Dr. J. E. Anderson, of The Dalles, member of the House of Representa-tives from Hood River and Wasco counties, yesterday announced that he would seek the Gubernatorial nomination on the Republican ticket in the primary election next May, upsetting fore-

Dr. J. E. Anderson, of The Dalles, Who Has Announced His Candi-dacy for Governor on the Recasts by the politically wise, who had predicted that the contest for the Republican nomination for Governor would be a three-cornered fight with Governor Withycombe, Secretary of State Olcott and Gus C. Moser, President of the State Senate, as the contestants.

"I feel that the office of Governor is one to which any loyal citizen of the state should aspire," said Dr. Anderson at the imperial Hotel yesterday, in announcing his candidacy. "I consider the office primarily an executive nosi. the office primarily an executive posi-tion and if elected shall use my great-est efforts to see that all laws are strictly and firmly enforced, of course, reserving the right to veto and of suggesting necessary legislation. Later, shall issue a formal announcement of my candidacy together with a state-ment of the principles upon which I shall ask the Republican voters of the state for their support."

Vigorous Campaign Proposed. Dr. Anderson said he would close his office at The Dalles the first of the year and personally conduct his cam-paign, which, he says, will be prose-cuted vigorously in every corner of the

Dr. Anderson is perhaps best known as the father of Oregon's "bone-dry law, which was enacted at the 1917 ser sion of the Legislature. He is a native of Illinois, 47 years old, and has resided in Oregon for 16 years, all of that time at The Dalles. He served three terms as Mayor of his home city and was three times elected State Representative from Hood River and Wasco counties, serving as a member of the 1913, 1915 and 1917 sessions of the Leg-

Having assisted in drafting the state's first prohibition law, Dr. Ander-son at the 1915 session of the Legislature introduced the measure in the House. At the 1917 session, as chair-man of the House commistee on alcoholic affairs, he introduced in the lower branch the "bone-dry" law which is now in operation.

Legislative Activity Noted. Dr. Anderson was also a member of the committee on medicine, pharmac and dentistry at the last legislative session and introduced a number of bills requested by social hygiene workers. Aside from these activities, Dr Anderson also gave his support to various measures of progressive legislation that were presented and enacted into law by the three sessions of the Legislature of which he was a mem-

Dr. Anderson is the first of the Gu-bernatorial possibilities among the Republicans definitely to announce his candidacy. It is generally known that Governor Withycombe will seek re-election and that in due time Secretary of State Olcott and Senator Moser will acquaint the voters with the fact that they are also candidates for the party mination of Governor. In addition to this quartet of candidates, there is talk that George J. Cameron, of Multnomah County, and Louis J. Simpson, of the Coos Bay district, may yet be persuaded through the ince of friends to try for the same

State Senator S. B. Huston would not say yesterday that he would be a can-didate for United States Senatorship. Neither would he say that he would not be a candidate. But it is known that he is seriously considering the matter. Some of his friends are thinking of circulating petitions asking Mr. Huston to enter the contest in the Republican primaries. "For several days I have been receiving a great many letters from friends all over the state urging me to become a candidate for the Senatorship," said Mr. Huston yesterday. Several of these letters were written by prominent Republicans, and, I might add, a number have been received from sources entirely unexpected by me." be a candidate. But it is known that sources entirely unexpected by me." "If I could foresee the result of the primary choice of the Republicans for Governor, I might be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for that office," said Walter M. Pierce, State Senator from Union and Wallowa counties, who was at the Imperial vesterties, who was at the Imperial yester ties, who was at the Imperial yester-day, but owing to the great uncer-tainty of foretelling that result Senator Pierce intimated that he probably would not start. It is not likely, either, that the Senator will seek his party's nomination for either United States Senator or Representative in Congress from the Second District, as has been reported. Senator Pierce is a holdover member of the Senate, and frankly said yesterday he would dislike very much for any other political contingency to arise which would make it necessary for him to terminate his membership in that body. Ferdinand E. Reed and Elmer L. Amidon are not waiting for Ben Olcott to announce that he will be a candi-date for Governor. They have gone to

BIG SERVICE FLAG OF WHOLESALE HOUSE SHOWS TWENTY-ONE STARS FOR EMPLOYES WHO HAVE JOINED THE COLORS.

In the main entrance to Fleischner, Mayer & Co.'s wholesale house swings a bright new service flag, bearing 21 stars for the number of employes who are now in the Nation's service. Space has been arranged on the flag for the introduction of 28 more, should other employes don the uniform. Beneath each star is the name of the man it represents. The flag is of felt, white field, red border and blue stars, and is 45x60 inches in dimension. The men for whom it was fashioned are in every branch of the Army and Navy. The company has come forward with its share of loyalty by continuing every one of the 21 on the payroll at full salary. The family of each married man is given the regular monthly pay check each month, and the salaries of single men are being placed to whatever credit the men request. Those who have gone into the service from this firm are C. A. Fish, C. E. Fish, Herbert Katz, Hestin Gallagher, Frank Hays, Alex Davidson, Robert Stein, Lloyd Rippey, A. F. Barrett, Robert Bushnell, Cyrus Wylie, Benjamin Lightgarn, William D. Pearson, William Abrams, Phillip Drake, C. H. Danley, Fred Miller, R. F. Pomeroy, F. C. Bown, D. Burroughs and J. C. Eivers. BOUNDARIES ARE APPROVED

Will Be Transferred to New Precincts to Avoid Confusion at Elections.

Establishment of 38 new precincts in Multnomah County has just been completed by County Clerk Beveridge, and the boundaries of the new precincts have been approved by the County Commissioners. The precincts are for the most part located on the East Side, although the rapid growth of five West Side precincts necessitated additions. Under the state law the County Clerk, with the approval of the Commission ers, is required to change the precinct whenever the voting population of precinct exceeds 300 persons. Registra-tion Deputy Herman Schneider has been at work on the new boundaries for sev eral weeks, and has just completed his work.

New Precinct Established.

The addition of the 38 new precincts, however, will not cause any confusion at the approaching elections, so far as the voters are concerned. The Clerk's force will transfer the names of voters from one precinct to another to con-form with the new boundaries, and the voter will not be compelled to re register. Every voter who has thus been changed to a new precinct will be notified as soon as the work of trans fering names has been completed.

In most cases it was necessary to form new precincts out of parts of as new addresses to the County Clerk. many as four or five existing precincts.
The houndaries were changed and new precincts added in accordance with the registration totals for the county, which have been kept up to date for that purpose.

According to the figures compiled by Mr. Schneider, there were 83,908 reg-istered voters in Multnomah County on December 4. Of this number, 50,154 were men and 39,754 were women. New Boards Necessary. will have to be formed by the county officials. Mr. Beveridge said yesterday he is now making up his list of election officials and desires any persons who wish to serve during the coming year to send him their applications in writing at the earliest possible moment. He will make every effort to secure election officials who are thoroughly competent to serve in order that the election wash. thoroughly competent to serve in order that the election work may be carried on with the least possible friction.
