festivities. The Ralston residence was prettily decked with a profusion of garden flowers. A feature of the afternoon was the vocal selections by Miss Ruth St. Johns.

Mrs. H. M. Haller and Mrs. J. O. Ralston presided at the tea urns, and they were assisted in serving by the Misses Ruth Buckley, Helen Haller and Mabel O'Brien. Miss Ralston and Mrs. Sealy were classmates at Mount Vernon Seminary.

Mrs. Joel K. Hecht, of San Francisco, will arrive early in the week to be the house guest of Mrs. Samuel Lowengart and daughters.

Mrs. James A. Cranston has returned from a few weeks' visit in Gearhart at Mrs. Westcott's cottage. Her mother, Mrs. Davy, and sister, Miss Violet Davy, with the latter's two nephews, arrived last night from Vancouver, B. C. Mrs. Davy and grandsons have been making their home in British Columbia for many years, and will now take up their residence in this city. They will be domiciled at Johnson and Twenty-fourth streets.

Miss Ethel Malpas, who is going to the University of Washington this week, was the honoree for the charming informal tea given yesterday by Miss Evalina Magruder, Miss Dorothy Jones, of the Army post in Vancouver, and Miss Martha Hoyt presided at the tea table.

Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Metzger and the William Heller Ehrmans will return today from the Roundup at Pendleton.

Mrs. J. D. Farrell left last week with her daughter and son, Helen and James, for schools in the East. Miss Helen will enter Bryn Mawr and James will resume his studies at the Hill school in Pottstown.

Miss Jean Morrison will go to Princeton tomorrow for a brief visit with her sister, Mrs. Thomas Sharp.

Miss Barbara Bartlett has arrived in New York, where she has entered the Library School. Miss Bartlett took her examinations last Spring and passed with high honors. Miss Evangeline Breck, another Portland girl, has ac-

—And where is the woman who would not like to own one of these soft, clinging satin or serge dresses? We show them in both solid navy and in black. Each garment has its appropriate garniture, which gives the touch of individuality. The prices are no less attractive than the garments themselves—$22.50, $25, $27.50, $30, $35 and up to $50.

—Then these beautiful suits—suits of silvertone, of Oxford, of broadcloth, of gabardine—a wonderfully charming display at a most popular price range—$25, $30, $35, $40, $45, $50 and up.

—Coats, of course, in the heavier fabrics—velour, cut Bolivia, silvertone, broadcloth. Some are fur trimmed, some are plainly tailored. $27.50, $32.50, $35, $45, $50.

—Here are hand-made blouses oforgette and crepe de chine that are mightily tempting. Many are finely tucked or ornamented with wool embroidery or with beads. There are also blouses of silk to match the suit—many of them in striped or plaid taffeta. $5 to $50.

—The new things are coming in daily.

day night for New York City, where she will take part in war relief work. During the Summer Miss Eastham has devoted a great deal of time to active Red Cross work and recently completed a special course in actual nursing at one of the local hospitals. While in New York she will be the guest of Miss Lavergne Edmond, who visited in Portland last Summer. Miss Eastham will remain in New York indefinitely.

Mrs. Herbert Nichols and children left Friday for the East, to visit the former's sister in Northampton, Mass., for a few weeks.

Mrs. Henry W. Corbett and niece, Mrs. David Robertson and Miss Emma Sandford, who have been sojourning in the former's cottage at Seaview for the Summer months, plan to return the latter part of this week to town.

Relatives and business friends of Frank H. Ransom and Mrs. Isabelle Fuller Dabney received telegrams announcing their marriage in Pittsburgh on Monday. The ceremony was a simple one and was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Roberta I. Fuller. Mr. and Mrs. Ransom left for Atlanta City, where the former is a member of the National Chamber of Commerce convention, now taking place there.

Mr. Ransom is one of the most prominent business men of the city and also is a member of the leading social and civic organizations. For several years he has made his home at the Arlington Club. His mother and sister, Miss Mabel Ransom, also are residents of this city. He is treasurer and manager of the Eastern & Western Lumber Company and is identified with several other prominent lumber industries. Mr. Ransom was in the last Summer campaign and always has occupied a position of note in politics.

He left here several days ago to take his son, Richard, to school in Pittsburg, and joined his bride there, who has been visiting her mother for the Summer. The plans for the wedding were hurried, only relatives of the bride being in attendance.

Mrs. Ransom is a charming and attractive young woman and will undoubtedly be counted among the popular matrons of society upon the return of the couple. She has made her home in this city for the past few years and has a host of friends here. Mr. Ransom and his bride will stop off in the larger Eastern cities for a brief visit before returning to Portland.

Miss Doris Slocum, a popular member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority at University of Oregon, has left for Buhl, Idaho, to live. Miss Slocum was extensively entertained prior to her departure. She is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, and was vice-president of the sophomore class at the university.

Miss Slocum will make her home in Buhl in future, as her father, G. M. Slocum, is one of the owners and officers of the new Farmers' National Bank to be opened there October 1.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Burkhardt, who recently left Portland to make their home in Washington, D. C., are now domiciled in Cavanaugh Court, Seventeenth and Church streets Northwest, in the capital city. Mr. Burkhardt has established quite an enviable reputation for himself during his residence in this city in home portraits and photography, and he intends to carry on the same line of work in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Burkhardt were very popular and their departure is the source of deep regret to their friends here.

Mrs. Jack M. Dolph and her mother, Mrs. G. E. Ferringer, of Pendleton, left Sunday night for Washington, D. C., to join Mr. Dolph, who is stationed there in the quartermaster's department.

Carl Ferringer spent several days at the Benson Hotel last week and is planning to go to New York shortly.

visit in the East. They will pass a month in Chicago, Minneapolis and New York.

Dr. and Mrs. Gustav Baar (Vera Rosenblatt), who recently returned from their wedding trip, spent the week-end in Pendleton attending the Round-up. They have leased the Dukey residence, 1927 Westover road, for the Winter, and will be at home after October 1.

Henry Goode also left last week to join the aviation corps at San Diego.

Colonel and Mrs. David M. Dunne and daughter, Dorothy, who have been summering in the Dunne cottage at Seaside, will return to town today.

Miss Helen Dunne came up from Seaside Thursday.

Mrs. John Shull and daughter, Ruth, left Friday night for the East, and they will be domiciled at the Hotel Plaza, New York, for about six weeks.

Portland society once again is to revel in the exquisite chamber concerts. This season's trio concerts will be managed by Miss Laura Fox, and will be held at the Little Theater on October 13, 27 and November 15. Owing to the increase in patronage in the past seasons, the patronesses of the concerts found it necessary to secure larger quarters. The sponsors for this season will be the same prominent men and women who have acted in a similar capacity for the past six years.

Mrs. Ellsworth Vachon left Wednesday night for New York City, where she will join Miss Shirley Eastham. Mrs. Vachon plans to be away for several weeks, and it is possible she will visit in the East for the greater part of the Winter.

As a compliment to Mrs. Neagle Sealy (Marie Haller), Miss Hazel Ralston entertained with a delightful informal tea at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Ralston, Friday afternoon. About 24 close friends of the bride, who recently returned with her husband from a wedding trip, were asked to share in the

Why Look Wrinkled and Old?
To Renew Youthful Beauty
Try This French Recipe Tonight
BUTTERMILK AND CREAM

Many a wrinkled, hollow-shouldered, faded-looking woman who, after countless vain trials with soaps, creams and treatments, had given up all hope of ever regaining her youthful charm, has made herself beautiful with every sign of wrinkles and complexion blemishes gone by means of the following French beauty recipe. If you are not beautiful and youthful-looking, you owe it to yourself to make this test tonight. Look at your face in the mirror, under a bright light and see if you have crowfeet or pouches around the eyes, deep lines or furrows in the forehead or about the mouth, enlarged pores, blackheads, or a coarse, mottled complexion. Then wash your face with ordinary buttermilk and rub in a teaspoonful of a pure roseated cream, such as Creme Tokalon Roseated. In the morning wash the face with cold water and rub in more cream, after which use an adherent face powder, like Poudre Parisienne, which is prepared especially for shiny noses and bas complexion. Instantly you will note the improvement. Day by day watch how the skin becomes smoother, rough skin becomes now fresh, soft and beautiful, simply because you have helped it in the Right Way to act freely and renew its youthful activity. If you have bad wrinkles, get a box of Japanese Ice Pencils from your druggist and use them in this test ten minutes. The buttermilk and roseated cream and you can get quick action on the deepest wrinkles, no matter of how long standing. For giving an indescribably beautiful effect to the neck and arms, as well as suppressing almost immediately the appearance of all smaller wrinkles and marks of age, many women use a little Santozon.

NOTE—The above is one of a series of articles on beauty specially written by Mlle. Mareis, of Paris, who, after following this recipe, won two great international beauty prizes. She is so positive that it will banish every complexion blemish and enable any woman between thirty and sixty to quickly make herself look from five to fifteen years younger that she personally guarantees success in every case or will refund the amount paid for any products she recommends, provided you take your dealer's receipt at the time you make your purchase. Furthermore, she offers to forfeit $200.00 to any charitable institution if it can be shown that this method will not give most astonishing new beauty to wrinkled, careworn, aged-looking women in three days' time. Her American address is Simone Mareis, 29 West 23d Street, New York. Creme Tokalon Roseated and the other articles mentioned can be obtained at small cost from Meier & Frank, Owl Drug Co., Lipman, Wolfe & Co., or most any good druggist or department store.—Adv.
