

BATHING GIRLS ARE ADMIRERS OF 15,000

Fashion Parade at Columbia Beach Proves to Be Pronounced Success.

PRIZE-WINNERS SELECTED

Mrs. Dorothy Oberg Carries Off First Honors; Misses Clarice and Dorothea Lange Victors in Twins' Competition.

Portland's first big bathing girls' fashion parade was a pronounced success. More than 15,000 interested spectators witnessed the kaleidoscopic procession of beautiful mermaids at Columbia Beach yesterday afternoon. Everybody admitted it was the most noteworthy array of shapely women and aristocratic bathing togethery ever assembled in the annals of local recreation resorts.

The judges had a time making the prize-winning selections, but their choices won the approval of the applauding throngs. The judges were: Chief of Police Johnson, County Commissioner Holman, City Commissioner Kellaher and Russell H. Brown. J. Ed Werlein acted as announcer and chief aid to Grand Marshal (T. J.) Swivel.

Here are the lucky winners:

Grand prize, $25 in gold, Mrs. Dorothy Oberg.

Special prize, best "twin" entry, $10 in gold, Misses Clarice and Dorothea Lange, entered by Portland Knit Mills Store.

Special feature prize, $5 in gold, little Miss Mabel Sadler, aged 3 years. Merchandise prizes were awarded to Miss Meda Welter, Mrs. Georgia Davis, Miss A. Lichtenhaler, Miss Violet Woods, Miss Lillian Lee, Miss Edith Holcomb, Miss Florence Henry, Mrs. W. Traut, Miss Jane O'Toole, Miss Mabelle Elliot, Mrs. F. C. Schenckler, Miss M. Hanna, Miss Sophia Weller, Miss Dorothy Hedman and Miss Louise Hedman.

Affair Success in Every Way. It was beyond all doubt the most successful affair of its kind ever staged in Portland, both from the standpoint of crowds, beauty and shapeliness of the contesting water nymphs and gorgeousness of bathing costumes worn by the stunning young maidens and matrons. And it made the husky band of judges work like a veteran army digging in for the winter to pick out the prize winners in such a short summer as we have had this month.

A large part of the success of the affair was due to Grand Marshal "Tommy" (T. J.) Swivel. Tommy rode a horse, or rather that portion of a real horse known as a Shetland pony, part of the time.

Moving Pictures Made. As to the parade itself, it was largely by cream de la creme of the tripping young damsels were given cheers and salutes of applause by the admiring multitude from the time the band edged its way down between the solid walls of excited humanity and until the long and shimmering, multi-colored procession of beauties had passed in review before the judges and the large batteries of camera men and "movie" grinders.

The entire expanse of white sandy beach was a swaying, wriggling mass of humanity as 5 o'clock approached and a hushed and expectant line that a little plump barber-pole was running down the inspection grounds. It was the Grand Marshal all dolled up like Mademoiselle de France during the Mid-Winter horse show, just running down the line of his aides-de-camp, some 30-odd in number, and telling them where they were to "head in at" during the excitement that was about to start.

Bathing Girls Pass in Review. Then came the parade. First four soldiers came in line and two little ponies with the sweetest little girl "kiddies" riding them, and all dressed up in silks and ribbons. The youngsters flung kisses at the crowds and were a knock-out. Then came the band, and just at that moment Ed. Werlein, chief of staff, dashed down in front of the reviewing stand and notified the bulging crowds that they would have to give the Grand Marshal and his grand army of aides-de-camp some room, so of course, the band had to stop playing, having no chance with such competition. Werlein's voice being in unusually good condition.

Up and back over the roped-off arena 1000 feet in length, the long and vivid line of bathing girls passed in review, once, twice and a third time, the judges, aghast and bewildered at the sudden outburst of resplendent visions before them, gulped a few times and Chief of Police Johnson wanted to know how far it was to the city limits in case his judgment stalled on him.

Commissioner Holman Busy. The judges had to pick a total of 13 prize winners out of the field, and right in the middle of it somebody brought word to County Commissioner Holman that the Broadway bridge was on fire and wanted to know what to do. "Let her burn; I like real excitement, and I'm right at home here."

After the girls had paraded back and forth several times they were then lined up single file and each one mounted the raised platform in the center of the arena and was given a chance to pose, smile, or pirouette and otherwise confuse the addled minds of the judges. Gradually the field of contenders was reduced until there were 18 left. The judges pondered some more and the girls smiled and mounted the platform again.

Acting Mayor Kellaher thought it a shame that all of the entries could win that grand prize of $25, showing he is no slouch of a politician since women are allowed to vote in Oregon. Miss Violet Woods was a strong contender for the first prize, but after long consultation by the judges it was decided that inasmuch as her pretty ruffled costume was not strictly a bathing suit she was disqualified, so the dainty little mermaid was given special honorable mention and a pair of silk stockings. Probably the biggest individual hit of the parade was little Miss Mabel Sadler, a beautiful little girl only 2 years old, who rode at the head of the procession on a galloping pony, attired in a dainty and colorful little bathing suit. She was awarded the special prize of $5. Two other cute little girls, who also rode on the ponies, were Misses Dorothy and Louise Hedman, but their mount became excited at the music and left the course, dumping the little entries into the sand and leaving them out of the parade. These two little maids were awarded special prizes, a box of candy each.

Japanese Warships Join Allies.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—Additional Japanese naval units have joined the allied forces in European waters, the Japanese naval attaché here announced today.

80 IN TENNIS PLAY

Laurelhurst Club Opens Second Annual Tourney.

MEN'S SINGLES STARTED

Contests Will Be Continued Today, and It Is Expected That at Least Twenty-five Matches Will Be Played.

Laurelhurst Club opened its second annual intra-club tennis tournament yesterday with play in the men's singles only. There are about 80 entries in the various divisions. Owing to the short notice received by some of the entrants the play was not as spirited yesterday as expected, but opportunity will be given today for the playing off of at least 25 matches. Paul Steffen, Phil Neer, Clifford Harrison and Dave Leedom won handily in yesterday's play. Herbert Cook and F. S. Rogers engaged in the only three-set match of the afternoon, Rogers emerging the victor.

The results were as follows:

9 A. M.—Wason vs. Glyde.
10 A. M.—Bishop vs. Beridge.
11 A. M.—Harrison vs. Cate.
12 M.—Hollis vs. Weiss.
1 P. M.—Walker vs. Leedom-Zollinger vs. winner of Weston-Thompson match; Dr. Watkins vs. Dickerson; Wayland Owen vs. McBride.
2 P. M.—McPherson vs. Kent; Cate & Weiss vs. Western and partner; Wilson and West vs. Kettenhofen and partner; Cate & Weiss vs. Owen and McBride.
3 P. M.—Cook vs. winner of Watkins-Dickerson match; Thompson vs. Rogers; Miss Glyde and Wilson vs. Miss Terry and Walker; Tamielie and partner vs. Montgomery and partner.
4 P. M.—Miss Daffne Henderson vs. Miss Marjorie Critchenden; Miss Mildred Terry vs. Mrs. Weston; Miss Fay Barnes vs. Miss Miriam Sinclair.
Winner of Cate and Weiss vs. Western and partner vs. winner of Wilson and West vs. Kettenhofen and partner.
5 P. M.—Miss Miriam Sinclair and Miss Inez Fairchild; Burrell and partner vs. Clark Neer and Stephen vs. Glyde and Bishop.

BAD HIGHWAY WILL GO TO BE REPAIRED.

Stretch Characterized as Worst Piece Between Portland and San Francisco Will Be Eliminated.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Aug. 11.—What has been widely advertised as the worst piece of road between Portland and San Francisco, and located just south of Cottage Grove, will soon be no more. County Road Superintendent McKay, with a caterpillar engine, a mogul scarifier, a mogul road grader and a large crew of men, started at work on the new piece of road which will take the place of the series of undulations and chuck holes which have been serving as a road. The new road was pretty well graded last year and the new combination of road machinery which is being used here for the first time in Lane County will have the grade ready for the rock within a few days.

One rock crusher has already been moved from Loring, and Al Elledge and his crew will soon be turning out the rock for the surface of the road. Another crusher will be brought here from Spencer Creek and it is thought the two will be able to get out the rock this season to complete the entire stretch of road, some two miles in length.

The new stretch of road connects with the old road at the divide station, but if the other work can be completed in time either an overhead or underground crossing will be constructed and the new road extended on down Pass Creek canyon to the county line. This would eliminate one of the most dangerous railroad crossings on the highway. It was at this crossing that a car containing the Root family of seven was struck and demolished last year, several of the occupants being seriously injured, but all miraculously escaping death.

The present arrangements of the County Court with the State Highway Commission contemplate the hard-surfacing of this piece of road after it has been traveled two or three years.

Swimming and Diving Notes.

PORTLAND will be represented at the Pacific Coast diving championships to be held at Idora Park, San Francisco, August 28, by Mrs. Constance Meyer, present National women's champion.

Mrs. Meyer won her title at the P. N. A. swims held at the Winged M tank, May 19, 1917, and she will defend it against Miss Aileen Allen, of Los Angeles. The Portland expert will leave the city for the south in time to get used to the various board marks to be used. High diving from the 16 and 24-foot board and fancy diving from the 10-foot board will form the programme.

Mrs. Meyer is training at Windemuth's daily for the event, and although diving from anything higher than the 10-foot board is new to her, she is rapidly overcoming all obstacles.

Another "Jas has come to ruff" the waters of the swimming world. Her name is Evelynne, and she is just 17, once in the home of this new water nymph. Swimming against Dorothy Burns, 100-yard Pacific Coast champion, Miss Ross forced the veteran to a 0 at such distance to keep ahead of her. The 150-yard backstroke record, Miss Ross has done the 50-yards in 33 seconds in practice. She swims the crawl stroke and has it down to perfection.

"Chuck" Miller, of Santa Cruz, who poses picturesquely impossibilities off the diving board, probably will enter the men's National diving championships to be held at Ocean Park, Los Angeles, this afternoon. Leslie Joseph, of the Neptune Swimming Club, of Alameda, has entered the diving championships. Bill Williams, present champion, Haig Priest and Swenson are also slated among the entries.

Clement Browne, all-around star, holder of the Central A. A. U. mile and National 100 and 1200-yard marks (indoor), has enlisted in the Forty-Second U. S. Infantry.

Esther B. White, holder of the world's best time of 2:38 for 200-yard breast swim and Central A. A. U. junior breast stroke champion for 75-foot tanks, has secured a private in the Twelfth U. S. Cavalry.

Duke Kahanamoku has proved to the world that the fastest swimming stroke used today is the Australian crawl. It has been estimated that with the use of the crawl all records have been reduced 25 per cent.

Boy Swimmer Is Star.

According to Coach Walter Christie of the University of California, Ray Jorgensen is the best school boy swimmer in America. Jorgensen, 15, has engaged in many a brush with Norman Ross, new world's champion, at various distances. Ross and other swimmers agree with Christie in calling Jorgensen "the most promising youngster; a coming champ."

HOSFORD WINS SWIM

Three-Mile Marathon Covered in 1 Hour, 45 Minutes.

EMMETT ROGERS SECOND

Mrs. Elsie Shockley Swims Distance in Two Hours, 42 Minutes, Defeating Mrs. Anna Schrader. River Proves Rough.

Despite a choppy river and with a strong wind to back, O. J. Hosford, Multnomah Club, won the annual Marathon Swim, held at the Multnomah Club, from the Oregon Yacht Club to Kellogg's bathhouse, in the fast time of one hour and 45 minutes. Emmett Rogers, unattached, was second, time two hours and 18 minutes. Two women swimmers braved the elements, Mrs. Elsie Shockley and Mrs. Anna Schrader, both of Multnomah Club. Mrs. Shockley won in two hours and 42 minutes.

Hosford Takes Lead.

A field of seven men faced Starter Frank Watkins at 1:41 P. M. on the Oregon Yacht Club float. Hosford took the lead, which he gradually increased. He made the first two miles in 55 minutes and undoubtedly would have broken previous records had he not had a cramp in his left leg about one-half mile from the finish. Mrs. Hosford, who followed her husband in a canoe, signaled Professor Jack Cody, and the latter hastened to where Hosford was. Hosford refused any help and floated on his back until such time as he was able to swim again. Had it not been for this accident, coupled with the heavy wind and choppy waves, Hosford would have broken the record. He used a tudegen stroke.

Emmett Rogers made a good swim and will bear watching in future marathons.

Myron Wilsey worked all Friday night and without any sleep endeavored to swim the three miles, but he was taken from the water by Captain Speler, of the Harbor Patrol, after he had covered about one mile. Robert McCabe, a 15-year-old lad, swam two and a half miles and was taken from the water by Fred Failing, of the cruiser Sabina. Paul Dickinson, who was looked upon as a contender, was evidently overtrained. The absence of Frank Kierman and Bud Doupus, who were expected to take part, detracted considerably from the race. Both of these swimmers were out of the city.

Watkins Is Starter.

The starters in the men's race were O. J. Hosford, Multnomah Club; Emmett Rogers, unattached; Myron Wilsey, Multnomah Club; Paul Dickinson, Multnomah Club; G. C. Grande, Multnomah Club; Robert McCabe, Multnomah Club; A. Olson, unattached.

The officials were—Starter, Frank Watkins; Judges, George Berte, James J. Richardson and Harry Fisher; Timers, Fred Failing and L. V. Wing.

GOLDEN GATE SWIM ON

SCORE OF CALIFORNIA MERMEN TO COMPETE TODAY.

Norman Ross, Former Multnomah Club Athlete, Will Endeavor to Set New Mark for Distance.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—More than a score of the best swimmers of California will plunge into the cold waters of the Golden Gate tomorrow morning in an attempt to lower the record for traversing the famous strait which forms entrance from the Pacific Ocean into San Francisco Bay. Foremost among the contestants is Norman Ross, of the Olympic Club, holder of a dozen world's records and National championships for various distances.

Among those opposing Ross will be Walter Pomeroy, present holder of the trans-Golden Gate record. Pomeroy made the distance of approximately seven-eighths of a mile in 20 minutes and 44 seconds in 1914. The course tomorrow will be over the same route as was followed by Pomeroy when he established the record.

While the distance, comparatively speaking, is not a great one, the channel abounds in rips and tides which make it a difficult bit of water to negotiate. It calls for all the best qualities of the swimmer in the matter of speed, strength, staying powers and headwork and is regarded as an excellent all-around test. Each swimmer will be accompanied by a rowboat manned by an experienced mar at the oars, who knows all the tricks of the waters and who will act as a guide to the contestant.

A prize also has been offered to the high school boy who makes the best time across the strait. The winner automatically will establish a record for this division, as this is the first time that the high school boys have been afforded an opportunity to show what they could do over this particular course.

Outing Trip Planned.

Jack Cody, swimming instructor of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club, Ben Holladay and Raymond Cole will leave soon on a fishing and hunting trip. Cody and his party expect to go to Gaston and then hike due west over the hills, striking at the headwaters of the Trask River, and continuing down this stream, using all their time to hunt and fish.

RACES CLOSE FOR WASHINGTON FAIR

Good Performers Are on List of Harness Events September 17 to 22.

ALL BUT ONE RACE FULL

Free-for-All Trot Fails to Fill and Special Contest Will Be Provided; Automobiles Are to Vie on First Day.

Entries in the harness races which are to be held during the Washington State Fair at North Yakima September 17 to 22 have closed and some good performers are on the list. All of the races that were advertised filled except the free-for-all trot. This event will not be reopened, but a special will be provided instead. In connection with the harness races, running, novelty and relay events, participated in by Indians from the reservation, will be on the programme each day. Automobile races will occupy the track on Monday, the first day of the fair, and horse races every day thereafter.

The new $20,000 grandstand, with a seating capacity of 4000, is nearing completion. It is so located and built that when filled every part of the track can be seen from any seat.

The White Hussar Singing Band of Chicago has been engaged to furnish music each day at the grandstand during the races, as well as to give a concert each evening in the agricultural building. A number of Portland horses have been entered, including G. L. Parker's Helen Mistletoe, by Hal B. Following are the harness race entries:

2:25 trot, $500—Ore. May, bl. m., C. O. Podes, Trout Lake, Wash.; Ben T. br. & b., A. Fidler, Haines, Or.; Woodrow, blk. & b., L. C. Shell, Walla Walla, Idaho; J. H. Remington, Olympia, Wn.; William H. Hoggoboom, agent, Walla Walla; Salem Boy, b. h., J. Jones, Mauney, Salem, James, J. Jones, J. Jones, Waite, Salem; Song Sparrow, ch. m., W. C. Steff, The Dalles, by W. E. Martin, agent, Salem; Cavalier, gr. & b., C. E. McLean, Hood River, by G. L. Swisher, agent, Centralia; Tuffy, gr. & b., J. Edmonson, Alta; Guy Boy, b. g., James Stewart, Calgary, Alta.; Expat, b. h., James Stewart, Calgary, Alta.

2:12 trot, $700—Starost, s. s., M. C. Gunderson, North Yakima; Flora, gr. & b., m., Cudline & McCormick, Seattle; Mark, b. h., B. G. D. R. Hoggoboom, Fairbanks, Alaska, by Peter Cook, Haines, Or.; Hail, b. h., J. Jones, Mrs. L. W. Waite, Portland, by G. L. Swisher, agent, Centralia; Katie Todd, br. m., D. F. Lowe, Calgary, Alta.; George N. Patterson, blk. h., Homer Rutherford, Pleasanton, Cal.
