President's Address in Which He Champions Russia Wins High Praise.

APPROVAL SET ON WAR AIMS

Arthur Henderson Pays High Tribute to Moral Idealism Brought to Bear by Nation's Executive.

LONDON, May 25.—President Wilson's speech in New York last Saturday is welcomed warmly by Arthur Henderson, leader of the Labor party and former member of the War Cabinet.

"I welcome the President's speech," said Mr. Henderson in an interview with Reuters' Limited, mainly for two reasons, because it reaffirms in ringing words democracy's resolute refusal to desert Russia in her hour of agony and humiliation, and because it proclaims the doctrine to which organized workmen themselves stand pledged that peace when it comes must conform to the principles of international right and essential justice.

"Peace Issue Elevated." President Wilson's greatest contribution to the effort of the free nations in this world struggle is the moral idealism he has brought to bear upon the problem of world peace.

"He has refused to treat the questions of peace as a matter for bargaining between belligerents or as a question of territorial compromises and concessions by one side or the other.

"President Wilson rightly regards the whole situation in the east as a test of Germany's sincerity in talking peace. If there is any possibility that the allies might be persuaded to accept a cynical peace based upon concessions to Germany in the west at the price of leaving Germany a free hand in the east; the President's firm repudiation of any such bargain will, I hope, finally dispose of it.

"Workers Look to President. We of the working class movement in allied countries look to the President of the United States to maintain this high standard of statesmanship and to bring our governments to see the issues of this struggle with his clear vision and to defend the cause of international freedom with the same exalted enthusiasm and in the same disinterested spirit."

TUBERCULOSIS IS TOPIC DOCTORS ADVISE ESTABLISHMENT OF HOSPITAL BY COUNTY.

United States Government Hospital for Consumptive Soldiers and Sailors Is Requested.

War-time conditions indisputably aggravate and extend the menace of tuberculosis. The truth of this conclusion was emphasized at the section meeting on sanitation and medicine, held at 2 P. M. Thursday as one of the activities of Oregon's first war conference.

"Fighting tuberculosis as a war measure" was the theme of the conference, in which health officers, physicians and laymen took an active part.

Adoption of a resolution urging the United States Government to establish one of the seven proposed hospitals for the cure of tubercular soldiers and sailors somewhere in the Pacific Northwest was a unanimous action of the conference.

In another resolution the assembly asked the city and county to establish a tuberculosis hospital for tubercular men from their communities.

Dr. E. A. Pierce spoke on "The State's Responsibility in Handling Tuberculosis." F. P. Fossie talked of cooperation of the Red Cross in this matter. "Tuberculosis as a War Problem" was the theme treated by Dr. Ray W. Matson. Dr. A. C. Seelye, of the State Board of Health, presided at the session, and many visiting physicians participated in the discussions.

Cocoon Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain milled coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless) is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

troops were mustered into Federal service. But Edwin W. Caswell would not be denied. His heart had been set on getting into this fight against the Hun, and it hurt him, and badly, too, when the doctor told him that he did not meet with the physical requirements because of his eyes.

But young Caswell took counsel with himself and hid himself off to a nearby logging camp. He wanted to get out in the open, thinking perhaps the heavy outdoor work would put him in the required physical condition. In the meantime his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Caswell, 731 Overton street, had come to California for the winter, thinking their son would remain at the logging camp.

On a morning last January his parents received this telegram from him: "Am leaving today for Victoria to join Canadian army."

And today 20-year-old Edwin Wilson Caswell is Private Caswell, 68th Canadian Field Artillery, stationed at Vancouver, B. C. He expects to go overseas shortly.

Although he took them by surprise, his parents are mighty proud of their son. But the young man comes by his desire to fight for the flag honestly and naturally. He is of Revolutionary stock, and his ancestors have fought for this country since the days of the Revolution.

KAISER OF AMERICA DREAM-OF I. W. W.

Declarations in Favor of Hun Ruler for United States Made in Milwaukee.

KILLING OFFICERS URGED

One German Orator in Wisconsin City Quoted as Saying United States Army Could Be "Put on Bum."

CHICAGO, May 25.—Declarations in favor of the German Kaiser as a ruler in America as compared with the present administration were made at the meeting place of the Industrial Workers of the World at Milwaukee, Wis., after the final break with Germany, according to testimony today at the trial for seditious conspiracy to 112 I. W. W. leaders.

Joseph Burdall, who said he was forced to join the I. W. W. to safeguard his life, testified as a Government witness that G. J. Bourg, a defendant, and other Germans who gathered at the Milwaukee hall, declared I. W. W.'s "know their duty" that they were drafted into the Army they would shoot, but they would choose their marks carefully.

"Our bullets will not strike down the Germans, but will pierce the necks of the American officers," Burdall testified Bourg shouted in an impassioned anti-war speech in which he urged overthrow of the American government.

Subsequent Campaigns Favored. "We can put the American Army on the bum as quickly as we can wreck a construction company plant," said Bourg, adding that the members of the organization should begin "burning grain fields, destroying food production plants and wrecking munitions factories."

"If the German strike at the East, we should be ready to strike in the West" and bring about overthrow of the Government, Bourg was quoted as saying.

Burdall testified that Bourg, whose exploits as an organizer in the harvest fields last year resulted in his being branded with the letters "I. W. W." on his body by a mob, was the most ardent of the Milwaukee speakers in his revolutionary pronouncements.

"We will be doing a good thing for civilization if we follow out the policy of fighting the masters who are calling our men to arms," Bourg was quoted as saying.

Hi-Jack Tactics Exposed. Under questioning by Frank K. Nebecker, chief prosecutor, Burdall explained the hi-jack, or strong-arm tactics, of the organization, told how farm machinery was wrecked faster than landowners could make repairs, and at times when loss of a day meant a big financial loss, related specific instances of property destruction.

The witness told of being thrown from a rapidly moving train by an I. W. W. brakeman because he carried an American Federation of Labor card instead of an I. W. W. card. Subsequent was practiced in the Montana and Washington farming districts to the extent of pushing horses in wells and grinding the teeth from threshing machines.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 25.—Senator Borah, of Idaho, and Senator Jones, of Washington, in collaboration today prepared a substitute for the Randall "dry" amendment to the new food bill, which makes it a criminal offense to use grains or fruits in the manufacture of wines or intoxicating liquor during the period of the war.

The amendment adopted by the House is recalled as a slur upon the President, and was certain to be defeated in the Senate.

The Borah amendment, offered by the latter senator, was referred to the Agriculture Committee, and if not incorporated in the bill when it is reported to the Senate, will be offered as a separate amendment on the Senate floor.

A canvass of the Senate made today convinces Senator Borah that this or some similar amendment will be adopted.

SHORTER WEEK IS SOUGHT Marshfield Restaurant Workers Would Labor Only Six Days.

MARSHFIELD, Or., May 25.—(Special.)—Restaurant workers, of whom there are about 100 in this city, are perfecting plans for the organization of a union and have approached the owners already with regard to their attitude toward a six-day week instead of a seven-day week, which is customary with all places, with one or two exceptions. Clerks in stores a short time ago effectively asked for shorter hours, and the general trend is toward organization.

The restaurants are feeding hundreds of workmen who have no homes, and a six-day week will be almost an impossibility with the restaurant owners, and the move may eventually lead to Government interference.
