"SILVER ON PURPLE," CRITIC SAYS OF ELMAN'S MAGIC TONE

Great Russian Violinist, Who Comes to Heilig Wednesday, Accorded Tremendous Ovation in Cities of California.

MISCHA ELMAN.

MOST extraordinary ovations are being given Mischa Elman, the Russian violinist who comes, direction of Steers & Coman, to the Heilig Wednesday night for a recital. His tour carries him through California on his way to Portland and leading California daily newspapers give him high praise. Elman played there last Sunday and gives another recital today.

The San Francisco Examiner says: "Elman's tone effect is silver on purple, which is a new sound, silver upon purple, was at its flawless best yesterday afternoon at his first recital of the season at the Columbia Theater. Perfect artistry has its moments of weariness and lapse, but there

REED TO SERVE NATION

COLLEGE SUMMER SCHOOL WILL OPEN ON JUNE 16.

Besides Reconstruction Training, School Will Provide Courses in Educational Theory for Teachers.

A special course of three months' summer school will begin at Reed College June 16, under the direction of the Surgeon-General of the United States. The course of instruction for reconstruction aides will be given in only six schools in the United States during the summer. Of these Reed College is the only institution on the Pacific Coast giving this course. The other schools are: American School of Physical Education, Boston School of Physical Education and the Pose Normal School of Gymnastics, in Boston; New Haven Normal School of Gymnastics, at New Haven, Conn., and the Normal School of Physical Education, at Battle Creek, Mich.

In order to get the war work started as early as possible this summer arrangements have been made to hold commencement day on June 1. This arrangement will enable the men of the school to enter into various war service for the summer.

Besides giving the reconstruction training, the summer school will provide courses in educational theory for teachers and in physical education for directors of athletics and playgrounds. The entire summer session will be divided into two periods of six weeks each, either one of which may be taken without the other by teachers, college students or other people interested in these courses.

An increase will be made in the teaching staff for the summer school, particularly in the physical education department. Miss Ina Estelle Gillings, who is director of physical education at the University of Montana, has been added to the staff for the summer session. She will give instruction in medical gymnastics, massage, applied anatomy and kinesiology.

Regular college credit equivalent to the credit of a corresponding college period will be given for the summer work of reconstruction aides and other courses.

MOLALLA PATRIOTS MEET

One Thousand People Hear Stirring War Talks by Veteran Soldiers.

MOLALLA, Or., April 20.—(Special.)—A large and patriotic meeting was held in the Molalla Band Auditorium on Tuesday night. One thousand people were in attendance. Addresses were made by Sergeant William Christian, who was wounded twice in the early part of the war.

Private Burke, who was captured in the first gas attack made on the Canadian front, told of his experiences in the German prison and how he escaped into Holland and thence to England. George C. Brownell, of Oregon City, gave a stirring patriotic talk. He pleaded for a whole-souled, 100 per cent Americanism. Several liberty bonds were sold after the meeting. Gordon J. Taylor, editor of the Molalla Pioneer, was chairman of the evening.

SEEK PATRIOTIC SONGS

"BUCK" DUNN WILL INTERPRET THEM AT STRAND THEATER.

Productions of Several Portland Residents Have Already Been Submitted to Management.

If you have a new patriotic song you wish to present to the public, take it to Manager Armstrong, of the Strand Theater. He's going to introduce a patriotic song feature on his programme commencing next Wednesday, engaging "Buck" Dunn, well-known baritone, to interpret the very latest in Yankee airs. Mr. Dunn will sing at least two songs each performance during his engagement, including a number illustrated by motion pictures. Melvin G. Winstock's third liberty loan song, "The Men Behind the Men Across the Sea," which made such a hit in Seattle, will be one of the first numbers, while "Let's Go," written by Mears, the Oregon boy in France, is another.

Already half a dozen songs written by Portland people have been submitted to the Strand and they will be sung in their turn by Mr. Dunn, who will change his repertoire each night if necessary to keep pace with contributions.

HIP TO USE NEW ORGAN

Orchestra Instrument Combines All Combinations in One Big Unit.

The Hippodrome this afternoon will utilize its new big Wurlitzer-Hopkins instrument to interpret the Ethel Clayton photoplay feature on the programme.

This instrument is a great organ in addition to a full orchestra of musical instruments and orchestra traps; such as bells, chimes, galloping horses, crashing glass, etc. The combinations of musical instruments possible range into the hundreds and is greater under the touch of the one man operating the orchestra than by a leader of a great orchestra.

Regular college credit equivalent to the credit of a corresponding college period will be given for the summer work of reconstruction aides and other courses.

LEAVE GRANTED TEACHER

Monmouth Instructor to Attend Oregon and Columbia Universities.

OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, Monmouth, April 20.—(Special.)—Leave of absence has been granted Professor M. Pittman, head of the department of rural education at this institution. Professor Pittman will pursue studies at the University of Oregon for one-half year and at Columbia University, New York, for one year. Professor Pittman has been active in the improvement of rural schools throughout the state and has studied the rural systems of Oregon carefully for four years with a view of introducing means of making the lives of country boys and girls more intellectual.

E. S. Evenden, head of the department of psychology, now studying at Columbia University, received one more year to complete his thesis before returning to Monmouth.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our friends, and especially the Engineers' Union, No. 87, for the many flowers and sympathy extended to us in the death of our husband and father. MRS. MARY E. SMITH AND FAMILY.
