

GERMANY INVADIED BY BOLSHIEVISM

Kaiser's Soldiers Back From Russia Spread Doctrines of Revolution.

REPRESSIVE ACTION TAKEN

Berlin Believed to Be Preparing for Peace Offensive—Allies Alert for Intrigue—Crown Prince's Army Exhausted.

LONDON, June 15.—German soldiers returning from Russia are imbued with Bolshevik ideas and are everywhere circulating revolutionary pamphlets. General von Ruisberg said in the German Reichstag during the Friday sitting, according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company, for this reason he said, strict discipline was necessary in the army. The sitting was marked by sharp attacks by various members on the military authorities.

General von Stein, the Prussian War Minister, made a violent attack upon Herr Mueller for his revelation of conditions in the army.

PARIS, June 15.—(Havas Agency.)—Berlin has not abandoned hope of obtaining a "good" German peace soon. The press is following with curiosity and interest the preparations for a peace offensive, which seem to be clearly outlined and about to pass from the newspaper domain into official circles.

The Petit Journal, voicing the unanimous opinion of its colleagues, declares that German intrigue will fail before the unshakable will of the allies. The only possible result of them is a peace of justice and civilization, it says.

New Attacks Expected. The lull along the front of the German offensive is considered merely a period of "good" German peace soon.
