The Newest Apparel for Fall

Already MEIER & FRANK'S displays of new Fall apparel have reached such a stage as other stores will achieve only much later in the season—if at all. That is why women who are desirous of seeing and purchasing the new things whilst they are yet in the first flush of their newness should come to MEIER & FRANK'S to make selections. We have ready for those who come tomorrow new Fall dresses, suits and coats in fine array. We call to your special attention these featuring many handsome new models in satin, wool Jersey and serge.

New Fall Frocks

The most popular satin frocks are shown in black with touches of embroidery in pretty bright colors. Many have wide sashes trimmed with fringe.

The coat dress is a great favorite with the fashionable women of today. We have many new and decidedly different models in serge, tricotine and duvetyne. Navy leads in popularity.

One of the informal dinner dresses so eagerly sought is of black satin in straight-line effect with over-drape of Chantilly lace. Others of French gray Georgette with embroidery in self color and dark brown silk tricolette with dull gold embroidery.

The consensus of opinion is that Jersey frocks will be very popular for Fall wear. We show many smart models in tan, fawn, maroon, navy and soldier blue. Prices range from $25 to $85.

New Fall Suits—Unequaled Displays

Nothing could be more smart than the suit which is simple enough to be practical for morning wear, yet handsome enough to be suitable for more formal or dressy wear. We have a great stock of just such suits. Made of duvetyne, velour de laine, tricotine, broadcloth, Poiret twill and serge. All the most wanted colors. Decidedly chic are the new fur vests. One smart model has collar of Hudson seal, which may be worn open or closed over the vestee. Many are trimmed with hand cording and numerous buttons. Moderately priced, quality considered, $35 to $85.
