PORTLAND CHURCHES PLAN EXPANSION OF ACTIVITIES IN 1918

All Denominations Will Increase Their Efforts, Not Only Along Religious Lines, but in Patriotic Undertakings in Connection With World War as Well.

Pro-Cathedral

This morning the members and friends of St. Stephen's Pro-Cathedral are celebrating the 52d anniversary of the founding of that church. In keeping with the occasion Dean McCollister will deliver an especially prepared address and the festival music of the Christmas service will be repeated. The beautiful Christmas service will be repeated. The school denied themselves the usual holiday treats and turned their thought for others. The school contributed to the fund for Bibles for soldiers over $30.

Today Dr. A. L. Hutchison, pastor, will discuss "The Consummation of This be a song service and the pastor will speak on "The Great Divide." beautiful Christmas decorations are

The passing of Dr. Lyott leaves the pulpit of First Church vacant. It also leaves a feeling of great loss among the ministers of the city, as Dr. Dyott was widely beloved for his gentleness, Christian spirit and kindliness.

A new service flag displaying 52 stars greeted the congregation of the East Side Christian Church last Sun-day morning. This is one of the largest numbers on a church flag in the city. Hev. R. H. Sawyer preached a strong and eloquent sermon from Isaiah lx:8-9. At the close of the service five new members were received.
