

EXTRA SESSION IS LIKELY FOR IDAHO

State Is in Danger of Being Without National Guard.

POLITICAL POT IS ABOLISH

Non-Partisan League Opens Attack on Alleged Power Trust and Is Preparing to Carry Next State Election.

MOISE, Idaho, March 2.—(Special.)—Idaho seems to be doomed to a session extraordinary of the fourteenth Legislature. Apparently it will not do, and like a specter, confronts the powers that be in charge of the ship of state. Governor Alexander had no more than decided that many of the issues heretofore confronting the state for which there had been a clamor for the extra session could be disposed of without legislation than the Federal authorities served notice on him that Idaho could not draw funds to equip the National Guard troops for the state. Only the Legislature can make available the necessary money.

For a second time within the new year, therefore, a session extraordinary promises to play no unimportant part in the politics of the state, now rapidly shaping. The Non-Partisan League opened its fight during the week on the big power companies operating in the state by attacking former Governor James H. Hawley, while rumors have come from Washington that there is possibility of the President taking a hand in shaping the Senatorial situation.

Defense Act Passed in Regular Session.

The Legislature, when in regular session a year ago, failed to pass an act authorizing the state to take advantage of the terms of the National defense law passed by Congress. At that time war had not been declared against Germany. A fight developed against a militia act because it authorized conscription. The measure was, therefore, defeated.

Several months ago the Secretary of War authorized the Governor, through the Adjutant-General, to organize a National Guard battalion. The Adjutant-General immediately took to do so, with the result that today four companies have been sworn into the service.

These companies will give the state between 500 and 600 troops. It costs $152 to equip each one of them. The militia bureau, War Department, upon being requested to furnish the finances to equip the militia so organized, has just notified the Adjutant-General, through the Judge-Advocate, that Idaho failed to take advantage of the defense act, and therefore a slight delay in drawing Federal money for that purpose. It was hastily ascertained that there is not sufficient money in the Adjutant-General's appropriation to equip the guard, and no other treasury funds can be drawn upon. It will take close to $100,000 to supply uniforms and arms for 600 soldiers. Either a special session of the Legislature will be held to vote the necessary money or Idaho will go without troops.

Non-Partisan League Active.

The Non-Partisan League fired a broadside when one of its leaders, Ray McKaig, at a league meeting at Caldwell, directly attacked the alleged power trust of the former Governor, James H. Hawley. McKaig, an avowed candidate for short-term United States Senator, in particular, this organization claims that there should be free and not monopolistic development of the water-power resources of the state. McKaig charged Mr. Hawley with being the representative of the power trust in the Democratic party. Calling the attention of the farmers present to the fact that he was also a candidate for United States Senator, he asked them what they were going to do about it. The attack has aroused the ire of the friends of the former Governor, and they are questioning the league leader's loyalty. McKaig, son of the former Governor, and his law partner, is a prominent Republican. McKaig also charged him with being the representative of the power trust in the Republican party. McKaig declared that the league was against all "profiteers."

Just what the Non-Partisan League proposes to do at the coming primaries is puzzling leaders of both the old parties. The claim is being made and as often repeated that the league proposes to go into the Republican primary and control it. None of its leaders, however, have made that statement openly. They are silent as to their plans. If, it is argued, this is their plan, a few of the Republican party leaders are wondering why the name Non-Partisan was adopted.

The Republicans expect to nominate a full congressional and state ticket.

WAR WORK PRAISED

Industry of Southern Oregon Schools Amazing.

E. F. CARLETON REPORTS

Josephine County Schools Have 30 Junior Red Cross Auxiliaries. Every Medford Pupil Member of Organization.

SALLEM, Or., Feb. 26.—(Special.)—Back from a trip through Southern Oregon, E. F. Carleton, assistant superintendent of public instruction, expressed amazement at the amount of patriotic war work being done in the schools in the cities and towns of that section of the state.

In a statement prepared by Mr. Carleton he has the following to say relative to the work being done:

In Josephine County there are 30 Junior Red Cross auxiliaries, five in Grants Pass and 25 in rural schools, and more will soon be organized. The organization includes a publicity manager, a buying committee which purchases all supplies and one woman for each school to prepare all material for the pupils. In Grants Pass the Junior Red Cross was started last October by Mrs. Mary D. Casby. City Superintendent J. G. Inel arranged to have the children wash one hour each week in the school buildings. The County Superintendent, Mrs. Alice M. Bacon, organized the work in the rural schools. The boys in the manual training departments make articles to be sold at the Red Cross shop.

The service flag of the Grants Pass High School has 67 stars out of an enrollment of 263 students. Three members of the faculty have also enlisted.

In Medford every child enrolled in the public schools is a member of the Junior Red Cross. They have made over 150 comfort pillows, 100 scarfs, 150 wash cloths knit by both boys and girls, 50,000 gum wicks, besides a large number of hospital books. Boys made 150 pairs of wooden knitting needles. Over 40 boys have enlisted from the Medford High School, 15 of whom are in the Aviation Corps.

The high schools at Ashland and the other towns of Jackson County have records for patriotic work equally ample.

In Douglas County 32 school districts, under the leadership of County Superintendent O. C. Brown, made a record 100 per cent each in securing the home signatures on the Hoover pledge cards. In the Roseburg schools the children and teachers have purchased $6833.25 worth of war savings stamps and liberty bonds. In the Army Y. M. C. A. City Superintendent Aubrey G. Smith was assigned for his high school quota the sum of $150. The high school students raised $117.71.

Mr. Carleton arrived in Drain in time to take part in the Washington day exercises at the high school. Part of the program was the dedication of a service flag. The flag has 23 stars.

POLITICS WARMING UP

CLARKE COUNTY PRIMARIES WILL BE HELD IN SEPTEMBER.

George M. Johnson Announces Candidacy to Succeed Sheriff Blessecker. Woman to Step Out.

VANCOUVER, Wash., March 2.—(Special.)—Murmurs of the coming political campaign in Clarke County are already beginning to be heard about the city, and candidates are beginning to announce. The primaries are to be held in September and the election in November.

There are no state officers to be chosen in Washington this year, so the interest will center largely on county offices and Congressmen. There are two County Commissioners, two State Representatives, County Auditor, Clerk, Sheriff, Assessor, Treasurer, Attorney, Superintendent of Schools, Engineer and Coroner, with several justices and constables to be elected.

State Senator E. L. French and County Coroner M. E. Carson were elected for four years at the last election and hold over. County Assessor J. L. Garrett, County Engineer B. L. Dorman and Coroner W. F. Knapp are expected to be candidates for re-election, probably without opposition. All of the other county offices will change, due to the two-term limitation, with the exception of Commissioner, Abe Miller, from the Second District, will be a candidate for re-election for the four-year term. County Commissioner J. P. Kiggins, whose four-year term expires in 1919, is expected to run again for the short term.

There probably will be several candidates for Sheriff, including George M. Johnson, chief deputy under Sheriff Blessecker. Mr. Johnson has been in the Sheriff's office for more than eight years and is thoroughly conversant with the duties.

For Clerk the name of Miss Kathleen Clancy has been mentioned as a likely candidate. Robert E. Brady, City Clerk of Vancouver, who was expected to be a candidate, will not run, and Lee R. Payne, deputy in the Clerk's office, has declined to run. Mrs. Crocker, present Clerk, says she will not be a candidate for county office.

The Auditor's office is still awaiting a candidate. For Treasurer, Ray Matlock, chief deputy under L. G. Conant, present incumbent, will be a candidate. Mr. Matlock is an expert accountant in the Democratic party.

The County Attorney position is still open. There are approximately 35 lawyers in Vancouver, however, and candidates will not be lacking.

All county officials in Clarke County at the present time are Republicans and the county is strongly inclined that way. The Democrats are likely to have a ticket in the field, but it has not yet progressed to the point of local discussion.

STUNT SHOW MARCH 16

O. A. C. GIRLS' ANNUAL COMPETITION DATE SET.

Winning Organization to Receive Fawcett Loving Cup, Donated by College Dean of Women.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, March 2.—(Special.)—The third annual stunt show will be given by the girls of the college March 16. Preparations are being made for the event, which is an important feature of the Spring semester. The funds from the entertainment are to be turned over to the Y. W. C. A. on the campus and the winner of the stunt show will receive the Fawcett cup, a silver loving cup donated by Mary E. Fawcett, dean of women, to be held for one year by the winner. Prominent men of Corvallis will be invited to judge the stunt show.

The sororities, clubs and other women's organizations are working on their individual stunts, which must come up to a set standard each year in order to take part in the competition. Last year Delta Alpha sorority was the victorious organization. All manner of sketches are put on by the girls, including dances, songs, playlets, pantomimes, drills and other exercises. Miss Elizabeth Barker, a senior student, is managing the show and is assisted by members from each organization. Organizations which will compete will be Chi Omega, Alpha Chi Omega, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Omicron Kappa Epsilon, Hall, Delta Alpha, Beta Tau Beta, Kappa Kappa Kappa, Pi Beta Phi, Delta Tau Delta and Y. W. C. A.

The stunt show is a contest in which the girls compose the sketches, design the costumes, scenery and properties.

RED CROSS AIDS WANTED

Directors for Field Work in Military Camps in Demand.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, March 2.—(Special.)—Directors for field work in the Red Cross activities in the military camps throughout the country are wanted immediately. A request from the Intercollegiate Intelligence Bureau for students of university graduates who are qualified for the work has just been received at the president's office. Men above the draft age, college-educated and who will volunteer their services free of charge are wanted particularly.

The university authorities are endeavoring to find men who will enter the service, but since most of Oregon's graduates who would be acceptable have already enlisted, it is difficult to find persons with the proper qualifications. Besides directors, assistants in field work and assistants at the base hospitals in the camps are needed.

PLENTY OF HELP OFFERED

Umatilla County Agent Tells of Farm Census Being Taken.

PENDLETON, Or., March 2.—(Special.)—It is expected that the farm labor situation in Umatilla county will be relieved as a result of the crop and farm labor census being conducted here by County Agent M. S. Shrock, under direction of the Department of Agriculture.

Mr. Shrock says he has more applicants for work than he has places to be filled, but he expects to be able to place a large number of these workmen when the crop and farm labor census is completed, showing where men are mostly needed.

Single men seem to be most in demand. Many of the farms are not prepared to care for more than one or two men with families and, as a result, men of this class find it difficult to obtain permanent places, even where workers are wanted. This is another trouble which the census is expected to remedy.

DOUGLAS PIONEER DIES

WILLIAM G. HILL PASSES AT AGE OF 87 YEARS.

Gold Hunting, Indian Fighting and Stage Driving Among Experiences of Deceased Roseburg Man.

ROSEBURG, Or., March 2.—(Special.)—William G. Hill, one of the most widely known pioneer residents of Douglas County, passed away in this city Sunday evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. C. Brown, wife of County Superintendent of Schools Brown, at the age of 87 years.

The deceased left his home in Missouri in the Fall of 1845, first going to California in quest of gold and also to find his two brothers, Fleming and Ryland. He was successful in finding his two brothers, and they proceeded north into what was then Oregon Territory. The deceased remembered Portland as a mere village of eight or ten houses, and Seattle or less consequence.

Very modest and retiring, the deceased was not given to boasting of his personal achievements, and it was only to his most personal and intimate friends that he recounted his stirring experiences of the pioneer days in this section of the state. As first age approached he lived mostly in the past, and would have been delighted to live over again the exciting days of his mining and stage-coaching days, Indian fights and vivid scenes of the frontier life. His sturdy honesty, quiet disposition and energetic action won for him many friends, and he was cherished up to the day of his death.

The body was taken to Wilbur today, where he had made his home for many years, and will be interred in the family plot near that city. Hon. Bilger Hermann, of this city, delivered a fitting eulogy attesting to the many excellent traits of the sturdy old pioneer.

BENTON TO AID DRIVE

Speakers Will Tour County for Third Liberty Loan.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, March 2.—(Special.)—Benton County is organizing its workers for the third Liberty loan drive. Prominent business men, farmers and members of Oregon Agricultural College will work together on the various committees. A. J. Johnson, Benton County member of the state central liberty loan committee, has divided the county into three districts, Corvallis, Philomath and Monroe being the respective headquarters. A. R. Woodcock, of the First National Bank, is chairman of the executive board for the Corvallis district and E. Ingalls, editor of the Gazette-Times, is secretary. The other members of the committee are J. R. Cooney, Thomas Whitcomb, August W. Fischer and Dean G. W. Peavy, of O. A. C.

Census committees have been appointed to work in the Corvallis wards and the rural school districts to list the population so that a reasonable sum may be specified as the aim of each community. A central committee composed of B. W. Johnson, H. C. Heron and H. D. Moreland will keep the three districts of the county in touch with each other. T. D. Beckwith, of O. A. C., heads the speakers' committee. This committee will go out over the county talking in the interest of the liberty bonds.

A publicity committee composed of C. J. McIntosh and C. L. Lewis, of the college, and J. T. Fries, of Corvallis, will have charge of the news side of the campaign. Work in Corvallis is practically organized.

GRAYS HARBOR PLANS Y. M. C. A. HUT

ABERDEEN, Wash., March 2.—(Special.)—The building of a Y. M. C. A. hut similar to those at Camp Lewis for the use of soldier-loggers stationed on Grays Harbor is being considered by local business men. This would furnish recreation quarters for the men.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Mother, Your Child needs a Harmless Laxative.

If Tongue is Coated, Stomach Sick, or the Child is Cross, Feverish, Constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if the tongue is coated; this is a sure sign that the little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with bile and imperfectly digested food. When listless, pale, feverish, with tainted breath, a cold, or a sore throat, if the child does not eat, sleep or act naturally, or has stomach-ache, indigestion or diarrhea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the waste matter, bile and fermenting food will pass out of the bowels, and you have a healthy, playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "innards" sweet and wholesome.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a bottle of genuine "California Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," made by the California Fig Syrup Co., which has directions for babies, children of all ages, and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle.—Adv.
