A delightful party was given at the Portland Auto Club Saturday evening, October 13, by J. R. Justice to a host of his friends, the occasion being the departure of Mr. Justice for France, where he is to enter the American Flying Corps.

The clubrooms were decorated with dahlias and autumn leaves. Cards and dancing were the principal entertainments of the evening with vocal and instrumental selections, rendered by several of the young women present.

Mr. Justice left Monday for New York, whence he will sail for France. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Dabney, Miss Nelly Schroeder, Carroll de Seuchet, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Sechtem, Miss Ardott Bunnell, Lieutenant Earl P. Kemp, of Kempton, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Cole, Miss Dorris Dabney, Dr. and Mrs. Willard Roberts and J. B. Justice.

The Statton Auxiliary of the Red Cross Society gave a successful dance for the Red Cross fund last Saturday night, October 19. Mrs. J. B. Wilber, who had charge of the decorating, had the hall decorated with flags and cut flowers. The attendance was very good and the auxiliary made over $100 after all expenses were paid. Mrs. Wilber, at her own expense, brought a fine orchestra from Salem. The dance was brought to a delightful ending by a grand march and a concert finale. The Statton auxiliary is planning several of these occasions this winter to get funds for the Red Cross.

COMING EVENTS.

Of interest to members and friends is the announcement made Saturday by the dance committee of the Blackstone

Club of their opening party to be held November 2 at Murlark ballroom.

Owing to the absence in military service of a number of club members, it has been decided to forego the informal parties scheduled for the present season. At the insistent request of remaining members and friends, the club's dance committee has decided, however, to give an opening party with a large benefit affair for absent members as a possible event of the mid-season.

Arrangements for invitations may be made with any of the following members in charge: Messrs. Walter T. McGuirk, Russell H. Stephens, Thomas B. Collins, Alfred J. Shawcross, Carl J.

Hurley and John L. Bozorth, and the Misses Evangeline F. McIntosh, Lydia M. Villeneuve, Nita D. Picken, Margaret M. O'Shea, Margaret E. Gilmore, Alma M. Gruenig and Jesslyn C. Pottege.

An elaborate programme will be given at a benefit party at the Rose City Park Clubhouse Tuesday night. The proceeds will go to Field Hospital Company C, Captain J. J. Sellwood. There will be dancing, cards, pool and bowling and refreshments. No charge will be made for admission. Charles Kaimana Dimond's band will furnish the music. A part of his orchestra con-

MONSIEUR MARCEL.

Enlisted men of Battery B, Oregon Field Artillery, and stationed in Camp Greene, North Carolina, are in need of money for a mess fund, and one of their first requirements is a supply of blankets. To raise money for this object, a benefit entertainment will take place in the Baker Theater on the night of October 30, and a committee is out selling tickets. The Baker Stock Company will be seen in the play, "The Witching Hour." Monsieur Marcel, now a resident of this city, will appear on the programme in artistic dances. He is a trained ballet master and has been premier dance artist with the Imperial Russian Ballet for a number of years. He appeared in the Hellig Theater early last spring, with the celebrated Ballet Russe, starring with Nijinski and Loupakova. Several of his students will appear with him October 30, and Doris Phillips, as the little French doll, will be featured in a new dance creation. Others who will appear on this occasion are the newly reorganized Imperial Quartet, formerly the Ad Club Quartet, consisting of Harry Miles Whistal, Thomas A. Burke, Hartridge Whipp and Oswald Olsen. Gordon A. Soule, the star boy pianist, will play piano solos. Battery B men left Oregon without receiving all the camp equipment, many of them not in uniform, and without suitable blankets, etc., needed for colder weather. Captain Charles W. Helme, recently of Battery A, is chairman of the committee in charge of the entertainment.

ists of native Hawaiians, four of whom will give a concert, vocal and instrumental, in the living-room. They will later join the orchestra in the dancing hall. "Jitney" dances will be the rule and the cost to each attendant will rest with him and the extent of his participation. Everything will be a voluntary contribution for a patriotic purpose. Mrs. J. H. Lothrop will be the hostess for the evening.

The members of the Auxiliary to the Typographical Union will give a mask halloween party on Thursday, October 25, at the East Side Business Men's Club, on Grand avenue. Coffee and doughnuts will be served and a jazz band will furnish music for dancing. For the "500" players there will be special prizes, and although it is not at all compulsory to come in costume, it is hoped that many will mask for the occasion.

The committee in charge, Mrs. L. E. Gotshall and Mrs. W. E. Englefield, have spared no efforts to make this their second party, a great success.

Clan Macleay, Order of Scottish Clans, will give another of its popular dinner and dance parties on Friday evening, October 26, at 8 o'clock in the Masonic Temple. All Scotchmen and their friends are invited. The edibles will be home cooked and among other Scottish delicacies there will be shortbread, scones and oat cakes made only as Scottish women can do it. There will be a short concert before the dance, the singers being Mrs. James McCormack, Mrs. Shepherd Stewart, Robert Wallace and Lauchlan MacNeil; Mrs. James Shearer and Mrs. Robert Wallace being accompanists.

The monthly card party for the benefit of St. Stephen's Altar Society will be given at the home of Rev. Father Walli, 1153 East Salmon street, Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The following is the committee in charge: Mrs. Carlson, Mrs. Cody, Mrs. Christman, Mrs. Chambers, Mrs. Rockhouse, Miss Rania, and they cordially invite the friends of the society and assure them a good time.

A committee has been appointed by the First Spiritual Science Church to make arrangements to have a sheet and pillow case dancing Halloween party on October 31.
