Agricultural College, was made known. In August Miss Smith will become the bride of Dale Perry, of St. Helena. The bride-elect has taken an active interest in the social affairs at college and has a wide circle of friends among faculty and students. She formerly lived in New York. Mr. Perry is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity and at present is connected with one of the large ship-building plants.

Another Chi Omega whose engagement was made known this past week was Miss Gladys Hollingsworth, who is betrothed to John Kennedy. Both are students of the University of Oregon and plan to complete their course of study and so no plans are made for the wedding. Miss Hollingsworth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hollingsworth, of this city. Mr. Kennedy is the son of J. W. Kennedy. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity and popular in college circles.

Yet another engagement is that of Miss Gladys Smith, of Portland, to William Henry Steers, of The Dalles. Miss Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Smith. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority and is prominently identified with college social affairs. Mr. Steers is a leader in college athletics and is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

The college girls are busy helping in the various patriotic movements this summer. Several of the sorority girls have given their services in doing clerical or stenographic work or in the Kanning Kitchen. They will continue this work, with occasional informal parties.

Mrs. Cohn Livingstone (Bernice Gaunt), who was married two weeks ago in Tacoma, visited Portland one day early in the week, and then went to Astoria for a brief stay before going to San Francisco.

Miss Helen Barber will leave tomorrow for Rochester, N. Y., where her marriage to Paul Matteson, of Providence, R. I., will be solemnized in the home of the bride's aunt, Miss Adella Barton. Miss Barber expects to arrive of the evening. The Southern Ladies will be there to entertain the boys from the Vancouver Barracks, who will be invited. A special invitation will be extended to the boys from Dixie Land. All soldiers in the United States service will be guests and admitted free. The proceeds from the entertainment will be used for the upkeep of a hospital bed in France during the war.

A marriage that came as a surprise to many of the friends of the bride was that of Miss Jeune Laura Fluke, granddaughter of Mrs. A. L. Beard, and Captain Cyrus Higginson Searcy, of the 14th Infantry, United States Army. The ceremony took place July 4 at St. Luke's chapel, Vancouver, Wash. The bride formerly lived in Portland, where she has many friends. Recently she has made her home with her grandmother near Vancouver. She was graduated from Lincoln High School and attended the University of California, where she became a member of Gamma Phi Beta. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. J. T. Searcy, of Waco, Tex. Captain Searcy and his bride will be at home at Fort George Wright, Wash.

Miss Mamie Helen Flynn has provided some artistic programmes this past week for the young men training at Benson Polytechnic School. Through the efforts of the Y. W. C. A. the boys are having entertainment and recreation in addition to the hard work and study. There are over 300 men at the school. Elaine Ackley is secretary for the Y. M. C. A. at this camp.

Dr. John Wallace McCollum, who was recently commissioned a First Lieutenant in the Medical Reserve Corps, has been assigned to active service with the First Infantry, Camp Lewis.

The wedding of Miss Ethel Chase and William Gibson Clark, of Minneapolis, took place last night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Oscar Chase. The bride wore a white net gown and carried a bouquet of roses. W. O. Chase, Jr., was best man and Miss Gladys Morgan was maid of honor. Rev. Oswald W. Taylor, of Grace Memorial Episcopal Church, officiated. The couple will live in Minneapolis. They will tour Yellowstone National Park for their wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hunt, of Spokane, are among the prominent visitors in the city. They are at the Multnomah Hotel. Mr. Hunt is the secretary.

treasurer of the firm of Grant Smith & Co., and is a frequent visitor to Portland. Mrs. Hunt is a charming matron for whom social honors have been planned since she came to this city. A large party was made up in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hunt for over the Fourth, the company going to Arrawannah Hotel, Mount Hood. Dinners and supper dances were given during the week, with Mr. and Mrs. Hunt as the honor guests.

A lovely bride of Tuesday night was Miss Hazel Keck, whose wedding to John W. Wells took place at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Simpson, 303 Fourteenth street. The Rev. E. H. McCollister, dean of St. Stephen's Pro-Cathedral, officiated in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple. The bride made an attractive picture in her robe of ivory white crepe meteor. Her gown and veil were trimmed with rose point lace and the veil depended from a coronet of orange blossoms. The bouquet was of orchids and bride roses arranged in a graceful shower and tied with ribbons and tulle. Mrs. Hugh Hiberstein, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She wore white chamoisee and carried Ophelia roses. Mr. Simpson gave the bride in marriage.

The bride is a graduate of the Lincoln High School and the State Normal School. She is popular among her many friends. The bridegroom is a young business man of La Grande. Mr. and Mrs. Wells will live in La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Campbell have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Alice Cecilia Campbell, to Dr. Paul F. Lacy, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. N. Lacy. The ceremony took place in Astoria when the bride was visiting relatives there.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Calk, after an absence of eight months spent in California and Eastern cities, have returned. (Continued on Page 4.)
