Collection of Fares on Vancouver

Line Pleases Patrons.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Jan. 19 .- (Spe-ial.)—As a result of repairs now in regress to the Vancouver trestle, pas-engers, during working hours, are compelled to walk around the piledriv-r to the car on the other side.

During the Symmer highway period the water washed away considerable sand around the piling, and these are being replaced and strengthened.

The fare from Vancouver to Port-land on the street car is 15 cents, but the three divisions have been divided differently. Formerly, one paid 5 cents fare on three different occasions; now it costs 5 cents to ride across the bridge, 4 cents to the city limits and

Instead of collecting the bridge and
