WAR LIBRARY FUND GIVES HIGH PROMISE

Oregon Expected to Do More Than Its Share in Providing $1,000,000 Needed.

FIRST CONTRACTS ARE LET

Thirty-Two Central Buildings a Cantonments Ordered and 350,-000 Books Bought - State Organized for Campaign.

So immediate has been the response So immediate has been the response all over the country to the War Library fund to provide libraries in every camp and cantenment in this country and at the American base camps in France that contracts for the 32 central libraries have already been let. Every one of the contractors guarantees to begin work prior to October I, and as a matter of fact construction will actually he in progress the week beginning September 24, the actual week of the campaign.

September 24, the actual week of the campaign.

The 22 central libraries are being built at a cost of $320,000, which will be defrayed from the proceeds of the $1,000,000 fund. One of these libraries, costing $10,000, will be built at American Lake, while a branch library is to be maintained at Camp Withycombe, Organization has practically been completed in every city and town in the state, and without exception every town promises to increase the quotatown promises to increase the quota allotted to it by Governor Withy-combe's State War Library Council.

Four-Minute Men Enrolled.

A telegram was received yesterday by W. L. Brewster from Harold Braddock, National director of the war library campaign, stating that the National director of the four-minute men was instructing every four-minute man that for the next 10 days his talk should be along the lines of the War Library fund.

President Wilson is preparing a statement on "Why a War Library" and this statement will be released simultaneously all over the country. In Oregon even the smallest towns in the state have been heard from. Sublimity, with a population of 150, and Granite, with a population of less than 160, having completely organized and announced their intention per capits to do better than any other town in the state.

to Seliwood. Rusiness men's committees are arranging for a complete West Side business campaign.

Many Send Contributions Direct.

Numbers of persons all over the sate have decided not to await actual solicitation of funds, but have mailed checks to W. L. Brewster, state campaign director, at his hesdquarters in the File & Trust building.

And will so forward to every part of Oregon the early part of the week.

Bruce Dennis, director of work of the State Council of Defense, has issued a call to local chairmen of the various patriotic leagues located all over the state to lend their influence and waight to complaints organization everywhere.

Mrs. Charles H. Castner, president of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, who has been touring the state organizing women, will issue a statement calling on women all over the state to assist the war library work. In Washington, following a telegraphed request from Mrs. Josiah Evan Cowies, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, Helen Proctor Howard, chairman of the Washington State Federation of Women's Clubs, has issued an appeal to every clubwoman to give $1. Miss Proctor suggests that each club in Washington collect $1 for each of its members and remit the total to Judson T. Jennings, director for the state of Washington.

Oregon Expected to Rank High.

Oregon Expected to Rank High.

The first move in the National war library campaign was taken by Sccretary of War Baker, who appointed a National war library council. Governor Withycombe was appointed Oregon state chairman, and has appointed a conversative executive committee for representative executive committee for this state.

this state.
So certain is the committee of success that not only has it ordered the construction of the 22 cantonment libraries at a cost of $320,000, but it has ordered 350,000 books for those libraries, the cost being underwritten personally by members of the National

"If reports from all over Oregon are "If reports from all over Oregon are any criterion, this state will just about double its apportionment," said Director Brewster. "In fact, the National Council has announced all over the East that Oregon shows indications of being the banner state of the Union. We want to make good on this. These libraries will benefit our own boys so we can be perfectly selfish in contributing."

MRS. MARY J. DURRAH DEAD

Eden, Wash., Woman Was Born at Oakland, Or., in 1859.

GRAYS RIVER, Wash., Sept. 15.—
(Special.)—Mrs. Mary Jane Durrah, a pioneer citizen of Eden, Wash., died Saturday, September 1, and was buried the following Monday, services being held in the Eden schoolroom. Two children, Mrs. Hauel Ingalis and Elmer Durrah, of Edea; her aged mother, Mrs. Mary Adams, of Kelso; two brothers. Thomas M. Adams, of Calthlamet, former Sheriff of Wahkiakum County, and Walter Adams, of Kelso; a sister, Mrs. Alice Rulifson, of Carrols, Wash., survive.

Mrs. Durrah was born at Oakland, Or., December 1, 1859. She was mar-ried to Alex Durrah January 22, 1877. Mr. Durrah died in December, 1815.

Food Survey of Coos Under Way. MARSHFIELD, Or., Sept. 15.—(Special.)—County Agent Jay L Smith and Thomas B. James, or Marshfield, have undertaken the food survey of the county and are compiling records for the use of the National food controller. The committee was delayed some in the work through a lack or proper blanks, but this matter has been remedled and the work is going well. It is believed the records would show a much larger production on ranches and in gardens if there had been records kept in other years whereby to make a comparison.
