Miss Isabelle Tyson, the lovely Southern girl who is to be maid of honor, arrived in Portland on Thursday and Miss Eleanor Anderson, of Colorado Springs, who will be a bridesmaid, arrived yesterday.

On Monday Mrs. Holt Wilson will dispense hospitality for Mrs. Squires, mother of the bridegroom, at a tea. Next Thursday Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett will be hostess at a dinner at the Forrest Hall, with Mrs. Squires as the honored one, and on Friday Mrs. Joseph Nathan Teal will give a luncheon for Mrs. Squires.

Mrs. Max Houser will leave today for San Francisco.

Engagements and more engagements and they a whole procession of weddings—that is the history of society for the summer. On Wednesday there was the announcement of the betrothal of Miss Helen Sharpsten and Frank Clark Paine, of Spokane. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Anna Sharpsten and the bridegroom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Paine, of Spokane, and the brother of Mrs. Fred B. Grinnell, Mrs. E. K. Erwin and Mrs. E. C. Dillingham, of Portland. He is well known socially and in business circles. Mr. Paine is secretary of the Union Trust Company.

Miss Sharpsten is popular here and in Spokane and has many friends in California. She is a graduate of Miss Mason's school at Tarrytown-on-Hudson, and has traveled extensively in Europe and this country.

This season Mrs. Sharpsten and her daughter have been residing at Upper Drive, in this city.

The engagement of Miss Sharpsten and Mr. Paine was made known at a smart luncheon given by Mrs. Ralph Hurlburt at the University Club. The table was centered with gay Summer blossoms and places were marked for Mrs. Ray Matson, Mrs. Robert Scott (Nancy Zan), Miss Kate Brasel, Miss Gretchen Klosterman, Miss Edith Olds, Miss Louise Poulsen, Miss Frances Fuller, Miss Isabelle Clark, Miss Cornelia Stanley, Miss Margaret Webber, Miss Sharpsten and the hostess.

After the repast, the girls went to Mrs. Hurlburt's home and enjoyed a game of bridge.

Mrs. Hurlburt returned recently from San Francisco, where Lieutenant Hurlburt received his commission. He left on Tuesday night for American Lake, where he is assigned for duty.

Mrs. Margaret Welch entertained informally Monday night in honor of Miss Dorothy Dunn, who is leaving for California. Miss Welch was a guest at the Dunn Summer home on the MacKenzie River. Miss Dunn returned to Portland to be the guest of Miss Welch for a short time.

Charles L. Freyer, of Detroit, Mich., who has given to the United States an unrivaled collection of Chinese, Japanese and Korean art, as well as Western paintings, has presented to the Portland Art Association a valuable Chinese painting, several hundred years old. The work of art will be on exhibition in October and its viewing on the opening night doubtless will be quite a social and artistic event. Mr. Freyer is a millionaire patron of art who has Baker, County Commissioner and Mrs. Rufus Holman and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Inman.

Dr. A. A. Morrison, rector of Trinity, returned last week from an extended visit with Thomas W. Lawson at "Dreamworld," near Boston. Dr. Morrison saw the Robert W. Lewises at East Gloucester. He also saw Captain Douglas Lawson, son of Thomas Lawson, who is in the artillery and is "making good." "Doug" Lawson is a member with the society girls here and they will be interested in his advancement.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cook and family have taken a large suite at the Multnomah Hotel for the winter and will make their home there. They are expected home from Genhart today.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman R. Hall entertained last week for Captain Foulhoux, J. Andre Foulhoux and Mrs. Foulhoux.

On Monday Irving L. Webster gave a stag dinner for Captain Foulhoux.

On Thursday a merry party of friends motored to Lake Camas to enjoy a swim, followed by dinner and dancing at "The Ferns," the country home of Major and Mrs. Fred Leadbetter.

The war service committee of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, of which Mrs. George Collins is president, is doing excellent work collecting books, magazines and Victrola records for the front. There is a great demand for good literature, books, French and interesting magazines. The committee is assisting Robert C. French to gather together an art collection of first-class reproductions of the old masters and other good pictures that will be hung in the buildings at the camps to take away the barrenness of the walls and to give the boys something cheerful and inspiring to enjoy. Anyone wishing to contribute money or articles suitable for this work may telephone Main 5125. This is a part that someone with money can take or anyone having records that have pleased them for some time can pass them along for the soldier lads.

Miss Dorothy Jones, daughter of Colonel Jones, of Vancouver post, will leave soon for Seattle to resume her work at the University of Washington. Miss Ethel Malpas, who is a graduate of St. Helen's Hall and one of the most popular of the younger girls, is planning to go away to college, also.

Miss Elizabeth Ducey was hostess on Wednesday at an informal tea at which she honored Miss Margaret Elliott, who left on Saturday for the East to resume her studies in college. Miss Elliott has been one of the charming young visitors of the summer, and her stay here has been the inspiration for considerable entertaining among the younger girls. Among the smart affairs for Miss Elliott was a theater party followed by a supper dance at the Multnomah Hotel, several picnic outings and afternoon teas.

Tuesday was an evening of smiles and a few tears, but the tears were forced back bravely and smiles predominated. For on Tuesday a large contingent of young officers went away to American Lake. Early in the evening many of them went in groups to Multnomah Hotel and danced and enjoyed a supper and the companionship of dear friends, the boys and girls who had known each other for years, who had been neighbors and friends ever since school days began. When the clock pointed to 11 the parties broke up and the officers and their friends and relatives went to the Union Depot, for the soldiers were going away on the 11:30 train. The scene in the main waiting room was one not soon to be forgotten. Almost every man, except a few fathers and older friends, wore the olive drab and the sign of his rank. The men saluted each other and the girls chatted merrily. Among them were some who bade goodbye to sweethearts. Some were brides of but a few days.

The many friends of Miss Gladys B. Morgan have been taken greatly by surprise to learn of her marriage to Harold D. Farmer, in the First Methodist Church last Sunday morning. After the close of the morning service, having presided at the organ as usual, Miss Morgan went to the pastor's office, where she was joined by Mr. Farmer and a few friends and immediate relatives, honoring Mrs. Ackerman, of San Francisco, who has been visiting at the country home of Mrs. Julius L. Meier. Mrs. Marcus Felschner was hostess at bridge on another day in compliment to Mrs. Ackerman, Mrs. S. Simon and the Misses Strauss, of New York.

Miss Elsie Oberdorfer will leave soon for Wellesley to take up her studies. She is an attractive girl and popular socially.

A lovely bride of Monday night was Miss Beatrice Lilly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lilly, whose marriage at the home of the bride's parents on Portland Heights. Rev. Joshua Stanfield officiated at the ceremony, which was attended by about 75 guests.

The bride wore ivory satin trimmed with pearls and her veil was held in place by a bandeau of lilies of the valley. The bouquet was a shower of white roses. Miss Grace Lilly, maid of honor, wore pale green tulle over silk and carried pink sweet peas. Helen Binford, the dainty flower girl, wore white tulle and carried sweet peas in varying shades.

Merwin Rankin was best man. Miss Addie Bowie played the wedding march and Miss Florence Cleveland

TAKE HAIR OUT NOT OFF THE SKIN

Hair is bound to grow out coarser and stiffer when merely removed from the surface of the skin. The only commonsense way to remove hair is to attack the source, the hair root. The original sanitary liquid, operates on this principle. It alone contains certain ingredients which give it the power to rob hair of its vitality. It does this by absorbing the life force from the hair root.

DeMiracle works equally well for removing hair from face, neck, arms, under arms or limbs to prevent it from showing through stockings.

Insist on the genuine DeMiracle. It is the only depilatory that has a money-back guarantee in each package. For nearest dealer, write to DeMiracle Chemical Co., Dept. 64H, Park Ave. and 129th St., New York—Adv.

By following this suggestion any woman can, in the privacy of her own home, remove every trace of hair or fuzz from her face. With powdered de-lactone and water mix enough paste to cover the not wanted hairs; apply and in two or three minutes rub off; and wash the skin. This method is unfeeling, harmless and quick in results, but care should be employed to get the genuine de-lactone.—Adv.
