

GRAFT TO GET WIRELESS

LIGHTVESSELS IN SEVENTEENTH DISTRICT TO BE EQUIPPED.

Tenders Manzanita and Columbine Already Are Supplied and Work Is Started on Heather.

Installation of wireless outfits on all vessels in the Seventeenth Light-house District is to be carried out by the Navy Department and as soon as the tender Heather is equipped...

The tenders Manzanita and Columbine have wireless now, but the operator aboard, though a recommendation has gone in for one aboard the Manzanita...

With every lightvessel and tender on the Pacific Coast, a wireless outfit, a material advantage is expected to be accorded mariners in obtaining assistance in time of danger...

Up to this time lightvessels have had no way of communicating with shore, other than when tenders called with supplies or through passing vessels...

All of the new types of ships building in the West are to have wireless sets, except certain sailing vessels, and the equipping of the lightvessel fleet will no doubt prove a help to them many times...

WAR STAMPS

THERE are tens of thousands lying in blood-stained quagmire with a daily and nightly deluge of shells around them...

Buy a Thrift Stamp and help that much toward "hanging a can on the Kaiser."

Reports from Clatsop County indicate the results there, though it isn't their season right now, are wide awake in the war-stamp campaign.

P. A. Young, Albany, county chairman for Linn County, was stricken with appendicitis soon after making a war-savings-stamp talk at Crabtree...

When we save and lend to the Government we transfer our spending power to the Nation...

"I'm just a little thrift stamp with $50 on my back, but I'm a sticker."

THE CONFLICT OF LOVE AND FAT

The average man will "jolly" with the stout girl, but she steals glances over her shoulder at that Miss Slender. He would sooner hold the hands of the latter in a fatuous silence than really enjoy himself with the other.

MARK LEVY RESPECTED AND LOVED FOR HIS KINDNESSES

All Portland Mourns Prominent Citizen Whose Good Deeds Make Him Stand Out as a Type by Himself.

BY ADDISON BENNETT.

"MARK LEVY is dead." When that message passed from the lips of hundreds a week ago yesterday it is but the truth to say that few deaths have ever occurred among the business men of Portland that caused more general regret.

Perhaps Rufus B. Ball, who was for 24 years Mr. Levy's bookkeeper, knew more about the everyday life of Mr. Levy than any other person in Portland.

Punctuality is Marked. In all of his business years in Portland he never discharged a single invoice.

Prominent Oregon City Resident Passes Away in This City. FRANK JAGGAR, who had been a prominent resident of Oregon City for a number of years, died in this city Saturday.

ted a good deal. Their home life was close to the ideal. They lived in the same house, 735 Planders street, for 23 years; the first 14 years of the Portland life was spent on Eleventh, near Montgomery. They had few changes in business or home.

Charity Kept Secret. I say he was not a man of great wealth. Why was he not? Ah, there lies the best of all sides of Mark Levy—he gave and gave and kept giving.

In looking over his papers, Mrs. Levy says there are shawls and bundles of notes and I. O. U.s that he never tried to collect, no doubt never expected to get the most of them when he made the loans.
