SALT LAKE, Sept. 8 .- (Special.) Not content with beating the saints 15 to 2 the other day, the Beavers today made it a real good one by beating them 21 to 1.

Byron Houck wild-pitched himself out of a shutout in the ninth inning. At that if Fisher had been left behind the bat it is more than likely that he would have stopped the ball and given

Byron the shutout he richly deserved. The Beavers hammered Kirmeyer hard and often and took advantage of some very loose playing on the part of the locals. In the fifth the Beavers one-half games. Boston and now is leading the league by six and one-half games. Boston was unable to made five runs on five hits and in the sixth they made eight, four of them sixth they made eight, four of them due to Griggs' first home run. Griggs hit his homer with three on, Schinkle pitching. In the seventh Williams homed with one on and in the eighth with Bernhard pitching the Beavers collected six more and Griggs homed again with one on

Boss McCredle took a hand at batting but the best he could do was to hit a grounder. The series is now even again, with two games tomorrow to wind it up. The score:

Many Prominent Members of Athletic Club Now in United States Army.

PHYSICAL TRAINING COUNTS

Big Drive to Increase Membership to Be Made This Month-Advantages Offered by Institution Are Numerous.

Considering the number of members ost to the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club through the various branches of the service, the institution probably s hit harder than any one organization n Portland. Eddie Sammons, football and base-ball star, is a Captain at Fort Sill. Hal Rasch, former member of Okla. the basketball quintet, is another Multiomah man to be made a Captain. Martin Hawkins, former world's champion hurdler, is a Lieutenant, as is Elton Loucks. University of Oregon

Men Physically Fit. Name after name could be added to this list of officers and non-commissioned men in the service. The club has suffered, but it takes great pride in the fact that the Winged M men selected were all physically fit and able to hold up the standard of the club.

The Winged M club has been in existence 26 years and the one object always has been to develop and promote the physical and mental capacities of its members and others. Multnomah provides clean, healthy environment for the youths and the men. Liquor and gambling at all times have been strictly prohibited.

Entrance Fee Is Low Now. The Multnomah directors and offito increase the membership to the same plane it was before the war de pleted it.

The entrance will remain $5 until October 1, when it will be advanced to $25. To give the members the best that can be obtained for their money the club has obtained the services of Otto C. Mauthe as physical director and retained Jack Cody and Eddie O'Connell as instructors. Mauthe will have charge of all the gymnasium classes. Cody will take care of swimming and O'Connell boxing and wrestling.

Mauthe comes with an excellent reputation. He will be director of physical training department, which includes symmastics, calisthenics, aesthetic and folk dancing, and fencing. Professor Mauthe has had a wide experience in this kind of work, lasting over a period of 22 years. For the last three years he had charge of physical education in the University of California Summer school, which consists of nearly 6000 students. He had charge of the same kind of work at Stout Institute for ears, and prior to that was physical director of the Shrevesport, La., A. A. Club. His wide experience, together with his knowledge of recent methods, will enable him to offer an exceptionable course in physical train-
