CHURCH OF THE MADELEINE TRYING TO CLEAR OFF DEBT

Sixth Anniversary of Organization of Parish Will Be Held December 24-Altar Society Preparing to Hold Christmas Sale.

CHURCH OF THE MADELEINE

THE Church of the Madeleine is pre- in which the children of the parish and paring to celebrate its sixth anni- members of the Cathedral Holy Names paring to celebrate its sixth anni-versary, December 24, when appropriate services will be held. In anticipation of that event a drive is being made to wipe out all indebtedness on the church properties. It is the ambition of the priest in charge, the Rev. tion of the priest in charge, the Rev. George Thompson, to clear away all debt by Christmas time. To accomplish this a live committee of men has been appointed and they are busy at work on the enterprise: Members of the committee are Dan Kelleher, chairman: James Gill, secretary; T. J. Seufert, M. F. Brady, J. N. Casey, Robert J. O'Neil, W. J. Sheehy, F. A. Sullivan, J. F. Clarkson, James F. Twohy, John Man-ning, James Dougherty, C. B. King, H. E. Kalvelage, John F. Daly, M. H. Thompson. The church first held a meeting Sep-tember 17, 1911, in the home of J. F. Clarkson. Just a few persons were present, but the interest shown was sincere and by Christmas the new church was ready. In 1913 the Sisters' Convent was dedicated. This building was a gift of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Sin-nott as a memorial to the parents of Mr. Sinnoit. This school adjoins the Mr. Sinnoit. This school adjoins the church and has an enrollment of 100 day scholars. The music department is especially fine.

There is a parent-teacher organiza-tion that is doing good work. The Altar Society of the church is

The Altar Society of the church is planning a Christmas sale. This will be arranged by the officers: President, Mrs. John Manning; vice-presidents, Mrs. E. Gurney, Miss Amelia Casey, Mrs. J. D. Sullivan, Mrs. C. S. Sweeny; secretary, Mrs. T. J. Murphy; treasurer, Mrs. C. B. King.

The choir of the church is directed by F. W. Goodrich and the organist is Mrs. Robert Power (Carmel Sullivan).

Father George Thompson has been in charge since the parish was started and he has as his assistant Father George Campbell, who is well known here, having been educated in Port-

FROM December 1 to 15 Dr. E. H. Pence will be at Camp Lewis, under order of the National authority of the Army Y. M. C. A. In this work he represents Westminster Church. The Thanksgiving service at Westminster Presbyterian Church was well attended. The choir was assisted in the music by the Sunday school orchestra and hymns of a patriotic nature were sung. At the close of the service Dr. Pence enumerated some of the things for which we should be thankful. An offering amounting to about $50 was taken for the American Bible So-city to further its work in putting a Bible, or at least the New Testament;

into the hands of each soldier. West-minster Church has already sent New Testaments to those from her number who have gone into the service. . . .
