PULLMAN, Wash., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—Unable to withstand the powerful attack of the veteran Washington State College eleven, led by Left Halfback Bangs, the University of Oregon football team was defeated here today by a score of 26 to 3.

All of Washington State College's points were scored by the irresistible Bangs, a veteran of three years' experience. The green crew which Coach Bezdek pitted against the Dietz machine was wholly unable to solve their opponents' offense, nor could they penetrate the opposing line for gains.

Bangs Makes Long Gains.

Protected by a seemingly perfect interference, Halfback Bangs made long gains nearly every time he carried the ball. In the third period, following a punt by Steers of Oregon, Bangs ran through a broken field 72 yards for a touchdown.

Bangs scored a touchdown in the first period, another in the third and two more in the final period. He kicked two goals.

For Oregon Bill Steers, at quarterback, starred. In the last period he booted the pigskin for a field goal from the 45-yard line, scoring Oregon's only points. Williams, at left tackle, also shone. Steers and Williams punted well for Oregon.

In the first nine minutes of play Washington State scored a touchdown. Dietz' men rushed the ball 77 yards and Bangs carried the ball over the line for the first score. On the kickout Bangs kicked short, losing for his team a try for goal.

Out of four forward passes, Washington State gained 30 yards, only two of which were completed. Oregon failed to make a first down in the first period.

Second Period Scoreless.

Oregon failed to make yardage in the second period, while Pullman made 85 yards in three first downs, but failed to score. Washington State failed on an attempted forward pass and made most of the yardage on bucks and end runs. Captain Williams, of Oregon, punted six times in the period after Oregon saw that no yardage could be made against its opponents.

The third period began with Steers of Oregon punting to Bangs, who ran back the punt 72 yards for a touchdown, and then kicked goal.

Steers later, following an attempt to buck through the line which resulted in his being thrown back for five yards, drop-kicked from the 45-yard line, giving Oregon three points. The score at the end of the third period was: Washington State College, 13; University of Oregon, 3.

Oregon failed to solve the State College defensive in the final period, while Washington State added 13 points to its score. Bangs made two more touchdowns and kicked one goal in this period.

NEBRASKA 7, NOTRE DAME 0

Struggle Is in Doubt Until Final Whistle Is Blown.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 20.—The University of Nebraska football team today defeated Notre Dame 7 to 0, in a hard-fought game, the decision being in doubt until the final whistle had blown. The only touchdown of the game was made by Otoupalik in the second quarter, after a series of line plunges and a forward pass had brought the ball to Notre Dame's three-yard line.

Shaw kicked goal.

GOPHERS ELIMINATE INDIANA

Minnesota Eleven Bewilders Opponents With Varied Attack.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 20.—Indiana was eliminated from the "big ten" conference championship race today, Minnesota winning a hard-fought game, 33 to 9.

The driving Minnesota offensive, which included all brands of old and new football, puzzled the Hoosiers and for the most part kept them fighting near their own goal line.

ARMY EASILY BEATS TUFTS

Oliphant Scores 3 Touchdowns in Contest Ending 26 to 3.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Oct. 20.—The Army won in easy fashion from Tufts today. The final score was 26 to 3.

Oliphant, the Army star, was credited with three of his team's touchdowns. The Army leader played three periods.

Colgate Swamps Cornell 20 to 0.

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 20.—With Colgate's zacks ripping the Cornell line to pieces the Ithaca team went down to a 20-to-0 defeat today. Hubbell made a 50-yard run from kickoff to start the game.

FRESHMEN AT WORK

Oregon First Year Eleven Is Strong Aggregation.

MATERIAL IS PLENTIFUL

Largest Number of Beginners Turn Out for Team in History of Institution—Dean H. Walker Is Coaching Players.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 20.—(Special.)—With the decision by the Northwest and Pacific Coast College conferences that the freshman rules as regards athletics shall stand even during the war, the first year squad of football men is receiving nearly as much attention as is Coach Bezdek's aggregation of inexperienced pigskin artists. This year as last, when the one-year rule first went into effect, the freshmen have the service of their own coach and work entirely independent of the varsity.

To Dean H. Walker, captain of the lemon-yellow eleven of the 1912 season who last year piloted the Oregon youngsters through the season without defeat, has once more gone the position of freshman coach and with it the task of grinding out a team in the shortest length of time ever given an Oregon coach.

Turnout Is Large.

When he arrived on the campus ten days ago there was but one bright prospect to greet him—the largest turnout of first-year men ever seen on Kincaid field. Twenty-one stars from the high schools of the state, most of them from the smaller towns, answered his first call and from among them he has temporarily fashioned a team averaging close to 150 pounds.

In the backfield Merle Blake, of Ione, and Everett Brandenberg, who starred with Eugene high school last year after his arrival from Bend, are filling the halfback positions. Chapman, four years on the Marshfield high school eleven, is between them and at quarter F. Jacobleiyer, from Columbia University, is calling the signals. At end Masterson, from Columbia University; Perkins, Union high school, and Meador, Rainier high school, are trying for berths. The competition for other places in the line are as follows: Guards, Dresser, Marshfield high school; Manz, Washington high school, Portland; Trowbridge, Jefferson high school, Portland. Tackles, Strachan, Dufur high school, and Runquist, another Washington High School man. The center position is yet to be filled, with several prospects in view who have had from one to four years of high school experience.

Schedule Not Completed.

The schedule of games for Walker's team has not yet been definitely decided, but will include one and possibly two contests with the Oregon Agricultural College first year men, a game with the Chemawa Indians and negotiations are under way for a game with Willamette University. In all of these, according to the coach, Oregon's babes should be strong contenders for the long end of the scores. What they lack in weight they more than make up for in speed and they have been putting up a defense against which the varsity machine has been making little headway in scrimmage practice.

MARE SETS 2:00 MARK

MISS HARRIS M., IN MATCH RACE, BREAKS WORLD'S RECORD.

Pacer Defeats Hal Boy in Straight Heats—Little Battice Captures 2:11 Pace for $2500 Purse.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 20.—Miss Harris M. wound up the Grand Circuit season by shattering the world's record for a pacing mare by circling the mile oval in 2:00 flat in a match race with Hal Boy. She won the match, which was for two in three, in straight heats.

The 2:11 class pace for a purse of $2500 was given by the judges to Little Battice, which won two out of the six heats. Second money went to Jay Mac and third to The Pointer Queen.

Jeanette Speed took first money in the 2:11 class trot. Miss Rexetta won second and Mendosa T. third.

The 2:07 trot for a purse of $1500 was won by Brescia, Ross B. took second money and Peter Chenault third.

Only three heats of the fourth race, the 2:15 trot, three in five for $1500 stake, were trotted because of darkness. The judges declared Allerton Heir winner of first money. Second money was awarded to Sir Tatten and third to Frisco Worthy.

By agreement of drivers and with the consent of the judges, the awards in the unfinished 2:08 trot, left over from Thursday, were made according to the standing at the finish of the fifth heat. Bacilla was declared winner; Peter Chenault, second; Daisy Todd, third; Straight Sail, fourth; Busy's Lassie, fifth, and Miss Perfection, sixth. The summary:

WYOMING LOSES TO UTAH, 14-0

First Game of Rocky Mountain Conference Devoid of Thrills.

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 20.—In a game void of thrills the University of Utah defeated the University of Wyoming here today by a score of 14 to 0 in the first football game of the Rocky Mountain conference schedule.

Warner, right end for Utah, scored the first six on a forward pass of 30 yards in the second quarter. Howells kicked goal. In the third quarter Goodwin smashed through right tackle [illegible] yards from the line for goal, and Howells again kicked goal for the final score.

DARTMOUTH ELEVEN WINNER

West Virginia Unable to Progress and Loses, 6 to 2.

HANOVER, N. H., Oct. 20.—Dartmouth won from West Virginia at football today, 6 to 2. The powerful backfield of the visitors was stopped at every turn by the Green's defense.

West Virginia fought desperately to win in the last period, and finally forced Dartmouth to kick from behind its own goal line. The punt was blocked by Captain Bailey, of the Virginians. A Dartmouth man fell on the ball behind his own goal line, scoring a safety for the visitors.

135 Acres Bring $10,500.

DALLAS, Or., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—The Ben Whiteaker farm, consisting of 135 acres of farm and timber land located about four miles southeast of Dallas, was sold this week to C. S. Chamberlain, of Boise, Idaho, for $10,500. The purchase price was exceedingly low considering the fancy prices paid recently for land in this locality.

BENJAMIN MAY FIGHT

BOBBY EVANS TAKES UP MANAGEMENT OF EX-SPOKANE BOY.

Lightweight, Who Recently Fought Lloyd Madden to Draw, to Meet Some Boxer Here Soon.

Bobby Evans, manager and matchmaker of the Pacific Athletic Club, who also looks after the destinies of Billy Mascott, bantamweight champion of the Northwest, has taken up the management of Joe Benjamin and is busy lining up bouts for the former Spokane boy. In Benjamin Evans has one of the best lightweights on the Pacific Coast. Joe has fought in every city on the Coast and has held his own with any of them at his weight.

Joe has signed to box some good boy at the newsboys' smoker in November, probably either Muff Bronson or Alex Trambitas. At his last appearance here September 28 Benjamin fought a great six-round battle with Lloyd Madden, which ended in a draw.

* * *

Billy Nelson, former Portland lightweight, now serving Uncle Sam in the 19th Ambulance Corps, was a Portland visitor yesterday. Billy got 24 hours' leave from Camp Lewis and decided to pay his old friends a visit before he leaves for the trenches. Nelson has several offers for bouts in Tacoma, and may meet some good boy there.

Valley Trambitas is acting as a sparring partner for Ted (Kid) Lewis in Oakland. Lewis will box Battling Ortega at Emeryville, Cal., Wednesday night.

PITTSBURG DEFEATS SYRACUSE

Warner's Eleven Scores Touchdown in Each of Four Periods.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 20.—The University of Pittsburg football team easily defeated Syracuse University here today, 28 to 0. Coach Warner's eleven scored a touchdown and a goal in each of the four periods.

At the start of the game Syracuse threatened, but after the first period never proved dangerous.

Coe Trims Monmouth, 14 to 6.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Oct. 20.—Coe outfought Monmouth at every stage of the football game here today and won, 14 to 6. Bert Galbraith, Coe end, sustained a broken left leg in the third quarter.

PORTLAND GIRL IS EXPERT NIMROD.

MISS M. J. MORRISON.

It remained for Miss M. J. Morrison to bring back the limit of ducks from one of Portland's nearby duck lakes. The picture of Miss Morrison was snapped as she carried her ducks to a waiting automobile. Miss Morrison is an adept outdoor advocate and enjoys hunting and fishing. When not busy with her stenographic duties in one of Portland's large business houses she likes to hike or hunt.

PIPAL'S MEN CRUSH IDAHO BY 26 TO 6

Superior Weight and Better Teamwork by Oregonians Bring Triumph.

BEAVERS PENALIZED OFTEN

"Darkhorse" Newman Scores Two of Corvallis Team's Touchdowns. Archibald and Hubbard Tally—Roberts Idaho Star.

PENDLETON, Or., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—Superior weight and better teamwork gave the Oregon Aggies' football team the big end of a 26-to-6 score in their game here today with the University of Idaho.

Idaho's only score came in the last few minutes of play after a fumble had been recovered on the Aggies' 35-yard line. A forward pass, Brashear to Roberts, negotiated the remainder of the distance on the first play. Thompson missed goal.

While Idaho uncovered a number of deceiving tricks during the first and last quarters, the superior poundage of the Corvallis line was too great for consistent gains, and only in those two quarters did the Northerners appear dangerous.

The Aggies, on the other hand, placed most of their dependence on old-style football and, while they are not able to tear the Idaho line apart except in isolated instances, they found it possible to gain readily by the simple expedient of massing their entire weight behind the charge.

Drop-Kicks Are Failures.

There was little open play. Idaho and the Aggies each successfully negotiated one forward pass for a touchdown. Idaho tried a few more without success and Thompson attempted two drop-kicks from the 29-yard line without scoring.

Captain Newman starred for the victors. Pounding the line successfully, he alternated with Archibald for small but continuous gains. Archibald scored the first time for the Aggies well toward the end of the second quarter, following a series of cross-tackle bucks. Cole failed at the goal. Newman took the ball over the second time in the same manner. Cole kicked goal.

Newman negotiated the third score in the third quarter after Reardon had returned Idaho's punt well into the enemy's territory. Cole kicked goal. The beginning of the last quarter saw the fourth Corvallis touchdown on the second play after the kickoff.

A forward pass, Newman to Hubbard, for 40 yards turned the trick. Cole failed at goal. It was almost immediately after this that Idaho's sole score came.

Reardon Makes Score.

Just before the end of the third quarter Reardon gathered in a punt and dodged 50 yards through a scattered field for another score, but the referee decided the little Aggie quarter stepped over the line as he took the ball.

The Aggies were heavily penalized throughout the game, both for offside play and for other offenses against the rules, the chief one being a foul, which set the Orange line back 25 yards almost at the outset. Idaho was not penalized and only used one substitute.

The line-up:

O. A. C.	Position.	Idaho.
Hubbard	L. E.	Brashear
Walker	L. T.	Jackson (Capt.)
Cole	L. G.	Barber
Selph	C.	Pisstino
Johnson	R. G.	Hartwell

Reardon	Q.	Dingle

Substitutions—Webster for Holmes, Williams for Johnson, Gowan for Thompson, Knutson for Evans, Brittain for Archibald, Rose for Ray, Lodell for Brittain.

Touchdowns—Newman 2, Hubbard, Archibald, Roberts.

Goals—Cole 2.

Officials—E. Hinderman, Spokane, referee; R. Mathews, Salem, umpire; E. Frye, Spokane, linesman.

Harvard 13, Maine Artillery 0.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 20.—Harvard today won a 13-to-0 victory over the football team of the First Maine Heavy Artillery at Camp Bartfield, Westfield. Twice the artillerymen held the Harvard informals for downs within six inches of the goal line, but each time the Crimson players managed to score soon after the temporary setback.
