CHART WORK IS SHOWN.—For a few days the Art School is showing in the downstairs of the Museum of Art a small collection of drawings, paintings, designs and craft work as the midway exhibition of the school. The exhibition includes studies and objects lent by Bertha Stuart and Florence Knowlton designed and made in America by way of showing the accomplishment being made in our country in the finer kinds of practical art. The exhibition is not a full exposition of the work of the art students. The regular hours of the museum are: Weekdays, 2 to 5 o'clock; Sunday, 2 to 5; free the afternoons of Tuesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

FREE PUBLIC LECTURES BY FRANCIS G. HANCOCK, R. A., L. L. B., of Chicago. Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Jan. 27, 28 and 29, at 8 P. M. Tonight: "The Joy of Theosophy." To those who believe that evolution is God's plan for man, the present crisis appears to be one of the great transitional periods between an old and a new civilization and that all is well with the world. The great war is considered in the light of an evolutionary process clearing the world stage for a more beautiful, brotherly, co-operative and spiritual civilization. All welcome. Free lending library in connection. Theological Society, 35 floor Central bldg., Tenth and Alder.—Adv.

JOINT INSTALLATION HELD.—Montavilla and Mount Hood circles, Neighbors of Woodcraft, held a joint installation last Tuesday in Woodcraft Temple. After installation a social hour was enjoyed. Following are the officers: Sarah Hawthorn, guardian; neighbor; Alma Norton, advisor; Emily Varnell, magician; Lenora Jones, clerk; Edith Dennison, attendant; Hilda Johnston, musician; Mary Foulson, inner sentinel; C. F. Vilas, outer sentinel; Helen Vilas, captain guards; Helen McQuiston, banker; Mrs. Young, Mrs. Grebel, managers.

PHOTOGRAPHS FOR SOCIETY ASKED.—At a recent meeting of the executive committee of the Lang Syno Society it was requested that all members should have their pictures taken to be collected into a framed photograph to be presented to the Oregon Historical Society. There will be no charges for the photographs. Members are asked to get in touch with Frank Dayton, treasurer of the society, who is in charge of the collection of the photographs.

OREGON MATRON HONORED IN REPRESENTING "AMERICA" IN PRESENTATION TO QUEEN MARY OF ENGLAND.

Mrs. T. C. Campbell.

The honor of representing "America" in a presentation to Queen Mary of England has been conferred upon an Oregon matron, Mrs. T. C. Campbell. Mrs. Campbell is a tall, attractive type of womanhood and is striking in her handsome robe of red and white satin with blue drapes, silver stars, gold Grecian strappings, gold helmet with silver stars and black eagle feathers. Mrs. Campbell was photographed in her attractive costume, wearing the emblem which gave her permission to be presented at court.

The presentation was made November 28, 1917, in a "Pages of Fair Women" arranged by Her Royal Highness Princess Langrana Cavaller and Lady Cayvan at a reception to the Queen and Princess Mary. The Queen complimented Mrs. Campbell upon her representation of "America" and personally invited her for her participation in the pageant. Mrs. Campbell is the wife of Dr. Campbell, a member of the Canadian forces who has been in England and France for the past two years in the service. Mrs. Campbell is a daughter of T. J. Fryer, of Independentence, Or., and a granddaughter of the late Judge A. H. Fryer. She has made a name for herself in the literary field, writing several short stories and magazine articles.

EARLY SPRING PREDICTED.—Unmistakable evidence of a mild winter and an early spring season is found in the yard of William Burke, 778 Northrup street. There a large pecan tree, partially in bloom, attracts considerable attention. Many of the buds are in full bloom and the others are rapidly developing. "Portland's climate is good enough for me," commented Mr. Burke yesterday as he exhibited the bloom-laden branch from the nut tree, "especially when I recall the extremely severe below-zero weather prevailing throughout the Eastern and Central states."

ATRO PUMPING ENGINES COMING SOON.—Six powerful automobile pumping engines for the Fire Bureau probably will reach Portland before March 1, the time provided in the contract for delivery. A. G. Long, of the American LaFrance Company, which company has the contract, returned yesterday from the East and said he expects the machines here ahead of schedule. The engines are to be placed in stations covering districts where horse-drawn apparatus is to be abolished and some stations discontinued.

FREE LECTURES START TONIGHT.—A series of free lectures on theosophy is to be given under the auspices of the Theosophical Society by Francis G. Hancock, formerly Assistant United States Attorney at Chicago, Theosophical Hall, Central building, beginning tonight at 8 o'clock. The subjects for the lectures will be: "The Joy of Theosophy," "The Mission of Theosophy" and "The Dawning of a New Age."

THE OREGON STATE BOARD OF NURSES will meet for the purpose of holding an examination on February 27 and 28, at 9 o'clock at the Portland Central Library, Tenth and Yamhill streets. Application forms may be obtained from the secretary, Jane V. Doyle, 674 Kearney street, Portland.—Adv.

MISSION TO CLOSE.—Rev. J. Atwood Stanfield will close his mission at St. David's parish, East Twelfth and Belmont, at 9:30 A. M. there will be celebration of the eucharist at 7:30 A. M. and at 9:30 A. M. there will be another celebration. There will be a special song service during the services at 11 o'clock.

EVANGELIST HAYWARD TO SPEAK.—Tonight at 8 o'clock, at Pythias Hall, Eleventh and Alder, at 7:45, Evangelist Hayward will speak on the prophecies in their relation to present-day events. His topic is "Weighed in the Balance and Found Wanting," and is free to the public.

INFORMAL TALK SET FOR Y. W. C. A.—"Being a Hostess to Our Boy at Camp" will be the topic of an informal talk to be given in the living-room of the Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock by Mrs. Leonard Andrus. The talk was postponed from last week.

HEIRLOOM SILVER
 Around treasured "heirloom" silver of quality and character only can charm and sentiment be perpetually woven.
 The commonplace kind of silver, be it sterling or plated, cannot long survive. Many and many a piece of plated silver is offered as Sheffield Plate and which, put to the test of a few years, proves to be a mere sham. American Sheffield Silver, as shown in various "heirloom" pieces at this store, is of the very highest grade. One example of the superior American Sheffield is the "OLD DUTCH"—authentic reproductions that will survive the severe test of years of service. We will be pleased to explain the existing difference in silverware offered as "Sheffield."
America's Finest "Heirloom" Patterns Are to Be Found in our Displays of Sterling Silver.
