

M. A. MILLER GIVES ITEMS OF WAR TAX

Levy on Amusement Tickets Becomes Effective November 6, on Bonds Dec. 1.

ONLY LUXURIES ON LIST

In Some Cases Departure Is Taken From Old Methods of Stamping and Companies Must Make Sworn Reports Monthly.

In a statement concerning the new war taxes, which go into effect within the next few weeks, Milton A. Miller, collector of internal revenue, for Portland, makes clear the operation of the act and discusses its various provisions.

"While the tax to any one individual will be relatively small, at the same time it will mean many millions of dollars annually. A charge of 1 cent on each 10 cents or fraction thereof is to be made, the additional amount to be paid in every case by the person admitted. By this is meant that if your ticket costs you 10 cents the tax will be 1 cent; if it costs you 15 cents or 20 cents the tax will be 2 cents; 25 cents or 30 cents, the tax will be 3 cents, and so on up, according to the price of the admission ticket, which means that the man who takes a ticket for 50 cents to the theater and pays $10 for two box seats will pay 10 cents to the Government for every dollar's worth of enjoyment he gets from the performance, or a total tax of $1.

"The equity of this tax as in the various other taxes in the fact that every man contributes according to his ability or means. A further justice is emphasized by the fact that every person must contribute the same amount whether he be admitted by the purchase of a ticket or by free pass, the only exemption being bona fide employees, and municipal officers and business."

"Five-Cent Shows Exempt. "In the case of persons having permanent use of boxes or seats a tax equivalent to 10 per cent of the amount paid by others occupying similar seats or boxes shall be imposed. No tax is collected in the case of a place the maximum charge for admission to which is 5 cents, or in case of shows, rides and other amusements with a maximum charge of 10 cents, if within outdoor amusement parks, nor in case of admission to such parks. All the above taxes become effective November 1, 1917, and are to be collected by the proprietors of the theaters, sworn returns and payment thereof to be made to the collector of internal revenue each month.

"And now comes Mr. War Tax Stamp, bearing the insignia of Uncle Sam, and offering himself as an instrument for a bond or a deed to the amount of $1,000. Again Congress has shown itself anxious to discard the antiquated and burdensome methods of raising revenue by confining the stamp taxes to sources it was impracticable to reach in any other manner. The stamp taxes upon transportation, insurance policies, cosmetics and many other things which heretofore have entailed a great amount of work for the taxpayer, have been eliminated and the taxes thereon are to be collected by the transportation companies and paid to the Government monthly, accompanied by an item statement of the amount of business transacted. However, in the case of bonds, notes, deeds and many other documents it has been found more practicable to have the tax represented by the stamp.

"Stamps Are Prescribed. "This section of the law becomes effective December 1, 1917, and every instrument as listed below bearing that or a subsequent date must be stamped at the rate prescribed. Of course, in the case of renewals or transfers made on or after the above date, the stamps would be necessary, regardless of the date of the original instrument. Stamps to be used in carrying out the provisions of this section may be procured at the office of the collector of internal revenue in your district, or those having on hand any stamps of the series of 1917 will be permitted to use the supply they have on hand.

"The following is a schedule of the documents which will be required to be stamped: Bonds, debentures or certificates, each $100. Indemnity and surety bonds, $50. Each bond if the face value exceeds $100, face value. Capital stock, $100 face value. Capital stock, $100 face value. Sale or agreement on exchange, for each $100 or fraction thereof. Drafts or checks, payable otherwise than at sight, for each $100 or fraction thereof. Each conveyance of real estate, $100 face value. Fraction. Deed, if consideration in excess of $100 and not in excess of $500, fraction thereof. Deed, for each $500 or fraction thereof. Entry of goods value not exceeding $100 and not exceeding $100. Entry of goods value exceeding $100, 1.00. Entry for warehouse receipt, $100 face value. Passage ticket to foreign port costing not over $30. Passage ticket to foreign port costing more than $30. Passage ticket to foreign port costing over $50. Proxy for voting at election of officers, .10. Power of attorney, .05. Playing cards, $100 face value. Parcel post, with postage of 25 cents for each 25 cents or fraction."

Schoolboys Will Pick Apple. LEWISTON, Idaho, Oct. 20.—(Special.)—When H. L. Powers, of the Lewiston Orchards Association, made an appeal to the Lewiston Commercial Club for assistance this week, and Chairman F. H. Quilliam, of the industrial committee, failed after canvassing the city, to find apple pickers, Superintendent Simmons of the High School was called upon, and after a conference with the faculty it was arranged for 50 to 60 boys to go to the Lewiston Orchards on Saturdays, while 10 to 15 boys will be released throughout the coming week, these boys to work in two-day relays.

WILLARD DAY FRIDAY

Schools to Honor Memory of W. C. T. U. Founder.

PROGRAMMES ARE ISSUED

Fourth Friday in October Named by Legislature for Celebration. Superintendent Churchill Prepares Pamphlet.

Plans are now being made in every school in Portland, as well as those throughout the state, for the observance of "Frances E. Willard day" Friday afternoon.

Frances E. Willard gave nearly 60 years of her life to the advancement of the cause of prohibition, and her work each year is memorialized by prohibition advocates throughout the country.

In Oregon the fourth Friday of October has been designated as "Frances E. Willard day" by legislative enactment, and every public school in the state is required to commemorate the day under the school laws of 1917.

J. A. Churchill, Superintendent of Public Instruction, has just issued a pamphlet to guide schools in preparing for the school programmes. These exercises Friday will be patriotic in character.

Miss Willard Born in 1839. Born of poor parents at Churchville, N. Y., September 23, 1839, Miss Willard, by her own efforts, secured an education in the schools and colleges of her native state. For several years she taught school, first at Pittsburg Female College, then as preceptress of Geneva Wesleyan Seminary and later became dean of Northwestern University.

It was in 1879 that she first arose to national recognition in the cause of temperance, when she was elected president of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union, which office she held until 1883. She founded the World's Christian Temperance Union and was its president from 1891 to 1898. She died in February, 1898.

Biography Entitled Leader. The following brief sketch is quoted from one of her biographers: "Coming to this task with no memories of her and little knowledge of her life work, it was inclined to think that the glowing accounts of her remarkable life were exaggerated, but, after studying her life, poring over her old letters and dates, and reading and rereading her books and speeches, I came to share the enthusiasm as to the greatness and importance of this wonderful woman."

"Here was a woman without social position, without fortune, born a farmer's daughter, her girlhood spent on a Western prairie before entering the profession of teaching, giving up the greatest prospect of a brilliant career to enter her real life work in an unpopular cause, to be honored after years of toil and sacrifice in which she verily became the property of humanity, and in recognition of her great work Illinois presented to the United States the beautiful marble statue of her which graces Statuary Hall in the Capitol at Washington, D. C."

"Miss Willard laid stress on the fact that it is character that in the test of time will remain, and her genius for organization is written upon every page of W. C. T. U. history. No brief sketch can do justice to so great a subject."

Mary Estelle Raker. In Mary Estelle Raker, 14 years old, of 1484 East Sherman street, Portland has a remarkable bird lecturer and photographer. Miss Raker, who is a sophomore at Franklin High School, lectured last night at the Central Library before the Audubon Club members. In addition to telling in an entertaining way the special habits, characteristics and worth of 50 different kinds of birds found in Eastern Oregon, she exhibited colored slides, the photographs for which she had taken with her own camera.

It is hard, indeed, to estimate the good she has done; her influence spread over so vast a territory; the great society she founded, reaching out to every land; the potent influence cannot be measured, but we do know the Nation is a better and safer place for our children because of her devotion and work.

GOOD THINGS IN THE MARKET

Now that the frost is on the "junkin" and the fodder in the shock, it almost comes as a surprise to light on ripe bright strawberries.

But there they are, from Hillsdale, 20 cents a basket; small, 15 cents—more tempting than ever, because we know they cannot be with us very much longer.

Blackberries, from Astoria, 5 cents a box—"last of the season," as a speeder. Huckleberries, 15 and 20 cents; cranberries, 20 cents a pound. Damson plums, 10 cents; silver prunes, 5 cents a pound. Italian prunes, 75 cents a box. White fresh figs, 25 cents a dozen. Alligator pears, large, 60 cents each. Pomegranates, 5 cents each.

The newest arrival among grapes is the Morocco, 60 cents a basket. Concord, 15 to 20 cents a basket, 5 and 10 cents a pound. Cornichon are the same price.

Delaware, Flaming Tokay and Lady Finger are each 15 cents a pound, and some stocks half that price, including Malaga and Oregon Sweet Water. Grapes are very abundant this week. Ground cherries, 15 to 25 cents a pound.

Pears are coming more freely as autumn advances. Oregon Bartlett, 20 cents a dozen. Boac and Fall Butters are mostly 25 cents a dozen.

Wines, Nellis, 20 cents; Buero d'Anjou, 15 cents a dozen. Peaches are retiring gracefully for the season.

From Salem come good Salway, freestone, 75 and 85 cents a box; 15 and 25 cents a dozen. Phillip, cling, $1.25; Crawford, $1 a box.

Splendid Winter Banana apples, large, $2.75 a box; other stock, $2.25; 20 40 and 50 cents a dozen. Kings, from Hood River, $2 a box; 20 cents a dozen; Orley, $2.50 a box. Jonathans, $1.90 a box; 25 cents a dozen. Gravastain, fine, 40 cents a dozen. Siberian crabapples, 10 cents a pound.

Apples, for jelly-making, four pounds 25 cents. Bananas, 25 cents a dozen. Guineas, 7 1/2 cents a pound. Grapefruit, from Cuba, two for 25 cents.

Oranges, 30 to 60 cents a dozen. Lemons, 30, 25 and 40 cents a dozen. Citron, 4 cents a pound. Casabas, 2 and 2 cents a pound. Imported Malaga raisins, 40 cents a pound.

In the vegetable market: The new come in asparagus, 30 cents a bunch. Burbank potatoes, $1.50 to $2.50 a sack; smaller tubers, $1 a sack. Some green corn can still be found, both Evergreen and Yellow Bantam—35 to 15 cents a dozen.

Lima, Kentucky Wonder, Burpee stringless, wax and butter, 5 cents a pound. Sweet potato, 5 cents a pound. Savoy or curly cabbage, 5 cents each, three for 10 cents.

Red cabbage, 5 cents a pound; green, 3 1/2 cents; small, 1 1/2 cents a pound. Artichokes, 10 cents each. Dried onions and small garlic, 5 cents a pound.

Egg plant, 10 and 15 cents each, 10 cents a pound. Tomatoes, 5 to 10 cents a pound; 60 cents a box; green, four pounds, 10 cents.

Red and yellow little pear tomatoes, 10 cents a pound, 30 cents a basket. Cucumbers, two for 5 cents and up; small, pickling, 35 cents a box. Cauliflower ranges in size from three small ones for 10 cents to handsome heads at 25 cents each.

Milk cabbage, 5 cents a head—good. Cherry peppers, 20 cents; long hot, 15 cents a pound. Saver bell peppers, 10 cents a pound, three pounds for a quarter. Horseradish root, 15 cents a pound. Celery hearts, 50 cents a bunch.

Stalks, 5, 8 and 10 cents each. Lettuce heads, 5 and 10 cents each. Hubbard squash, 15 cents; pumpkins, 10 cents each. Mustard greens, three bunches, 10 cents.

In the fish market: Chinook salmon, of bright color, 20 cents a pound. Silveride salmon, 15 cents; other stock, 15 cents whole or half fish; center cuts, 17 cents a pound. Salmon trout and baby salmon, 25 cents a pound, whole fish, from 1 1/2 to 3 pounds weight. Northern halibut, 20 and 22 cents a pound.

Croppies, a rarity so well guarded that a permit to offer them for sale is required from the fish warden. As the price is 25 cents a pound, a permit to purchase them may also be required.

PHILOMATH CLASSES ELECT Sophomores Succeed in Holding First Social of Year. PHILOMATH, Or., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—The different classes of Philomath college have just held their elections. The president of the senior class is Ethel A. Grove, of Huntington, W. Va.; of the junior class, Edgar A. Griffith, Spokane, Wash.; of the sophomore class, Ina Naomi Wiley, Vancouver, Wash., and of the freshman class, Raymond C. Whittlesey, Philomath.

The first class to hold a social was the sophomore class. At 6:30 P. M. Thursday they went out about a mile and a half in the country and had a "swine roast," returning at 8:30, had the other classes found out their plans. The Woman's Christian Temperance Union gave a reception last night in the college assembly room to the faculty of the college and the teachers of the public school. There were readings, music and addresses by Rev. T. W. Ringland and President L. L. Epley.

WORK ON FACTORY STARTS Erect Furniture Plant. OREGON CITY, Or., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—The street committee of the City Council has granted a permit to Frank Busch to erect a two-story building on Twelfth and Water streets, to be used in the manufacture of furniture. Work has already been started on the structure. It will be located at the end of the tracks of the Willamette Valley Southern. The owner has made application to the Federal Government for use of the river bank to low water, where a wharf can be built, thus giving water transportation.

Mr. Busch expects to have the factory in operation in about four weeks, but not at capacity. He will ship some of the machinery from his factory at Colton to the mill here.

F. N. KOLLOCK, 72, DEAD. WELL-KNOWN RAILROAD MAN EXPIRES SUDDENLY. Business Life Passed in Service of Milwaukee and Pennsylvania Railway Systems.

F. N. Kollock, for many years district engineer and superintendent of the Pennsylvania lines in this city, died suddenly on Friday at the residence of D. C. Green, his brother-in-law, in Milwaukee, Wis. With Mrs. Kollock and in apparently good health, he left home Monday for an extended visit

THE COMING OF THE LORD

Christ's Advent Near at Hand. THE CONSUMMATION OF THE AGES. By DR. JAMES E. TALMAGE, Of the Council of the Twelve, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, Salt Lake City, Utah.

We believe that Christ will reign personally upon the earth, etc. (Articles of Faith, No. 10). "Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner (Acts 1:11). So also the written oracles testify, unambiguous, easy to comprehend, Jesus the Christ is to return to earth "in like manner" as he went, therefore, as material being, a living Personage, having tangible immortalized body of flesh and bones.

"For the Son of Man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then shall reward every man according to his works" (Matt. xxv:27). "For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of Man be ashamed, when he shall come in his glory and in his Father's and of the holy angels" (Luke 12:26; compare Mark viii:38).

The Master had so effectively instructed the great multitude of his disciples, assured death and his later return to earth in power and glory that they eagerly inquired of him the time and signs of his coming (see Matt. Chap. 24). Though they failed to comprehend the full import of his reply, he told them that many of the developments would intervene between his departure and return; but as to the certainty of his advent as Judge and Lord and King, Jesus left no excuse or doubt in their minds. Throughout the apostolic period the Lord's coming was preached with the emphasis of inspired and convincing testimony.

Book of Mormon prophecies concerning the great event, the white less-er, the Nephites the resurrected Christ preached the gospel of salvation; and he did expound all things, even from the beginning, unto the end, that he should come in his glory" (Book of Mormon, III Nephi xxv:13). "Questions of some import to every one of us are these: (1) When will Christ come? (2) What shall be the purpose and attendant conditions of his coming?"

The date of the Lord's advent has never been revealed to man, nor shall it be. Prior to his resurrection, Jesus himself did not even know the date of his words: "But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father" (Mark xiii:32).

In the present age the Father hath declared: "And they have done unto the Son of Man even as they listed; and he has taken his power on the right hand of his glory and now reigneth in the heavens and will reign till he descends on the earth to reign with his feet, which time is nigh at hand. I, the Lord God, have spoken it, but the hour shall come when I will come in the clouds of heaven, and ye shall see me, neither the angels in heaven, nor shall they know until I come" (Doctrine and Covenants xxi:7-9).

In the light of such scriptural affirmations we may dismiss as empty conjecture all alleged determinations as to the precise date of the Lord's coming. Nevertheless, the specific signs and conditions by which is shown the imminence of the event are definite, and from the utterance of the prophetic day of the Lord is very near. To the church today Jesus Christ has said:

"For the hour is nigh, and that which was spoken by the prophets is about to be fulfilled; for as they spoke so shall it come to pass; for I will reveal myself from heaven with power and great glory, with all the hosts thereof, and dwell in righteousness with men on earth a thousand years, and the wicked shall not remain" (Doctrine and Covenants xxxi:10-11).

So near is the consummation that the intervening period is called "today," and on the morrow we shall have joy or tremble at the presence of the Lord (see Doctrine and Covenants lxxv:2-4). Bible, Book of Mormon and the volume of modern revelations, known as the Doctrine and Covenants, together with the utterances of prophets and apostles, are one in the portentous proclamation that the signs of the Lord's return are manifest and pressing rapidly. To the righteous the day shall be one of blessing and recompense; to the willfully wicked it portends judgment according to the measure of their iniquity.

Christ's advent shall be made with the accompaniment of power and great glory. When even the sun and moon are expected to the obscuring it shall be comparable to the coming of a thief in the night, who will take men and shall rule in the earth as Lord and King.

With the Lord's appearing a general resurrection of the righteous dead shall be effected, and many then in the flesh shall be changed from the mortal to the immortal state without the intervening experience of protracted suffering in the bottom of the sleep of the grave (see I Thes. iv:14-17).

"And the face of the Lord shall be unveiled and the saints that are upon the earth, who are alive, shall be quickened and be caught up to meet him. And they who have slept in their graves shall come forth for their graves shall be opened, and they also shall be caught up to meet him in the midst of the pillar of heaven" (Doctrine and Covenants lxxxviii:95-97).

Then shall be established the era of peace, the predicted millennium, in which Christ will dwell with men and shall rule in the earth as Lord and King.
