

SHINY WEATHER, WITH MILD BREEZES, CALLS TO BEACHES

Automobiles No Longer Rarity on Manhattan Beach, but Soft Sands Are to Be Avoided, as Portland Parties Can Testify.

quarters at the Perry camp, Twin Rocks, and will remain for a month. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Leslie and daughter Muriel, of Portland, have arrived and opened the Leslie cottage for the season.

Miss Veda Sappington has returned to her home here after a few weeks' visit with friends in Portland.

George Bills, of Portland, who has been here at the summer home of his nephew, the Fern, for the past two months, has returned to his home.

Miss Edith Slatley and Miss Burlington, of Forest Grove, are at the Rock View villa, Twin Rocks, for the season.

Arriving during the week for the summer at the family cottage were Fred Wilson and wife and children, of Walla Walla, Wash.

Mrs. E. S. Bradley and family, of Mishawaka, Ind., have taken the attractive James cottage, the Fern, and will remain for the rest of the season.

Quartered in the Swain cottage for a week are Mrs. A. J. Barker, of Montana, and Miss Lonsdale, of Portland.

The W. H. Marshall family, of Portland, have arrived at the family cottage and will remain for the summer.

For the last week-end at the Fern, the following were guests: Miss Jeanette Ritchie and James D. Ritchie and Miss Ethel Van Scoy, of Portland.

CANNON BEACH ATTRACTS

Tourists, Hikers and Merry Picnic Parties Number Hundreds.

ECOLA, Or., July 21.—(Special.)—Cannon Beach is alive with tourists, hikers, merry picnic parties and hundreds who enjoy the usual beach diversions. Because of the fact that this locality furnishes a number of unusual attractions and much of the time, Cannon Beach is especially alluring to tourists. The visitor who comes to the beach for the season is charmed because this is a wonderful place to combine relaxation and amusement and there is something to go and something new to be seen each day.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Eldredge, of Salem, in company with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. F. and Mrs. F. H. Allison, of Portland, are touring the Oregon beaches and express themselves as charmed with this locality.

Ex-Governor Oswald West has again joined his family here.

A congenial party of 14 is enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. and Mr. Oswald West. This happy family includes Mr. and Mrs. H. W. O'Connell, Mrs. Mary L. Hooper, of Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wilson, O'Connell, Chester Wallace, Gordon West and Richard Hutton, O'Connell, Miss and Mrs. West and Mr. and Mrs. E. Lutton.

Mrs. J. A. Marlett and son, Richard, of Portland, and Miss Bertha, McWaters, of Minneapolis, are at Sunset Lodge for July.

N. P. Nielson and family are occupying one of the Cornell cottages in Elk Creek Park.

In the Stranahan home we find Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Stranahan and daughters, Mrs. Tharpe, Mrs. Basley, of Hood River; Mrs. M. E. Scammon and two granddaughters; Mrs. W. E. Lambert, and Mrs. W. F. Lang. The Stranahan family is at the home of George P. Rogers and family are at Woodmere and have as their house guest Walter B. Batters.

Brookside Court, the abode of a merry crowd from Astoria; Charles V. Brown and family, Edgar G. Gearhart and family, Ross and family, and Albert W. Kinney and family, Charles V. Ungerman and family, A. B. Gritmacher and family, and Miss Virginia Hansen.

Tuesday last the Clarkes, Agnews, Dakins and their guests—a party of 20—enjoyed a picnic on the footbridge which spans Elk Creek, over Seal Rock Beach to Chapman point for the picnic picnic and bonfire. The merry company was entertained with music by Mrs. Ernest Goldapp, Mrs. Clark and Miss Jennie Clark and with amusement of all descriptions.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cooke, of Portland, are occupying the Emil Miller home for two weeks.

Frank Adams and family motored down from Portland for a stay of two weeks in their cozy home on Taft street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clarke and Floyd and Jennie Clarke reached here Saturday for their usual vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Baker and family, anniversary dinner to a happy company of friends Saturday last, Mrs. Ernest Goldapp being the guest of honor.

Mrs. W. S. Chapman and her boys, Philip and Chester Ireland, are at home for the season, north of Elk Creek.

Miss Blanche Delury is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leiger in Elk Creek Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Walstrom and family, William Resare and Miss Adolph, are housed in Mrs. Kellogg's hangar.

Mrs. G. G. Joyce, of Portland, is being entertained by Mrs. F. L. Whipple at Idle Nook.

Mrs. J. H. Stritzel and daughter, Betty, with Mrs. E. E. Jewel and little daughter, form a happy family in the Red cottage.

E. J. Jenks and family and Miss Florence Lyon, of Astoria, are spending two weeks at Innis Vale.

Mrs. George W. Waters and Dr. Elizabeth Woods have recently joined the congenial family recreation camp, Miss Maud B. B. Foster.

Whitehead and Dr. Wood have learned to perfection the art of combining pleasure and relaxation.

Chapin and daughter, Janet, of Portland, are costily situated for the season in the O. L. Peterson cottage near Sylva, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Battie, of Portland, are entertaining friends from Bureka, Cal.—Miss Maud B. Hemler and Miss Zita C. Croghan, Eureka, Cal.

Mrs. and Mrs. A. Baylis and daughter, Gladys, are at the Ken cottage. Mr. and Mrs. W. Kennard motored down from Portland for the week end.

Little Treve Hunter gave a merry lawn party at Fern Bunker. The small guests were: Baby Jane, Thelma, Bettie Stritzel, Dolores Hall, Frances Alger, Happy Edmond Jones and John Ruddy. Miss Margaret Therkelson was responsible for the enjoyment of the little folks on this occasion.

At Ecola Beach—What Are The Wild Waves Saying?

side; O. P. Peterson and wife, Astoria; Clara Krohn, Alice L. Ledger, Las Angeles; D. B. Stewart, Knappa; A. Waldorf, G. Waldorf, Oswego; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Henning, Tacoma; Angeline Dye, May Henchman, Oregon City; Alice Phil, Chetok, Wis.; J. H. Burns, Des Moines, Iowa; Elizabeth Harrington, Boise, Cor. Spokane; C. F. Hendrick, Yakima; Mr. and Mrs. U. T. Shipley, Salem; H. G. Warren, La Salle, Ill.; A. B. and C. O. Johnson, A. Benson, Esther Benson, Margaret Benson, W. B. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Vandervliet, Lucile Vandervliet, George Vandervliet, Lucile Vandervliet, Mrs. D. Peters and wife, Helen Peters; J. D. Bryan, Jr., Mrs. A. G. Barker, Mrs. F. J. Kelly, Elizabeth Kelly, Catherine Kelly, A. S. Robinson and wife, Dr. Wright and wife, Will F. Powell and wife, M. D. Wilkins, F. Hawkenson, Constance Meyer, Browne Miller, C. C. Hays, A. L. Dewey, Miss Harrington, Miss Pembroke, Miss Pembroke, Elsie Shook, Eugene C. Hahney and wife, Mrs. E. Bristol, Mrs. M. O. Wilkins, Joe N. Jordan, Edith Pettigrew, Miss Sylvia Harper, William M. Burns, Roy O. Burdette, Mrs. M. O. Wilkins, Mrs. E. C. Patrick and wife, all of Portland.

PASTIMERS FLOCK TO NEWPORT

Weather Is Delightful and Bathing Continues to Be Popular.

NEWPORT, Or., July 21.—(Special.)—A season's blessing has descended upon this vacation center, and to the tune of complaints where the weather is hot and dry and detestable, the beach fan faces of those who are assembled for holidays at Newport.

The roads over the mountains are now a steady stream of incoming autos, and as the travelers alight at their destination, it is not hard to discern an unusual number of couples who are tenacious betokening relief and thankfulness. There has been an even temperature throughout the season and bathing and beach activities have still a popular favor that will make them lasting pleasures until late in the fall.

Mountain streams are the combination of the mountains and the sea and the true beauties of both were never more in evidence than at this resort.

Frank Adams and family motored down from Portland for a stay of two weeks in their cozy home on Taft street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clarke and Floyd and Jennie Clarke reached here Saturday for their usual vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Baker and family, anniversary dinner to a happy company of friends Saturday last, Mrs. Ernest Goldapp being the guest of honor.

Mrs. W. S. Chapman and her boys, Philip and Chester Ireland, are at home for the season, north of Elk Creek.

Miss Blanche Delury is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leiger in Elk Creek Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Walstrom and family, William Resare and Miss Adolph, are housed in Mrs. Kellogg's hangar.

Mrs. G. G. Joyce, of Portland, is being entertained by Mrs. F. L. Whipple at Idle Nook.

Mrs. J. H. Stritzel and daughter, Betty, with Mrs. E. E. Jewel and little daughter, form a happy family in the Red cottage.

E. J. Jenks and family and Miss Florence Lyon, of Astoria, are spending two weeks at Innis Vale.

Mrs. George W. Waters and Dr. Elizabeth Woods have recently joined the congenial family recreation camp, Miss Maud B. B. Foster.

Whitehead and Dr. Wood have learned to perfection the art of combining pleasure and relaxation.

Chapin and daughter, Janet, of Portland, are costily situated for the season in the O. L. Peterson cottage near Sylva, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Battie, of Portland, are entertaining friends from Bureka, Cal.—Miss Maud B. Hemler and Miss Zita C. Croghan, Eureka, Cal.

Mrs. and Mrs. A. Baylis and daughter, Gladys, are at the Ken cottage. Mr. and Mrs. W. Kennard motored down from Portland for the week end.

Little Treve Hunter gave a merry lawn party at Fern Bunker. The small guests were: Baby Jane, Thelma, Bettie Stritzel, Dolores Hall, Frances Alger, Happy Edmond Jones and John Ruddy. Miss Margaret Therkelson was responsible for the enjoyment of the little folks on this occasion.

Graham Moxen is entertaining Fred Murphy, of Portland.

Cannon Beach Hotel registers: Gene L. Hopp, Olympia, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Al Atwood, Stockton, Cal.; Maud B. Hunter, Zita C. Croghan, Eureka, Cal.; Mary J. Buckley, Miss Ella Vallman, Arline Guter, Emma Valman, of Spokane, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. James T. Ewing, Mrs. Margaret Ewing, Tom Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Battin, D. T. Taylor and B. H. Tyler, A. M. Prentiss, Mrs. Kurt Kocher, Mrs. E. E. Grette, Winnifred Huber, Jean Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. F. Frank, Mr. F. H. Allison, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. William H. Eldridge, Charles H. Huggins, Salem; Elizabeth Miller, Providence, R. I.; Evelyn F. Frisbie, Frances Mundell, Albuquerque, N. M.; Mary Grinnell, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Cruise, Vida and Robert Cruise.

Recent arrivals at Ecola Inn are: Marie McDowell, Portland; Olive C. Stein, Superior, Wis.; Rose E. Stein, Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. George King and family, Penitence; Mr. and Mrs. H. Kretsch, Astoria; Mrs. A. H. Lupie, Seaside; Paula Hopp, Charles Frick, Frances Sherin, Portland.

Guests of the week at the Warren Hotel include: Albert C. Gragg, of Sea-land, are among the recent arrivals at Nye Beach and will remain for a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Henkle, of Corvallis, were among the week-end excursionists to arrive in Newport, and have opened their attractive cottage for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McFarlane and family, of Brownsville, came in the first of the week and are encamped at Nye Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Emma B. Johnson, of Gresham, arrived during the week and is passing a brief vacation at Nye Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Higby recently arrived at this beach and are domiciled in an attractive cottage at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray and wife, of Haines, are among the recent vacationists to open a cottage at Nye Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. August Lokan, of Astoria, were in this city during the week attending to business matters. Mr. Lokan is the manager of the Elmore Cannery Company at Siletz.

Dr. W. B. Morse, of Salem, is passing an extended vacation at Nye Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. William N. Fox, of Sedan, Okla., were week-end arrivals at this beach.

Mrs. E. K. Wheeler, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Collier, of Eugene, was among the recent excursionists to arrive.

The Misses Fanny M. Schrock and Mae N. Lent, of Spokane, Wash., came to Newport the first of the week for a brief vacation.

Miss Julia K. Webster, of Salem, who is employed in the State House, arrived in Newport Monday for an extended vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Agee and the latter's sister, Mrs. E. Hamlin, of Roseburg, came to Nye Beach the first of the week and located in a cozy cottage.

W. S. Swagert, of Marshfield, arrived Sunday and will pass the remainder of the season visiting her mother, Mrs. E. J. Anson and daughter, of Portland, are numbered among the latest cottage arrivals at Nye Beach.

Mrs. F. J. Anson and daughter, of Portland, recently arrived and are enjoying a fortnight's visit with Mrs. A. L. Thomas at her beautiful cottage at Nye Beach. Mrs. Wheeler is the manager of the Hanover Apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Loomis, of Salem, are among the many Marion County visitors sojourning at this resort.

H. A. Loreali, of Lebanon, arrived a few days ago to pass a brief vacation at Newport.

Vinton Newbert, of Seattle, is numbered among the many out-of-the-state arrivals at this beach during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cook, of Salem, are listed among the most recent arrivals at Nye Beach.

A motoring party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Cobbs, of Portland, and Mrs. L. Donald, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Beaver, of Cadillac, Mich., arrived at the Agate Beach Inn Saturday to pass the week-end.

And still the honeymooners visit our delightful shores! In this week's list of arrivals at Nye Beach, we find Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Anson, of Portland, who passed the week-end at Newport. Mr. Anson is a popular member of the college world at Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene, arrived during the week and is enjoying a few days' visit at this beach.

Mrs. M. F. Mendelsohn, of Salem, recently came to Nye Beach for a 10 days' outing.

A. S. Rand, United States postoffice inspector, was in the city last Monday attending to some business.

P. A. Livesley, of Salem, came over to Newport last Saturday and is preparing his cottage at Agate Beach for occupancy for the rest of the season.

During a severe storm last winter the Nye Beach cottage was lifted off its foundation and is now being replaced.

C. C. Cathey and daughter, Margaret, and son, Jack, were among the week-end excursionists to arrive at Newport.

Mrs. W. F. Brock and Miss Roberta Brock, of Portland, are passing their vacation at Nye Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Gault, of Portland, arrived in Newport the first of the week and are encamped in an attractive cottage at Nye Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Ruhl and family, of Medford, are among the most recent vacationists to arrive at this resort.

The Misses Osgood and Beth Northup, of McMinnville, arrived recently and expect to pass the season in their cozy Nye Beach cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Voigt and family, of Portland, came in on the week-end excursion and will remain in Newport for the rest of the summer.

Miss Edna Carmichael, of Lexington, arrived during the week and is enjoying a brief holiday at Nye Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. E. McDonald, of Portland, was among the week-end excursionists to arrive in Newport.

M. R. Flower, of Salem, arrived during the week and is sojourning at Newport.

Mrs. D. B. Silba, of Portland, came in recently and is summering in her Nye Beach cottage.

Mrs. Frank Minto, of Salem, arrived recently and will pass several days visiting with friends.

O. Hales, of Portland, arrived with his camping outfit Friday and is located near Agate Beach.

Rev. George E. Pratt, who has been attending the National Education Association convention as a representative of the Newport Commercial Club, arrived home the first of the week after a successful campaign of advertising for the city.

Miss Mabel Squire, of Anacortes, came to Nye Beach the last of the week and is located in her attractive cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Dodson, of Portland, are summering on the cliff.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hollingshead arrived recently and have opened their cottage at Nye Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Cobbs, of Portland, and Mrs. L. Donald, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Beaver, of Cadillac, Mich., arrived at the Agate Beach Inn Saturday to pass the week-end.

And still the honeymooners visit our delightful shores! In this week's list of arrivals at Nye Beach, we find Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Anson, of Portland, who passed the week-end at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene, arrived during the week and is enjoying a few days' visit at this beach.

Mrs. M. F. Mendelsohn, of Salem, recently came to Nye Beach for a 10 days' outing.

A. S. Rand, United States postoffice inspector, was in the city last Monday attending to some business.

P. A. Livesley, of Salem, came over to Newport last Saturday and is preparing his cottage at Agate Beach for occupancy for the rest of the season.

During a severe storm last winter the Nye Beach cottage was lifted off its foundation and is now being replaced.

C. C. Cathey and daughter, Margaret, and son, Jack, were among the week-end excursionists to arrive at Newport.

Mrs. W. F. Brock and Miss Roberta Brock, of Portland, are passing their vacation at Nye Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Gault, of Portland, arrived in Newport the first of the week and are encamped in an attractive cottage at Nye Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Ruhl and family, of Medford, are among the most recent vacationists to arrive at this resort.

The Misses Osgood and Beth Northup, of McMinnville, arrived recently and expect to pass the season in their cozy Nye Beach cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Voigt and family, of Portland, came in on the week-end excursion and will remain in Newport for the rest of the summer.

Miss Edna Carmichael, of Lexington, arrived during the week and is enjoying a brief holiday at Nye Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. E. McDonald, of Portland, was among the week-end excursionists to arrive in Newport.

M. R. Flower, of Salem, arrived during the week and is sojourning at Newport.

draws cottage. Mr. Van Schuyver and Mr. Rothwell returned to town Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rosenblatt and children are now domiciled in their attractive cottage for the summer.

Judge Kavanaugh also spent the week-end with his family in their cottage.

John P. Daly was another of the "daddies" who passed the few week-end holidays with his family in their cottage.

James P. Cooke spent several days with his family, being one of the participants in the Seaside galaies over Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Seller and daughters are being entertained by Mrs. Max Hirsch in her attractive cottage here for a few weeks.

Mrs. Philip Goinley, of San Francisco, arrived on the steamer a few days ago, and she is the house guest of her mother, Mrs. R. Jacobs. Adolph Jacobs joined the family for a week-end holiday.

The Ford family, of Portland, are domiciled in the Turner cottage for the summer months.

S. H. Shuhman and family, of Walla Walla, are occupying one of the cozy cottages in the meadow.

Mrs. C. Hansen and Mrs. Charles Dodd recently arrived, and they are summering in a cottage also in the meadow.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McNaughton and family have joined the summer colony, and are domiciled in their cottage for the balance of the season.

The Pummell family have opened their cottage in the woods for the summer.

A. H. Stone's family are among the new arrivals who plan to spend the summer in a cottage here.

S. R. Rooks and family joined the cottagers a few days ago.

Mrs. C. S. Sears and family are comfortably ensconced in a pretty cottage for the season.

Another cozy meadow cottage is the abode of Charles Marinas and family, who are recent arrivals.

The Y. W. C. A. camp houses several happy, healthy, carefree maids, who are reveling in all the joys of the beach. They ride, drive, picnic, fish, swim and have a thoroughly good time. Much interest in the girls centers in the Honor Guard Girls' camp just above here.

Arrangements are being made with the cottagers and boarding-houses to take care of the influx of visitors during the season.

(Continued on Page 11.)

SUMMER RESORTS.

No Difficulty at Border

Tourists are meeting with no difficulty whatever in crossing into and out of Canada. Plan now for a tour of the "Island of a Thousand Miles and Wonders," the gateway of which is VICTORIA, B. C.

Right at your door. Wonderful scenery; magnificent roads; motoring; fishing; bathing; camping; golfing; excellent service. Write today for free information: PUBLICITY COMMISSIONER, VICTORIA, B. C.

Links at Beach Are in Fine Condition for Tournament.

GEARHART, Or., July 21.—(Special.)—Gearhart is all excitement over the approaching tournament, and many of the best golfers are brushing up on their game by taking lessons in certain strokes from the teacher who has been in charge of the links.

The links are in excellent condition, the particularly attractive as well as splendid for playing.

A series of gaily-colored sweaters as dot the vivid green links is seldom overlooked. The women appear in a variety of the array of these fascinating garments, many of them making their own slipovers and coats, so that they are not extravagant in their having such an abundant supply of the covering. The little ones are equally well attired in gay sweaters, all the colors being counted in one sweeping glance over the links and beach.

There is not enough time to accomplish all the things the summer visitors here determine to do. They are going in with a vengeance for swimming, golfing, riding, motoring, fishing, and good complexion, sunning and picnicking by way of diversion.

James Nicol recently arrived and has his headquarters at the Links. He is in use every hour. Motoring to Neahkahnie and Cannon Beach for picnics is quite the order of the weekly program, and, of course, the golfing ceases when the "Papa Special" is due on Saturday afternoons. Every kiddie is a golfer, and the summer season is the station to welcome the arrivals.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Talbot and family are among the recent arrivals, who will pass the balance of the summer in their cottage here.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Zan and daughter, Mary Louise and Elizabeth, arrived here last part of the week and are now domiciled in the Beckman cottage for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall motored back to Portland early last week, Mrs. Marshall returning the latter part of the week by train.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weyerhaeuser, of St. Paul, are the guests of Mrs. Weyerhaeuser's brother, C. H. Davis, at the Links. They are in their attractive cottage. Mrs. Weyerhaeuser is a charming and attractive young matron, and is being delightfully entertained by her summer friends who are summering here.

W. G. Davidson, of the North Bank Hotel, visited his daughters, who are at the week-end at the Westcott cottage.

Mrs. Tongue and Miss Bertha Tongue arrived last week for a visit with Mrs. G. L. Lebar in one of the Beckman cottages.

Chester G. Murphy spent the week-end in Seaside with his family.

Mr. J. A. Dougherty, who went to Portland early in the week, is again in the Kinney cottage with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson arrived last week for a visit with Mrs. John Latta. The Johnson boys also are guests of the Latta children.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Williams and children came down several days ago to occupy the Boyd Hamilton cottage for the balance of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Isador Lang returned again to their cottage here, and have as guests Mrs. James Rosenfeld and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dittenhofer, of St. Paul, the latter also being a daughter of the Langs.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hollingshead arrived recently and have opened their cottage at Nye Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Cobbs, of Portland, and Mrs. L. Donald, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Beaver, of Cadillac, Mich., arrived at the Agate Beach Inn Saturday to pass the week-end.

And still the honeymooners visit our delightful shores! In this week's list of arrivals at Nye Beach, we find Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Anson, of Portland, who passed the week-end at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene, arrived during the week and is enjoying a few days' visit at this beach.

Mrs. M. F. Mendelsohn, of Salem, recently came to Nye Beach for a 10 days' outing.

A. S. Rand, United States postoffice inspector, was in the city last Monday attending to some business.

P. A. Livesley, of Salem, came over to Newport last Saturday and is preparing his cottage at Agate Beach for occupancy for the rest of the season.

During a severe storm last winter the Nye Beach cottage was lifted off its foundation and is now being replaced.

C. C. Cathey and daughter, Margaret, and son, Jack, were among the week-end excursionists to arrive at Newport.

Mrs. W. F. Brock and Miss Roberta Brock, of Portland, are passing their vacation at Nye Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Gault, of Portland, arrived in Newport the first of the week and are encamped in an attractive cottage at Nye Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Ruhl and family, of Medford, are among the most recent vacationists to arrive at this resort.

The Misses Osgood and Beth Northup, of McMinnville, arrived recently and expect to pass the season in their cozy Nye Beach cottage.