

Mrs. John H. Burgard, the bride, who is one of the patrons of the Signal Photo.

(Continued from Page 1) Mrs. Burgard returned from the East several days ago. He was accompanied by his father, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ball for some time.

Mrs. Graham Glass and little grandson, Peter, accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Williams and little son, Ralph, Jr., will spend Easter week at the Glass cottage in Gearhart.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brooks, of Bend, arrived in Portland Thursday for a few days' visit at the Benson Hotel.

News of the wedding of Miss Annie McKay Brown, of this city, to Charles W. McIlwain, of New York, reached friends here last week. The ceremony was solemnized in St. Agnes' Church, New York, on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and was read by Rev. E. C. M. Towers. Only the families of the couple attended. Miss Ada Mayall, of St. Paul, being bridesmaid, and Hamilton Burch, Jr., acting as best man. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Milton Brown, of this city, formerly of Denver, and she is a charming girl, and during her residence here was popular in the younger set. She was graduated from the University of Colorado. Mr. McIlwain is manager of the Erie City Iron Works Company and a member of the New York Athletic, Hartman Valley County and Wykeguy Country clubs.

Mr. and Mrs. McIlwain are visiting in Pinehurst, N. C., and they later will make their home in New York City.

Mrs. Alice Benson Beach and children will spend Easter week at the Moore Hotel, Seaside, leaving Tuesday for the beach.

Miss Frances Evelyn Fuller will become the bride of Alfred P. Smith on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride-elect's mother, at 8 o'clock, to be followed by a reception at 8 o'clock.

A number of delightful affairs have marked the last week in honor of this charming maid, among which was the bridge-ten given by Mrs. Clarence Eubanks on Tuesday, the tea for which Mrs. Leroy Fields was hostess on Monday, the knitting tea given Friday by Miss Sara Patrick and the dinner for which Mr. and Mrs. Otto H. Matten were hosts Friday night. Miss Fuller was sponsor for the ship "Westgrove," launched Wednesday at the Columbia River Shipbuilding Company's yards, and she was presented with a handsome gold mesh purse by her fiancé, who is president of the company. She also received and carried during the ceremony, a huge bouquet of Ophelia roses, with a shower of white gardenias.

The wedding will be one of the notable events of the season. Dr. John H. Boyd will read the service, and the bride-elect's mother will give her in marriage. There will be no attendants, and the families of the couple and close friends only will attend the marriage service. Tomorrow Miss Genevieve Butterfield will entertain with a bridge party.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Enos Scott have as their house guest Mrs. Fred Gehard, of New York.

Miss Shanna Cumming will become the bride of Lawrence R. Wheeler on the evening of Tuesday, April 16. The Juice of Lemons! How to Make Skin White and Beautiful. At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart of the most wonderful beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in. Then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, acne, and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothen and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It should naturally help to whiten, soften, freshen and bring out the roses and beauty of any skin. It is truly marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.—Adv.

function will be simple and small, and it will be solemnized at the home of the bride-elect's father, Dr. W. A. Cumming, in Riverside Drive at 8:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Wilber E. Comar left last week to spend Easter with her son, Edmund, in San Francisco. He is attending the University of Santa Clara, and when he returns to school Mrs. Comar will visit in Southern California for a few weeks.

The annual silver tea will be held at the Old People's Home, Thirty-second street and Sandy boulevard, on Easter Monday, from 3 to 5 o'clock. The women of the Trinity Church Guild will have charge of the refreshments. Mrs. Warren Keeler, president of the guild, will receive, with Mrs. P. J. Mann, president of the home, and Mrs. Martin Winch, vice-president. Serving at the tea table will be Mrs. A. A. Morrison, Mrs. Edward Felling, Mrs. I. D. Peters, Mrs. John Macrackon, Mrs. H. R. Powell, Mrs. J. H. Amos, Mrs. J. A. Cunningham and Mrs. J. W. Hill. There will be an interesting musical programme under the direction of Mrs. Warren Keeler, who is in charge of the orchestra. It is hoped many friends will call during the afternoon. Rose City Park center.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Hay, of Seattle, who are en route to their home from California, were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Coulson Hare the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Hare entertained for them with a dinner party Saturday, 22 V. Zoll and Charles H. Norris, of Vancouver, Barracks, also were honor guests. Additional guests were Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Hare and Miss Frances Hare. On Wednesday Mrs. Hare was a luncheon hostess honoring Mrs. J. C. L. Barr, who returned recently from a year's residence at Carmel-by-the-Sea, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kerr were dinner hosts on Saturday evening, entertaining Mrs. J. C. L. Barr, Mrs. Seara, Mr. and Mrs. George Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Talbot and Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Cannon.

Mrs. Frank Kerr and children, Frances and Stuart, are spending Easter week in Hood River at Mrs. Alma Howe's farm.

Mrs. Charles A. Gray, a charming hostess of Salem, who has been in charge of one of the sorority houses at Eugene campus this year, is spending the Easter vacation in Portland at the Portland Hotel.

The Laurelhurst Club has completed arrangements for its annual Easter ball, which will be held Monday night in Cotillon Hall. The regular floor committee of the club will attend to all those who patronize the dance, and as it is open to the public, it is expected that in point of attendance it will eclipse all previous affairs of the kind. Among the college girls who are spending their Easter vacation at their homes in this city is Miss Verna Barker, who is a student at the University of Washington. She has as her house guests two other university girls, Miss Eleanor McCormack, of Seattle, and Miss Cree Cunningham, of Everett. Wash. They are being entertained delightfully by friends here, one affair being an informal supper party Tuesday night with Miss Jeanette Wiggins as hostess, and a tea, Friday, given by Miss Lucile Brown, at Forest Hill, on the Columbia Highway. Her guests were

The Association of Collegiate Alumnae will hold its regular meeting at the University Club Saturday, April 6, at 12:45 o'clock. The Hospitality Club at reservations at the buffet luncheon on Main 692. The programme will be of compelling interest. Mrs. H. B. Torrey, Mrs. H. E. Cramer and Miss Ethel Waterman will report the widespread work accomplished this year by the educational committee and outline the plans to be completed.

This work is one of the main purposes of the National Association and the Portland branch has a large number of its most able and enthusiastic members in every respect. The college women of the programme will be the informal address by Mrs. William D. Carlisle on her experiences in Russia during the revolution. Dr. and Mrs. Carlisle resided in Russia seven years, coming to this country last October. Mrs. Carlisle is a popular and interesting speaker, and her subject is one of intense interest.

The president, Mrs. Forrest Fisher, has called a meeting of the executive committee of the Association at 11:30, April 6, preceding the luncheon. Members and friends of the Collegiate Alumnae will be pleased to know that Colonel Leader's lecture was a success in every respect. The college women and the public thank Colonel Leader most heartily for his assistance and his message. Also William Boone's organ recital of last night preceding the lecture was deeply appreciated and they gratefully acknowledge the assistance of the Army men who escorted the Colonel and those who graciously acted as ushers. The Alumnae thanks the press for its fine co-operation in making the evening a success. The management of the evening was an avoidable failure to present Arthur Fayuy-Cote in his delightful solo work, but Mr. Cote was detained at the last minute. It was a deep disappointment to the management as well as the public.

The management went "over the top," clearing the financial responsibilities to the women's building fund for the State University, of the Collegiate Alumnae, the Oregon Alumnae and the Pan-Hellenic. Twelve hundred dollars of the 12000 pledged three years ago. These organizations has already been invested in liberty bonds and the association of collegial alumnae will invest its $500 pledge in the third liberty loan fund for the duration of the war.

The college women are very grateful to Mrs. Alice Benson Beach and to Mrs. George T. Berlinger for the unlimited time, strength and ability they devoted to the success of this big undertaking. Alpha Phi, local chapter, entertained Wednesday with an informal tea at the residence of Miss Lois Macy in Laurelhurst. The tea table was bedecked attractively with Spring flowers, and it was presided over by Mrs. Gwendolyn Smith Ely, Miss Lola Guthrie, Mrs. S. V. Barker, and Mrs. R. M. Townsend. Misses Katherine Graham, Lola Macy, Lucille McCorkie, Gretchen Colton, and Dorothy Parsons assisted about the rooms. A feature of the afternoon was the exhibition of dancing by Little Lorraine Flatta, and vocal numbers by Miss Esther Banks. An entertainment and dance will be given by the M. A. A. Club in the Auditorium Thursday, April 12. The evening will be devoted to illustration of the work of the members of the club. The programme includes: Aesthetic dancing, National dancing, athletic numbers by the Juniors as well as the teen and women members, numbers by the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Glee Club and the new orchestra. This will be followed by a dance to be given on the main floor of the Auditorium.

Patrons and patronesses are: Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Brun, Mr. and Mrs. Cookingham, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Alma D. Katz, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Lansing Stout, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Swygert, Mr. and Mrs.

of course, I'm going to have a new outfit, Melva. "Not just a suit, either — but the whole layout—even to silk petticoats, blouse, etc. So much more sensible to get everything new at once instead of spending all your money on the suit and then having to wait until it's half worn out before you get the rest. The clothes question has lost its terrors for me since I buy at Cherry's. A little down and few cents each week from your salary does wonders up there. You see for yourself that I am better dressed than I ever was before in my life. They carry men's suits and overcoats, too, and are always open on Saturday nights until 8 o'clock. They are at 328-31 Washington st., Pittcock blk."—Adv.
