What's new!—

—Boxes and boxes of new things have been coming in every day. Here are some of the things you'll be most interested in.

—Silk vests, bloomers and camisoles that you'll hardly find anywhere else in town. They're from Kayser, the Emperor of the underwear world! —Main floor.

—Have you heard of Moonglo silks? We've just received a big shipment of the exquisite Moonglo crepes and meters in many new shades. —Second floor.

—And Directoire satins! They're brocaded in patterns of the Directoire period—and Fashion dispatches say they're to figure largely in dinner and dance frocks for Fall. —2d floor.

—Vanity of vanities! All that is contained in the silk vanity bags in the Art Needlework shop—is vanity. —5th floor.

—Generally speaking, lace stocks and jabots are not new—but we have some that ARE, and Portland maids and matrons will be more delighted with them than with the first ones that made their appearance. —Main floor.

—White felt hats are an important addition to the long list of white wearables that are so sought after—and white hats aplenty are waiting to be seen and admired on the 3d floor.

—They're scarcely out of their boxes yet—the smartest kinds of wool costumes and coatings and suitings that have the crispness and freshness of Fall written all over them. See them first Monday.
