

MR. BROWN FILES FOR SECOND TERM

Attorney-General Asks for Re-Election on Record of Law Enforcement.

6 MORE CANDIDATES FILE

F. W. Mulkey, Republican Aspirant for Short Term United States Senator, Says He Will Resign the Day He Qualifies.

Falem, Or., April 6.—(Special.)—Attorney-General George M. Brown today officially announced himself as a candidate for re-election and filed his platform, which is as follows:

I will, during my term of office, pursue my past policy by giving to the state the most efficient and economical government possible. My aim has ever been to protect the public interest, conscientiously, economically and efficiently, according to the motto: "that all power is inherent in the people," and when they have spoken, either directly or through their representatives, it becomes the sworn duty of the Attorney-General to assure that the laws so made were enacted in good faith, are valid and should be enforced.

I am a Republican, and believe in clean, straight-out 100 per cent Americanism, now, hereafter and forever.

Mr. Brown asks that the following words be printed after his name on the official ballot:

"Present Attorney-General, asks second term, continuing economical, efficient law enforcement, securing results."

Long Service Is Recalled.

Mr. Brown also supplemented his platform with a statement culled from Pacific News, a book published by the Portland Press Club, in which it says:

Long before law enforcement had become a political issue in Oregon and elsewhere there was a District Attorney at Roseburg, Or., who was making a remarkable record in enforcing the laws. His name was George M. Brown, and so well known did he and his policy of enforcing the law without fear or favor become that the people of the state last year, by overwhelming vote, promoted him to be Attorney-General.

When he was elected into the higher office Mr. Brown had just completed 13 1/2 consecutive years as District Attorney. Counting three years as a deputy District Attorney before he was elected in 1904 to the District Attorney of the Second Judicial District, comprising Lane, Benton, Douglas, Clatsop, Curry and Lincoln counties, a district as large as any in the state, he had devoted 25 1/2 years of his life to law enforcement work.

Mr. Brown remained District Attorney of the Second District for 11 years. Then it was divided and he became District Attorney of Douglas County, a position which he held for one year and one-half years later the County Attorney system went into effect and he became District Attorney of Douglas, his home county.

Mulkey Files Declaration.

F. W. Mulkey, Republican, candidate for short-term United States Senator, says he will resign if he qualifies to allow the man elected to the long term to be appointed in his place. He says in his platform:

Design the day I qualify in favor of the Senator elected for the long term. Only by an election for the short term can the president be established in our government. We people shall permanently fill a vacancy in the Senate after the Governor has made an appointment. I favor the election of a Senator to fill a vacancy in the Senate and to establish a law that the Governor can only make a temporary appointment.

S. E. Huston, of Portland, in filing his declaration as Republican candidate for the long term in the United States Senate, says in his platform:

Give my undivided support to the National Administration in a vigorous prosecution of the war, and in reconstruction measures. I will favor legislation to aid shipbuilding in Oregon, to make the basic eight-hour day National in scope, to open Alaskan markets, to assure the beneficial use of idle water power and to develop ocean commerce. I will favor Federal aid for road construction and broadening of the rural credit law, improvement of the Columbia and Willamette rivers, and the better use and care of the state, National prohibition and universal suffrage.

J. R. Stewart Asks Re-election.

James E. Stewart, Republican of Forest Hill, who wishes to be returned to the Legislature from Gilliam, Sherman and Wheeler as a Representative, says:

Resolutely guard against extravagant expenditures of state money, will, at all times, work for such legislation as will develop the state at large, and will best assist the Government in the present world war.

Elmer E. Pettit, of Portland, Republican, candidate for Multnomah County, has the following platform:

Support the National Government and work for legislation for the successful prosecution of the war; oppose the repeal or relaxation of the labor or dam laws; work for consolidation of the governments of Multnomah County, city of Portland, city of Astoria and city of Gresham; support the National prohibition amendment; endeavor to secure legislation restoring to municipal corporations the right to enforce their contracts and franchise agreements and control the rates charged by public utility corporations within such municipalities; and endeavor to amend the law so as to make up jury lists from the roll of registered voters instead of tax roll.

Portland Men Seek Office.

Paul M. Long, Republican of Portland, also a candidate for Representative, says:

Support the Government in the prosecution of the war to a victorious conclusion. Favor enactment of laws that will be of the greatest benefit to the cause of democracy and which will protect the rights and property of the families of and those who are fighting for our country. Favor legislation which will develop our resources and make Portland a great harbor. Favor enactment of laws which will better conditions of the laboring classes and extend the eight-hour day to all industries, except agriculture.

George W. Stapleton, who seeks re-election to Department No. 4, Circuit Judge, in Multnomah County, says he will perform his full duty as judge.

Charles T. Sweeney, who aspires to the Senatorship in the Legislature from Jackson County, says in his slogan he favors economical, efficient and direct war legislation. He has no platform.

EUGENE LEAGUE IS AFTER ENEMY ALIENS

Governor and Secretary of State Are Held to Have Made Inconsistent Statements.

FORMER WORD RECALLED

University of Oregon Upholds Professor Swartz, Instructor in German, and Passes Resolution Favorable to Him.

EUGENE, Or., April 6.—(Special.)—The Patriotic League of Eugene today made public a report upon its activities to secure the dismissal of alien enemies from state positions. The statement is made by a committee representing the 120 members of the league and quotes a letter from Governor James Withycombe as follows:

"This is to acknowledge and thank you for the communication signed by yourself and other representative citizens of Lane County, in which you express objection to the employment of alien enemies in positions of trust and responsibility. I assure you that I am heartily in sympathy with the sentiment expressed in your petition and that I share with you the belief that this is a time to guard our institutions most zealously."

Board of Control Agrees.

The statement also quotes a letter from the State Board of Control, one paragraph of which is as follows:

"The board does not know of any persons in the employ of the state institutions governed by this board who would come under the purview of your petition. If anything of that nature should arise in the future, our body no doubt will take proper action to eliminate such employes."

Quite in contrast to the first game of the series, in which the Oregon girls were victorious by a wide margin, the game this afternoon was hard fought from start to finish. The Oregon Agricultural College girls took the lead toward the end of the first half, after the teams had been battling at a four-to-four tie for several minutes. Both teams showed strong team work, but the visitors had an edge in their ability to convert baskets from almost any angle. It was the work of the visiting forwards, Irene Byre and Gladys Johnson, that clinched the game for the Orange and Black.

At the end of the first half the Aggie co-eds led 16 to 6 and Peggy Crim went in at guard for Oregon. Throughout the second period the university sextet outplayed their opponents but were unable to overcome the big lead piled up against them.

Miss Catherine Winslow, of the university, and Miss Laura Campbell, of Corvallis, alternated as referee and umpire for the game.

Interviews Are Inconsistent.

FALLEN, Or., March 4.—(Special.)—As long as alien enemies now employed at state institutions "do the work of their mouths shut" they will not be discharged. This was the ultimatum of the State Board of Control today after a petition was received from a committee of Eugene citizens asking that all alien enemies employed by the state be discharged.

"I am glad to give faithful service to the state and keep my mouth closed. I think it is right that if anything of that nature should be brought to the attention of the University of Oregon and the State Board of Control, there is no longer any reason why we should treat these matters confidentially."

Letters to and replies from the University of Oregon, Agricultural College and the Oregon Normal School, are quoted.

The Oregon Normal school replied that there were no alien enemies connected with that institution and that it was "needless to say that such persons would not be permitted to remain."

The Oregon Agricultural College replied that a canvass indicated all members of the faculty were citizens of the United States.

Board of Regents Quoted.

The statement calls attention to the fact that Professor Swartz, an alien enemy, was employed as an instructor in German at the university, and continuing: "The University of Oregon replied by sending us a resolution which the board of regents passed. The effect of this resolution is that the board of regents recognizes the right of members of the faculty and other employes of the university to have their private opinions on political and educational questions concerning the present war and that the board of regents disclaims any intention to interfere with such private opinion, but that they do, however, deprecate any expression of opinion or any statement on the part of any such instructor or employe indicating disloyalty to the United States or tending to embarrass it in enforcing any of its laws or policies looking to the prosecution of the war."

The resolutions adopted by the regents are quoted in full.

Concluding the report states: "Notwithstanding the fact that the University of Oregon recognizes the ASTORIA, Or., April 6.—(Special.)—One result of the fine weather of the last few days has been that a number of trollers have been operating off the mouth of the river. They have met with fairly good success. Owing to the high prices of twine with which to construct nets, it is expected that the number of trollers this season will be larger than ever before in the history of fishing on the Columbia.

Numerous dead remained before our lines."

"Further to the north our batteries dispersed enemy concentrations in the wood south of Hangard and in the region of Demuin."

"In the Noyon sector, after a bombardment with heavy shells, the Germans attempted to wrest from us our gains north of Mount Renaud, but in a very spirited engagement our troops held their advantage and maintained the conquered ground."

"On the left bank of the Oise the day was marked by a series of violent attacks launched by the Germans on the Abbecourt front, south of Chauny and at Baglis. Our troops resisted on the lines of the advanced posts, and after having inflicted heavy losses on the enemy, proceeded to occupy, in conformity with orders received, prepared positions."

"In the Argonne in the region of St. Mihiel and Ban De Sapt, considerable activity was displayed by both armies."

German.

BERLIN, via London, April 6.—(British Admiralty per Wireless Press.)—The official statement issued by the War Office says:

"Western theater—Local enterprises near Bucquoy and south of Hebuterne resulted in the gaining in some prisoners and numerous machine guns. An English thrust against Pusieux failed."

"On the western bank of the Amre we extended our bridgehead positions by means of an attack. On both sides of Albert and south of the Somme there were lively engagements and minor successful infantry fights."

"Railway establishments in Amiens were shelled. French attacks on wide sectors between Moroull and Montdidier, made to wrest from us gains that we secured on Thursday, broke down with heaviest losses to the French. Montdidier was subjected to French fire."

"There was lively artillery firing before Verdun which increased during the day."

"In the other theaters of the war there is nothing new."

O. A. C. CO-EDS VICTORS

OREGON SEXTET LOSES SECOND GAME OF SERIES.

Orange and Black Representatives Get Revenge for Defeat Suffered Early in Season.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, April 6.—(Special.)—The girls basketball team of the Oregon Agricultural College evened up the two game series with the varsity women's team by making a 20-to-17 victory on the Hayward Hall floor this afternoon.

Quite in contrast to the first game of the series, in which the Oregon girls were victorious by a wide margin, the game this afternoon was hard fought from start to finish. The Oregon Agricultural College girls took the lead toward the end of the first half, after the teams had been battling at a four-to-four tie for several minutes. Both teams showed strong team work, but the visitors had an edge in their ability to convert baskets from almost any angle. It was the work of the visiting forwards, Irene Byre and Gladys Johnson, that clinched the game for the Orange and Black.

SPANISH STUDENTS TO AID

German Propaganda to Be Combatred by Letters to Foreign Cities.

In an effort to stamp out German propaganda, which has been and still is being incidentally and persistently spread in the larger cities of Spain, the advanced students of the Washington High School Spanish classes are planning to write letters in Spanish to the students of the high schools in several Spanish cities.

The writing of these letters is under the direction of the Spanish teacher, Edward C. Garcia, and they will tell of the friendly feeling which the United States has for Spain, and of the various ways in which the United States may be of assistance. The idea is an original one and should prove to be of real benefit both to the students of this city and to the students of the Spanish high schools.

A Liberty Bond Is Your Best Bet

When this war is over there is going to be a world-wide re-adjustment of values. No man knows what is going to happen. There is one thing sure: a United States Bond will be worth then what you paid for it.

A Liberty Bond

is a United States Bond. All bonds pay interest. Until America entered the war the highest interest paid on a United States bond was 2 per cent. The only difference between those old bonds and the Liberty Bond is that the Liberty Bond pays twice as much interest.

Whatever the economic readjustment after the war, Liberty Bonds will continue paying you double interest. The more Liberty Bonds you own the better able you will be to meet all necessary adjustments.

Put your savings in a bond. Every bank has promised Uncle Sam to help you buy a bond.
