RAILS UTTERLY NEGLECTED

Unofficial Advices From Washington Indicate Early Announcement of Higher Taxes Coming on War Profits.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—The week-end session of the stock market was altogether superficial on extremely light dealings. The professional character of the trading was seen in the movement of such specularity issues as General Motors and Nova Scotia Steel, which gained 6½ and 7½ points, respectively.

Leaders recorded nominal advances at the outset, but these were mostly forfeited later. Unofficial advices from Washington indicated early announcement of higher taxes on war profits. A few equipments, tobaccos and offs made extreme gains of 1 to 2 points, but rails were utterly neglected.

DULLNESS RULES WALL STREET. Turnover for the Week Sald to Be Smallest

This Year. NEW YORK, Aug. 3 .- Characteristic mid-

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—characteristic mid-Summer duliness prevailed throughout this week's stock market operations, the turn-over for the five full sessions being the smallest of the year. War news and domestic events were con-structive in the main, but conflicting factors again presented themselves in the invest-ment market.

Rails were held back by the inexplicable

ment market.

Rails were held back by the inexplicable delay attending the settlement of contractual relations between the Government and the transportation companies, which caused delay attending the settlement of contractual relations between the Government and the transportation companies, which caused further deferment of dividend action.

In the industrial division the extromely favorable quarterly statement which accompanied the retention of the extra dividend on United States Steel was the outstanding feature.

Industrials as a group were rather irregular, and the failure of steel shares to make more definite headway was a source of disappointment in speculative circles.

Another indication of the public's indifference to good news was furnished by Southern Pacific's annual report, that stock barely moving a point in the face of unprecedented earnings.

Approval by Washington of the proposed loan to China, the decision of the administration to take decisive action in the Russian situation and the completion of preliminaries to stabilize Spanish exchange were included in the week's international developments.

CORN ADVANCES; OATS DECLINE. Week's Developments in Grain Markets

Attributed to Weather. CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—Lively jumps in corn prices this week have resulted from adverse crop reports and from a decided falling off in receipts. Compared with a week ago, the market this morning was 4%c to 3%c higher. Oats, however, were 1/2 to 3%c down. Provisions scored net gains of the 35c.

producing section would show corn crop de-preciation amounting to as much as 47 per cent. Reports that, owing to heat and dry-ness, the crop elsewhere had suffered a se-rious loss of condition were also given wide-apread notice, and it was said the total United States yield would be 140,000,000 bushels less than had been expected. Wel-come rains and cheering war news led after-ward to temporary partial setbacks in val-ues, but were more than offset later by car shortage complaints and by a notable abrinkage of the aupplies arriving from rural holders.

Larger hedging of the new crop forced oats down in value. Belated covering by shorts, though, caused a transient buillish flurry during the wind-up of the July de-In provisions the fact that values were nearing the legal maximum tended to re-strict business. The market, nevertheless, reflected the strength of corn and hogs.
