

BEACHES DRAWING RECORD CROWDS OF VISITORS

were Sergeant Emmons, F. E. Kline, Ralph Duane and A. W. Emmons, of Portland. The boys had a jolly good time, and were royally entertained at the Villa Camp, where they were the guests of L. J. Wright.

Mrs. C. M. Blum and daughter, Mrs. Lottie Harris, of Oregon City, arrived during the early week to enjoy a several days' vacation with Mrs. Laura R. Carter, at her apartments on the ridge.

W. S. Bennett, accompanied by a party of several Portland friends, was here at Villa Camp for a brief stay. They had a great time fishing for perch, and pronounced the experience one well worth visiting the beach for.

T. B. Young brought his family over from Portland and settled them comfortably at the attractive Villa Camp. Mr. Young returned to Portland, but will join the folks for the week-ends during the season.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Van Evera and family were at Camp Carter for a week's recreation. They are from Portland.

D. McFarland, of Liberty Center, Ia., was a visitor here during the week. He put up at Villa Camp while here.

Joining the Oregon City contingent at Bar View were Mrs. H. Krummel, Miss Margaret Krummel and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brunner, who will remain for a week at the Carter Camp.

Mrs. N. L. Simpson, and daughter, Marie, and Mrs. J. W. Fisher, of Portland, were here during the last week at Villa Camp for a few days.

The Misses Mary and Stella Campbell, of Portland, are enjoying an indefinite outing here. They have set up housekeeping in one of the attractive bungalows at Villa Camp and are enjoying a splendid vacation.

H. S. Markler and wife, of Portland, were here for a few days at Villa Camp.

F. E. Thomas and wife, and Mr. and Mrs. George Hern and family, and Frank Hull, all of Ridgefield, Wash., have joined the happy crowd at Bar View, and are enjoying a vacation at Villa Camp.

L. F. Brode, wife and son, Woodrow, of Bay City, were here for an over-summer visit with Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Robinson.

E. P. Ford, of Tillamook, has taken a bungalow at Tolia's Villa Camp for a month.

James Bybee and family and James Day and family, other out-of-the-state folks to visit here this season, are at Villa Camp for two weeks' vacation. They are from Vancouver, Wash.

Mrs. C. P. Marshall, and her mother, Mrs. Frank Wood, who have taken the beautiful Woodbine Cottage on the ridge, for the season, are entertaining for the season the latter's sisters, Mrs. J. W. Rawson, of Boston, Mass.

The latter is making her first visit to the Oregon Coast and is very favorably impressed with the beauty of the place. She has just returned from a two weeks' visit to York Beach, one of Maine's most popular watering places, and states that a comparison favors Bar View. Mrs. Rawson's son, Fred, is also here for the season, and Frank Wood is in for a two weeks' vacation.

George Naef and family came in from Portland during the week by automobile, and are quartered for a few days at Villa Camp.

Registered here during the week at the Hewitt House were the following vacationists: Edna Bower, Mrs. E. F. Martin, Denise Bower, John M. Sloan, man, Captain and Mrs. A. W. Gates, E. P. Barker, J. A. Gibbs and wife, T. C. Smith, Mrs. J. H. Smith, Frank Gallo, W. M. Gray, Mrs. C. V. Gray, Mrs. Dan T. Watts, G. T. Coulson, Tom Ewing, Margaret Ewing, Mrs. A. H. Richmond, Miss Lois Richmond, Miss Nell Richmond, George Richmond and Gordon Hund, of Portland, and Bert T. Moore, of Estacada; E. R. Ayer, of Beaverton, Or.

E. B. Young and wife came in during the week and will remain here for several days at the cozy Villa Camp. G. A. Marshall and wife, who are the "driving" autoists to visit here this week. They are from Spokane and stayed for a few days at Villa Camp.

The drive on the ridge, which is one of the most profitable sources of interest to the Summer visitor, and twice weekly the boys are to be seen going through the routine of their handiwork, and a shore drill on Thursdays keeps the people on the lookout and crowds line the shore for each event.

MANY COTTAGES AT ELMORE
Beach Park Appeals to Portland and Inland Empire Folk Alike.

ELMORE PARK, Or., July 28.—(Special.)—Quite a number of cottagers are here now, and by the first of the month it is expected that the most of the Summer homes will be occupied.

Arriving recently to take quarters in the cozy Elmore Cottages were Mrs. Thomas Elston and his sisters, Miss Edna Elston and Mrs. D. A. Gillies, of Portland. They will remain two weeks. For the first time, however, entertained Mrs. Frank Tomlin and daughter, Miss Leone Tomlin, also of Portland.

Mrs. Frances Houck and son Robert, of Portland, were here for a three days' stay at the Ocean Crest Apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Peabody were in from Portland for the last week at the Ocean Crest.

Arriving Tuesday for a sojourn of a few weeks at the Seamount Cottage were Mrs. P. F. Schneider, and the Misses Anna and Alice Schneider, and Master Clifford Nelson, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Barker arrived during the week and opened their Summer home at the Seamount Cottage. The Barkers are from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bridwell, of Portland, were through here during the week on an auto tour of the various beach resorts in this vicinity.

Mrs. T. F. Bradshaw and Mrs. R. A. Stueger, of Portland, were here for a one week's vacation at the Ocean Crest.

A. E. Ewing and bride, of Salem, were quartered here in an apartment at the Ocean Crest for a week's honeymoon.

Nelson Delar and brother, of Portland, are here for a week's outing, and are enjoying the shore life immensely.

Mrs. R. E. Schloth, of Portland, was here during the week for a few days' visit with relatives at the family cottage, Ocean Spray. Mrs. Schloth will return later in the season for a more extended stay.

Miss Dorothy Haulton, secretary of the Seattle L. W. C. A., and champion among lady swimmers of the Northwest, spent a week in Elmore as the guest of Mrs. L. Carlson and son William, at the Edgewater Cottage for a few weeks.

Miss Edith Coles, of Portland, who is summering at Elmore Cottage, was a guest in Elmore of Miss May Troy, at the May-Bea-Mar Cottage over one day of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davidson, of Portland, are here for a three days' sojourn at the Ocean Crest Apartments.

Data Rothrock, of Spokane, is a guest at the Edgewater Cottage for a few weeks.

L. J. Wright and family and Miss Lydia L. Davis and Herbert Key, of Portland, are here for a week, and are domiciled at the Ocean Crest.

That Elmore appeals to the people of the Inland Empire is shown by the great number of folks registering from there during this and past seasons.

Among the more recent Spokane folks to arrive were A. E. and L. E. Burns, who are quartered in the Hammond Cottage.

Miss Lucille Conlog was the guest of Mrs. L. J. Wright at the Ocean Crest for the last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. McAllister were here from Portland for a week's sojourn at the Ocean Crest. They are here registered at the Ocean Crest.

Roy Morley, a prominent hop-man of the Silverton district, with his wife and Mike Morley, was in via auto for a few days' camping in the park here.

At Camp Rest-while are to be found Clyde Johnson and daughter Pauline, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Schafer, and daughter Louise, and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Richardson, and daughter Lorraine, and son Lorenz. They are traveling by automobile, and are making side trips to the other resorts, including Bayview and Neah-Kah-nie Mountain.

Miss Mary Alta Kelly, of Portland, has joined her mother and family at the Seamount Cottage. They are here for the season. With her as house guests until the first of September are the Misses Rose Ryan and Bernice Altstock, likewise of Portland.

Miss Anna M. Krumrey spent the last week-end with relatives at the Seamount cottage here. Miss Krumrey is from Portland.

Surf bathing is still the most popular of pastimes, and each day at the proper tide near the shore line, with happy throngs. Bonfires at night draw many merry parties to the beach, and good times are heartily enjoyed.

Registering at the Elmore Hotel during the past week were A. Keys and wife, Wheeler; Mrs. G. Weygandt, Mrs. P. H. Cochran, Henry Hieser, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Flamm, C. K. Wolymont, Sidney Blanchard, Felix O'Donnell, Miss Rose Wise, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Delar, Mrs. J. H. Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Gray and family, of Beaverton, Or.; Mrs. Olga Ferguson and Miss Helen Hieser, of Astoria, and Miss E. M. Fairchild, M. Menold, J. J. Johnson, G. W. Hartman, A. G. Reschke and wife, B. D. VanCourt and wife, D. A. Mann and wife, C. H. E. Ong and wife, David and wife, E. O. Armstrong, and wife, J. J. Gordon and wife, Billie Bagan, Miss Lillian Brown, Miss Lillian Warnock, Mrs. J. Franz, Marie Tasscher, J. W. Crocker, Beula Roberts and W. F. Youngblood, of Portland, and E. A. Reuter, of Forest Grove.

VISITORS MANY AT TWIN ROCKS
Cottages Open for Summer and Camping Parties Pounce on Beach.

TWIN ROCKS, Or., July 28.—(Special.)—With the arrival of several of the regular Summer cottagers, Twin Rocks has again taken on an aspect of gaiety that equals, if not surpasses, that of former seasons. The massive rocks, just offshore, are a source of endless wonder to the beachgoers, and the postcard views of them have been mailed to friends in all parts of the country. Twin Rocks, or Double Rock, is a small island, about two miles long and half a mile wide, rising from the water just a few hundred feet off shore, and long has been a favorite resort of mariners and land-travelers alike.

Aside from the features of the interesting rocks, the beach is wide, good, and camping spots and a beautiful, protected location, Twin Rocks lies close enough to the bay to make crabs and clams a part of the menu. The people who come to seek rest and quiet receive quite the opposite demonstration. The most recent of noisome affairs was the party held last Sunday night at the Elmore Hotel, where a charivari was the motive, and Mr. and Mrs. George Carlson, of Portland, wedded but a few hours, were the victims. The party was a success, and the night resounded with the efforts of the crowd to disrupt the newlyweds. In the party of Summer folk who enjoyed the fun were: Mrs. Harry Rustad and son Golden, Mrs. E. F. Boubel and son George, Frank E. H. Laitner, of Portland, was in for the last week-end with his wife and daughter at their attractive Summer home, Dolce Par Niente.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Fairclough, guests at the Merry-makers for the past three weeks, returned recently to Portland.

Miss Helen Whiting, of Portland, who is summering at Saltair, was here on Monday as the guest of Miss Bertha Schloth, who will return to her home on a picnic hike and spent an enjoyable day together.

Among the Easterners to visit the beach during this season were P. F. Heumner and A. G. Findlay and wife, of Chicago, who were here for a few days at the Manhattan Hotel. The novelty of obtaining crabs fresh from the water was one that none of the party had before experienced, and their visit was full of interesting features to make it memorable.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hand, a jolly Portland couple, are at Coles Camp for a week or so. Fishing from the jetty appeals mightily to Mr. Hand, and he is successful in supplying the larger with some choice viands.

At a bonfire given Friday night on the beach practically the whole of the Summer population was represented. Music and marshmallows were the staple attractions of the evening, and the crowd enjoyed a jolly time. Frank Cole, of the We-Il-It Camp, was the prime mover in the affair.

Mrs. E. C. Allman, Miss Ada Allman and Mrs. E. R. Allman and Mrs. Arnold Kuhnhausen, of Portland, are happily quartered in the Kuhnhausen Summer home, Bellevue cottage, for a fortnight. With them for the last week-end were E. R. Allman and Arnold Kuhnhausen.

The H. O. L. has been given a good swat by the ladies of the Summer colony here. That vacations are expensive has long been a bugbear to young woman has gained notoriety by wearing a watch on her ankle and extremely short skirts.

To refer to the more serious and useful diversions at Seaside, Red Cross work, philanthropy and good deeds are getting their fair share of time and attention by the residents of Seaside, as well as the Summer visitors. One of the most delightful affairs of the past week was the tea and sale given in the Red Cross rooms adjoining the postoffice for the benefit of the Red Cross Society. The hostesses for the occasion were the Ladies Aid Society of the Episcopal Church, of which Mrs. A. S. Foster is president. The tea and sale were given on Tuesday, and the committee in charge included Mrs. Foster, Mrs. A. C. Cabinnis and Mrs. Martin Wagner. They were assisted by Mrs. H. F. Kendall, Miss Adeline Kendall, Miss Eleanor Simpson, Mrs. S. B. Foster, Jr., Miss Dorothy Wagner, Mrs. T. J. Carroll and Miss Helen Callahan. Some of the assistants were: Honor Guard girls, and they donated Red Cross nurse uniforms. Flowers daintily arranged, candy in attractive packages, tea, coffee and other refreshments, as well as aprons, were sold.

Mrs. Charles W. Jones and the Misses Jones were hostesses for an informal supper party Thursday night in their cottage, the Natoma, Mr. and Mrs. Froehlich and Mrs. T. J. Mitchell being guests.

Bishop Sumner was guest of honor for an informal luncheon presided over by Mrs. J. Louis Louison on Friday. Mrs. and Mrs. Paul Froehlich and the latter's sister, Mrs. T. J. Mitchell, of Milwaukee, Wis., motored to Seaside by way of Tillamook and arrived on Thursday night at Hotel Moore and returned Friday morning to Portland via the Columbia Highway or outside road.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Connor and two children and Mrs. Connor's brother, E. B. Connor, also motored from Portland and were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Smith for a few days. They returned Thursday to Portland via the high way.

Another of the motor parties arriving Friday night included Mr. and Mrs. Franklin T. Griffith and the Misses Harriet and Jane Griffith, of Milwaukee, Wis., who were here for several weeks. Mrs. Jane Noon, George Bell and Miss Ruth Bruere accompanied them. They passed a few days at Hotel Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Letter and Mrs. O. K. Jeffery also motored from Portland and were attending the N. E. A. at the Hotel Moore. The Letters are now domiciled in their cottage at Gearhart for the Summer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

novelty of obtaining crabs fresh from the water was one that none of the party had before experienced, and their visit was full of interesting features to make it memorable.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hand, a jolly Portland couple, are at Coles Camp for a week or so. Fishing from the jetty appeals mightily to Mr. Hand, and he is successful in supplying the larger with some choice viands.

At a bonfire given Friday night on the beach practically the whole of the Summer population was represented. Music and marshmallows were the staple attractions of the evening, and the crowd enjoyed a jolly time. Frank Cole, of the We-Il-It Camp, was the prime mover in the affair.

Mrs. E. C. Allman, Miss Ada Allman and Mrs. E. R. Allman and Mrs. Arnold Kuhnhausen, of Portland, are happily quartered in the Kuhnhausen Summer home, Bellevue cottage, for a fortnight. With them for the last week-end were E. R. Allman and Arnold Kuhnhausen.

The H. O. L. has been given a good swat by the ladies of the Summer colony here. That vacations are expensive has long been a bugbear to young woman has gained notoriety by wearing a watch on her ankle and extremely short skirts.

To refer to the more serious and useful diversions at Seaside, Red Cross work, philanthropy and good deeds are getting their fair share of time and attention by the residents of Seaside, as well as the Summer visitors. One of the most delightful affairs of the past week was the tea and sale given in the Red Cross rooms adjoining the postoffice for the benefit of the Red Cross Society. The hostesses for the occasion were the Ladies Aid Society of the Episcopal Church, of which Mrs. A. S. Foster is president. The tea and sale were given on Tuesday, and the committee in charge included Mrs. Foster, Mrs. A. C. Cabinnis and Mrs. Martin Wagner. They were assisted by Mrs. H. F. Kendall, Miss Adeline Kendall, Miss Eleanor Simpson, Mrs. S. B. Foster, Jr., Miss Dorothy Wagner, Mrs. T. J. Carroll and Miss Helen Callahan. Some of the assistants were: Honor Guard girls, and they donated Red Cross nurse uniforms. Flowers daintily arranged, candy in attractive packages, tea, coffee and other refreshments, as well as aprons, were sold.

Mrs. Charles W. Jones and the Misses Jones were hostesses for an informal supper party Thursday night in their cottage, the Natoma, Mr. and Mrs. Froehlich and Mrs. T. J. Mitchell being guests.

Bishop Sumner was guest of honor for an informal luncheon presided over by Mrs. J. Louis Louison on Friday. Mrs. and Mrs. Paul Froehlich and the latter's sister, Mrs. T. J. Mitchell, of Milwaukee, Wis., motored to Seaside by way of Tillamook and arrived on Thursday night at Hotel Moore and returned Friday morning to Portland via the Columbia Highway or outside road.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Connor and two children and Mrs. Connor's brother, E. B. Connor, also motored from Portland and were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Smith for a few days. They returned Thursday to Portland via the high way.

Another of the motor parties arriving Friday night included Mr. and Mrs. Franklin T. Griffith and the Misses Harriet and Jane Griffith, of Milwaukee, Wis., who were here for several weeks. Mrs. Jane Noon, George Bell and Miss Ruth Bruere accompanied them. They passed a few days at Hotel Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Letter and Mrs. O. K. Jeffery also motored from Portland and were attending the N. E. A. at the Hotel Moore. The Letters are now domiciled in their cottage at Gearhart for the Summer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

novelty of obtaining crabs fresh from the water was one that none of the party had before experienced, and their visit was full of interesting features to make it memorable.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hand, a jolly Portland couple, are at Coles Camp for a week or so. Fishing from the jetty appeals mightily to Mr. Hand, and he is successful in supplying the larger with some choice viands.

At a bonfire given Friday night on the beach practically the whole of the Summer population was represented. Music and marshmallows were the staple attractions of the evening, and the crowd enjoyed a jolly time. Frank Cole, of the We-Il-It Camp, was the prime mover in the affair.

Mrs. E. C. Allman, Miss Ada Allman and Mrs. E. R. Allman and Mrs. Arnold Kuhnhausen, of Portland, are happily quartered in the Kuhnhausen Summer home, Bellevue cottage, for a fortnight. With them for the last week-end were E. R. Allman and Arnold Kuhnhausen.

The H. O. L. has been given a good swat by the ladies of the Summer colony here. That vacations are expensive has long been a bugbear to young woman has gained notoriety by wearing a watch on her ankle and extremely short skirts.

To refer to the more serious and useful diversions at Seaside, Red Cross work, philanthropy and good deeds are getting their fair share of time and attention by the residents of Seaside, as well as the Summer visitors. One of the most delightful affairs of the past week was the tea and sale given in the Red Cross rooms adjoining the postoffice for the benefit of the Red Cross Society. The hostesses for the occasion were the Ladies Aid Society of the Episcopal Church, of which Mrs. A. S. Foster is president. The tea and sale were given on Tuesday, and the committee in charge included Mrs. Foster, Mrs. A. C. Cabinnis and Mrs. Martin Wagner. They were assisted by Mrs. H. F. Kendall, Miss Adeline Kendall, Miss Eleanor Simpson, Mrs. S. B. Foster, Jr., Miss Dorothy Wagner, Mrs. T. J. Carroll and Miss Helen Callahan. Some of the assistants were: Honor Guard girls, and they donated Red Cross nurse uniforms. Flowers daintily arranged, candy in attractive packages, tea, coffee and other refreshments, as well as aprons, were sold.

Mrs. Charles W. Jones and the Misses Jones were hostesses for an informal supper party Thursday night in their cottage, the Natoma, Mr. and Mrs. Froehlich and Mrs. T. J. Mitchell being guests.

Bishop Sumner was guest of honor for an informal luncheon presided over by Mrs. J. Louis Louison on Friday. Mrs. and Mrs. Paul Froehlich and the latter's sister, Mrs. T. J. Mitchell, of Milwaukee, Wis., motored to Seaside by way of Tillamook and arrived on Thursday night at Hotel Moore and returned Friday morning to Portland via the Columbia Highway or outside road.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Connor and two children and Mrs. Connor's brother, E. B. Connor, also motored from Portland and were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Smith for a few days. They returned Thursday to Portland via the high way.

Another of the motor parties arriving Friday night included Mr. and Mrs. Franklin T. Griffith and the Misses Harriet and Jane Griffith, of Milwaukee, Wis., who were here for several weeks. Mrs. Jane Noon, George Bell and Miss Ruth Bruere accompanied them. They passed a few days at Hotel Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Letter and Mrs. O. K. Jeffery also motored from Portland and were attending the N. E. A. at the Hotel Moore. The Letters are now domiciled in their cottage at Gearhart for the Summer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end, registering at the Hotel Moore.

Guy M. Standifer and S. Russell Smith, well-known golfers, made the trip from Portland Friday in Mr. Standifer's car. They returned Saturday to Portland via the high way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff also are among the motorists who made the trip for the week-end,