BAKER'S TOTAL NOW IS $200,000

Central Committee Is Appointed to Make Canvass of County.

BAKER, Or., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—Estimates given out by the banks here place Baker's subscription to the liberty loan at $200,000. Half the amount has been pledged. This includes applications made at four rural banks.

The liberty loan committee met this afternoon and appointed a central committee, consisting of T. G. Montgomery, of the First National Bank; B. E. Harder, of the Citizens' National Bank, and H. A. Sonne, of the Baker Loan & Trust Bank. This committee will take charge of the soliciting campaign in Baker and throughout the county.

Successful meetings were held tonight at Pocahontas and McEwen.

BANKERS TO HELP FARMERS

J. W. McCulloch and S. A. Freeman Address Crowd at Dufur.

DUFUR, Or., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the Farmers' Union held here today liberty bonds were purchased in the amount of $20,750. Mrs. L. J. Klinger took $2000 worth of the bonds.

J. W. McCulloch, of Ontario, explained the bonds, while F. A. Freeman, of Portland, told the farmers why they should aid the Government. During the meeting Johnson Bros., bankers, said they would loan money at 4 per cent interest to persons wishing to buy bonds.

Dufur has already raised about $36,000.

PATRIOTIC RALLY AT BANDON

Whirlwind Liberty Bond Campaign Arranged for Next Week.

BANDON, Or., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—The liberty bond subscriptions reported at the close of banking hours tonight totaled $11,750. Local committees will next week make a whirlwind campaign through the country districts, meetings having been arranged for local speakers in all the rural schools.

Wednesday will be observed as a holiday and all business will be suspended. A big patriotic meeting will be held in the theater, with Walter H. Evans, of Portland, as the speaker.

School Teachers to Buy Bonds.

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—Tacoma school teachers will subscribe to the liberty loan. They have been given an opportunity by the Board of Education to take the securities and pay for them on time. Employes of the Clear Fir Lumber Company have subscribed approximately $20,000 for the bonds and soldiers at Camp Lewis have paid close to $600,000.

Liberty Loanlets.

"This subscription is our answer, for the present, to the sinking of the Antilles," was the message which accompanied a liberty loan subscription of $1,600,000 by the Bank of California.

San Francisco's total is $33,185,800.

Howard M. Payne, receiver in the Federal oil land suits in California, subscribed $2,500,000.

More than 400,000 people have thus far subscribed in New England for the second liberty loan issue.

Lynn Markey, principal of Easton School, was fined $50 in Justice Court at Ellensburg, Wash., upon conviction of using language calculated to provoke an assault in connection with a verbal attack he was alleged to have made in the County Teachers' Institute upon a speaker asking support for the liberty loan.

Montana, 27 out of 43 counties, has subscribed $7,037,450.

Louisville, Ky., has oversubscribed its minimum quota 33 per cent. Subscriptions reported total $10,316,300.

Tucson and Pima counties, Arizona, with a population of 30,000, have oversubscribed their allotment of $600,000 in liberty bonds after a four days' campaign and expect to take double the allotment before the campaign is closed.

Idaho has raised a trifle more than $3,000,000, or about one-third of its quota of $9,000,000. One hundred thousand dollars is appropriated by the State Land Board from the permanent school funds.

SINKING SEEN, LAD WRITES

Merle Gibson Sends Letter Saying That U-Boat Went Down.

EUGENE, Or., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—Merle Gibson, of Eugene, son of Mrs. L. C. Sherman, in a letter received by his mother states that he witnessed the destruction of a German submarine by American gunners, while on his way to France.

Gibson states that the U-boat attacked the vessels carrying his detachment and was destroyed by the convoys.

John Gibson, another son of Mrs. Sherman, with General Pershing in France, writes that the climate is very similar to that of the Willamette Valley.

Helen Fay Dies in Ohio.

EUGENE, Or., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fay, of this city, today received a telegram announcing the death of their daughter, Helen Fay, who had been visiting friends in Ohio. Miss Fay was a member of the freshman class at the University of Oregon last year.
