SPANISH IS IN CURRICULUM

Superintendent and Directors Insist on Best Talent Available for Higher Educational Institutions of City.

A number of new high school teachers are making their bow to Portland this year, having been elected recently for the coming year by the School Board, upon recommendation of Superintendent Alderman. They come Hoard, upon recommendation of super-intendent Alderman. They come thoroughly equipped for their tasks here, and during the first few weeks of the school year they have already won a welcome in the hearts of their students and others familiar with their work.

It is a pre-requisite for appointment locally that they shall come well recommended and be entirely competent to teach the subjects in which they have attained proficiency. The School Board and Superintendent Alderman lean rather to the side of extra precaution in choosing new teachers. There must not be a doubt of their fitness for the positions they seek, and, when elected, it may be taken for granted they are entirely competent granted they are entirely competent

During recent years the study of Spanish has come to be regarded as an important branch of public education, because of the fact that the United States is extending its commerce more and more into the Spanish-speaking countries.

cases which was unloaded at the Southern Pacific Company's freight ware-house Friday and subsequently deliv-ered to 385 Davis street, from which point it mysteriously disappeared. Ward and Christopherson succeeded in tracing the other 17 cases to various downtown Japanese resorts, but they were successful only in recovering several sacks of the containers in which the liquor was shipped. All of the whisky included in the 51 cases was shiped as Japanese candy and was labeled as Traffic Believed Henvy.

From the large number of empty cans, identical with those containing liquor that have been selzed, that were yesterday recovered from the premises of Japanese, the officers are convinced that several hundred cases of liquor were shipped into Portland and distributed before the Sheriff's office received the information by which the successful raids Friday and yesterday successful raids Friday and yesterday were made possible.

No further arrests were made yesterday. The six Japanese arrested Friday with two or more cases of the whisky in their possession were yesterday released from jail on cash bail.

COUNCIL HEARS PROTEST Plan to Move Employment Bureau

Meets With Opposition.

Proprietors of private employment bureaus arose in arms yesterday over a proposal of City Commissioner Bige-low to move the Public Employment Bureau from its present place to a on Second street, in the center of THE TRAGEDY OF ISRAEL

A Nation Without a Country

BY DR. JAMES E. TALMAGE, the Council of the Twelve, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saluts, Salt Lake City, Utah.

We believe in the literal gathering f Israel, and in the restoration of the en Tribes, etc.—Articles of Faith, No.

of Israel, and in the restoration of the Ten Tribes, etc.—Articles of Faith, No. 10.

The gathering of Israel is contingent upon the fact of that people's dispersion. Consideration of the scattering is a necessary preliminary to a study of the reassembling of Israel's hosts.

God made covenant with Abraham that through him and his posterity should all nations of the earth be blessed. A rich fulfillment of the promise is found in the earthly birth of the Christ through the lineage of Abraham. Further and related fulfillment appears in the effect of the distribution of Israelites amongst other nations through enforced dispersion.

Abraham's descendants, through his son Isaac and grandson Jacob, have been distinctively known since Jacob's time as Israelites, or the Children of Israel. As the Old Textament avouches they grew to be a mighty nation, distinguished in certain respects from all other peoples. They were particularly characterized as "Jehovah worshipers," professing allegiance to the living God, whilst all the rest of the world was pagan and idolatrous. By their worldwide dispersion a knowledge of the true and Ilving God has been diffused. So long as the Israelites were true to the divine covenants mad; with Abraham, and reaffirmed severally with Isaac and Jacob, they prospered in material things as in spiritual power. So far as they became alienated through pagan practices and unrighteous affiliations, they suffered both individually and as a mation.

The Lord set before them the alter-through pagan practices and unrightcous affiliations, they suffered both individually and as a nation.

The Lord set before them the alternative of blessed perpetuity incident to their faithfulness, or disruption and subjugation to alien powers as the sure result of disobedience to Divine requirement. Both sacred and secular history make plain that israel chose the evil part, forfeiting the promised blessings, reaping the foretold curses.
At the death of Solomon the nation was divided. Approximately two of the twelve tribes became established as the Kingdom of Judah, and came in time to be currently known as Jews;
the rest of the tribes retained the tille Kingdom of Israel, though known also by the name of Ephraim. The division led eventually to the eclipse of both kingdoms as autonomous powers
among the known nations of the earth.

The Kingdom of Israel was subdued by the Assyrians about 721 B. C.; the people were carried into captivity, and later disappeared so completely from history as to be designated the Lost Tribes. These are the ten tribes whose restoration is predicted as an event of latter times. The Kingdom of Judah maintained a precarious and partial independence for a little more than a restoration is predicted as an event of latter times. The Kingdom of Judah maintained a precarious and partial independence for a little more than a century after the Assyrian captivity, and then fell a prey to the conquering hosts of Nebuchadnezzar. After 79 years of bondage, the period specified through prophecy by Jeremiah (xxv.:1, 12; xxix:10), a considerable number of the people were permitted to return to Judea, where they rebuilt the temple, and vainly strove to re-establish themselves on the scale of their vanished greatness. They were impoverished by the aggressions of Syria and Egypt, and eventually became tributary to Rome, in which condition of vassalage they existed at the time of Christ's earthly ministry amongst them.

From the numerous Biblical prophecies relating to Israel's dispersion, the following are cited as particularly lilustrative:

"And the Lord shall scatter you."

"And the Lord shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the Lord shall lead you" (Deut.

whither the Lord shall lead you" (Deut. ly:27).

"For the Lord shall smite Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water, and he shall root up Israel out of this good land, which he gave to their fathers, and shall scatter them beyond the river, because they have made their groves, provoking the Lord to anger" (I Kings xiv:15).

"And I will scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and will consume thy flithiness out of thee" (Ezek, xxii:15).

"For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sleve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth" (Amos ix:3).

"And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations; and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled" (Luke xxi:24).

And so, in progressive stages, the appearant peeple of God have been the private employment bureau field.

Frank Kiernan and representatives of the Hanley Employment Bureau protested to the Council against the change, claiming that it is unfair for the city to enter into direct competition in this way. The Council referred the question to Commissioner Bigelow for settlement.
