Permit Issued to East Side Company Fails to Save Distributors of Inflammatory Literature From Sentences to Prison.

Mopping floors and brushing the corridors will be the diversion of the three I. W. W. who were arrested Friday for distributing their literature on the streets of Portland. The men are M. Knutson, G. Gunderson and John Wolsh and the sentence levied by Judge Rossman orders them to do duty around the municipal building for 20 days.
Mayor Baker was deeply interested in the handling of these men and dropped down to the court at noon to find out the disposition of their case by Judge Rossman

'Do you think that's enough?" asked Mayor when a spectator told him of the sentences.

The charge on which the men were sentenced was that of distributing without a license. The men were in possession of licenses from the Kelly Advertising Company on East Mor

This firm makes a business of dis-tributing and has 20 licenses issued. In some way these came into the hands of the L. W. W. However, Judge Rossman held that the mere fact that they had these li-censes had no bearing on the case, any more than having a police star would make an unauthorized person a police-man. The police contend that the men were giving the literature to persons on the street, which is not permissible under the license. The judge also admonished the men, none of whom was a United States citizen, that before they started on any revolutionary ventures they should first become citizens of the United States.

Fired at Lumber Mill.

An aftermath of the I. W. W. visits to the Eastern & Western Lumber Company plant in North Portland came to the attention of the police yesterday, when W. D. Walter, deputy sheriff, reported he had taken part in a shooting just after midnight Friday with an unknown prowler.

Walter says he was on his rounds of the mill grounds when he noticed a man sheaking from one dark spot to another. He halled him, and receiving no answer, started toward the man, when the latter fired two shots.

Walter says he returned three shots. He gave the police a bottle, which he says he found when the man ran contains a fluid that smell of coal oil, ether and turpentine.

FOR TIME ONLY OR FOR ETERNITY

Human Institutions and Divine Authority.

By DR. JAMES E. TALMAGE, Of the Council of the Twelve, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, Salt Lake City, Utah.

We believe that a man must be called

We believe that a man must be called of God, by prophecy, and by the laying on of hands by those who are in anthority to preach the gospel and administer in the ordinances thereof (Articles of Faith, No. 5).

Organization is essential to human advancement. The divine affirmation that it is not good for man to be alone may be applied not only to the union of the sexes in honorable marriage, upon which the perpetuity of the race depends, but also to the association of humankind in community life, without which co-operation is impossible and the achievements of united purpose would be unknown. would be unknown.

It is therefore natural and necessary that men shall establish and maintain institutions for community betterment. Thus men may institute as

Thus, men may institute societies, as-sociations and clubs, guilds, frateringles and orders. They may designate their organization as a church if they choose and may enact rules prescribing con-ditions of admission, and providing for the administration of the institution's affairs. They may go so far as to say that no man shall be admitted to the that no man shall be admitted to the church thus created except he be bap-tized by immersion in water by one of the officials, and that the seal of mem-bership shall be the pronouncing of a formula accompanied by the laying on Churches, societies or other associa-tions established on purely human ini-tiative are institutions of men; they can never be aught else. It is in line with consistency that such organizawith consistency that such organiza-tions bear the names of men, or that they be known by some appellation ex-pressive of their origin, their constitu-tion, their peculiarities of government, their location or some other distin-guishing feature. Could it be counted less than sacrilege to attach the name of Deity to a church called into being in the manner we have assumed? in the manner we have assumed?

The church of the apostolic epoch was the organization that Christ had was the organization that Christ had established. He very expressively called it My Church (Matt. xvi:18), and after his departure, every ordinance therein was administered in the name of Jesus Christ. By divine assurance those ordinances were of effect, not only on earth, but in heaven, not alone for time, but for eternity. Of manmade institutions, of artificial growths though hearing the titles of churchly though bearing the titles of churchly cults, the Lord emphatically declared: "Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be root-ed up" (Matt. xv:12). In the course of his ministrations on the Western Continent, Jesus Christ established his church, and thus answered certain inquiries as to the name by which that church should be called:

"Whatsoever ye shall do, ye shall do
It in my name: therefore ye shall call the church in my name; and ye shall the church in my name; and ye shall call upon the Father in my name, that he will bless the church for my sake. And how be it my church, save it be called in my name? For if a church be called in Moses' name, then it be Mones' church; or if it be called in the name of a man, then it be the church of a man; but if it be called in my name, then it is my church, if it so be that they are built upon my gospel. . . And if it so be that the church is built upon my gospel, then will the Father shew forth his own works in it. But if it be and they are hewn down and east into the fire, from whence there is no re-turn" (Book of Mormon, III Nephi

The acts of a public official, whether Dr. Schuyler C. Jaques.
Visiting Surgeon of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, New York City, said: "I have never before given out any medical information or advice for publication, as I ordinarily do not believe in it. But in the case of Nuxated Iron in feel I would be remiss in my duty not to mention it. I have taken it myself and given it to given it to affairs and to alter, annul or supersede my patients by their own enactments the laws established by divine authority relating to membership in the kingdom of In the current age the Lord has es-tablished his church upon the earth and has made plain the portentous fact that, while honorable obligations, agreements and contracts among men may be valid under human laws, he is in no way bound by such exercise of mortal agency as conditioning the fu-ture of the soul after death. Ponder these declarations of Jesus Christ, giv-en to his church in 1843:

en to his church in 1843:

"All covenants, contracts, bonds, obligations, oaths, vows, performances, connections, associations or expectations that are not made and entered into and senied by the Holy Spirit of promise of him who is anointed, both as well for time and for all eternity are of no efficient, virtue or force. as well for time and for all eternity that is not made in my name! Or, will I receive at your hands that which I have not appointed! And will I appoint unto you, saith the Lord, except I have not appointed? And will I appoint unto you, saith the Lord, except it be by law, even as I and my Father ordained unto you, before the world was? I am the Lord thy God, and I give unto you this commandment, that no man shall come unto the Father but by me, or by my word, which is my law, saith the Lord. And everything that is in the world, whether it be ordained of men, by thrones, or principalities or powers, or things of name, whatsoever they may be, that are not by me, or by my word, saith the Lord, shall be thrown down and shall not remain after men are dead, neither in nor after God" (Dectrine and Covenants exxxii: 5-13).
