The women's state golf championship will begin at Gearhart-by-the-Sea on Monday morning, August 13, and will last until the finals are played on Thursday morning. The men's state golf championships will commence with 36 holes of qualifying on Wednesday, August 15, and the finals will be played Saturday afternoon. The tourney is a patriotic affair. All money above expenses will be given to some war relief fund.

Many Events Included. In it are included the men's and women's championships, men's flights as far down the qualifying list as the seventh flights, women's flights to the fourth degree, men's and women's handicaps, mixed foursomes and driving and approaching contests.

Forest Watson Is It. Forest Watson, Potlatch champion, came home from Medford a few days ago and is ill at the home of his father, J. Martin Watson, the popular professional at the Waverly Country Club.

While there is no hotel at Gearhart, as no structure has yet been erected to take the place of the hostelry burned to the ground a couple of winters ago, accommodations are ample both at Gearhart and at Seaside. The Gearhart Park Company, 100 1/2 Fourth street, Portland, has a list of cottages available for August and will be glad to assist entrants to obtain quarters.

Cottagers to Entertain. Nearly all the Portland cottagers will entertain golfing guests for the week, so that the care of a large number of the entries.

Metzger, Tualatin Country Club; Frank Parks, Astoria Golf Club; Dean Hayes, Eugene Country Club; W. L. Patterson, Baker Golf Club; advisory committee, C. H. Davis, Jr., and Graham Glass, Waverly Country Club.

Phasant Shooting Considered. The Oregon Shooting and Game Association, organized last year with A. L. Mills president, has taken up with Carl Shoemaker, State Game Warden, the advisability as to whether or not the Chinese phasant shooting season will be open this year. Last year many of the local shooters bought licenses expecting to shoot during the season, only to be forced to quit after 15 days' shooting on account of the scarcity of birds. Mr. Shoemaker is taking the matter up with his deputies all over the state, and if they think the birds plentiful enough the season will be open as usual in October.

Columbia to Play Knights. This afternoon at 3:30 at the Columbia Park grounds the St. Johns Moose and the Knights and Ladies of Security, Eureka Council, will cross bats for the championship of the Fraternal League, the winner to be presented with a silver cup by the Honeyman Hardware Company and the members of the team to receive a watch box each. Manager Boon Cason, of the Knights and Ladies, will have a strong team on the field, and he is out to win all the honors.
