COLA, Or., July 28.—(Special.)—There are more people at Cannon Beach seeking rest and pleasure at this time than in July of any previous year. The cottages are nearly all occupied and many who have anticipated spending their vacations here are disappointed in their efforts to secure furnished accommodations. The beautiful groves afford fine camping grounds, and many city folk avail themselves of the opportunity to live the simple life and at the same time delight in the various wonders of beach and woods.

There is a scarcity of young men here, as elsewhere, this season, but the khaki-clad maids and matrons are doing all in their power to relieve the situation, and dancing, swimming, hiking and other sports are engaged in as usual. The young people have arranged for a series of jitterbug dances for Saturday evenings in the town hall, the receipts to be added to the Red Cross fund.

Mrs. S. Hochapfel and Mrs. George Johnson passed a week at Cannon Beach Hotel and were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Orin Kellogg and Mrs. George Crane.

Mrs. George Crane and little George will stay the season with Captain and Mrs. Kellogg. Mr. Crane will join the family later.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Sensesen, of Boise, Idaho, will spend a month in Elk Creek Park, housed in one of the Cornell cottages.

The Misses Caroline and Louise Flinders are occupying their summer home on Acacia Point. R. L. Gilsan and sister, Mrs. Minott, are found in the same picturesque locality.

alluring camping spots have a mighty appeal to the tourist-camper, while those seeking more permanent quarters for long-end stays are nicely accommodated in the many splendid cottages here. And Saltair people are jolly folk. Here they get together for their good times, and between the excitement of the dancing pavilion and the varied indoor and beach affairs, the summer residents' time is well and enjoyably filled. Hikes and excursions to points of interest hereabouts of which there are many, provide plenty of daytime fun, while each evening sees the shoreline of Old Pacific dotted with bonfires with happy throngs gathered round singing, swapping yarns and partaking of bonfire refreshments.

During the past week one party on excursion bent left on the early motor for an all-day visit at Bayocean.
