Hall, President of the Gopher Club, Mr. and Mrs. Stanchfield, thank Mr. Cordray for his assistance. The Minnesotans are planning a lawn social in the near future.

A party of young people motored out to the Oaks last Tuesday night and played a basket lunch prepared and served by the women. These annual gatherings are similar to the meeting of the pioneers at the Fair at Salem.

The old friends gather around and are rehearsed about the early days in the Gopher state; the younger folks make merry and a very enjoyable time is had by every one.

The committee in charge, Mrs. Henry Hall, President of the Gopher Club, Mr. and Mrs. Stanchfield, thank Mr. Cordray for his assistance. The Minnesotans are planning a lawn social in the near future.

A party of young people motored out to the Oaks last Tuesday night and played a basket lunch prepared and served by the women. These annual gatherings are similar to the meeting of the pioneers at the Fair at Salem.

The old friends gather around and are rehearsed about the early days in the Gopher state; the younger folks make merry and a very enjoyable time is had by every one.

The committee in charge, Mrs. Henry Hall, President of the Gopher Club, Mr. and Mrs. Stanchfield, thank Mr. Cordray for his assistance. The Minnesotans are planning a lawn social in the near future.

A party of young people motored out to the Oaks last Tuesday night and played a basket lunch prepared and served by the women. These annual gatherings are similar to the meeting of the pioneers at the Fair at Salem.

The old friends gather around and are rehearsed about the early days in the Gopher state; the younger folks make merry and a very enjoyable time is had by every one.

The committee in charge, Mrs. Henry Hall, President of the Gopher Club, Mr. and Mrs. Stanchfield, thank Mr. Cordray for his assistance. The Minnesotans are planning a lawn social in the near future.

A party of young people motored out to the Oaks last Tuesday night and played a basket lunch prepared and served by the women. These annual gatherings are similar to the meeting of the pioneers at the Fair at Salem.

The old friends gather around and are rehearsed about the early days in the Gopher state; the younger folks make merry and a very enjoyable time is had by every one.

The committee in charge, Mrs. Henry Hall, President of the Gopher Club, Mr. and Mrs. Stanchfield, thank Mr. Cordray for his assistance. The Minnesotans are planning a lawn social in the near future.

A party of young people motored out to the Oaks last Tuesday night and played a basket lunch prepared and served by the women. These annual gatherings are similar to the meeting of the pioneers at the Fair at Salem.

The old friends gather around and are rehearsed about the early days in the Gopher state; the younger folks make merry and a very enjoyable time is had by every one.

A Tremendous Purchase of BLOUSES

Goes on Sale Tomorrow (Monday)

at

$1.85 and $3.95

This collection of waists embraces a magnificent variety of new and original designs in voile, batiste, organdie and handkerchief linens in smart new styles with both high and low collars, some plain and others lace trimmed—all most charming and desirable in every respect. The prices quoted are but a fraction of the real worth of these beautiful new waists.

Every Blouse cleverly and splendidly made. All models are unusual and up to the minute in style and finish. They are just from New York and were only unpacked yesterday.

Suit and Coat Sale Extraordinary Continues All Week

Group 1	Group 2	Group 3	Group 4
Reduced to	Reduced to	Reduced to	Reduced to
$9.75	$18.75	$24.75	$37.75

Every price quoted means a tremendous reduction from original prices.

H. Liebes & Co.
ESTABLISHED 52 YEARS
149-151 BROADWAY

Choose your Suit or Coat now from this new, complete stock and save big.

ices for the soldier boys are invited and go north five blocks.

WEDDINGS.

Plummer-Manette.

Jay Rex Plummer, of Portland, Or., and Verna Francis Manette, of Spokane, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, 4024 Post street, Spokane, Wash., on Monday evening.

Rev. A. A. Shipway, vicar of St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, officiating. The wedding was attended by the immediate relatives. The young couple will make Portland their home.

Lucky-Duncan.

The marriage of Miss Minerva Duncan to Frank T. Lucky was solemnized last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Lucky, Rev. W. T. Kerr officiating. The bride was lovely in her wedding gown of white satin with an overdress of tulle. She carried a shower bouquet of roses. Mrs. L. Wharton, sister-in-law of the bride, was her attendant. The best man was Orval Duncan, brother of the bride. The house was attractively decorated for the occasion, and after the ceremony a buffet supper was served.

Walker-Townsend.

A marriage of interest was solemnized at the residence of Mrs. H. A. Townsend, 594 Market street, drive, on Wednesday, July 18, when Miss Eunice Townsend and Arthur Thayer Walker, of Hood River, Or., were wed. Rev. C. A. Wooddy, D. D., officiated. The wedding was a quiet family ceremony, relatives and immediate friends of the families being present. The bride and bridegroom went immediately to Hood River, where a pleasant home awaits them and where the bridegroom is engaged in business.

Bennett-Kershaw.

A marriage of interest was solemnized last Sunday at the First Christian Church, when Miss Ouida Katherine Kershaw became the bride of Gordon Stanley Bennett. Rev. Harold H. Griffith officiated.

Ralston Bennett, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and Mrs. Harry O. Neville was bridesmaid. Mrs. Bennett is the daughter of Mrs. Anna B. Kershaw. Mr. Bennett is the oldest son of Mrs. Charles Bennett. He is a corporal in the Eighth Company of the Coast Artillery.

Leavell-Landreau.

That a popular Oregon Agricultural College girl, Miss Catherine Almyre

Landreau, of Corvallis, has become a "war bride," is the news just received from San Francisco. The warrior-bridegroom is Lieutenant Leonard S. Leavell, of the Officers' Reserve Corps, U. S. A., who has been one of more than 300 Oregon Agricultural College "boys" training at the Presidio of San Francisco for almost three months.

The ceremony was performed last Saturday afternoon in beautiful Trinity Episcopal Church, San Francisco, by Rev. Frederick W. Clappett, distinguished as having been one of an important mission of relief investigation in Belgium and France, a year ago. Only Mrs. Laura M. Landreau, mother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Addison N. Clark, cousins with whom mother and daughter have been visiting in San Francisco; and Lieutenant Morton Franklin, of Corvallis, another one of the "noble 300" from Oregon Agricultural College at the Presidio, were present.

Military demands on Lieutenant Leavell shortened the honeymoon to a brief week-end expedition to one of San Francisco's "little sister cities" and he is again in the harness at the training camp preparing for examination for a regular Army commission. Temporarily the couple will reside at 1256 Eighth avenue, San Francisco. At present, Mrs. Leavell and Mrs. Landreau are visiting friends at Brentwood, near San Francisco, their former home.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Mrs. L. L. Tift left last night for New York City, where she will be for a month.

Miss Julia Chemin left Thursday for Seattle to visit the family of Captain Veysey.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou M. Kennedy are the happy parents of a fine baby boy, born on Monday.

Mrs. Philip Moore Wilbur, a prominent teacher of Marshfield, Or., who had been attending the N. E. A. and visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Landreau, of Corvallis, has become a "war bride," is the news just received from San Francisco. The warrior-bridegroom is Lieutenant Leonard S. Leavell, of the Officers' Reserve Corps, U. S. A., who has been one of more than 300 Oregon Agricultural College "boys" training at the Presidio of San Francisco for almost three months.

The ceremony was performed last Saturday afternoon in beautiful Trinity Episcopal Church, San Francisco, by Rev. Frederick W. Clappett, distinguished as having been one of an important mission of relief investigation in Belgium and France, a year ago. Only Mrs. Laura M. Landreau, mother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Addison N. Clark, cousins with whom mother and daughter have been visiting in San Francisco; and Lieutenant Morton Franklin, of Corvallis, another one of the "noble 300" from Oregon Agricultural College at the Presidio, were present.

Military demands on Lieutenant Leavell shortened the honeymoon to a brief week-end expedition to one of San Francisco's "little sister cities" and he is again in the harness at the training camp preparing for examination for a regular Army commission. Temporarily the couple will reside at 1256 Eighth avenue, San Francisco. At present, Mrs. Leavell and Mrs. Landreau are visiting friends at Brentwood, near San Francisco, their former home.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Mrs. L. L. Tift left last night for New York City, where she will be for a month.

Miss Julia Chemin left Thursday for Seattle to visit the family of Captain Veysey.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou M. Kennedy are the happy parents of a fine baby boy, born on Monday.

Mrs. Philip Moore Wilbur, a prominent teacher of Marshfield, Or., who had been attending the N. E. A. and visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Landreau, of Corvallis, has become a "war bride," is the news just received from San Francisco. The warrior-bridegroom is Lieutenant Leonard S. Leavell, of the Officers' Reserve Corps, U. S. A., who has been one of more than 300 Oregon Agricultural College "boys" training at the Presidio of San Francisco for almost three months.

The ceremony was performed last Saturday afternoon in beautiful Trinity Episcopal Church, San Francisco, by Rev. Frederick W. Clappett, distinguished as having been one of an important mission of relief investigation in Belgium and France, a year ago. Only Mrs. Laura M. Landreau, mother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Addison N. Clark, cousins with whom mother and daughter have been visiting in San Francisco; and Lieutenant Morton Franklin, of Corvallis, another one of the "noble 300" from Oregon Agricultural College at the Presidio, were present.

Military demands on Lieutenant Leavell shortened the honeymoon to a brief week-end expedition to one of San Francisco's "little sister cities" and he is again in the harness at the training camp preparing for examination for a regular Army commission. Temporarily the couple will reside at 1256 Eighth avenue, San Francisco. At present, Mrs. Leavell and Mrs. Landreau are visiting friends at Brentwood, near San Francisco, their former home.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Mrs. L. L. Tift left last night for New York City, where she will be for a month.

Miss Julia Chemin left Thursday for Seattle to visit the family of Captain Veysey.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou M. Kennedy are the happy parents of a fine baby boy, born on Monday.

Mrs. Philip Moore Wilbur, a prominent teacher of Marshfield, Or., who had been attending the N. E. A. and visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Landreau, of Corvallis, has become a "war bride," is the news just received from San Francisco. The warrior-bridegroom is Lieutenant Leonard S. Leavell, of the Officers' Reserve Corps, U. S. A., who has been one of more than 300 Oregon Agricultural College "boys" training at the Presidio of San Francisco for almost three months.

The ceremony was performed last Saturday afternoon in beautiful Trinity Episcopal Church, San Francisco, by Rev. Frederick W. Clappett, distinguished as having been one of an important mission of relief investigation in Belgium and France, a year ago. Only Mrs. Laura M. Landreau, mother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Addison N. Clark, cousins with whom mother and daughter have been visiting in San Francisco; and Lieutenant Morton Franklin, of Corvallis, another one of the "noble 300" from Oregon Agricultural College at the Presidio, were present.

Military demands on Lieutenant Leavell shortened the honeymoon to a brief week-end expedition to one of San Francisco's "little sister cities" and he is again in the harness at the training camp preparing for examination for a regular Army commission. Temporarily the couple will reside at 1256 Eighth avenue, San Francisco. At present, Mrs. Leavell and Mrs. Landreau are visiting friends at Brentwood, near San Francisco, their former home.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Mrs. L. L. Tift left last night for New York City, where she will be for a month.

Miss Julia Chemin left Thursday for Seattle to visit the family of Captain Veysey.

Landreau, of Corvallis, has become a "war bride," is the news just received from San Francisco. The warrior-bridegroom is Lieutenant Leonard S. Leavell, of the Officers' Reserve Corps, U. S. A., who has been one of more than 300 Oregon Agricultural College "boys" training at the Presidio of San Francisco for almost three months.

The ceremony was performed last Saturday afternoon in beautiful Trinity Episcopal Church, San Francisco, by Rev. Frederick W. Clappett, distinguished as having been one of an important mission of relief investigation in Belgium and France, a year ago. Only Mrs. Laura M. Landreau, mother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Addison N. Clark, cousins with whom mother and daughter have been visiting in San Francisco; and Lieutenant Morton Franklin, of Corvallis, another one of the "noble 300" from Oregon Agricultural College at the Presidio, were present.

Military demands on Lieutenant Leavell shortened the honeymoon to a brief week-end expedition to one of San Francisco's "little sister cities" and he is again in the harness at the training camp preparing for examination for a regular Army commission. Temporarily the couple will reside at 1256 Eighth avenue, San Francisco. At present, Mrs. Leavell and Mrs. Landreau are visiting friends at Brentwood, near San Francisco, their former home.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Mrs. L. L. Tift left last night for New York City, where she will be for a month.

Miss Julia Chemin left Thursday for Seattle to visit the family of Captain Veysey.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou M. Kennedy are the happy parents of a fine baby boy, born on Monday.

Mrs. Philip Moore Wilbur, a prominent teacher of Marshfield, Or., who had been attending the N. E. A. and visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Landreau, of Corvallis, has become a "war bride," is the news just received from San Francisco. The warrior-bridegroom is Lieutenant Leonard S. Leavell, of the Officers' Reserve Corps, U. S. A., who has been one of more than 300 Oregon Agricultural College "boys" training at the Presidio of San Francisco for almost three months.

The ceremony was performed last Saturday