

NEW GRIFFITH PRODUCTION IS PRODUCED IN SOUND OF GUNS

"Hearts of the World," Starring Lillian and Dorothy Gish, Will Have Run of Two Weeks Beginning July 29 at Heilig Theater.

Dorothy Gish and Robert Harron in "Hearts of the World," At Heilig, July 29.

UNDER actual fire in the British and French trenches at intervals covering a period of more than 18 months, was the nerve-racking experience of Lillian and Dorothy Gish, noted motion picture stars, who, with their mother, accompanied David Wark Griffith to the front-line trenches of France to secure the important scenes for "Hearts of the World," the new Griffith masterpiece to be seen at the Heilig Theater for two weeks, beginning July 29.

The Gish family, with Robert Harron, Josephine Crowell, Kate Bruce, Master Ben Alexander (6 years of age), Robert Anderson, George Fawcett, George A. Siegmann and others who appear in "Hearts of the World," were under bombardment on three separate occasions, and in one instance the attack lasted for four hours. It is interesting also to learn that Mr. Griffith was the first American to enter the front-line trenches. This was, of course, before the United States entered the world war.

For 18 months these players were with Mr. Griffith, and the stories of suffering are by all odds the most interesting ever told by players for the motion picture camera. As a result of their experience the two Gish girls were for a long time almost nervous wrecks, while their mother suffered from hysteria for many weeks after her return to the United States.

And yet the very surprise of the Griffith production is the fact that it is not, in any sense, a war picture. To the contrary, Mr. Griffith himself describes his work as "a love story of the war."

It is further stated that for more than 40 minutes after the story begins one sees only a picture of peaceful, happy, country life, such as one might have found in a small French village before the war broke out. The war that comes after merely is used as a background for the drama.

Now that the Gish family and the other players are back in the United States and resting in their comfortable home in California, they laughingly tell how Lillian lost 18 pounds as the result of her experiences near the firing line, and how Mrs. Gish was just 30 pounds lighter when she stepped from the gang plank and planted her foot once more on American soil. Miss Dorothy Gish did not lose any weight, but it is said by those who accompanied her that the young lady invariably went into hysteria the moment the first gun was fired and continued crying until the bombardment was over.

OAKS BILL IS SCREAM

"THE RED WIDOW" CHOCK FULL OF HIGH-CLASS COMEDY.

Maudie Smith, Favorite With Portland Audiences, Will Be Seen in Leading Role—Man Is Beated.

A vivacious, flirtatious widow will be the headliner at the Oaks Amusement Park for a week, commencing with two performances tomorrow. For reasons disclosed soon after the curtain rises, she is called "The Red Widow," and she so dominates the story in her subtle way of wooing and winning men's hearts and then casting them aside that the comedy is named after her.

What happens to two certain reputable doctors who are "vamped" by the widow before they know it is replete with laughs in situations. Maudie Smith, whose pleasant ways and entertaining dancing have won her many friends among Oaks patrons, is cast for the part of the gray widow.

The chorus has been increased in size for "The Red Widow," and frequent changes of costumes, catchy songs and new dance acts permit the girls to put unusual pep in their work.

Ed Armstrong, composer of "Portland, City of Roses," and "Go, But I Like the Climate," has written another song called "Bubbles," which Miss Maudie Smith will sing in "The Red Widow."

Miss Flora Sims, whose rich soprano voice has won for her many admirers, will sing "Just a Baby's Prayer at Twilight."

Two performances of "The Red Widow" will be given tomorrow and every day thereafter for the rest of the week.

Ed Armstrong, Head of Armstrong Folly Company, at Oaks.

LONG SERVICE RECALLED

George Miller Station Agent at Aurora for Nearly 34 Years.

AURORA, Or., July 11.—(Special)—Station Agent George Miller recalls Tuesday as the forty-first anniversary of his arrival in Aurora. Nearly 34 years he has been in the employ of the Southern Pacific. The railroad terminal at the time he came here was at Roseburg. The engines and equipment of those days were a far cry from the equipment of today.

Mr. Miller has four sons in the military service of the United States, three in France and one, Lieutenant James A. Miller, at Kelly Field, South San Antonio, Texas—all volunteers.

Corporal Alvin Miller, of Headquarters Company, 162d Infantry, formerly with the Southern Pacific at Portland, is at the front in France, and two other sons, George and Andrew Miller, are in Base Hospital No. 46, now in France. These are twins, high school ballplayers, well known at home as the "mulligans."

All are 100 per cent Americans, "chips from the old block"—always ready to sacrifice something for country's sake.

DISEASE TO BE FOUGHT

U. S. AND STATE GOVERNMENTS WILL CO-OPERATE.

Educational Work Will Be Carried On Among Soldiers and Civilian Population.

Passage of the Federal bill for an appropriation of $4,000,000 for educational work among civilians and soldiers as regards venereal disease is being hailed with delight by workers here in the Oregon Social Hygiene Society, who see in the action a justification of the campaign which has been carried on in this state for the last five or six years.

The measure, which was made a part of the military appropriations bill, provides for an active educational campaign over the entire country and for suppression of vice centers and the social disease by means of quarantine and the closing up of infection sources.

Part of the money the law makes provision for will be matched dollar for dollar with funds used for similar purposes by the states.

"This is the first recognition of the existence of the social evil that has ever been given by the National Government," said A. F. Fiegel, of the Oregon Social Hygiene Society.

"Oregon's record as shown by her draft troops has been above the average, but we are trying to better it. To that end we have speakers now covering every county of the state in an effort further to educate the draft men in this respect."

Cottage Grove Plant Grows.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., July 13.—(Special).—The Cottage Grove Electric Company has nearly completed its extensive improvements and soon will be in a position to deliver twice the amount of power it has been able to deliver. A 600-horsepower engine has been installed and a modern generator of the same capacity as its former generator has been added. It will not be necessary to use both plants all the time, and the additional plant will at present be used only to assist in carrying the peak load. When the Brown Lumber Company commences using "juice" for its planer machinery it may be necessary to use both plants during the time the planer is operating.

McMONAGLE TO ENLIST

OREGONIAN PHOTOGRAPHER WILL JOIN U. S. SIGNAL CORPS.

Departure for Sackett Harbor, New York, for Six Weeks' Training Will Be Tuesday This Week.

"I'm going to bring back a close-up of the Kaiser, and I hope it'll be with a bayonet through his throat," declared Clyde V. McMonagle, staff photographer of The Oregonian, after receiving Government orders authorizing him to enlist in the Signal Corps.

Mr. McMonagle, who has been staff photographer on The Oregonian for 12 years and is well known among newspaper men of the West, will leave Tuesday for Sackett Harbor, N. Y., from where he will be assigned to the photographic division for training. Although he enlists as a private, it will probably be only a matter of a few weeks until a commission will be granted him. After the six weeks' training course is completed he will embark for France to do duty as a news photographer.

Mr. McMonagle applied for entrance into the photographic branch of the service some time ago and was advised in a letter from Lieutenant Frank L. Blood, aide to Major-General Kenly,

VERSE TELLS WAR STORY

Life Preservers Given Oregon Nurses by New York Elks.

The nurses of Oregon Hospital Unit No. 46, while in New York City awaiting embarkation for overseas, composed a clever verse, suitable to the tune of "Joan of Arc." The verse is reproduced below:

Oregon, Oregon,
As they blew from your pines on the winds,
Comes the whisper, "Fight and die for me,
Give your strength and life for Liberty";
Oregon, Oregon,
Let your spirit guide us through,
When we have marched to Victory,
Oregon, we will return to you.

At the conclusion of the Fourth of July parade in New York, the Elks lodge of that city presented each of the Oregon nurses with a specially-made life-preserver, prior to sailing. Their flag was dedicated the preceding day at the church, which George Washington attended for two years. The ceremonies are said to have been very beautiful and impressive.

WAR WORKERS TAKE REST

Marshfield Honor Girls Raise Funds for Relief of Soldiers.

MARSHFIELD, Or., July 13.—(Special).—The Marshfield Honor Guard girls, a uniformed unit, have ceased work for a short vacation on the seashore and are being chaperoned by Mesdames Claude Nasburg and D. A. Jones. The guard has made a fine record during the time they have been working at patriotic employment. Included in the money accumulated is $700 which they obtained from dances.

They have purchased a $50 liberty bond, assisted in office work in the various drives for war funds, donated $100 for war savings stamps, forwarded 500 dish towels to Fort Stevens, assisting Mrs. Ward M. Blake in canteen work at home, made 10,000 gun rags, and 100 gun cases, 1000 pan handlers, donated $50 to the Eleventh Company mess fund at Fort Stevens and are aiding the comfort work.

PERUNA TO EVERY LAND THE WORLD OVER

The goodness of Peruna reaches out to every land and to all people. Thousands have already testified to the merits of the remedy as a health-builder and protector and thousands more are today experiencing its healing influence.

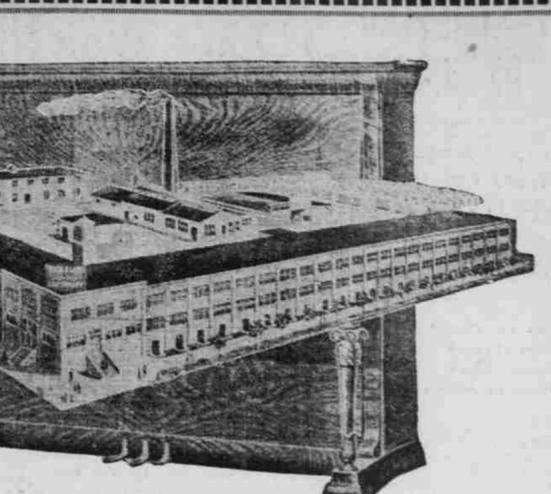

"There is Nothing Better Than PERUNA"

So says Mrs. Nora Barnes of 1204 Maple Ave., Los Angeles, California. Read her letter.

"I have taken Peruna for several years and find it to be a fine remedy to use at any season of the year. I cannot speak too highly of Peruna for it has done a vast amount of good for me. As a result, there is nothing better."

For forty-five years Peruna has been the standby in the American family for catarrh, both acute and chronic, coughs, colds, effects of grip, constipation, stomach and bowel disorders and all other complaints arising from a catarrhal condition of the mucous linings. It is a good remedy to have on hand for emergencies or to take constantly. Severe sickness may be frequently prevented by this practice.
