SCHOOL REPORTERS TELL WHAT IS HAPPENING IN CLASSROOM

Preparations Are Made for Final Examinations of the Semester-Social Calendar Fills Up.

Jefferson Spectrum Goes to Soldiers Abroad.

Christmas Number to Be Included in Presents for Former Students Now Under the Flug-Seniors Plan for Last Weeks-June Class to Be Entertained January 5,

THE Christmas Spectrum which was being of the best ever published. The will be held next week on Tuesday. staff worked especially hard on the issue as every Jefferson "Sammy" will receive one as a Christmas present along with the boxes prepared by the club girls. This means that it will be circulated in various places in the United States, Canada, England and France. Stories, poems, editorials, humor and jokes all contributed to the success of this issue. One of the best staff worked especially hard on the issuccess of this issue. One of the best poems was by Emily Perry, entitled, "While Angles' Choires Sing," and is as As shepherds watch their flocks at

Before the hours of morn, In a stable outside Bethlehem

The infant Christ is born. The shepherd sits upon the hill And songs of angles hear, While in the crystal sky above A sudden star appears.

Across the silent desert sands Are journeying wise men three. As far up in the Eastern sky The guiding star they see.

Then to the manger all are led.

The shepherd and the king:
And to their Lord's they homage give, While angles choir sings.

For the benefit of friends and relatives of the boys who have enlisted the following names are added to the Jefferson roster: Orville Allison, Navy, U. S. S. San Diego, N. Y. C.; Watrous Bushnell, Company B, 162nd Regiment, 41st Division, U. S. A., Camp Mills; Paul Blanchard, U. S. Submarine Base, San Pedro, Cal.; John Beskey, 162nd The shepherd and the king: And to their Lord's they homage give, Paul Blanchard, U. S. Submarine Base, San Pedro, Cal.; John Beakey, 162nd Infantry, Camp Mills; Albert Butterfield. Aviation, San Antonio, Texas; George Barker, U. S. A. Training Station, Camp Perry, Public Works, Barracks 630, Great Lakes, Ill.; Carl Blizzard, Hospital Corps, Fort Lyons, Colo.; Harry Coon, U. S. N., Mare Island, Naval Barracks; J. M. Carr, U. S. Marines, Bremerton, Wash.; Stuart Carson, Company H, 162nd Infantry, Camp Mills; Maurice Collins, Medical Corps, Barracks 92, Fort Riley, Kan.; Allen Cutler, Engineers, Long Island; Jess Digman, 17, Areo Squadron, Fort Worth, Texas; Paul Downard and James Dewey, Const Artillery, Fort Stevens; Prentiss Deering, 363rd Infantry, Camp Lewis; Cecil Dilling, Marines, Bremerton, Wash.; Ewart Edrines, Bremerton, Wash; Ewart Edwards, Aviation Corps, San Antonio, Texas; Walter Eisfelder, American Lake; Clarence Ekstrom, Coast Artillery, Fort Canby; Jack Ehrlinger, Camp Mills, Troop B, First Oregon Cavalry; Alvey Fox Nave Bremerton Wash;

Mills, Arden Fugate, U. S. Naval Training Station, Seattle, Wash. Gorge Green, U. S. S. Massachusetts, Philadelphia, Par. John P. Gram. Company C. 162nd Regiment, U. S. A. Infantry. Camp Mills; Harold Heninger, Expeditionary Forces in France; Carol Harper, 162nd Infantry, Company G, Camp Mills; Charles Hidden, Camp Mills; Charles Houston, U. S. M. C. Seventh Wayne E. Houston, U. S. M. C. Seventh Hughes, Medical Corps, Vancouver; Charles Hendricksen, H. F. A., Wasco, Crexs, Ferr Stovens: James Jordan, Marine, Kyle, Aviation, France; Russeli Kelly, Annanolis Naval Academy, Hugh Kyle. Annapolis Naval Academy; Hugh Kyle, C A. Fort Stevens; George Kerr, 116th Engineers, 41st Division, Camp Mills; Engineers, 41st Division, Camp Mills;
Hobart Laman, Company C, Sanitary,
Training, Camp Lewis; Eddie McAllen,
U. S. S. South Dakota; George McRae, Coast Artillery, Fort Canby; Walter
Martin, Third Company, O. C. A., Fort
Stevens; Lawrence McEwan, Battery
C, 148th, F. A., Camp Mills; Turner
Neal, Ambulance Corps, Camp Lewis;
Charles Prescott, Marine Barracks,
Bremerton, Wash.; Jack Phillips, Company B, 162nd Regiment, 41st Division, Camp Mills; George H, Pfeuffer, Com-Corps, Goat Island; William Rietch, S. S. Chyan, care Postmaster, San other Francisco, Cal.; Guy Randles, 28th Areo ron, Camp Hicks, Fort Worth, Harold Riley, 148th Artillery, Division, Camp Mills; Stanley char Stipsman, Washington Cavalry, Long Island; Robert Sturdivant, U. S. S. Pueblo, care Postmaster, N. Y. City; John Tenbrook, U. S. S. San Diego, care Postmaster, N. Y. City; Hale Van Scoy, 26th Regiment, Third Battery, Great Lakes, Ill.; Clifford Wright, U. of W.,

City Club house, shortly after the Linnton boys attending James John-Christmas vacation. To this affair the namely, George Larson, Oscar Andermembers of the June class will be invited for the evening dance. At a meeting of the class Wednesday the motto, "Carry On," was selected. This is the slogan of the Canadian troops is the slogan of the Canadian troops motto, "Carry On," was the slogan of the Canadian troops and because of its appropriatness all other mottos were dropped and this one voted in unanimous. Nancy Gavin one voted in unanimous. Nancy Gavin was the regular musical assembly at was the regular musical assembly at which "The Marsailles"; "Keep the Home Fires Burning"; "Holy Night";

Preston Wisdom, Navy, Goat Island,

On January 5 the June class will en-the Christmas boxes to Mrs. Curran in New York to distribute at Camp Mills.

The Zetas are planning Christmas charity work of various kinds and are enthusiastically busying themselves making clothing for the needy. The Phrenodikens of Washington High school, kindly invited the Zetas to spend Friday afternoon with them.

BY VALMA V. JONES.

The Tri-L's have decided to assist with the Red Cross work at the Albina Institute. They will work there every other week. A programme meeting

The tootball game between the February and June classes ended in a 6 to 6 tie.

The boys of the Glee Club gave the school a very rare treat during the musical assembly Monday. They sang a new patriotic song entitled, "We Are Jolly Students of Our Yankee Land."

There are a great many boys who have enlisted, but who cannot be located. If anyone has any information as to the whereabouts of the following.

as to the whereabouts of the following. It would be appreciated if they would send it to Jefferson High School before the January issue of the Spectrum: Henry Akewick, Charles Allen, Andreas Albrecht, Jack Bruhn, Jerry Brombery, Sam Bullock, Mark Butter-Lawrence McQueen, Jimmie Mann, Ned Kadden, Charles McDonald, Harold Moser, Ronald Neff, John O'Keefe, Mai-Moser, Ronald Neff, John O'Reefe, Mar-colm O'Mallery, Leonard Parker, Stew-art Robertson, Talcott Root, James Read, Norman Ross, Stewart Robert-son, Guy Rooney, Willard Soden, Ed-ward Seabrook, Dean Seabrook, Ed-ward Springer, Henry Slocum, Clarence Sprague, Arthur Voight, Robert Wal-pole and Herbert Zahl.

Latin Society at James John Gives Novel Programme.

Programme Has Island of Circe for Setting—Students Write Letters to Men in Service—Pedagogy Class Members Teach in Grade School.

which accompanied the Mount Hood Herdman: and Crater Lake views, and L. H. Company A. 116th Engineers, Camp and Crater Lake views, and L. H. Strong, of the faculty, read the lecture Mills; Harry Kurtz, 93rd Company, O. on Yellowstone National Park. During the progress of the Mount Hood slides the audience was very much amused to learn that the two men at the top of the mountain posing in the cold wind for a picture were F. M. Groshong and Thomason, of the James John

The Socalitas Latina programme, held on last Saturday evening, opened with a piano solo by Randolph Howard. A most interesting playlet, which was Ernest Hobbs, Sergeant Ward Holpresented by the group of which Bernice Shaw was captain, had its setting on the Island of Circe, and the story was a scene from the Odyssey. Louis Dunsmore was the Odyssey and Kenneth Ross, Homer Snyder, Corporal Captain Waller News Charles Parker Vial Lyvin Royald Willer Robert Vial Lyvin Royald Willer. Camp Mills; George H. Pfeuffer, Company F, 162nd Infantry, Camp Mills; Harold Poling, Company B, Oregon Engineers, Camp Mills, John Platt, Ambulance Corps, France; Fred Pageler, Louis Dunsmore was the Odyssey and Company F. 162nd Infantry, Camp Gertrude Hansen the witch, while Clar-Mills; Robert Patton, sergeant, 118th camp Mills; Earl Paulsen, Hospital Owing to the absence of several memoration of the company Gertrude Hansen the witch, while Clarence Gilstrap and Loyal Holmes were bers who were to participate in San other numbers on the programme, Mer-Areo ritt Whitmore and John Wulf presented a humorous conversational num-At this meeting the vocabulary Stanley champions were determined as follows: Long Hazel Greene and Alice Gilstrap tied for first place, while Ruth Edmondson and Ruth Reece received second and third places, respectively.

Foresters, Seattle, Wash.; Ralph Ward, 162nd Infantry, Camp Mills; Arthur Wilson, 162nd Infantry, Camp Mills; Arthur Wilson, 162nd Infantry, Camp Mills; Corps, Vancouver, Wash.; Edwin Weston, Submarine Base, San Pedro, Cal.; Byron Walker, Medical Corps, Vancouver, Wash.; Edwin Weston, Submarine Base, San Pedro, Cal.; Corps, Vancouver, Wash.; Edwin Weston, Submarine Base, San Pedro, Cal.; Corps, Vancouver, Wash.; Edwin Weston, Submarine Base, San Pedro, Cal.; Corps, Vancouver, Wash.; Edwin Weston, Submarine Base, San Pedro, Cal.; Corps, Vancouver, Wash.; Edwin Weston, Submarine Base, San Pedro, Cal.; Corps, Vancouver, Wash.; Edwin Weston, Submarine Base, San Pedro, Cal.; Corps, Vancouver, Wash.; Edwin Weston, Submarine Base, San Pedro, Cal.; Corps, Vancouver, Wash.; Edwin Weston, Wash.; Edwin Weston, Wash.; Edwin Weston, Wash.; Camp Mills; Toom With "round-robin" letters constituent being prepared to their long journey to some James John boy who has answered to the call of Uncle Sam. In addition to this many students are writing individual Christmas letters which will Lovell, Everett Maddocks, Roland Management of the Call of Uncle Sam. In addition to this many students are writing individual Christmas letters which will bur Kelly, Donald Keys, Keller King, Robert Krohn, Ray Laphman, Thomas Lovell, Everett Maddocks, Roland Management of the Call of Uncle Sam. In addition to the friendly feeling have been rife in every be mailed from school in time to cheer some Sammle on a cold December day. Divinity fudge and checolate caramels be mailed from school in time to cheer some Sammie on a cold December day. Divinity fudge and chocolate caramels have been made in the domestic science Minnis, Lyle Niccols, Leo Parkinson, the condition of these fine candles. Kenneth Poole, Boris Secord, Carl Shoetenstein Carl Shoe Clarke White, 162nd Infantry, which "The Marsailles": "Keep the Home Fires Burning": "Holy Night": "Oh, Come, All Ye Faithful," and "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," were sung and enjoyed by the student body.

Various of the English classes have had the pleasure of hearing Miss Alma Janson speak at the St. Johns Branch Library on the encyclopedia, periodical and catalogues and library index to be used in searching for material on any william Ward, Hafton Paulson, Cecil tertain the February Seniors in the and enjoyed by the student body. Various of the English classes have mittee will arrange for an evening of had the pleasure of hearing Miss Alma and cards: Hazel dancing, games and cards: Hazel Widen, chairman; Esther Dennis, Eulah Bruner, William Lahti, Georgia and catalogues and library index to be Henry Kruze, chairman, Stanley Class are doing the most interesting Laughton, Earl Johnson and Louis Mentz and Kenneth Smith compose the music committee. At a Naemph meeting Tuesday, Naomi Haque'son and Marion Schaet gave a gioint report on, "Play Ground Work in the Rural Schools." Miss Cameron of the Woodlawn Grammar school presented 12 of her pupils in a child's drams.

The club has sent their portion of A and Second B.

OFFICERS OF PHI DELTA EPSILON AT JEFFERSON HIGH SCHOOL

LEFT TO RIGHT—NELSON ENGLISH, PRESIDENT; WILLIAM BOLGER, SERGEANT-AT-ARMS; HENRY KRUSE, TREASURER; WILLIAMD LAHTI, SECRETARY.

Washington Boys Banqueted by Sigma Gamma Pi.

Tri-L Girls Hold a Jane Addoms Programme and Study Life of the Noted Hull House Lender—Roster of Students in Service Is Com-piled.

BY EUGENE KELTY. BANQUET in honor of the new

A members was given at the Hazelwood by the Sigma Gamma Pi fraternity on Tuesday night, December 11. Those present were Everett Barbur, Lawrence Glass, Russel Patterson, Joy Badely, Preston Whiting, Chester Sor-enson, Kenneth Coleman, Wesley Wheeler, Arthur MacKenzie, Ray Haislip, Fred Haines, Donald McPherson, Nelson Clark, Gilbert Ritchey and George Fox. After a sumptuous repast, short talks were given by all present, Preston Whiting acting as toastmaster. The affair was a complete success.

Infantry-Minot Fry. Erle Huson, Fred Merrill, Herman Pippy, Walter Tenneson, Adolph Wegner, Emil Weg-ner, Corporal Lyman Cooley, Harold Doty, Orlan Hollowell, Corporal Robert Nordstrom, Corporal Edwin Norene, Corporal Frank Johnson, Paul Kuhl, Corporal Arthur Voight, Harold Bur-nett, Douglas Burroughs, Harold Gilman, William Hurlburt, Corporal Carl Mack, Cecil Angle, Corporal Earl Bur-ton, De Walt Bonebrake, Corporal John Crout, Frank Davis, Donald Dyment, Walter Fearnley, Orris Fletcher, George Goode, Ernest Grahm, George Graves, Robert Vial, Irvin Willy, Ronald Wilson, Richard Word, Julius Moreland, Charles Sigle, Lloyd Church, Douglas Farrell, Roger Shay, Floyd Farley, Roy Tolls, Corporal Donald Huntress, Miller, Roy Kurtz, Corporal I Holden, Albert Leslie, James Neer. Coast artillery—Raymond Fryer, Con-all, Thomas Hewitt, Hal Kelly, Cor-oral Will McKibbin, Alfred Munson James Meck, Chester Jones, Allan My

ter Stryker. Navy—Rex Appleby, Charles Austin, Gordon Babb, Reese Bates, William Banks, John Beckett, Seth Blake, Harry Brubaker, Frank Capelle, Jack Craw Camp Mills.

The February class members are very busy planning for their last few days. The Senior Prom will be held two weeks before commencement night. The class day will be spent at the Rose

On Thursday morning several of the City Club, house, shortly after the City Club, house, shortly after the Commencement of the City Club, house, shortly after the Commencement of the City Club, house, shortly after the City Club, h Ward Kerns, Edward Newton and Walter Phillips.

Hospital Corps Erwin Barendrick,
Marshall Barrett, Phillip Bartholomew,
Roy Briggs. John Clemenson, Harold Fearing, William Gelger, Frank Hecox,
William Hillyard, George Miller, Andrew Miller, Fred Peterson, Walter Rich, Raymond Staub, Kent Wilson, Ru-pert Wanless, Kenneth Wooley, Jack Williams, Milton McClure, Glen Laid-law, Linton Davies and Dan Foster. Quartermaster's Corps—Robert Clif-ford, Frank Hunt, Oscar Robert, Cliffon

Eulah Bruner, William Lanti, Georgiz and catalogues and library index to be Mayers, Raymond Smith and Joe Faber. Six members of the faculty will be guest of honor including Principal Hopkins Jenkins, Miss Rockfellow, Miss Ruby, Miss Hardy, Miss Campbell and Miss Ingalls.

and catalogues and library index to be used in searching for material on any william Ward, Hafton Paulson, Cecil Ross, George Stanton, Vere Windnagle, Lewis Woodworth, Dudley Lapham, William Wake, Morris Sewell, William Make, Morris Sewell, William Catalogues and library index to be used in searching for material on any william Ward, Hafton Paulson, Cecil Ross, George Stanton, Vere Windnagle, Lewis Woodworth, Dudley Lapham, William Wake, Morris Sewell, William Wake, Morris Sewell, William Lanting Ward, Hafton Paulson, Cecil Ross, George Stanton, Vere Windnagle, Lewis Woodworth, Dudley Lapham, William Wake, Morris Sewell, William Lanting Ward, Hafton Paulson, Cecil Ross, George Stanton, Vere Windnagle, Lewis Woodworth, Dudley Lapham, William Wake, Morris Sewell, William Wake, Morris Sewell William Wake, Morris Sewell William Wake, Morris Sewell William Wake, Morris Sewell William Wake, Morri

Charles Hickling, Frank Buckler, Ar-Charles Hickling, Frank Buckier, Arthur Knouff, Oscar Noreen, George Borman, Paul Campbell, Norman Cornell, Herschel Driver, Hugh Glenn, Ed Strowbridge, George Howe, Frank Lyons, Mead Gilman, Vane Seeley, William Johnson, Meldrum Reierson, Allen Joy and Don Cartner.

The Phrenos gave a very interesting programme on Friday of last week. The society entertained the Zetas, of Jef-ferson, and the Philos, of Lincoln. Alice Goblke first rendered a very excellent solo, being accompanied on the piano by Mable Christensen. Agnes Cover entertained with some interest-ing recitations, Margaret Alexander danced; Mable Christensen gave a piano solo and a short skit entitled "Court-ship With Difficulties" was put on, featuring Naomi Bryan, Mildred Weeks and Mona Bryan, Refreshments were Girls' Polytechnic School.

BY THELMA CLIFFORD. THE third-term girls have com-own use. These caps are made of crepe de chine and organdie. Hand-made flowers of chiffon and ribbon are being used to trim them.

Rehearsals will be held every Monday afternoon, Wednesday morning and Friday afternoon. Saturday morning rehearsals will begin later.

ning a study of foods. They are now working on starchy foods.

Nearly all who are in Miss Worth's industrial Red Cross class are married women, who have home duties to perform, but who are working on orders taken at the art department bazaar last week, in order to com-plete their fund. They are hoping to raise $100.

The third-term girls in sewing are

Miss Blanche O'Neill visited school on Monday and took luncheon with some of her former schoolmates.

The second-term girls in sewing are making dresses of challis and batiste.

evening dress made for her daughter, who lives in the East. The dress was of marquisette with an overskirt of Donald net trimmed in pink rosebuds.

The special housekeepers' class sewing has a large attendance this term. Usually at this time of the year the class members drop out on account of the holidays. The work is practical. Almost every article of wearing apparel—women's aprons, waists and dresses, children's clothes and even men's shirts and pajamas are being made by this class.

Next Wednesday afternoon, from 2:20 to 3:30, the last lesson of the pre-holiday course will be given. The lesson will be on now to select and prepare poultry.

Miss Schmit gave an interesting talk to the intermediate millinery class. Her subject was: "How styles are made." Miss Schmit said that those who were most concerned by the change of styles were manufacturers, milliners, dressmakers wearers, and that a great deal of ness and industry are dependent the changes in style. Many of new materials and colors are taken from old styles and with a few changes and new touches are soon adopted by society leaders.

The first-term girls in Miss Gaff-ney's room, who have completed the term's work, are now working on Christmas presents.

Some very interesting work is being done by the senior girls in the textile class. After a week is spen in the study of some period of his in the study of some period of history a study of textiles of this period is made. Along with this work some models of spinning wheels were made last week. This week fancy weaving is being taught showing the different weaves and patterns. After the Christmas holidays small looms are to be made on which they will be able to weave patterns.

Raymond Clifford, a graduate of Benson Folytechnic School, speke to the girls Wednesday morning concerning the Alumni Association. He announced that the association is to the second se William the girls Recently there was a competition in the millinery classes to see who could make a hat in the shortest time. Mrs. Stinson completed her hat in 24 hours, which was the shortest George McFall, Adams Joy, time.

Linocln Hears of Work at Big Army Camp.

L. Koehn Speak at Assembly. Cast for Shakespearean Play Is Chosen — Clasical Teachers Give Reception—Girls Make Scrapbooks cational secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Camp Lewis, American Lake, spoke to the students in the morning, and Lieutenant George L. Koehn, of the Quartermaster Corps, United States Army, also formerly of the faculty, spoke in the afternoon, Mr. Harlan told of the splendid work the Y. M. C. A. has been doing throughout the Northwest. He also thanked the school for sending to Camp Lewis, recently, over 5000 books and magazines, which are much appreciated by the men there. Lieutenant the home of Miss Heien Levoff, a member of the class. There were games, singing and dancing. The refreshments consisted of cakes, wafers, icc cream and fruits. Those present were: Miss R. E. Banfield, faculty adviser; Alta Daniels, Alta Freeman, Florence Abramson, Bessie Geller, Louise Mohr, Betty Nusbaum, Norman Henderson, Llevyflower and Magazines, which are much appreciated by the men there. Lieutenant

Rehearsals will be held every Mon-members of Miss Mabel Downs' 1918 team, evening at Lincoln. Two of the de-bates were on the question, "Resolved, for practice are Harry Weinstein, That our present policy excluding the Japanese from this country is justifiable." One team was composed of Lucille Eirod and Katherine Macey on the affirmative and Marianne Dunham Jos Rogers Bud Avenue Russian Home Economics Club took place Tuesday in the domestic science room. The Curille Eirod and Katherine Macey on the affirmative and Marianne Dunham Jos Rogers Bud Avenue Russian Russ and William Condit on the negative. On the other team were Chester Kelsey and Helen Hawk, affirmative, and Robert Wilson, negative. Rosalie Balmer and Emma Isensee upheld the affirma-tive and Anna Taubele and Medley Gibson the negative of the following question: "Resolved, That the recommendations of the simplified spelling mendations of the simplified spelling all-star team for the same position. was debated by Anna Flamm and Sam Fendel and the negative by Kathryn Donald and Ruth Ferguson.

The sewng teachers of the city at-tended an instructive lecture Wednesday afternoon on lustra sellulose, or artificial silks, given by N. C. Thorne,

Plans are under way to organize second study group of the Boys' Bible Club under the direction of N. C. Thorne, of the faculty.

The third, fourth and fifth-term French classes sang "La Marseillaise" in French at the Tuesday morning assembly. They were accompanied by Louise Smith at the piano and Jane O'Reilly on the violin.

The February '18 class will give its senior prom after the Christmas holi-days. Plans for a class day are now under discussion.

The Philolexian programme for last week was as follows: Reading by Ruth Waldron; "Belgium's Position Before the War," by Elizabeth Griggs; "Bel-gium's Position Since the War," Kathrine Ross.

Miss Anna Rogers' second-term do-mestic art classes have started on their first woolen school dresses. They pect to finish them by Christmas.

Miss Katherine McMillen, of Albany College and the University of Oregon, is taking the place, as a teacher of medieval and modern and American history, of N. F. McCoy, who has enhistory, of N. F. McCoy, listed in the Aviation Corps.

Mrs. Eugenia Altman, of the faculty, talked to the Adelphians Thursday on interesting and well-known people whom she has met. She spoke of Julia Ward Howe, Madame Modjeska, I. W. Swift, Professor Moulton and celebrated people of European countries.

The Laurel Club gave a party Sat-urday night at the home of Helen Borsch at Maplewood, Miss Laura Northup and Miss Mary Buckley, of the faculty, were the patronesses.

The following names were added last week to the list of Lincoln boys now in the Army or Navy, making the total number of stars on the service flag 199: Dr. Ben L. Norden, surgeon in the Major, physical instructor, Medical Corps, Fort Riley, Kan.: James H. Thomas, 23d Detachment, 22d Engineers, Camp Meade, Md.: Corporal Wayne Gordon, 318th Field Battalion, Signal Corps, National Army, Camp Lewis, American Lake; Eddie Lind, 22d tion of "ruff-neck" day.

Detachment, 23d Engineers, Camp Meade, Md.; Private William Smith, Base Hospital, Camp Lewis, American Lake; Private Louis Hearns, First Lake; Private Louis Hearns, First Lieutenant Martin DeMuth, infantry, Camp Lewis, American Lake.

Any additional names may be left at the information desk, Central Library, or sent to any of the following members of the military information committee at Lincoln: Miss Leona L. Larrabee, Miss, Laura Northynn Miss. Larrabee, Miss Laura Northrup, Miss Ethel Marsh.

Lincoln is proud of the fact that, of the four Reed College debaters who debated against the University of Washington on December 7, two are Lincoln graduates, Sam Weinstein, on the affirmative team, and Jack Levin, on the negative, Sam Weinstein was captain of the affirmative of the champitonship, Ashaling teams of 1914 and the class colors—lavender and gold—were used for decorptionship, Ashaling teams of 1914 and captain of the arritmative of the cham-pionship debating teams of 1914 and 1915, which defeated the Washington High School and Columbia University. Jack Levin was captain of the nega-tive in 1916 when Lincoln defeated the Hollywood, Santa Barbara, San Diego and Lincoln high schools of Southern California.

tire school. "A Tale of Old Madrid,"

tire school. "A Tale of Old Madrid," by F. Marion Crawford, and "Almost Beyond Endurance," by James Whitcomb Riley, were interestingly given by Miss Genevieve Courtney, of the faculty. Violin solos, "Il Trovatore" and "Autumn," were contributed by Grace Jscobsen, accompanied by Ruth Bottler, at the piano. Principal A. H. Sproul gave a short talk, due to the absence of Superintendent L. R. Alderman, who intended to address the school but was detained. F. N. Haroun, of the faculty, closed the assembly by leading in several patriotic songs. Tomorrow's assembly will be in charge of the members of the February, '18, class.

pleted their waist-making course, which includes one tailored, one semitallored, one lingerie and one silk waist, and are working on their wool dresses. The material in the majority of these dresses is the popular blue serge, trimmed in braid or buttons, with white satin wash collars. The serges, which cost from $1.50 to $1.75 last year, cost from $2 to $2.75 this winter. As a result a number of attractive wool dresses are being made over from old coats, skirts and dresses.

Many of the girls in Miss Funston's millinery class are making boudoir caps for Christmas gifts and for their own use. These caps are made of creme de chine and organids. Hand-tains," accompanied by Mrs. Wade. Miss Elizabeth Doyle then concluded the musical programme by rendering "Miserere" and "I Have Sighed to Rest Me," on the plano.

On Tuesday of last week all boys interested in basketball reported to the library during the regular study period.
Morris Rogoway, who at the close of last year was elected to captain the 1918 team, has resigned in favor of Sam Tessler, one of the letter men from Sam Tessler, one of the letter men from Woolever, Paul Wong, David Singer Joe Rogers, Bud Anderson, Ralph Mas-terson, Sam Tessler, Virgil Oliver, Will-lam Fehse, Morris Rogoway, George boys assembled and Heinie Wagner was elected captain. Wagner played the fullback position on Commerce's team and he was also selected for the the origin of our letter alphabet. Miss Sylvia Wheeler, who is in charge of the typewriting department at Behnke-Walker Business College, visited several classes last Wednesday.

A non-listing adding and subtracting machine was received at Commerce last week.

A. Ralph Vajar, head of the Spanish department at Commerce, accepted an invitation offered by Washington High and spoke to various Spanish classes, telling them of the importance of the Spanish language in commercial lines in the Western Hemisphere, and the commercial possibilities of trade between North America and Central and South America department at Commerce, accepted an sugar.

Many of Commerce's seniors are be-ginning to scout around for positions for the future. Joe Merrill is now putfor the future. Joe Merrill is now put-ting into practice principles learned in salesmanship in a prominent down-town store, and Wynn Keppinger is doing clerical work at the Courthouse in the school clerk's office.

John Johnson, former commerce stu-dent recently has been appointed to dent, recently has been appointed to # position in the Internal Revenue Bu-reau at Washington, D. C., at a salary of $1200 a year. Maurice Geller and Edward Gustaffason, former Commerce students, are in the country's service.

The tin foil campaign closed last Friday with over 175 pounds of tin and lead foil. This foil will be sold and proceeds given to the Red Cross work.

"Bud" Fisher, of the senior class, Bacon agave an interesting report in English mittee. and economics classes last Wednesday on "Government Control of Railroads During War Times."

With commencement time near at hand, the members of the February class are indeed busy. The class in going to aid the Red Cross drive by selling Red Cross seals during the com-ing week. The class has decided to seiling Red Cross seals during the coming week. The class has decided to publish a class issue, if permissible.

Several committees were appointed, namely: Class motto, Ruth Swanson, Wynn Keppinger and Gilberta Bridgewater; class will, Ruth Bye; class prophecy, Bertha Lichtgarn. A committee was appointed to plan an entertainmant for an assembly on Monday The following names were added last week to the list of Lincoln boys now in the Army or Navy, making the total garn, Rebecca Solko, Caroline Johnston number of stars on the service flag 139: Dr. Ben L. Norden, surgeon in the Navy; Dr. Ferdinand H. Damasch, recently promoted from Lieutenant to the hall and post all current news items. Those in charge are Ruth Bye, Waior, physical instructor, Medical

Franklin Senior Prom Is Big Social Event.

Pedagogy Girls Learn of Library Work—Home Economics Club Has Important Meeting — June Class Prepares to Fete February Colleagues,

BY ANNA KARAGOZIAN.

The whirl followed the grand march, led by Joy Badley, president of the class, music being furnished by Mead's Orchestra. An interesting feature was the presence of a number of Franklin boys who are now in Uncle Sam's service, and also graduates of Franklin.

Hollywood, Santa Barbara, San Diego and Lincoin high schools of Southern California.

At the meeting of the Laurel Club Thursday Marguerite McCabe gave a synopsis and Nora Bunnage a criticism of B. Fletcher Robinson's story, "Chronicles of Addington Peace."

High School of Commerce.

BY CHARLES E. BEQUETTE.

The patrons and patronesses were: Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Badley, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Dillon, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Elwell, Mrs. L. D. Davis, Mrs. G. E. Dustan, Miss Lucile Davis, Miss Gertrude Blackmar, Mrs. Blanche Thurston and Miss Rubis Hummarstrom. The class committee was composed of Joy Badley, Helen Dustan, Walter Keller, Ruth Heinrichs, Bernice Elliott, Veva Elwell, Edith Davis, Augusta De Witt, Mary Rector, Editor, Veva Elwell, May Hoffman, Sadie Carlson, Inez Ford, Verrel Palmer, Arthur Simmons, Fremont Byers and Freed Jones. mer, Arthur Simmons, Frement Byers and Fred Jones.

The honor roll, which appears on the invitations, included George Dewey, Charles Bluett, Thaxter Daniels, Fred Kelly, Harold Duncan and Lilburn Tomlinson.

Veva Elwell was chairman of the refreshment committee: Ruth Heinrichs, chairman of the invitation committee, and Bernice Elliott, chairman of the L. Kochn Speak at Assembly.

Cast for Shakespearean Play Is Chosen—Clasical Teachers Give Reception—Girls Make Scrapbooks for Sodiers.

BY MARGARET DUNIWAY.

Two of the most stirring assemblies of the term were held Monday, when E. G. Harlan, an ex-member of the faculty, now head publicity man and educational secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Camp Lewis, American Lake, spoke to the students in the morning, and Lieuthe students in the morning and the first trackets the school but was detained. E. N. Haroun, of the assembly by leading to address the school but was detained. E. N. Haroun,
of the assembly by
leading to address the school but was detained. E. N. Haroun,
of the assembly by
leading to address the
school but was detained. E. N. Haroun, of the faculty, closed the assembly by on the care of a rural school library. Miss Harriet Wood, head of the school department library, is to speak to the girls.

On Tuesday the students in Miss Julianne Roller's German "3" class enjoyed listening to the records of the principal selections from Wagner's operas. Next week they will hear Christmas carols in Latin and German.

The students at Franklin have their final examinations of the semester this week, commencing Wednesday. The schedule has been outlined as follows:
Wednesday—The first, second, third and fourth periods will be devoted to English, and the fifth and sixth periods to history and civies.

to history and civics.

Thursday—The first and second periods, Spanish, German, French, Latin and music; third and fourth periods, art, domestic science, sewing and Red Cross; fifth and sixth periods, sciences, pedsayory and asyriculture.

A very important meeting of the Home Economics Club took place Tuescolors are green and gold, with corresponding club flowers of yellow roses and maldenhair ferns. Anna Karagozian appointed Alma Strayer, chairman, Spracken, Martin Paulback, Henry Ethel Amburn and Rathest Spracken, Martin Paulback, Henry look up a club motto. The club is do-look up a club motto. the noon hour. The commit charge was Melba Webster, C Canfield, Alice Duffield, Opal board should be adopted in Portland."

The affirmative of the question, "Resolved, That England should grant home rule to Ireland without delay."

On Wednesday Professor Crawford, the holidays. The committee on pins of the University of Greater Portland, was Sarah Wood, chairman; Aliene delay. Wisited several classes and spoke on Benedict, Julia Anderson and Marian and Alma Strayer. Plans are also un Benedict, Julia Anderson and Marian Hubbard Oneida Mathies was appointed club reporter.

During the last week the domestic science girls, under the instruction of Miss Gertrude Blackmar, made sugar-Miss Gertrude Blackman, cocon-less candles with dried fruits, coconnut, honey and syrup. They also made uncooked fruit cake, which requires no flour and no egg and practically no sugar. Much time was given to the making of economical war fruit cakes and steamed puddings. The third-term girls are planning luncheons, ware to be prepared and served by girl individually.

The pedagogy Club held its regular neeting Wednesday. Neville Bartlett gave an interesting report on the Gary system of education as used in the Portland grade schools. Amanda Hol-verson explained some of the methods used by Miss Nelson of Liewellwn School, who is an expert in teaching

At the meeting of the June ."18 class plans were formulated to entertain the February, '18 class. Katherine Mackenzle appointed the following committee for the entertainment. Virgil Brown, chairman; Leah Melvin, George Pickering, Edna Gilbert, Evelyn Ladd, Ernest Amburn, Lorna Langseth. committee composed of Carl Prior, chairman; Marian Wheeler, Ruth Dunnigan and Emery Ingham was appointed to look up a suitable class play. On Friday they received their class pins, with a block "F" design. Helen Bacon was chairman of the pin com-

C. A. Rice, assistant superintendent, spoke on "School Revenue" and ex-plained what a 6-mill school levy would provide for maintenance of the schools. An interesting talk was given on "Posture and Corrective Gymnastics."
R. B. Walsh gave two vocal selections. A committee was appointed to work out a plan for raising money to buy yarn for Red Cross work.

Justly encouraged by having won the 1917 football championship, the boys are now putting their best efforts into preparation for the coming basketball season. The following are out for basketball: Everett Barbur, Robert basketball: Everett Barbur, Robert Tucker, Pudge Brown, all of last year's team: Bill Poulsen, Ernest Amburn, Verne Dudley, Edwin Thompson, Ralph Borrelli, Jerry Gillis, Orval Shryder and Clifford Johnson. Pudge Brown will coach the basket-

Dewey, who is at American Lake, doing Y. M. C. A. war work.

E. A. Winship, editor of the Journal of Education at Boston, was a visitor at the school Thursday, accompanied by Superintendent L. R. Alderman.