

SEPT. BEACH FINDS CROWDS REMAINING AT SEA SHORES

Portland with his string of ponies, as well as the mounts of the cottagers. Long walks daily, for the purpose of reducing, also are included in the programme, and many avert figures are showing the results of much determination and strength of character. An attractive young matron remarked recently: "It's maddening to start out for a brisk walk, and to find that everyone you know is by in motor cars and insist upon picking you up."

A number of Gearhart folk are already in their homes, preparing for school days, as a number of the girls and boys are to go afar for their education.

The Y. W. C. A. camp has proved a delightful, restful abode this year to hundreds of tired girls, some of whom for the first time in their lives glimpsed the Pacific Ocean and tasted the joys of many of the beach gables. The camp, under the direction of Miss Wheelon for the first half of the season and Miss Condit for the latter half, has been most successful and delightful. They have been brimful all season and are refreshed for their winter's duties, were loath to return to their homes. The camp will close within a few days.

Miss Nadine Johnson, who is going East to a finishing school soon, returned to her home Sunday night in company with her grandfather, John Klemm, who was accompanied by the R. B. Caswell cottage. Mr. Caswell also spent the week-end and several days of this week with his family, assisting in the running of the cottage. They returned Wednesday to Portland.

Mrs. James A. Dougherty returned to her father's home at Yellowstone Park with her sister, Mrs. Charles Whitely, of Salt Lake City.

Miss Irene spent the week-end as the guest of Mrs. Joseph E. Wiley at the Graham Glass cottage, returning Tuesday to town. Captain George Mitchell Brazier, U. S. R., and the son of Lieutenant Graham Glass, U. S. R., for several days last week. They left Sunday night for Astoria and are now in Camp at American Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mackay were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Grell over the week-end. Mr. Mackay returned to town, after a delightful vacation of three weeks here in his cottage. Mrs. Zan and children left Wednesday for their home.

Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, her son, Sanford Hirsch, and daughter, Miss Clementine, left Wednesday for their home. Misses Ella and Mal Hirsch will return today to town.

Miss Jean Morrison is the guest of Misses Winnifred and Edith Huber and will return with the family next week.

August Berg also enjoys a brief visit from his business this week at the Huber cottage.

Miss Virginia Menefee arrived early this week to visit the Misses Huber for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Colt will return today to Portland, after a month spent in the Holt cottage on the ocean front. Their nephews, Charles and Katharine Colt, of Mount Vernon, N. Y., left Wednesday for Portland and will sail today for their home. They have been here for a fortnight and have been very popular among the younger set.

Mason Ehrhart, Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Hirsch over the week-end.

Mrs. M. Goodman and daughter, Miss T. Rose Goodman, returned Tuesday to town. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Sharp are now domiciled for a few weeks in the Fisher cottage, which is located on the shore above of Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. McCord and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nicolai and children are established for the month of September in the Letter cottage on Ocean avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cronan were guests for several days of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Cooke.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Belleu and family are late arrivals who plan to pass the month in a cottage here.

Mrs. D. W. L. MacGregor and little daughter, returned Tuesday morning to Portland. Little Anita suffered an injury to her foot, her horse stepping on it during a ride Sunday. They are again at their cottage for a few weeks more.

Dr. E. J. Labbe, who spent his vacation in the Blair cottage, returned to Portland Sunday.

Russell Hubbard was a week-end visitor in Gearhart with his family in the Caswell cottage.

C. H. Davis, Jr., joined his family over the week-end and participated in several games of golf during his sojourn.

Miss Charlotte Breyman, who spent a fortnight as the guest of Miss Nadine Caswell, returned last week to town.

Miss Catherine Overbeck is a guest of Miss Elisen Cooke for a few weeks. Miss Eleanor Beckwith entertained with a charming week-end dinner party previous to going back to Portland. Her little guests were: Eleanor Dittenhoefer, of St. Paul, Minn.; Margaret, Suzanne Caswell, Jane Talbot, Margaret Cook and Joan Channing.

Miss Suzanne Caswell entertained recently with two delightful parties, one a hayride at low tide on the beach, the party driving for miles along the hard sands and ending in a hot air supper. Later the children danced in the Caswell cottage on Ocean avenue.

Another affair, with Suzanne Caswell as hostess, was given over to which she presided last week. Her guests were: Ambrose Cronin, Jr.; Jack Dougherty; Ronald Honeyman; Ben Lombard; John Channing; James Van Schuyler; James Farrell; Dorothy and Lillian Mitchell; Margaret Cook; Bertha Goodman; Mary Ann Channing; and H. E. Belleu entertained a number of friends with a motor trip and picnic to Cannon Beach. Mr. Belleu's guests were H. R. Hollingsworth, Leonard Keller, Fred Dresser, M. McCauley, J. M. Waller, C. C. Brennan.

Master James Schuyver is now in California, where he will re-enter the military school which he attended last year.

Mrs. Edward Felling will return in a few days to Portland. She has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Latta, for several weeks.

Mrs. Ralph Hoyt and daughter, Louise, are house guests of the former's sister-in-law, Mrs. Walter M. Cook.

fish, which in their pursuit of the little fish have ventured too close to shore and been washed up by the breakers.

Yaquina Bay, off the town of Newport, is dotted with small boats every day during the season. One of the largest schools of tomcod in the memory of the oldest fisherman here now is running. Catches of 100 to 150 or even 200 tomcod on one rising tide are not uncommon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Ferris, of Portland, are listed among the week's arrivals at Nye Beach.

Miss Anne Dawson, of Albany, who has been passing the Summer at Newport, left for her home the middle of this week.

Miss Kathleen Stuart, of Cohurg, arrived Monday for a few days' visit at this point.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Johnson and son, Eugene, arrived at the Abbey last week-end for a few days' sojourn.

Miss Myrtle Johnson, of Portland, arrived at the Damon, Monday, for a few days' vacation.

Miss Mabel Robertson, of Salem, who has been the guest of the Edith Lord, at Seal Rocks, for two weeks, returned home Tuesday.

Professor and Mrs. Herbert Crombley and family, of Eugene, who have been passing the Summer at their ranch at Seal Rocks, will return home early in September. Professor Howe is head of the department of English literature at the University of Oregon.

Miss Ethel Toole, who has been assisting in the running of the cottage, will leave the beach for Portland early this week.

Mrs. A. V. Thompson and little daughter, Avabelle, of Cottage City, are occupying a Sea Crest cottage for a week.

Mrs. E. Rudling and daughter, Alice, of Salem, who have been at Ten City for a week, left Nye Beach for their home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bennett, of Kerry, were guests at the Abbey the first of the week.

Mrs. Paul Cooper, of North Yakima, Wash., has been visiting in Newport this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jevons, of Wakefield, Kan., are among the week's arrivals at the Copeland.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Horner, of Salem, are enjoying a short vacation at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Vanduzen, of Portland, are in Newport for a brief outing.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Gilbert, of Salem, are enjoying a week's stay at Agate Beach Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Baker, who have been at Seal Rocks for the Summer, who have been summering at their home in Salem Saturday.

Miss Anna Larcen, of Portland, is enjoying a fortnight's vacation at this cottage.

Mrs. Edith Plank and daughter, and Mrs. Finley Whitney, of Dallas, are occupying the Beals cottage for a week's stay.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Plintzer, of Portland, are passing a week at the new Cliff Hotel days.

Clyde McMillan and Melvin L. Ray, of Independence, are passing their vacation at Nye Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McPherson and family, of Portland, are numbered among the guests of the week at the Abbey.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Woodcock, of Corvallis, arrived in Newport last Saturday for a few days' vacation at this resort.

Miss Althea Thompson, society editor of the Salem Capital Journal, is the house guest of Mrs. Asabel Bush at her charming Agate Beach home, Little Blue.

Frank Nichols, of Portland, is enjoying his vacation at Newport at the Copeland.

Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Staats, of Dallas, motored to Newport the first of the week and are encamped at Nye Beach for a week's sojourn.

Mrs. Lee Martin, of Portland, is passing a two weeks' vacation at this beach.

Ausby K. Bishop, of Portland, arrived recently and is staying at the new Cliff House for a few days.

Beautiful Cottage of Asabel Bush, of Salem, At Agate Beach, Newport

Living Room of Asabel Bush Cottage

ton Hollister, of Portland, are numbered among the week's arrivals at this resort.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Keltz, of McCoy, are recent arrivals.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart, of Eugene, came in Tuesday and are guests of the Abbey.

Professor and Mrs. J. B. Horner and daughters, Pearl and Vera, of Corvallis, arrived in Newport last Saturday, and are summering at Unpqua lodge, left for their home.

The Misses Myrtle Bates and Clara Miller, of Portland, are guests of the Copeland.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Avery, of Corvallis, are enjoying a visit in Newport, and are encamped at Nye Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Robertson, and son, of London, are passing a few days at the Abbey.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Parker, of Portland, arrived during the week for a brief outing at this resort.

Mrs. W. R. Hinshaw, Velma Goodspeed and Claude Graham, of Falls River, motored to Newport last Saturday, and were guests of the Abbey while here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Wilen, of Albany, are among the week's arrivals.

J. H. Middleton, of Portland, recently passed a few days in Newport at the Abbey.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Hoyal, of Mill City, are enjoying their vacation at the Copeland in Newport.

Mrs. J. R. O'Connell, of Dallas, arrived during the week for a week's visit at Nye Beach.

John Thorne, a prominent Roseburg banker, arrived last week-end at Nye Beach for a week's visit with his family, who are encamped at Nye Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ferris, of Portland, arrived recently and are domiciled at Nye Beach for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Bush, of Portland, are enjoying their vacation at the Damon, Monday, for a few days' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sperle, of Portland, are listed among the week's registrations at the Abbey.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Brown and daughter, Georgia, of Corvallis, motored to Newport last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hanna, of McMinnville, arrived in Newport recently and are guests of the Abbey.

Mrs. P. B. Dorias and daughter, Lillian, of Portland, are occupying a cottage at Ten City for the balance of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Van Kirk, of Portland, who have been occupying the Casa Bonita cottage for a month, departed Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Worden, of Portland, are enjoying a brief stay at the McAllister cottage at Nye Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Thomas and Mrs. Tracy Newby, of Astoria, are at a cottage at Sunset for the remainder of the season.

Mrs. C. L. Hamilton and daughter, Frances, who have been at the Rose City Lodge for several weeks, departed for their home Thursday.

Dr. and Mrs. C. U. Spider, of Portland, arrived the first of the week for three weeks, departed Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bishop and son, Bobby, the Misses Dorothy Ray and Lillian Hull, of Portland, have opened a Sea Crest cottage for a week's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Morris, of Turner, and Mrs. E. A. Washburne, of the McDonald cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Beers, of Salem, arrived at Red Fern Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Washburne, of Springfield, motored to Newport last week and are encamped at Sea Crest for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Campbell, Miss E. G. Campbell and Miss E. L. Campbell, of Portland, are among the arrivals at Camp Echo, where they are staying, last Sunday night.

Mrs. Straub was the recipient of numerous remembrances and best wishes for the future. Those attending were Professor and Mrs. Straub, Miss Virginia Wechter and Martha Greecroft, of Salem; Miss Maude Hargreaves, of Astoria; Miss Comings, of Eugene; Miss Katherine Jahn, of Salem; Miss Ethel Toole, of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Thorne, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Holman, of Oregon City, is a guest of the Damon this week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Sanders, of Albany, arrived in Newport Wednesday for a brief visit.

Professor and Mrs. O. F. Stafford and family, of Eugene, arrived Monday night at Nye Beach, after motoring from the valley. Professor Stafford is the head of the chemistry department of the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Linebough, of Portland, arrived Monday for a visit in Newport at the Abbey.

Mrs. S. F. Kinney and nephew, Houston

Hollister, and Miss Josephine Bros, of Salem, at the Sunnyside cottage, of Ger-vale, are occupying Dad's Cabin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Miller and two sons, of Portland, who have been at the Casteel cottage for six weeks, left Newport for their home Thursday.

State Senator and Mrs. C. L. Hawley and three children, Francell, Clarence and Beatrice, of McCoy, motored to Newport the first of the week and are encamped at Nye Beach.

Mrs. Hans Nicklas, of Portland, who has been at Red Fern for a month, departed Monday for her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Bishop and two sons, Charles Kay and Robert, have joined the Cherry City contingent at Agate Beach this week and are guests at the Inn there.

Mrs. Jack Skillern and family, of Boise, who have been summering at Agate Beach, departed for their home Friday.

Dr. C. F. Cropp, of Independence, arrived week-end and stayed at the Abbey for the week's arrivals.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Lively, of Salem, who are summering at Agate Beach, recently had a few days' friends at a shellfish supper and dance last Saturday night. Those enjoying Mr. and Mrs. Lively's hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Asabel Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Thielson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter McDougall, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sargent, all of Salem; Mrs. Gertrude Cameron, of Boston, Mass.; Miss Catherine Slade, of Silverton; Melvin Plimpton and Miss Althea Thompson, of Salem.

Miss Esther Worden, of Portland, arrived during the week and is passing a few days at Nye Beach.

Miss Bertha Comings, of Eugene, was hostess at a 500 party at the Damon Tuesday night. Prizes were won by Mrs. Lair Gregory and Miss Ethel Toole.

Mrs. L. Collins, of Portland, is enjoying a week-end at the Copeland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McPherson, of Portland, are enjoying the sea breezes at the Copeland.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Jones, of Portland, are here for two weeks at the Copeland.

Mrs. Bessie Lantz, of Tillamook, who has been here for the past month with her sister, Mrs. Hal E. Hoss, at the Club Inn, has returned to her home.

Walter E. Swartout, of Portland, is here for the rest of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Dickson, of Astoria, are at the Hazelwood cottage, where they are passing a week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harlow and daughter, Jane, of Portland, are guests of relatives at the Troy cottage for the rest of the season.

Ruth and Helen Moore, of Salem, are quartered at the Cherry City camp. Other Capital City folks to visit here this week were Mr. and Mrs. O. Chapel, who motored down for a few days.

for a week are Mrs. A. J. Ersted, of Portland, and her mother, Mrs. C. F. Millington, of Girard Kan. There for the last week-end were Mr. Ersted, Mr. and Mrs. Ferry Smith and Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Pendell, of Portland. Mr. Ersted will be in again before the departure for a brief visit.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Neth, with their daughter, Frances, are here from Portland as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Young at Brierly Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hill, of Portland, who has been summering at the Hazelwood cottage in Rockaway, are now quartered at Saltair for the balance of the season.

In a party of school teachers' teaching here before their Fall duties commence are Miss Nell Law and Miss Helen Rhodes, of Portland, and Miss Penelope Gowd, of Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Mettloff, of Portland, are at the Saltair for a two weeks' vacation.

H. M. Doud, of Aurora, was a visitor to Ocean Point during the week.

Eather R. Smith and Chester Smith, of Portland, were among the week's arrivals for brief vacations here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Reynolds, who registered from Chattanooga, Tenn., is here for a few days.

Lieutenant Leslie Ross, of Portland, was here for the last week with his parents at the Ross cottage. Miss Gene Black was also in for the week there. Lieutenant Ross is now in San Francisco.

T. J. Stark, of St. Johns, N. B., was a visitor here for a few days.

Miss Reynolds, of Tillamook, was a visitor here by auto.

Among the recent visitors were Edward Munson and his father, who motored from Tillamook.

OCEAN LAKE, Or., Sept. 1.—(Special.)—Ocean Lake is still host to many vacationists, and it is expected that the coming weeks will see many more arrivals. Several motorists have arrived recently from everywhere and everywhere evidence. The bass fishing in Clear Lake and Spring Lake still is holding good, and many make the trip to the north trout streams. Huge bonfires at night on the beach mark the place for happy festivities and not a dull day is passing.

Miss Bessie Singleton, of Portland, is at Purdy-Arden for a two weeks' stay as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Purdy. The daughter, Miss Edna, has returned to her work at Albany about two weeks here.

Mrs. E. T. Marchetti, of Spokane, and Mrs. E. T. Marchetti, of Walla Walla, are at the Kressman cottage. They visit with their sister, Mrs. A. H. Halle, who is at the Leipsig cottage with her family for the season. Mr. Jackson and Mr. Halle will arrive about the middle of the month for the return home.

L. L. Comstock and Leland Ducl, of Portland, arrived at Ocean Lake Sunday and established Camp Bevo for a fortnight. The boys brought the early edition of the Oregonian and made many sales along the beaches into Rockaway. They left Portland at midnight Saturday and arrived at Rockaway at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, after stopping at Tillamook and the other beaches.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Sampson and Miss Leonora Sampson, of Portland, are at the Leipsig cottage here for their annual month's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dickson, of Portland, are here for a five days' visit with friends during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Casey, of Portland, are at the Perry cottage for a few weeks.

Mrs. A. Mier and son, of Portland, have taken one of the Hadley cottages and will remain for a fortnight's outing.

Mrs. N. Schollard and son, of Woodburn, Or., are at the Perry cottage for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William Butler, of Portland, are enjoying an outing here.

Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Casey and daughter, Miss Mary, of Portland, are here for four days at the Elliott cottage.

Mr. J. Bohna, of Portland, is here for the rest of the Summer season, with his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Elliott, at the Elliott cottage. Mr. Bohna is an ardent and violent horseman, and is easily the local champion. He is a member of a club in Portland for the furthering of the sport.

Misses Helen and Helen and children, Helen and Gail, of Portland, were here during the week for a brief visit with the Bradley family at the Fern. They were en route to Seaside by automobile.

Robert Gustafson, of Damascus, Or., was here for the last week-end for a visit with friends at the Elliott cottage. C. E. Bradley, of New York City, arrived during the week at the Fern cottage and will stay in his family cottage with him on his return next week. His father, F. S. Bradley, and wife, of Banks, are here for a week's visit with the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bradley and children, Earl, Wilbur, Florence and Elina, of Portland, also are there for a week. Other house guests with the family are: Mrs. H. W. Dickson, of Astoria, who is passing a week at the Hazelwood cottage, where they are passing a week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harlow and daughter, Jane, of Portland, are guests of relatives at the Troy cottage for the rest of the season.

Ruth and Helen Moore, of Salem, are quartered at the Cherry City camp. Other Capital City folks to visit here this week were Mr. and Mrs. O. Chapel, who motored down for a few days.

SALT AIR CONTINUES TO DRAW Combination of Restful Recreation and Change of Scenery Helpful.

SALT AIR, Or., Sept. 1.—(Special.)—This delightful little resort still attracts to joyous crowds of vacationists. With the splendid beach and the convenience of nearby up-to-date stores, the Salt Air visitor finds a combination of restful recreation and change of scenery that works wonders with tired nerves. The splendid dancing pavilion here is drawing a large and increasing patronage along the beach. Here meet and commingle all the genial spirits from Bayview, Elmore, Rockaway and from as far as Tillamook City. Quartered in the delightful little Idel-esse cottage are Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Blanchard, the latter's mother, Mrs. T. Connell, and Master Thomas Blanchard, all of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Abendroth and Mrs. Alendroth Sr., returned this week to Portland after a delightful two weeks at the Connell cottage. J. A. Rimbach and family, of Portland, have taken the Jasmine cottage. G. B. Reed, of Salem, passed a few days along the Saltair shore. Arriving from Oregon City during the week for a brief sojourn here was Carol A. Ely, a prominent citizen of the falls city. Domiciled at the Frank Field cottage

Bradleys until the end of their stay are Miss Frances Akers and Miss Bessie Throppe, of Portland; Miss Nellie Lee, of Bellingham; and Mrs. W. R. Fletcher and children, Donald and Elizabeth, of Portland.

C. A. Swanson and wife, of Portland, are in one of the Sappinton tents on the ridge for a fortnight's stay.

E. T. Albert and wife and Virginia Albert, of Eugene, were at the Twin Rocks Hotel for four days' stay this week.

Lloyd Leslie and wife and Joseph Leslie, are Master Joseph Leslie, of Portland, are encamped in the Sampson cottage for a few weeks.

J. Paulson and wife, of Portland, are at the Twin Rocks Hotel for a few days.

In a merry party at the Forest Queen cottage are Lottie Splinks, Isabella Crawford, Mae Conant, Mrs. L. D. Crawford and Marion Crawford, of Manning, Or.; and Ida May Pace, Margaret McFarland, Alfred McFarland and Alvin Hanson, of Buxton, Or. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pease, of Buxton, were guests there for a few days during the week.

Paul Irvine and John Brown, of Salem, were visiting friends here during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Ruhndorf and daughter, Jessie May, of Portland, are here for a week at Rock View Villa, Twin Rocks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Lancofield and son, Robert, of Portland, are at Rock View Villa for a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Russell, who are at the Southern cottage, are here for an entertaining Mrs. C. H. Russell and Miss Norma Beck, of Portland.

BAYOCEAN SEASON SUCCESSFUL Popular Seaside Resort Justifies Confidence of Managers.

BAYOCEAN, Or., Sept. 1.—(Special.)—With a continuation of the ideal weather that has blessed Bayocean this season, the past week has seen many newcomers to the resort. The manifold attractions, that combine toward an interesting and restful vacation, have brought together the larger crowds for this season than ever before, and Bayocean, "the playground of the Northwest," has justified the manager's advertising and expense of bringing the same before the people. S. B. Vincent, manager of the resort, reports an excellent season and looks forward to an even increased patronage with the completion of the automobile road now under construction to this place.

The magnificent Natatorium here has drawn many this season, and all the hotels and cottages have been comfortably filled for the past month, and a half.

Here for a fortnight's stay at the Island Bungalow are Mr. and Mrs. McCook and Don Lois McCook, of Pendleton.

Quartered at the Petrel are Mrs. L. E. Cohn, of Pendleton, and Mrs. M. Basley, of Portland.

Mrs. M. McKelvey and children, of Portland, arrived during the week to occupy the cozy Hiawatha cottage for several days.

Mrs. Edward D. Williams, of Portland, and Mrs. A. Alkive, of Butte, are here at Fungulog City for a week's recreation.

Mrs. E. C. Blanchard and children are quartered at the Lupin for a week.

Mrs. A. M. Gorman and daughter, Miss Alice, of Portland, are here for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Turner and daughter, Miss Joy Turner, of Salem, are at their attractive cottage, Overlook, for the remainder of the season. Mrs. L. A. Thilson, also of the