PARENTS OF PUPILS REGRETFULLY DEPART FROM THE BEACH

Many Visitors at Seaview to Continue Their Vacations Through This Month.

Jack C. Lyons, Son of Jas. A. Lyons, and Helen James Daughter of Edwin F. James, at Seaside.

EAVIEW, Wash, Sept. 1.—(Special.) Elizabeth Stewart for a number of her friends. The hostess is in her $7th groups that gather at traintime to year. speed the parting guests denotes the LONG BEACH AIDS SOLDIERS fact that soon all the Summer visitors will be "homeward bound." The trains dally take away many of the cottagers Many Entertainments Given for and their families, all of whom are obliged to return to be ready at the sound of the school gong Tuesday morning. All, however, are loath to return home, as the season, which has with his family at the Shelburne

Karl and Allen, are occupying the "Mooring" for a few weeks. Their son, Andrew, of the Medical Corps of Mrs. Garrett Versteeg is occupying her cottage, "Seldom Inn," which does not carry out its title, as the hostess has had a houseful of merry young folk for several days. Her guests were Helen Salisbury, Lucille Curtley, Bud from Garibaldi, Emery and Richard Ransom. Mr. and Mrs.

"Crow's Nest" Miss Van Dycke and Mrs. H. Curtis are spending a week at Ocean View The Johnstone cottage houses Dr. and Dewart and family are estab-

F. Ball and children. Martin Schact spent the week-end with his family at the Shelburne Hotel.

tablished in the Nook.

Mrs. I. Townsend is visiting her daughters, Mrs. Wells and Mrs. Ball.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Runyan are domiciled in the Schwartz cottage.

Mrs. F. L. Burke and nieces are late Far Lillian and Haldance Harned are pass-Lillian and Haldance Harned are pass-Long Beach.

a guest of the Harned family at "The ing the Summer in their cottage, "The tending Oregon Normal School at Mon-

Cleo C. Herron, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mc-Kean, of Walla Walla; Mrs. C. C. Stout, Mrs. W. C. Wilkes, George Loewenson, George H. Rogers, Margaret Bucerman,

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Kimball and chil-Dr. Fitzpatrick and Dr. Hurd, of the North Pacific Dental College, passed a few days in Seaview early in the week.

Mrs. H. Abt, of Boise, is visiting Mrs. Owing to the lack of help for the cranberry crop, which soon will be ripe for picking, the schools on the Peninsula will not open until late in Octo-

C. Rawson, Paul D. Whetzel, Fred A. Allehoff, Louise Allehoff, Leslie Cornwall, C. B. Whetzell, Mr. and Mrs. T. L.

Patrons of Hackney Cottage during during the past two months, now are the week were: Dr. Susie V. Standard, preparing for a whole month of unin-Huntington; Mary Louise Warner, Kanterupted rest and pleasure at the coast, Huntington; Mary Louise Warner, Kanterrupted rest and pleasure at the coast, cottages are being re-rented for the
carly Fall months, and numerous house
parties are being planned.

The control of the coast,
cottages are being re-rented for the
carly Fall months, and numerous house
parties are being planned.

The coast,
cottages are being re-rented for the
carly Fall months, and numerous house
parties are being planned.

The coast,
cottages are being re-rented for the
carly Fall months, and numerous house
parties are being planned.

The coast,
cottages are being re-rented for the
carly Fall months, and numerous house
parties are being planned.

The coast,
cottages are being re-rented for the
carly Fall months, and numerous house
parties are being planned.

The coast,
cottages are being planned.

The coast are being planned. cisco: Mrs. John Van Zante, J. Citzgeraid, Mr. and Mrs. Levinson, pr. and Mrs. H. R. Biersdorff, Phil Easterday, Dr. and Mrs. A. Hart, Elmwood, Ill., and Mrs. C. E. Griffiths and Frank McClure.
A unique and charming affair was the "Toozie" (Scotch term for an afterneon tea at which meat is served).
The affair was given last week by Mrs.

Benefit of Mess Fund.

LONG BEACH, Wash., Sept. 1 .- (Spebeen unusually late this year at North Beach, is just now at its height. Many are planning to spend the month of September here—at least that portion of city residents who have the conof city residents who have no school cert Sunday, the Fort Stevens band of children to make demands on their 35 pieces playing on the boardwalk durtime.

The Ladd cottage has been rented by Pierre du Flon and his niece, Miss Olga von Destinon, of Portland. They will be joined by Mr. du Flon's other niece, Mrs. Robert S. Howard, Jr., and son, Mr. Howard has been spending a week with his family at the Shelburne Hotel. Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Alvord arrived Saturday morning and remained until Monday night.

One of the learning and remained the control of the Ambulance Corps' messfund. The entire proceeds were clear, as the hall and music were donated. Another delightful tribute paid to the hors in the Ambulance.

Milton York's cottage. son, Andrew, of the Medical Corps of A trio of energetic girls, the Misses the Third Oregon, spent the week-end Catherine Bean, Zella and Vera Taylor, are enjoying a novel trip through the beach resorts. They are attired in hiking garb, carrying light rolls with their clothing and a daily luncheon, arranging each night to reach a hotel for dinner and sleep. They started

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Tenney and fam-ily arrived this week to pass a few weeks here.

The Misses Ward arrived Sunday from Portland to spend a fortnight in the Clover cottage. Mrs. H. Brazer and son are also new-comers to the beach.

Mrs. William Gilhausen and son and th his family at the Shelburne Hotel. Miss Olga Pennington, of The Dalles, Mrs. I. Wells and daughter are es- will spend September in the Swetland cottage.

A group of relatives who are spend-ing a few weeks here in an attractive cottage includes Dr. R. L. Parrish, of Portland: Mrs. Grace Parrish, Kelso, Fred Mohler arrived Sunday and was and Mrs. J. G. Parrish, of St. Louis, guest of the Harned family at "The Mrs. Lambert Dunbar and daughter,

Elizabeth Dunbar, are visitors from the Far East, coming from Hongkong, China. They are visiting relatives at Mrs. Robert Young and her daughter are enjoying a brief visit in Long Beach.

Oregon Normal School at Mon-is visiting her aunt, Mrs. beach who registered at the Restroom are: Mrs. W. H. Duncomb and son, Mrs. Violet Danziger, a clever little dancer, also is a guest at the Harned cottage.

Anita Close, of Kalama, is visiting and Edna Babcock, Mrs. W. L. Denson, Mr. and Mrs. William Reidt, Jr. (Viola Mrs. Iver Eide, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chorsen), and the senior Mr. Reidt ar-Mrs. Leonard Mansur, of Knappton; rived Saturday for a week-end visit with the M. G. Thorsen family.

Registered at the Shelburne Hotel during the week were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Fornd, Mrs. William Matthiesen, Mrs.

Nettle V. Drew, Olive H. Zimmerman, of Fairview; Adeline Bowie, Mrs. Ed-ward Lyons, Ruth Bochi, Millie Barnes, Hazel McMillen, Edna M. Marjorie Flegel, Mr. and Mrs. H. L.

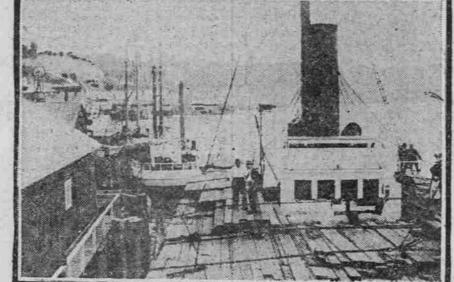

GOODBYES SAID WITH REGRET

Opening of School Causes Many to Leave Seaside.

SEASIDE, Or., Sept. 1 .- (Special.)-Because of the early opening of school and because many small feet must be reshod for the Fall term and clothes Additional patrons of the week at the put in order, many reluctant goodbyes unset Hotel include: Louise Gilbert, were said in the past three days. The Additional patrons of the week at the Sunset Hotel include: Louise Gilbert, Bessie and Rita Snook, Mrs. C. S. Card weather never was more alluring. and son, Harry, of White Salmon; Ruth galeties never more abundant, all of which make it difficult to answer the off, Louise Allehoff, Leslie Corn-C. B. Whetzell, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. are going on with renewed vigor, as and daughter, Dorothy, and picnics form a large part of the daily Miss Iva Hughes.

E. L. Hamblett and son, Edwin, arrived Saturday, to be the guests of Mr. arrivals aike. Many who were unable to obtain reservations in the hotels at their cottage.

Newport Water Front, From Steamer Bandon, in

Miss Ruth Heller, of San Francisco, is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Heller Ehrman in the Fleischner cottage. Dr. and Mrs. Charles J. Schnabel and their daughter, Katharine, passed the week in the C. E. Smith cottage.

Mrs. Fleshman arrived early in the shortly. week to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Guy R. Porter, and they were joined over the weekend by Miss Margaret Forter and her house guest, Miss Margaret Randall, of Minneapolis, and Miss Isabella Clark Miss Dorothy Stine and Miss Janet Peters were week-end visitors in Sea-side with friends.

Mrs. H. A. Hazeltine and daughter, Frances, passed a few days in Seaside, returning Tuesday to town. They have been summering in their cottage at Ocean Park, Wash, arriving Saturday the vegetable gardens have proved a children, who have been domiciled in blessing and a big financial aid to the the Mayo cottage for the Summer owners. They have materially reduced months, returned yesterday to their the high cost of living, and at the same time supplied the tables of the residents fortunate enough to be on the list of constances with delicious fresh Summer months.

their house guests, Frank Brisley and Miss Mary Darracott, the latter two spending the week-end with the Winds. He is a most earnest worker for his church and has built up a large of the week-end with the Winds are the worker for his church and has built up a large of the work of t spending the week-end with the Windspending the Raffety cottage for the Summer.

The and Mrs. C. H. Raffety came down

The spending the week-end with the Windspending the Raffety cottage for the Summer.

The and Mrs. C. H. Raffety came down

The spending the week-end with the Windspending the week-end with the week-end with the Windspending the week-end with the Windspending the week-end with the Wind of whom spend many hours conversing > an informal dinner party Monday night in the Hotel Moore, covers being arranged for six. Mrs. Charles W. Jones was hostess home in town this week.

Sunning on the Beach et Rockaway.

rsing Mrs. Dorothy Cloud and daughter His Daisy, Miss Olivia Miller, H. B. Beckett, of whom spend many hours conversing in French with the clergyman. His command of languages makes him a valuable asset to the Army. There will be several affairs given in honor of Pere Langlard before he leaves for Portland, among which will be a conformal banquet, to be arranged languages M. Cornwall, Gladys Bolton, Ida cert and banquet, to be arranged shortly.

Mrs. Dan J. Moore entertained with and Mrs. I. D. Bodine, Mrs. B. Weaver, and Mrs. I. D. Bodine, Mrs. E. Weaver, Mrs. James Curran, E. James Curran, Mrs. James Curran, E. W. Dingman, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Magison, Arnold E. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Stettler, Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Clark, H. L. Keats, A. Budwill, R. H. Craddock, Miss Vivian V. Mikle, N. B. for a charming dinner party Sunday Clark, H. L. Keats, A. Budwill, R. H. evening, honoring Colonel and Mrs. Craddock, Miss Vivian V. Mikle, N. B. David M. Dunne, who left for their Gregg, Sedonia Shaw, Clara Buchegger, ome in town this week.

Mrs. Jones, of Louisville, Ky., who

H. Rasch, E. J. Wendling, Joseph Fox,

Julius Low, who passed a fortnight lately has come to Portland to make her home, is one of the most popular by poung matrons that has summered in Seaside. Her cottage has been the Mark Woodruff, Gertrude Churchman, seph Harker Smiths for a week. Mr.

coean Park, Wash, arriving Saturday in Seaside. Her cottage has been the Mark Woodruff, Gertrude Churchman, Sand Mrs. H. M. Deelser, Mark H. M. Seaside. Her cottage has been the Mark Woodruff, Gertrude Churchman, Sand Mrs. H. H. Holman, Minerva lancher, who has been visiting the formal assemblages and she has frequently entertained with teas, luncheons and dinner parties, as well as Dunne and children also will arrive family, Woodburn: L. J. Anderson, Spetoday to remain in the Dunne cottage kane; Mr. and Mrs. F. von Eschen, for a few weeks. Dunne and children also will arrive today to remain in the Dunne cottage for a few weeks.

Judge Bennett, of The Dalles, is so-journing here for a few weeks with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grady, who have been in charge of the evening dances at the Moore grill, left Monday town will alway and the will study for who will alway the control of the evening dances at the Moore grill, left Monday town will alway the control of the evening dances at the Moore grill, left Monday town will be alled to the evening dances at the Moore grill, left Monday town will be alled to the evening dances at the Moore grill, left Monday town will be alled to the evening dances at the Moore grill, left Monday town will be alled to the evening dances at the Moore grill, left Monday town will be alled to the season of the evening dances at the Moore do to the evening dances at the Moore do to the evening dances at the Moore do to the evening dances at the Moore for a few weeks with his family will be alled to the date of the evening dances at the Moore do to Seaside and passed a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Silverfield were guests at the Moore for a few days the latter part of last week.

Hawthorne Dent, formerly of Portland, now of Seattle, spent the week end in Seaside may free for the week end in Seaside week end in Seaside were the motored for the week end in Seaside week end in Seaside week were: Mr. and Mrs. R. A. B. Comba and Mrs. A. B. C. Cape. Seattle, spent the week end in Seaside week end in Seaside week end in Seaside and passed a few days the latter part of last week.

Hawthorne Dent, formerly of Portland, now of Seattle, spent the week end in Seaside week end will s and Robert Dundas; Edward Nuderman, of Spokane; Mrs. L. Buck and son, Mrs. Harry Peterson and son, Mrs.

George Plenketh, Mrs. A. Erickson, O.
N. Erickson, of Butte; F. C. Moses, of Scattle; Mrs. L. F. Wooster, Corvallis;
C. G. Hayden are among the recent Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Magers, Mrs. George Roth, Mr. and Mrs. D. Buck and daughof Tacoma.

Miss Vera O'Brien arrived Monday night to visit for a few days with the Misses Dunne. She has been visiting Seaview over the week-end with season. friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund Sichel passed several days over the week-end as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Louisson.

Miss Margaret Soehl, of La Center, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Louisson. Mrs. K. McGuffey, of Portland, passed a fortnight in the Hotel Moore, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dan J.

Nellis Hamlin, a University of Oregon months on Sand Island with a group of tures many visitors to this picturesque locality. Cannon Beach has enjoyed alnost incessant sunshine. Every day at low tide scores of vacationists motor or hike down the nine miles of clean. hard sand, passing Haystack Rock, the huge coast sentinel towering 190 feet above the water, the wonderfully at-tractive home of ex-Governor West, Silver and Humbug Points, Jockey Cap and Hug Point, the waterfall and caves, on down to the cape, just north of which starts the trail to Neah-kah-

Mrs. H. L. Lee and daughters. Misses they are the most important and fur-violet and Charlotte, of Portland, are spending a short time in Elk Creek Of course, the sweaters, the word sug-

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Prael have re-turned to Portland after a pleasant greatest number of garments for the outing here. ren Hotel.

mer home and have as their guest Miss Helen Muicahy, of Spokane.

Miss Mary Pauline Lee is a recent arrival in Elk Creek Park.

Miss Mary Alice Holman, supervisor of music at McMinnville, is in Elk Creek Park with her sister, Mrs. H. B.
Cornell, of Boise, Idaho.
The Boy Scouts, of Astoria, are late arrivals in Tolovana Park.
Mr. and Mrs. William McDonald and family of two children, of Miles City, Mont. are spending two wacks north of String of 61 Tom Cod and Perch Caught at Newport by Mrs. F.H. Case of Corvallis.

Mont., are spending two weeks north of Elk Creek.

Mrs. R. L. Schultz is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Bail, at Ocean View Point on Seal Rock Beach.

visitors here. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Plympton and ter, Mrs. J. K. Weinstein and family, daughter Hazel, are in their cottage, 'Idle Nook.'

Dr. and Mrs. King and family, of Pendleton, are comfortably housed in the T. O. Bird neighborhood for the Aline M. Tenneson, of North Yakima, and Miss Florence Tenneson, of Port-

Wash., is a late arrival in Elk Creek Park. Susan E. Challis, of Mountain Home, Idaho, is one of the recent visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. J. Burton, of Salt Lake City, are sojourning here for a short time. Mrs. C. L. Hogue and Miss Dorothy Hogue are recent arrivals here.

Among the Pendleton persons here are C. S. Wheeler and family, Dr. W. D. McNary, Mrs. J. H. D. Gray and H. and G. A. Hartman.

The Warren Hotel register includes: From Portland, Mrs. W. S. Bridges, Beulah Bridges, Anne Bitzer, Margaret Barbare, J. M. Healey, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Barker and children, Mrs. Jacobson, Mr. and Mrs. James Curran, Mrs. F. B. Kendall, Miss F. O. Kendall, Kendall Cobb, Gertrude Churchman, E. B. Mc-Naughten, I. B. Rhodes, C. H. Beebe, Miss Suzanne Applegate, Miss Emma Applegate, Mrs. A. M. Rossman, Floy A Rossman and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Don-nell; Vincent Circle, Astoria; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Nunn, Salem, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ulico, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kiff and daughter, Spokane; Mrs. Mannington and Miss Mannington, Wauna; W. R. Turner, Adair, Ia.; Sadle E. Blair, Seattle; Mrs. P. J. Vial, Miss Ciarice Vial, Miss Leonie Vial and Herbert Vial, Prindle, Wash.; Elizabeth S. Hamman and Mabel Hamman, Echo, Or.; Vinetta E. Tribolet, Baker, Mr. and Visitors Are Still Lured to Cannon

Mrs. Harrison and son, Baker; Mrs. W.
B. Fortune, Chicago; W. B. Fortune,
Fort Stevens; L. C. Arnold, Spokane; C. CANNON BEACH, Or., Sept. 1.—(Special.)—The ideal beach weather still lurs many vicitors to the Mrs. L. VanDusen, Astoria

GAIETIES RULE AT GEARHART

GEARHART, Or., Sept. 1 .- (Special.) -"Bables, golf and visitors," three perfectly charming reasons, make Gearnie Mountain, the climb to the summit of which is the Mecca of hundreds of parties.

hartt as alluring and attractive as it is. The diversions are not limited, however, to the trio mentioned, but R. Cook and wife are at the War-Hotel.

gesting a vast and apparently endless amount of work, come in for a thorough discourse and competition as Misses Ethel and Jean McKercher, of Portland, are at the Warren Hotel.

Mrs. Ida A. Kidder, of Corvallis, was the dinner guest of Miss Blanch Clausmeler and Miss Rae Atherton in Elk Creek Park.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McWaters and son Walter are late arrivals at Sunset Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fox and daughter. Miss Hilms, are occupying their Sum-

