THOUSANDS OF ELKS TO ATTEND REUNION

Almost Every City in Oregon Will Be Represented at State Convention.

EVENING FROLIC AT OAKS

Meeting Will Be Officially Opened on Monday Night, August 26, With Public Demonstration at Auditorium.

Elks from every city in Oregon and from many of the Washington cities be in Portland next week to attend the first annual convention of the Oregon State Elks' Association, in ses-sion three days, August 26, 27 and 28. Four members of Portland Lodge No. 142, representing the Oregon State Elks'

Association, have returned from the an-nual meeting of the Washington State Elks' Association held in Tacoma last week. These members are K. K. Kubli, week. These members are K. K. Kubli, Harry G. Allen, Exalted Ruler Charles Ringler and E. C. Dolbin. The dele-gates report that all of the cities in the Norwegians to Hold Sangersouthwestern part of Washington will send delegations and in addition Seattle and Tacoma will be represented by the

and Tacoma will be represented by the officers of the lodge and members.

The convention will be officially opened at the Public Auditorium on Monday night, when the delegates and visitors will be welcomed to Portland by Mayor George L. Baker on behalf of the city and by Exalted Ruler Ringler on behalf of Portland lodge.

Louis Simpson to Speak.

Dr. W. S. Kennedy, president of the state association, will respond and Louis J. Simpson, of Marshfield, will make a patriotic address. Appropriate music will be furnished and a patriotic surprise has been arranged by the com-mittee for the entertainment of the thousands of Elks and their friends who are expected to attend the open-ing ceremonies. This is the only meet-ing during the convention which is ing during the convention which is epen to non-members.

Registration headquarters will be established at the Eiks' Temple. Uniformed reception squads will meet all delegations that arrive on Monday morning, which has been set aside for registration of delegates and visitors. Credentials and badges will be supplied at the registration headquarters.

at the registration headquarters.
On Monday afternoon automobiles will be furnished to take the visitors over the Columbia River Highway. Many of the lodges in the various cities throughout the state are arranging to establish headquarters in the downtown hotels, where the activities of the individual delegations will be directed during the convention.

Frolic Planned at Oaks.

The first business session of the convention will be held in Elks' Temple on Tuesday morning and on Wednesday morning the final session will be held, when election of officers and selection of the next convention city will be in fight for the next convention, although the success of securing the next annual meeting has not been conceded to this city as yet, because several other cities are said to be actively in the race in competition.

Tuesday night will be the grand patriotic parade, in which every lodge in the state and many Washington lodges will take part. Each lodge will carry its service flag, and many of the cities will be represented by bands. Following the parade, the Elks will be entertained at an "open house" at the Elks' Tem-

A visit to Vancouver cantonment is in store for the visitors on Tuesday afternoon. In addition to an inspection of the cantonments, 500 troops will pass in review by special arrangements made by Colonel Van Way.

The programme Wednesday after-noon has not been definitely determined but on Wednesday night the Oaks Park has been chartered for the exclusive use of Elks and their families.

FLIER SURVIVES WAR PERILS TO DIE AT STUDENT CAMP.

Stanley Glendenning, Portland Boy, After Two Years at Front, Falls at Training School.

News was received in Portland Wednesday of the death of Stanley Giendenning, a former Portland boy, who, after flying for two years on the French battlefront without any mishaps, lost his life while giving a demonstration to students at the British aviation school near Teronto, Ontario, Canada

Stanley Glendenning was the stepson of C. E. Wilson, of the firm of Wilson & Wilson, undertakers, of Piedmont. He was 22 years of age. Two years ago he went to Canada, and after a ago he went to Canada, and after a short course in training was assigned to the first Dominion aviation contingent and sent to the battlefront, later receiving the rank of a Lieutenant. For two years he was with the British army, flying over the Hun lines and securing valuable information.

Later he was sent to the United States as one of the instructors at the American aviation camp at Calerto.

EVENT AN IMPORTANT ONE

Two Hundred Trained Voices, Under Competent Leadership, to Be Heard in Programmes at Public Auditorium.

The Pacific Coast Norwegian Singers Association will hold its annual convention and Sangerfest, with hall concerts, in the Public Auditorium August 21 and September 1 and 2.

This is the annual gathering of male singers of the states of Washington, California and Oregon, the purpose of which is to foster patriotism, good-fellowship and culture as expressed in and interpreted through the best songs of Norway and also America.

Male chorus singing is a particular heritage of Scandinavia. Sweden, Denmark and Norway all have highly developed singing organizations. In their native lands they have midsummer "Sangerstevne" (song rendezvous), The Pacific Coast Norwegian Singers mer "Sangerstevne" (song rendezvous), corresponding in a measure to the famous "Elsteddfod" of Wales and Brittany, which is an assembly of bards and others held annually for the cultivation of national music and literary interests of people of Welsh descent.

Meetings Stimulate Genius. Some of the finest songs and poems breathing the free spirit of the unconAndreas Munch, the elegiac poet, Wel-haven, as well as Norway's greatest poets, Bjornstjerne Bjornson, Henrik Ibsen and Jonas Lie, have written songs that have thrilled their countrymen for near a century. Through these songs these composers have perhaps done more than anyone else to bind into firm and lasting companionship the Norse people.

To these songs great composers like Kjerulf, Sinding, Nordraak, Lindeman, Kjerulf, Sinding, Nordraak, Lindeman, Waldemar Thrane, Conradi Behrens, O. A. Grondahl, F. A. Reissiger, Lammers, Iver Hoiter, Ole Bull, Cappelen, Agathe Grondahl, Johannes Haarklou, Johan Halvorsen, Per Lasson, Ole Olsen, Johan Selmer, Johan Svendsen, Per Winge, Norway's most famous composer, Eduard Grieg, all have written exquisite music.

Two hundred trained voices, under the leadership of Robert Moller, of Se-attle, will render programmes worthy of the best traditions of Norway's musical past.

Alfred Halvorsen, baritone, of Seattle, and Cora Hansen-Oisen, colorature soprano, will render solos at the
